

CARBONDALE.

DEATH'S GRIM HARVEST.

Three Prominent Persons Pass Away During the Day.

The presence of death shadowed many homes yesterday, three prominent persons passing away. Among these were Mrs. John Campbell, who died very suddenly yesterday morning at 9.30 at her home on Terrace street.

Mrs. Campbell was 81 years of age and was born in New Port, Luzerne county. In 1857 she was married to John Campbell at Beaver Meadow. A few years later they moved to this city, which has been her home for the last fifty-four years. Her husband died thirteen years ago. Mrs. Campbell, during her long residence here, had made many friends, who will greatly regret her demise.

She is survived by two sons and three daughters, Robert, James, and Angus Cameron, Mrs. William Dunstan and Mrs. George Davis. The funeral will take place Monday.

CLOSED BY THE SHERIFF.

The store of John K. Shepherd to be sold Next Month.

At the instance of W. W. Bronson, the store of John K. Shepherd, at the corner of Church street and Lincoln avenue, has been closed and the stock will be sold on Jan. 2.

The store was first conducted under the name of Shepherd & Kenworthy. After the business had been closed by the sheriff the first time, Mr. Kenworthy retired and Mr. Shepherd continued the business. He expects that all the creditors will be satisfied and hopes to have the store open again soon.

Death of Daniel Markey.

After a brief illness of peritonitis, Daniel P. Markey, died at his home No. 161 Dundaght street, Mr. Markey was in the best of health until Sunday evening, when he was taken with the trouble which caused his death.

Mr. Markey was born in this city in January, 1871. He was a trusted employee of the Delaware and Hudson canal company and worked in their locomotive shop. Being of a cheerful disposition and kindly nature, the deceased was a great favorite with all and will be greatly missed by his fellow workmen and companions.

He is survived by his mother, two sisters and two brothers. They are Mrs. John Kilgallon, Mrs. Mary Markey and Richard and Charles Markey. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon and interment will be made in St. Rose cemetery.

Mrs. Chamberlin Dead.

At her home on North Church street Mrs. George F. Chamberlin died Thursday afternoon at 4 P. M.

Mrs. Chamberlin was born in Merryall, Bradford county, Pa., on April 29, 1847. On Jan. 12, 1879 she was united in marriage to George F. Chamberlin. About four years ago the family moved to this city and during her short residence here the deceased has made many friends to whom her death will be a great shock.

The deceased was a lady of charming disposition and though all her sufferings here up with Christian fortitude. Her husband, a son, George Edward, and a daughter, Nellie, survive. She is also mourned by her sister, Mrs. J. P. Ackerly, of this city.

The remains will be taken to Wyalusing on the 12th Delaware and Hudson train and interment will be made in the cemetery at that place.

The A. O. H. Meet.

The following officers were elected by the Ancient Order of Hibernians to serve for the ensuing year: President, John P. Collins; vice-president, P. F. Brennan; recording secretary, P. F. Loftus; financial secretary, P. F. Moran; treasurer, E. J. Dougherty; sergeants-at-arms, T. Savage; guard, P. H. Dugan. It was decided at the meeting to hold a banquet Jan. 29, in Burke's hall, which will be the most elaborate affair of the season.

Constable's Sale.

Yesterday morning at 10 o'clock Constable Hartman sold the store of Anthony Cooke, of Pike street, at public sale. The seizure took place at the instance of Lynch & Bronson, who have a claim of $500. The entire stock was secured by P. H. Murray, an administrator of the estate of the late Mr. Cooke, as was one of $120, which comprised the wages of Miss Kate Cooke, a lady clerk.

A Quiet Wedding.

A quiet wedding was celebrated at the Presbyterian parsonage Thursday evening, two well-known residents of the city being united. The ceremony occurred at half-past five and the contracting parties were Charles Plath, brewer of No. 4 on the Gravity, and Miss Annie Temple, of Copeland avenue. The wedding was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wylie. The newly married couple will take up their residence on Jeffrey street.

Another Mine.

Among the new openings that have been made in this vicinity lately is one on the Albright tract to the east of the city. The opening is at a point midway between the Canaan road and the trestle on the Highland colliery railroad and the men have already gone into the hills about forty feet. The work is being pushed rapidly and when opened will give employment to a large force of men.

PERSONAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

Henry Moses, of Scranton, who has been visiting his uncle, S. Singer, of South Main street, for the past week, returns home today.

John Bell, of Providence, is visiting friends in this city.

Mrs. Michael Hartle, of Brooklyn street, left yesterday for Brooklyn, N. Y., where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. P. Lamb.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hammon, of Hartford, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. W. Leavy.

Misses Marie and Margie Collican and Edna Kleece, of Archbold, spent Thursday with Mrs. Loretta Cox, of the West Side.

Charles Rogers, of South Main street, is ill of diphtheria.

Marion Mills entertained a few of her friends yesterday afternoon at her home on Lincoln avenue. Those present were HOLIDAY SPECIALTIES.

We have a line of Fancy Rocking Chairs, Tables, Umbrella Stands and Screens. Along with our regular line of Rugs, Carpet Sweepers and Mops. Carpets in the city. PRICES ALWAYS THE LOWEST. J. SCOTT INGLIS 40 LACKAWANNA AVE.

PITTSTON.

the Misses Eleanor Jones, Nina Raynor, Hattie Jackson, Grace Atkinson, Sarah Burr, Minnie Herbert, Grace Powell, Lucy Westlake, Cora Giles and Ethel Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hallock and daughter, Mac, spent Christmas with friends in Pittston. Miss Esther Morgan, of Scranton, who has been visiting friends in this city the past few days, has returned home.

Mrs. George Van Keuren, of Passaic, N. J., is visiting friends in this city. Private Mackey, of Forest City, was a visitor in town Thursday.

Rev. J. V. Moylan, of Hazleton, and J. A. Martin, of Fairview, are guests of Mr. W. H. Lefferts.

William Penick, of Moscow, who has been spending the holidays with his parents in this city, has returned to his home.

Republican primary election tonight. James Powderly, of Terrace street, an employee of the Gravity railroad, met with a painful accident Tuesday. His high top shoes caught between the bumpers and quite badly bruised.

PRICEBURG.

The Dickson Brewing company are building an annex to their plant on Main street.

Mrs. J. E. O'Hara, of North Main street, is visiting friends in Plymouth. The Polish fair re-opened Thursday evening and was largely attended. A special feature of last evening's entertainment was the singing of St. Thomas' choir, under the leadership of our well-known undertaker, Edward Burke.

Miss Lily Palmer, of the Mansfield State Normal school, is spending her Christmas vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Palmer, of Carmel street.

Constable Richard Barron was a visitor in the Electric City last evening. Several of our young people attended Andrew Mack's "Myles Aroom" last evening.

M. E. Fadden was a caller in Scranton yesterday. George Conine, our popular grocer, is seriously ill of typhoid pneumonia.

The Griffins' store team became frightened while standing in front of Johnson's store Thursday and started on a mad race down Main street and ran up Steers avenue, across Albert street, down to the back track to Griffins' barn, where they stopped. The wagon was demolished and one of the horses injured.

Miss Emma J. Williams, of Lincoln street, returned last evening after a week's visit with friends in Yorkville. The funeral of the late Mrs. Thompson, who died on Christmas night, will be held tomorrow at 2 P. M. The remains will be taken to the Christian church in Providence and then to their last resting place in Dunmore cemetery.

Walter Scott, Marie Barrett, Frank Wilford, Henry Kies and Thomas Dolphin, all members of the newly organized debating society, attended "Myles Aroom" last evening. The subject of their next debate will be chosen from this play.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Lloyd returned yesterday after spending Christmas with the parents of the latter in Taylor. Mrs. Jerome Johnson, of Troy, N. Y., is seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Taylor, on Carmel street.

OLYPHANT.

The fair of St. Patrick's church congregation is attracting large crowds nightly. For this evening's entertainment a dialogue entitled "On a Strike" will be rendered. Following is the cast of characters: Blanche, the chairman, Genevieve, Miss Stella, her sister, Sadie, Rogan, May, Annie McLoughlin, Maggie, May Brogan, Selma, Mary Marlane, Isabel, Lizzie Moran, Baby Frank, Eddie O'Halloran, Nellie, Mary Egan, Annie, Mary East, Josie, Jennie, Gilchrist, Joy, Marie McDonnell, Grief, Catherine Glyde, Lutz Spiel Overture; duet, Misses A. Loftus and S. Rogan.

Rev. Peter Roberts has resumed his charge of the Congregational church here and will occupy the pulpit tomorrow morning and evening.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows lodge of this place will celebrate the thirtieth anniversary of their organization in their rooms on Lackawanna street Monday evening.

When Joseph, of Tallapoosa, Ga., is visiting friends on Willow street. W. J. Sweeney spent yesterday at Archbold.

Harry Badell, of Newark, N. J., has returned home after a week's visit at this place.

Miss Lela Parsons, of Philadelphia, is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Watts, on the West Side.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. W. C. into Mrs. Mary Coggins, wife of Richard Coggins, who died on Wednesday evening at her home on Dunmore street, were interred in the Catholic cemetery yesterday afternoon.

MONTOSE.

Will Hulford returned from a visit to Scranton Thursday evening. The Christian Endeavor convention meets in Montrose next week. Great preparations are being made for its reception.

Christmas was like a day in May. The many Sunday school trees were all a great success. The professional at the occasion, and the singing throughout was exceedingly fine.

Dr. Mackey, who was a resident of Montrose for several years, paid the town a visit last week.

Daniel Stark is spending the holidays with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris, of Montclair, N. J., and daughter, Margery, are visiting Mrs. Harris' father, on Lake avenue.

Prof. James, principal of the Montrose school, entertained the senior class at his pleasant home, assisted by Mrs. Jones and Miss Winters. The evening was delightfully spent in games and charades and refreshments were served.

Edgar Turrell, of New York city, passed Christmas with his mother, Rev. H. H. Kneller, of Princeton, was visiting friends here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniels, of Yonkers, are visiting at the home of Frederick Naylor.

PITTSTON.

The Pittston office of the Scranton Tribune, located at No. 5 William street, where all advertisements, orders for job work and items for publication will receive prompt attention. Office open from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m.]

Mr. Coe Finch, of Dunmore, outside foreman at No. 8 colliery, of the Pennsylvania Coal company, on Christmas eve was the recipient of a beautiful gold headed cane, appropriately engraved. The unexpected gift from the miners and laborers of No. 8 colliery, was tendered him as an unanimous recognition of his efficiency as foreman. The occasion of the presentation was one of rare enjoyment and general good fellowship to be long remembered by those who were present.

The exercises were held at the club house on South Main street. Mr. Alexander Thompson, the big-hearted and popular inside foreman of No. 8 colliery, in brief and well chosen remarks made the presentation in behalf of the men. Mr. Finch made a very happy speech in accepting the gift. He said it was a big surprise to him as he came to town only a few days ago. He highly appreciated the gift not only for its intrinsic value but would also cherish it as a symbol that would ever remind him of the harmony and good fellowship existing between himself and the men of No. 8. Refreshments consisting of the choicest delicacies of the holiday season were served and a pleasing program of vocal and instrumental music was rendered.

The gathering broke up at a seasonable hour when Mr. Finch gave each and every one a hearty shake and wished them a merry Christmas and a happy New Year. Mr. Finch took the late train for his home in Dunmore.

The Lazorne Hook and Ladder company and Avoca Hose company were in attendance at the Hookies Swiss fair that is going on in Armory hall, last evening. A large and varied assortment of toys and rendered some very pretty music.

The funeral of John Cavley, of Broad street, who died Christmas eve, took place yesterday afternoon and was very largely attended. Interment was made in Market street cemetery.

On Thursday evening an aged man named John Langan slipped and fell on the sidewalk spraining his ankle. He was taken to the hospital and said that his home was in Dunmore.

Anthony Golden, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who is spending the holidays at his home in Dunmore, spent last evening in this city with his brother, Bernard Golden.

Pete McDonald proprietor of the Key-stone restaurant, is seriously ill.

Thomas E. Shea appeared last evening in "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" and delighted a very large audience in his many changes upon the stage.

The Grand Old Club held a private social in Eagle hall last evening and a very enjoyable time was spent for a few hours in dancing.

Miss Aggie Lynn returned last evening after spending Christmas at her home in Scranton.

The Butler company's store is closed for a few days while their annual inventory is being made.

The work on the Scranton and Pittston Traction company's road is now almost completed. The rails and wire are up as far as Fulton street. The rails arrived yesterday and will be put down at the crossings of the Erie and Wyoming Valley railroads on William and Broad streets and it is thought the cars will be running in about a week.

Pittston Business Directory. FOR THE YEAR 1895. PUBLISHED BY WRIGHT & CO., 97 SOUTH MAIN STREET. A new range for sale or exchange; also second-hand household goods, bought or sold.

WYOMING. Miss Annie Bainbridge, of Parsons, and Miss Mamie Bainbridge, of this place, have gone to Nuremberg to spend a week with the latter's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott.

The exercises of the West Side Methodist Episcopal Sunday school were held Christmas night. The church was so crowded that a part of the audience who came could not find standing room. Beginning promptly at 7 o'clock the following programme was carried out: An address by the chairman, J. C. the committee, Latin Melody chorus, "Come Holidays All," recitation, "New Year's Day and Four Seasons," Nellie Wilner, Besse Bainbridge, Josie Giberson, Elsie Rogelle, Flora Ross, solo, "Valentine's Day," Mamie Bainbridge; recitation, "Washington's Birthday," Bessie Bennett; "Hatchet Boy," George Solomon, chorus, "America," recitation, "Children's Day," by Ella Rogelle; recitation, "The Children's Sabbath," recitation, "Independence Day," Thomas Greenfield; chorus, "Hall, Hall Fourth of July," recitation, "Thanksgiving Day," Miss Mamie Greenfield; duet, "The Turkey in the Oven," Mamie Greenfield and Bessie Bennett; recitation, "Christmas Day," Peter Sussner; recitation, "Christmas in Heaven," Lillie Hill; song, "We Are Little 'Tinsy Tots," primary department; chorus, "Bring the Crown, Crown Bearer," Ruth Rogelle; solo, "Santa Claus," "O Come Now All Ye Holidays," Peter Sussner; chorus, "The Jolly Christmas King," recitation, Santa Claus; chorus, "When On Judea's Hillside," The names of the pieces were Bruce Rogelle and George Bainbridge.

Theodore Evans and family are attending the funeral of his wife's brother, Charles H. Evans, at the home of Edwin Jones, Philip and Hays Harris, Oliver, Howard and Arthur Lewis, Misses Fannie Rogelle, Naomi Harris, Mary and Rosa Sutter, of Mount Zion, and Mrs. Christopher Mitten, of the West Side chapel Wednesday night.

Joseph Nuss entertained his father-in-law, of Columbia county, Wednesday.

AVOCA. The spacious auditorium of the Lang-cliffe Presbyterian church was crowded to its utmost capacity on Christmas night to witness the production of the pretty cantata entitled "The Gallen" by the members of the Sabbath school. The piece throughout proved interesting and consisted of discourses, quartets, solos and choruses. Each participant ELMHURST. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bathin entertained a large party of relatives from Scranton on Christmas day.

Mrs. Daniel Bleskecker, who has been sick for some time, is recovering.

Miss Adelle Snyder has been engaged to teach the balance of the season at Mt. Cobb school.

Appropriate exercises were held in the Baptist church on Christmas eve.

What You want of a medicine is that it shall do you good—purify and enrich your blood, throw off that tired feeling, and give you health, strength, courage and ambition.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only true blood purifier prominently in the pills eye color, and it meets these requirements perfectly. This is proved by the testimony of thousands of people. Hood's Sarsaparilla Builds up the nerves by feeding them on pure blood, creates an appetite, toning the digestive organs, overcomes that tired feeling by giving vitality to the blood, and gives away refreshing sleep. You may realize that Hood's Sarsaparilla this by giving it a fair trial. Insist upon Hood's and only Hood's. $1; six for $5. Hood's Pills sold harmoniously with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U.S. Gov't Report performed his part in a creditable manner. They were ably assisted by Miss Marie Cranton as pianist. J. R. George proved himself an able conductor and was tendered a vote of thanks for his noble service, as were also John Hastie, superintendent of schools, and Rev. Wesley pastor. At the conclusion of the cantata, the distribution of Christmas gifts took place in which many members were handsomely remembered.

Among the tokens presented were a costly bible, a gold headed umbrella and a gold writing pen, to the pastor, the gift of the Bible class over which he presided. Charles Arkan, presiding elder, made the presentation speech and in a few grateful remarks were received by the recipient, Mr. Wesley, who wished them prosperity and happiness through life.

Miss Mary Tingley, of Susquehanna, is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Wagner, of Main street.

Mrs. and Mrs. Selthos, of Pittston, spent yesterday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Druffen on Main street.

The marriage of Miss Anna Baker and William Alger of South Main street, was celebrated at the home of the bride on Christmas night at 8 o'clock. Rev. J. J. Jones officiating. George Kennedy acted as groomsmen and Miss Mary Davis assisted the bride. Both ladies were prettily attired and carried bouquets. After the ceremony a reception was tendered the young people in which only a few of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties participated.

TAYLOR. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Welsh, of Grove street, spent Christmas with the latter's parents in Plymouth.

Miss Nellie Davis, of Main street, who was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Robertson, of Scranton, returned home yesterday.

Christmas day was celebrated in this place on Wednesday in a quiet way. Services were held in the different churches in the morning, and were largely attended. The Methodist held in the Calvary Baptist church under the auspices of the Young People's Society of this place attracted a large crowd. There were three sessions, morning, afternoon and night. The Taylor competitors captured all the prizes worth $100.

The mixed party, male and female, being successful in capturing the chief prizes. Many of our people attended the theaters in Scranton, and others visited towns in different sections of the state.

The Father Jordan fair opened at Fallon's hall Christmas afternoon and was a most favorable one. The fair was attended by an immense throng. The spacious hall was filled with articles of rare beauty and the booths were artistically and beautifully decorated. All the prizes worth $100 were captured. The South Side Catholic church choir was present and rendered several choice selections. The fair will close on Wednesday.

David Williams, of Wilkes-Barre, spent Christmas with friends in this place.

Miss Gertrude Rees, of the Bloomsbury State Normal school, is visiting her mother during the holidays, on Grove street.

Taylor Hose company, No. 1, of this place, will hold a meeting at the hose house tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. H. V. Weisenblat, the foreman, desires a full attendance of the members.

Mrs. Griffith Price, of Wilkes-Barre, was a visitor in this place on Christmas.

Miss Frances Werner, daughter of Frank Werner, of River street, was buried yesterday morning in the Polish cemetery in Minooka. She died on Tuesday, and was aged about twenty-one years.

Mr. Harry Hood and Miss Edith Powell, former residents of this place but now of Plymouth, were visitors in this place on Wednesday.

Joseph Youngblood is on a few days' hunting expedition at Ransom.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for thirty years by millions of Mothers for their Children while Teething, with Perfect Success. It Soothes the Child, Softens the Gums, Allays all Pains, cures Colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and get the other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

PECKVILLE. The hose company's fair will be opened again this evening. Oysters and ice cream will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Green were the guests of their daughter at Plainville the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. P. Tinkler and children spent Christmas with their parents at a visit at Nanticoke.

