NUMBER OF SMALL CASES They Were Held Yesterday in Quarter Sessions Court. THE TRIAL OF ISAAC LEWIS He Was Charged with Assaulting Miss Bombaugh, but He Denied Having Been Guilty of Such an Offense. Other Cases Called Up.

Criminal court adjourned yesterday afternoon until tomorrow morning at 9:30. Judge Purdy will spend Christmas at home in Honesdale and Judge McClure will enjoy the feast with friends in Scranton. The case of the commonwealth against John Baldauff, which was called at adjournment Monday, was resumed in the main court room yesterday morning. Oscar Freeman was the prosecutor. The evidence was circumstantial, but the jury found the defendant guilty and recommended him to the mercy of the court. He was charged with stealing two guns and a horse pistol from Mr. Freeman. District Attorney Jones represented the commonwealth and Attorney Hulslander, the defendant. Isaac Lewis was tried for assault and battery upon Carrie Bombaugh, of Center street. District Attorney Jones was on the side of the commonwealth and Attorney W. H. Lewis on the other side. The allegation of the prosecutrix was that on July 3 last she was standing in the doorway of her home about 6 o'clock in the evening when Lewis and a companion came along and addressed insulting remarks to her, at the same time laying violent hands upon her. She related the incident in the following manner: "I was standing on the sidewalk, talking to three men; one of them asked him what he thought of Miss Bombaugh and Lewis said he made some complimentary reply, which caused her to raise her hand and strike him a slap in the face."

As a matter of precaution, he said, he did not turn the other cheek, but he pushed her away to hinder her from continuing her slaps. While they were thus engaged the prosecutrix's father came out with a iron bar three feet long in his hand and he hit Lewis on the head with it, fracturing his derby hat and inflicting a large cut in the scalp, from which blood flowed copiously. Lewis contended that the suit was brought through fear that he would have Bombaugh arrested for striking him with the hat.

Bombaugh admitted that he struck Lewis, but said he did it in self defense, that they were going to pile onto him and had struck him several times. The jury went out a few minutes before adjournment and agreed upon a verdict which will be handed into court tomorrow morning. In No. 2 the case of Michael and Bridget Day against Hubert and Mary Duggan, all the parties being from Meridian street, Bellevue, was resumed yesterday morning. They are or were then neighbors and some difficulty arose which caused a scuffle in which the Days were worsted. The jury took a recess at the view of the case and acquitted the defendants but directed them to pay the costs. Attorneys Joseph O'Brien and D. J. Reedy represented the commonwealth and the judge W. H. Stuart, the defendants.

Richard Davis and George Sidler, two Carbondale young men were tried before Judge McClure, charged with assault and battery on Hal Torrance, Jr., on the night of July 16 last. Attorney R. J. Stuart, of Carbondale, was engaged with Assistant District Attorney John M. Harris for the commonwealth and the defendants' attorney was Joseph O'Brien. Claimed It Was a Collision. On the night in question Mr. Torrance was coming down the Delaware and Archbald streets, near Archbald street, Carbondale, and, as alleged without any provocation, he was set upon by three young fellows of whom the defendant was one. He ran from their attack but they followed him and overtook him resumed their assault and battery. The defense was that Mr. Torrance had come along the tracks running parallel with them and that they did not assault or batter him at all. The jury found a verdict of acquittal and placed one-half of the costs on the defendants and the other half on the prosecutor.

Isaac Hamilton, of Carbondale, was tried before Judge Purdy, charged with stealing a watch from M. J. Stone, District Attorney Jones represented the commonwealth and Attorney George M. Watson the defendant. The two parties in the case are young men and last May they worked at the American House in Carbondale. On the night of the alleged robbery the prosecutor retired to bed with his clothes on. When he awoke in the morning he was partially undressed and his watch was not in his clothes. Hamilton was immediately charged with taking the watch and testified he replied that the watch rolled out of Stone's pocket on the floor and seeing it there that he picked it up and put it on a shelf in a closet in the room. The prosecutor alleged that the watch was returned to the closet after the defendant found out that he was charged with robbery; but that it was Hamilton's intention to steal the watch, except that fear of being caught with it in his possession actuated him to replace it and then contended that it was found on the floor. The jury retired to find a verdict at 3 o'clock. Shortly before 4 o'clock the jury returned with a verdict of not guilty.

