Adam Perritto Warned Not to Leave Ili House Under Penalty of Being Killed

Hungarians and Poles are adopting cap methods when on the war There was a race riot on Jackson street Christmas night, notice of which was given in this department, and one man, George Jenuiton, was badly beat-en. One of his injuries was a knife wound in the neck. He swore out a warrant for the arrest of three of the fighters and a hearing was held last evening before Alderman John, of the Fourth ward. The defendants gave their names as Adam Perritta, Joe Zu-Hous and John Evaschous, The case

Mam Perritta incidentally said that some one had tacked a paper contain-ing writing in the Polish language on the door of his residence on Filmore svenue, the translation of which is: "You will be killed the first time you come out. On the top of the paper was the regulation crossbones and skutt. No names were signed, but Parritia suseis the prosecutor of last night's case. He has preserved the warning for fusignificant factor of British journalism. This one-time indisputable fact is now a fallacy, nowhere so dismally recognized, though nowhere so faithfully cherished, as in the ancient confines of the Times office itself. About all that remains of the pristine glory of this venerable and eminently staid journal is that quality of stubborn conservatism which keeps it the organ of that resolute toryism that has al-most reached the vanishing point in poli-

Stocks and Bonds.

New York, Dec. 27.—Wall street review.—Stocks were weaker today. At the opening London was a seller and cables reported a decline in American railway securities abroad. Following this $2,000,000 was engaged for shipment to Europe tomorrow and this had a disturbing effect on marginal holders of stocks. Besides this the street was iclined to take a less hopeful view of the prospects for limancial legislation at Washington. The result was a gen-eral decline of 146114 per cent. in the first hour of trading. In the downward movement Sngar, the Grangers, Louisville and Nashville, Manhattan and Jersey Central were most prominent. At the decline the brokers repnent. At the decline the brokers representing bear operators were liberal purchasers and the early loss was recovered. par excellence the newspaper of London and probably has the largest circulation of any paper in the world. It is quite as scholarly, quite as wise in its matter as the Times, is infinitely more diversified. and in most cases delivers its opinions with finer precision and greater lacidity. It knows the value of humor and makes liberal use of it, and understands to a demonstration that a truth is none the less effective for being ushered in with a jest. Though of tory leanings, the Tele-graph is independent in its editorial ex-pression, its titled editor reserving to himself the right to criticise or applaud the conduct of either parliamentary parts Still adhering to the archaic notion that "leader" must occupy not less than a olumn, the Telegraph takes pains that its articles shall be agreeable reading, and it seldom happens that an editorial is not entertaining erough in style and cleverness to hold your pleased attention from the first line to last. The Telegraph, moreover, differs from the Times in ad-mitting the value of names. The signed article is a distinctive and popular feature of this ablest of London newspapers. In-deed, the freedom of the Telegraph from narrowing prejudices has given it that peculiar position it enjoys wherein it holds the respect of all classes of readers without seeming to be the special representa-tive of any one of them. The Times was, th Telegraph is, the great paper of London. The decline of the one and the rise of the other testify to the excellence of one policy over the other. The Times has