Mr. and Mrs. John Warno returned yesterday from a visit at Nanticoke.

A family party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Barnes, on Hickory street, last Wednesday. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Lane, of Bald Mount; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mitten, Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Mitten, Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Mitten, of Waverly; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Courtwright and son John, and Mrs. C. V. Miner and sons John and Eddie, of Scranton.

ANOTHER CLEANING SALE AT THE EMPIRE DRY GOODS CO. We have cleaned up about all our odds and ends and sell them as rapidly as they come in, but we were lucky to catch on another snap. There is no doubt you are aware how we buy goods; always 50 cents on the dollar, and give the benefit to our trade. This is important, and if you want to buy underwear, hats, you are, 50 dozen of mixtures, woolen underwear, nice, clean staple goods, at 25 cents each, or 50 cents for the suit. Boys, from 24 to 34, any size, for 15 cents. Cloaks, never in the history of this place you purchase a cloak for the price as this season. Plain facts: the season was unfavorable this year, and the manufacturers were compelled to throw their goods upon the market. Prices were no object. We have a hold on these goods. 200 cloaks, we don't claim they are stylish, but they are good for this cold weather, and when you get one for $2, any size from 32 to 42, in black blue only. We have some, in stylish coats also, but style always costs something, which we will sell you in black blue or any other color, short coat, for $4.99. Have you seen our black cloth cape? Not equalled in price nor in quality, only $1.99, for ten days. We have not time to write ads.—We have the biggest bargains you have ever seen in shawls, blankets and wool-knit goods and sweaters. THE GREAT CUT PRICE STORE HENRY GOODMAN, Manager, 516 Lackawanna Avenue.

KERR'S CLOSING OUT THE ENTIRE STOCK OF Holiday Goods

Which has been carried over from the Christmas trade. Every article is marked down to such prices as will insure their removal before January 1. Brass and Onyx Tables and Stands, Screens, Easels, Jardinieres, Vases, Blacking Cases, Carpet Sweepers, Smyrna and Japanese Rugs, all sizes, Fur Rugs in Plain and Combination Colors, Chenille Curtains and Covers, Lace Curtains, etc., etc.

S. G. KERR, SON & CO. 408 Lackawanna Ave. Opposite The Wyoming House.

THE THIRD NATIONAL BANK OF SCRANTON GIVES SPECIAL ATTENTION TO BUSINESS AND PERSONAL ACCOUNTS AND PAYS 3 PER CENT. INTEREST ON TIME DEPOSITS.

THE DR. ALEXANDER Famous Lung Healer and Cough Cure. WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY OF IT

Mr. Henry Merritt, merchant and ex-postmaster, Plains, Pa., writes: "Ship me one-half gross of the Dr. Alexander Lung Healer at once. All sold out, and my trade will take no other." For sale everywhere. Price 25c.

THE DICKSON MANUFACTURING CO. Locomotives, Stationary Engines, Boilers, HOISTING AND PUMPING MACHINERY. General Office: SCRANTON, PA.

Advertisement for DeWolfe's Pepsin, featuring a circular logo with the text 'DON'T BE WOOLY' and 'FAULTLESS PEP SIN'. Includes a testimonial from a man who says 'I feel like a new man'.

Men's Clothing. Parlor Suits.

Suited to the weather, suited to the almanac and with the cutting edge off the prices—all of the newest shapes and of the careful make that is a prerequisite in any clothing we sell—we make it So Easy for what you Want—that you may Have—two words tell it: Liberal Credit "Pay as You Can."

Big Discounts Off Brass Lamps and Silk Shades. Prices begin as low as $18.90 for Five Pieces of Parlor Furniture.

Advertisement for 'the ECONOMY' home furnishing store, located at 225 and 227 and 218 Wyoming Ave. The ad features a large, stylized logo for 'the ECONOMY'.