THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-TUESDAY MORNING. DECEMBER 31, 1895.

Wish to extend to the people of Scranton and vicinity a very prosperous and happy New Year, and take this method of thanking them for their liberal patronage to us since we made our bow to them last July, and assure them we will do all in our power to merit a continuance of same?

Watch for our announcement of great January Clearing Sale. It will be a money saver for your

Theodore Streeter's collection of rare and curious coins, notes, etc., was en-riched Christmas by a present of a Spanish gold coin, a Hayti silver piece, a check ante-dating the war on a bank at Alexandria, Virginia, a $500 Confed-erate bond, and a silver Spanish coin that was carried for many yers as a pocket piece by Bancroft, the historian. The latter was presented by Mr. Ban-croft's private secretary to a friend of Mr. Streeter, who, in turn, gave it to him. A Cari ondale paper, in lieu of other matter for its funny column, revamps the time-honored stories about trains on the Montrose road waiting for pas-sengers to pick berries, stopping be-tween stations at the wave of a hat, and a mess-of other stuff that used to give people the spring fever fifteen or twenty years ago. The man who ex-pects to amuse by resurrecting that stale nonsense miscalculates the intell-gence of his readers. The facts are that the Montrose road is a live, up-to-date and well managed line. It has no debts, and is paying its way as it goes -a thing that cannot be said of some Wilkes-Barre Record: Within the past two years the lower end of Wyoming Valley has made greater progress in the opening of collicries than in a de-cade before. insulting and abusive language to a re-spectable lady. When the husband of the aforesaid lady returned home and learned of the affair he went out, hunt-ed up the offender, and thrashed the ground with him. Self-imposed justice is not always a safe thing, but there are cases where nothing else seems to meet the requirements scompletely, Professor F. H. Jarvis, principal of the Meshoppen schools, is still pursuing his canvass for the county superintend-ency, and appears to be making a favorable impression wherever he goes. Without any disparagement to other aspirants to the position, we believe the directors would make no mistake in electing Mr. Jarvis. As a capable,courteous gentleman and instructor he seems to meet the requirements well. The Tunkhannock Bridge company

The funeral of the late Michael Walsh, notice of whose death apeared in yesterday's Tribune, will take place this morning. A high mass of requiem will ion. be sung in St. Thomts' church at 10.30 o'clock, after which interment will be made in the Catholic cometery, Mr Walsh was one of Archbald's oldest and most reputable citizens. He was widely known and unusually respected and there is much sorrow expressed over his death. Mrs. James Hughes, of Salem street, died on Saturday morning after a long lilness. The deceased was about 56 liness. The deccased was about by years old and more than half her life-time was spent among our people, by all of whom she was highly respected. She is survived by her husband, three daughters and one son. These are per cent daughters and one son. These are Mrs. Martin Pryal, Mrs. Michael Pryal. Mrs. Michael Kenney and John Hughes, all of this borough. Her funeral takes place this morning. A high mass of requiem will be sung in St. Thomas, church at 9 o'clock. Interment will be n the Catholic cemetery. Rev. M. H. Cawley, who was recently ordained, left for his new charge in th diocese of Alton, Ill., this morning. Father Cawley preached his first ser-mon at the late mass in St. Thomas' church on Sunday and evinced a comprehension of subject and enlargement of expression seldom exhibited in a first sermon. Father Cawley's charge is located about fifty miles from St.

Thomas V. Eaton. of Jersey Heights, spent Sunday with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. James Eaton, of Laurel street. The fair of St. Thomas' congregation continues to attract large crowds every evening. The atendance on Saturday was about 600. Each evening during its ontinuance a musical programme is rendered.

There is some talk of an increase of water rates in all the towns between Carbondale and Scranton, and it is said the rent, which is now $6 a year, will be increased to $9. This is made necessary by the great expense the water con panies have been put to during the past season and the great outlay that will yet be necessary in order to meet the demands that are now made on the demands that are now made on the companies. Those who are qualified to speak say that the companies have been losing money at the $6 rate and even with the proposed increase the expected profit will not be very large. John M. Burke is the latest announcemen as a candidate for the office of school controller from the Third ward. The mine and breaker of the Penn-sylvania Coal company will be ready for resumption of work on the 6th of January.
