GUNNING ACCIDENT.

Nelson Warner Shoots Arthur Harris While Hunting for Small Game in the Forests Near Montrose.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Montrose, Dec. 27.—This afternoon Nelson Warner, Arthur Harris and Roger Spaulding went hunting, taking the woodland bordering Snake creek, to the north of Montrose. Success attended them, and, finally, after arriving at a strip of woods near Munger's tannery, a rest was made. When they resumed their journey Mr. Warner's gun was accidentally discharged. The contents of the fleshy part of Mr. Harris' leg midway between the thigh and knee. Warner stood about ten feet distant from Harris. Aid was immediately summoned and Harris was brought to the home of Mr. Warner, where he had been spending the holidays.

Mr. Harris, who resides at Montclair, N. J., is a brother-in-law of Mr. Warner, both having married daughters of E. B. Rogers.

Mr. Warner states that he can in no way account for the accident, save that the trigger caught in his pocket in some way, causing the discharge of the gun. At the latest accounts the exact nature and extent of the wound are not fully known.

ON THE BRINK OF ETERNITY.

Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Passengers Have a Narrow Escape.

New York, Dec. 27.—A serious accident was narrowly averted on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, N. J., early this morning. A locomotive drawing eight cars while flying along at the rate of thirty-five or forty miles an hour jumped the track at the curve leading over High Bridge, across the Passaic river and ran along the ties a distance of 700 yards. The train was crowded at the time and the passengers were badly shaken up, but no one was injured.

The railroad at that point where the accident occurred is ninety feet above the Passaic river. The derailed locomotive started along the edge of the steep incline, and the passengers expected every moment that the entire train would be hurled down the steep hill.

DAY FOR TOM AND TABBY.

A Woman Gives a Reception to Her Feline Pets.

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 27.—The Christmas celebration of Mrs. R. Dorsey Coats at her residence, in Park avenue, was a notable success. It was the first "cat-at-home" reception ever held here, and the guests embraced members of the feline family of almost every condition in life. Big, fat, old, fat and lean, black, white and gray cats, and many other pets of the family were grouped in the parlors, feasted and petted. A Christmas tree was displayed, on which were hung imitation kittens and mice, little jars of milk, bits of raw beef and boxes of catnip. All these dainties were distributed to the "guests," and then they were all tucked comfortably in bed.

MASONIC GRAND LODGE.

The General Annual Communication Is Held at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Dec. 27.—The general annual communication of the grand lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Pennsylvania was held in the Masonic temple today (Sat. John's day).

Officers of the grand lodge who were elected at the quarterly grand commandery this month were formally installed; they are: Grand master, Matthias H. Henderson; grand warden, William J. Kelley; senior grand warden, George E. Wagner; grand treasurer, Thomas R. Patton; grand secretary, Michael Elbert.

THE WILKES-BARRE LODGE BANQUET.

Feast Follows the Installation of Officers of Landmark Lodge, F. A. M.

The annual banquet and installation of officers of Landmark lodge, No. 61, took place last Thursday evening in the Masonic rooms. There was a big attendance, about 150 members and guests being present. District Deputy Grand Master W. D. White conducted the ceremony, and the following were installed: Frank Delrick, W. M.; George F. Henry, S. W.; C. W. Erath, J. W.; Frank Puckley, treasurer, and S. J. Polen, secretary. The banquet was furnished by Adam Turkes, Jr., and was one of the best ever spread in this city. The hall was prettily decorated, and after the menu had been thoroughly discussed, Hon. D. D. Foster, who was chosen toastmaster, presided, and some excellent addresses were made by Dr. Urichart, Rev. W. H. Hiller, Dr. Carrs, Rev. H. L. Jones, Frank L. Brown (retiring master), D. W. Wile (district deputy), James A. Fleming, Frank Delrick, the newly installed master, and Isaac Livingstone. The addresses were interspersed by songs given by a quartette composed of Fred W. Tyrrell, Frank Puckley, E. E. Burnard and Thomas M. Graham, with W. H. Armstrong as organist.

The following were among the visitors:
