Break Her Will. Quincy, Ill., Dec. 23.-The will which left to Charles Orchardson, late of Chicago, $65,000 in money and real estate property of the late Minerva Merrick-Orchardson, was this evening declared to be null and void by a jury in the circuit court. The suit to break the will was brought by Eliza Solomon, of Chicago, and Amelia Coffeld, of Denver, heirs of the deceased, on the grounds that undue influence had been exercised over Mrs. Merrick-Orchardson in its execution.

They succeeded in proving that Orchardson, who was Vera Ava's right hand man up to the time of her arrest. by the aid of his confidential friend and medium, William Boyer, held seances and made Mrs. Merrick, who was a spiritualist, believe that the spirit of her dead husband commanded her to marry him and make a will leaving him her entire estate, which she did, in spite of the fact that she was 84 years old when she married the 54-years-old Or-government has purchased the rulee mansion on Connecticut avenue, oppo-site the British embassy, to be used as a legation and a home for the Austrian minister, Ladislaus Hengelmulier von Hengervar. The price wes $80,000. The Austrian legation is at present located in leased quarters on Rhode Island avenue. This is the fourth of the foreign governments in this city which has ac-quired property here. For a good many years England was the only country that owned property in this city, but quite recently one country after another has found it advisable o procure a permanent legation, and it quite probable that others will follow in the same line. Germany owns its embassy on Massachusetts avenue, and the Mexican legation on I street is own-

Fourth Foreign Government to Purchase an American Home. Washington, Dec. 23.—The Austrian

THIEVES DEMAND RANSOM.

To Spare His Wife an Aged Husband Gave Them $95.

Uniontown, Pa., Dec. 23.—Thomas Martindale and wife, an aged couple, residing near here, were bound, gagged and robbed of all their posessions by a gang of masked burgiars last night. The victims of the outrage were quietly sitting by the fire when five men forced open the door and sprang upon them. Mr. Martindale was listening to his wife, who was reading from the Bible. The thieves threatened to burn the old lady's feet if she refused to reveal where they kept their money.

This she refused to do, but her husband told where their money was secreted. The robbers secured $95 and left the house. It was evident that the intruders were familiar with the femiintruders were familiar with the family's affairs as they demanded $600 which had been paid to the old gentleman on Thursday, but which he fortunately had deposited in bank.

NO DAMAGES ALLOWED.

Young Keegan Cannot Receive Money for His Broken Limb. An interesting case was ended yes terday morring by an opinion handed down by Judge Woodward. Edward Keegan brought suit for damages igainst the county commissioners of Luzerne county for injuries received by his eight-year-old son, William, on February 24, 1891, through the alleged negligence of the county commissioners The boy, William, then 8 years of age, was going home from school. As he approached the West Market street entrance of the court house yard a parade was passing around the square. In order to get a better view of the parade, he made an effort to climb up one of the iron fence posts which then stood at the Market street entrance. In doing this he took hold of, or touched, the ornamental urn which strmounted the post, at the height of eight feet from the ground, and it gave way. In falling it struck the boy and broke one of his legs. For damages for this injury and for medical attendance, etc., the suit was brought. Judge Woodward, in a lengthy and able opinion, holds that the boy was a trespasser in endeavoring to climb the fence post. The post was not put there for any such purpose. The ground, and it gave way. In falling it again. county did not owe to this lad the duty of maintaing the post, or the ornament on top of it, in such order and repair as to afford him a safe perch. The boy produced the injury complained of himself by putting the fence post to a us

Mrs. Caspar's Funeral.

Sorrowing friends gathered yesterday afternoon to pay the last sad tribute of respect to Mrs. Rachael Caspar. The funeral, one of the largest seen in some time, occurred from her late home, 91 West River street. The handsome floral offerings almost covered the casket. The services were conducted by Rabbi Fierlicht, of Scranton, and Rabbi Cap-

Fierlicht, of Scranton, and Rabbi Cap-lon, of the Welles street synagogue. The pall-bearers were: Moses Wolf, B. L. Godfried, Harry Salsburg, David Salsburg, Lewis Lewith, Simon Stakol-sky. Mr. Mooney had charge and in-terment was made in the Darling street

Mr. William Thornton, of 127 W. Market Street, Explains How and

Why He Did It.

[From the Elmira Gazette.] Old age has many infirmities, none of which are more prevalent than kid-ney disorders. Have you ever noticed how the old people complain of back-ache, lame back, and general listlessness? And there are many other symp-toms of which they do not speak, such as bloating of the limbs, painful and infrequent urination or excessiveness of urinary discharge. Most people think they are too old to find relief and cure, but this is not so. No better evidence than the following, which comes from an Elmira citizen, who has been cured of a very severe case at 77 years of age. an Elmira citizen, who has been cured of a very severe case at 77 years of age. Mr. Wm. Thornton, of 127 West Market street, speaks of his case in this way: "I am 77 years old. I have been affilicted with that dreadful complaint (kidney disease) for over ten years, making my old age a burden. I was so bad as to be forced to carry a bek at all times, and, when my suffering became beyond endurance, I would put on the belt, drawing it tightly around became beyond endurance. I would put on the belt, drawing it tightly around me and buckle it, thus bringing an extreme pressure over the kidneys; this, undoubtedly forced the urine out, a function which the kidneys themselves had become too diseased to perform. My condition I put down to a strain I received. I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. After two or three days I notices their effect. I was much surprised, as the ailment was so severe and so long standing, while I had tried many remedies without anyrelief whatever. The pain I have experienced at times from straining in my efforts to discharge the urine was simply awful. I have done away with the use of my leather belt, and the pain has all gone, and I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all afflicted with kidney and urinary disorders."

WILL NOT HEAR INGERSOLL.

Missouri University Students Led to Change Their Plans. Columbia, Mo., Dec. 23.—The senior law class of the state university has deelded that it will not have an address by Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll at its next commencement. It was a general surprise, as it had been announced only a few days ago that the class was confident of winning in its fight for the great agnostic. The primary cause of the change is the influence of Judge Martin, dean of the law department, and Judge Yantis. of the law faculty. Judge Yantis has a friend in every law student, and when he had an interview in his office with several members of the senior class, the personal appeals he made were not