Charged with Taking Money. John Priesdale, alias William Devler, was on trial before Judge McClure when court adjourned, charged with the theft of about $250 from Joseph Cassese, the proprietor of the Roman hotel on Lackawanna avenue. The money was taken last August while Mr. Cassese was enjoying a vacation at Atlantic City. The evidence of the commonwealth was circumstantial, no one having seen Trisculo take the money. The commonwealth rested before court adjourned for the day. In the case of Mary Fanning, charged by Kate McDonnell with being a common scold, a verdict of not guilty was taken and the prosecutrix directed to pay the costs. Cornelius Sullivan failed to appear to prosecute John Madigan on charges of malicious mischief and assault and battery and verdicts of not guilty were taken. The prosecutor was directed to pay the costs. John Elderkin called at the Tribune office yesterday and stated that the report published in the papers of the case in which his wife was defendant did her an injustice. It was a simple case of assault and battery, he said and was not brought about by an intimation of embezzlement as the newspaper reports would seem to indicate.

SOME NEW MEASURES. Mayor Connell Gives His Approval to Several Important Bills. Mayor Connell yesterday signed the ordinance providing for a lateral sewer on the east side of the alley between Wyoming and Washington avenues, extending from New York to Marion street. Resolutions which were also approved were directing the city clerk to present W. H. Mayer, city engineer of Pittston, with a copy of Torrey's digest, directing the city engineer to make plans for an estimate of cost of a bridge over Starford Meadow brook at Irving avenue, for plans for the improvement of Mattes street by laying granite sidewalks and paving gutters between Lackawanna avenue and the Cedar avenue bridge; permitting the city collector to make city liens security for persons advancing money to pay assessments for paving and like improvements. This last mentioned resolution was passed at the suggestion of Mr. Torrey. During his incumbency in the office of city collector he has been frequently requested to transfer the city's lien for security to persons loaning ready cash to property holders for assessments for public improvements. Mr. Torrey had no authorization to do this, but believing it to be a wise and judicious plan, recommended it to council, which also saw the benefit of the measure and adopted it.

SOCIAL EVENTS OF WEEK. The House Parties, Receptions and Balls Arranged for. A list of the formal social affairs for which invitations have been issued shows that during holiday week and the few days following will include a continuous stream of functions. To these must be added a few more informal affairs which have not been made known but which will engage the attention and attendance of the city's best social circle. At all events society seems bound to be on the move for ten days beginning today. Tomorrow night Mrs. Ida M. Albro will give a dancing party at her home, 815 Jefferson avenue, for her daughter. The same night Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Smith will give a dancing party at their home, corner of Olive street and Jefferson avenue. Mr. Smith's niece, the Misses Sprague. The Excelsior Social club will give the most elaborate social event they have conducted for far this season on Thursday night. On Friday night the second assembly will be held at the Scranton Bicycle club house. Saturday appears to be the best day for formal events and is announced, and whatever happens will be informal house and family parties. Mrs. N. Y. Lee will on Monday give a tea for Miss Whitmore, of 815 Jefferson street. Mrs. J. J. Williams, of Auburn, N. Y.; Miss Dickerson, of Brooklyn, and Miss White, of New York. On the same day, from 4 to 6 o'clock, Mrs. E. B. Sturges gives a tea for the Misses Waterman, of Southport, Conn. On Monday night Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Parke give a dancing party for their daughter, Miss Bessie Parke. Tuesday night occurs the Bachelors' ball, an event long anticipated and which overhauls all also during holiday week. It is really the event of the year and will be attended by many from out-of-town who are now visiting in Scranton or who will come from Wilkes-Barre, Honesdale, Carbondale, and other nearby cities and towns. The Bachelors' committee is encouraged by last year's success and has spent neither work nor expense in its effort to make the 1895 ball the most elaborate affair of its kind ever given in this city. That the effort is appreciated is shown by the comment and preparation in progress, all of which indicates that the Frothingham will be packed. On New Year's day Mrs. J. J. Williams, of Sanderson avenue, will give a tea for her daughter, Miss Grace Williams. Mrs. Calvin Seybolt and the Misses Seybolt will give a reception Thursday, Jan. 2, from 4 to 6 and 8 to 11 o'clock at their home, 417 Jefferson avenue.

COLONEL WATTERSON COMING Will Lecture in This City on Lincoln for the Oral School. The management of the Oral School for the Deaf has secured the famous Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, for a lecture at the Frothingham on Jan. 17. Colonel Watterson's subject will be "Lincoln." His treatment of this subject created no small furor in Chicago down and proofs of the loss were sent to the company's office. The policy was not paid and Mr. Walsh brought suit. When the case came to trial the court granted a compulsory non suit on the ground that H. E. Paine & Son had no authority to waive the condition contained in the policy which declared that "if any change takes place in the interest, title or possession of the subject of the insurance, whether by legal process or judgment, or by voluntary of the insured, or otherwise, the policy shall be void." Judge Archbald now holds that the act of the agent in telling Mr. Walsh that the policy was all right was binding on the company the same as if Mr. Walsh had gone to the home office and had given the same information, and in such a case the company would be bound. In a matter of this kind, the opinion says, the agent who issues policies and places the risks is himself the company. It is with him alone that those who take out policies are brought in contact and with him alone they deal, and for anything done which falls within the apparent scope of the agency, the company should be held. The non suit, Judge Archbald says, was improperly entered and must be taken off. The case will now be tried again. RHEUMATISM is caused by lactic acid in the blood. CHRISTMAS EXERCISES. Conducted Last Night by the Grace Lutheran Sunday School. Christmas exercises were held by the Sunday school at Grace Lutheran church last night in the Young Men's Christian association building. The programme rendered consisted of carols, recitations by Edie Shimer and Pearl Linker, a dialogue by eight little girls, a Christmas greeting by Charles Haas, a song by Clara Haas and an address by the pastor, Rev. Foster E. Gift. The musical numbers were under the direction of Miss Linder, the organist, and included several selections by the church quartette. A large number of appropriate gifts and candy and nuts were distributed. The Sunday school offering was received and will be devoted to the church building fund. LAWYERS Who are contemplating taking up cases to the Superior or Supreme Court will find that the facilities of our office to quickly set their copy into type will cause them far more uneasiness than by giving it to a small concern that cannot serve them with more than twelve pages a day. One hundred pages in twenty-four hours is only an ordinary day's work for our machines, and it will be done while you are at sleep if needed. Do not let this be forgotten. You cannot afford to be bothered with proofs continuously, but rather have your work done where the whole book (evidence included) can be submitted at once. The Tribune job department can do this without extra effort. NON SUIT TAKEN OFF. Judge Archbald's Opinion in Case Against Insuring House Insurance Company. Judge Archbald handed down an opinion yesterday taking off the non suit entered in the case of James Walsh against the Dwellers' House Insurance company. Mrs. Mary Walsh, of Dunmore, insured her house for $1,200. She died in May, 1892, and a month later her son James, who had been appointed executor of her estate, went to the office of H. E. Paine & Son, agents of the company, and informed them of the death of his mother and the fact that he was the executor. Mr. Paine informed Mr. Walsh that it was all right, that it was not necessary to do anything until the policy should expire; then he could take out in his own name. On April 3, 1893, before the policy had run out, the house burned

Well, If you don't know what to buy for Christmas presents, and will take my advice, you will pay a visit to China Hall. I felt as you do—not knowing what to buy or where to go to buy it. I went to Weichel & Millar's, and saw so many things that were useful as well as ornamental, that it was a real pleasure instead of labor in making my selections. They have so many little conceits, such as Trinket Sets, Comb and Brush Trays, Flower Vases, Ink Sets, Jardinieres, 5 o'clock Tea Kettles, Chafing Dishes—no end to Lamps, and Onyx Top Tables, Dinner Sets in open stock. It is surprising how cheap you can buy a nice set when you can select such pieces as you need and not have to pay for a lot of pieces that you do not need; and such a line of Libbey's Famous Cut Glass, artistic Rockwood, which you will find nowhere else in the city.
