A PROMINENT ATTORNEY Favored us on Tuesday evening

with another brief, and, as usual, wanted the whole book completed in one day. This would ordinarily be considered too great a task for any office outside of the large cities, but for The Tribune Job Department it was not. By four o'clock yesterday the whole matter was set and corrected, and the proof sent to the attorney's office. It paid this attorney to submit his copy to our care, for the reason that the complete brief had to be served tomorrow. This he will have in ample time, and risk of non-service will not have to be waived. We can serve any attorney in the same way if he will submit his brief to our care. Are you in the market?

DAVITT WAS IN THE CITY

The Great Irish Statesman and Patriot Here on New Year's Day.

HIS SISTER WAS WITH HIM

Were the Guests of Their Sister, Mrs. Mary Padden, of North Washington Avenue-Mr. Davitt Says Cleveland Is Right in Venezuela Matter.

Michael Davitt, the brilliant and patriotic Irishman was in the city yesterday for a few hours. His hurry was so great that he could not spend more than from 8.40 Tuesday night, when he arrived, until 1.50 p. m. yesterday, when he left for New York. He was accompanied by his sister, Miss Sabina Davitt, of Washington, D. C., who has been a government clerk for seven or eight years. Mr. Davitt came here to eight years. Mr. Davitt came here to see his sister, Mrs. Mary Padden, of Washington avenue and Phelps street, and he was her guest while in the city.

The founder of the Land League was in Scranton before on October 5, 1891. the day or which Charles Stewart Parnell died. His present visit was taken on his way from Chicago to New York, from which he sails next Satur-day for Ireland. He lives in Dublin, but while parliament is in session he takes up his residence in London. Mr. Davitt is returning from an eight months' lecturing tour through the principal cities of Australia. The general elections at home came on during his absence and he was returned from two constituencies. His intention was to retire from polities, but this precludes that possibility for the present and on his reaching Ireland, he will have to decide which of the two seats he will

Lally, John, aged 8, Mary, aged 6. and Nell, 4, entertained him in their inimitable way. He was enraptured and surprised and he declared that in all his travels around the globe he saw nothing superior to them for their age. Those who had the pleasure of witness-ing their performance at the Brownies in the Frothisgham, will readily agree

He was enthusiastic about the growth of Scranton in four years. It has devel-oped wonderfully he said and impresses the visitor at once with the fact that the machinery of its progress is in charge of men of stability and enter-prise. At its present rate he thinks Scranton will soon win its way to a commanding position among the first-class cities of the country. While in Australia he observed that Irishmen who have settled there are largely interested in farming and are not inclined to dwell in cities as they argely interested in farming and are not inclined to dwell in cities as they do in America. Says Cleveland Is Right.

His opinion with reference to the war talk between America and England is that President Cleveland is thoroughly in the right and that Salisbury has not the courage of his language. For years England has been accustomed to bully weak nations and she thought she could also bully America with impunity and attempt to do what she had accom-plished in Africa and India. But plished in Africa and India. But America had the pluck to say 'Hands off.' Arbitration is fair, and Saiisbury will be compelled to accept it or go to war. He doesn't want to go to war. as he well knows what would be the

As to the outcome of such a war if one must come, he thinks that this country would not send her ships out to sen to do battle, and that England would have to send an army here. She never could send enough troops to this country to whip the United States. All the other powers whom England has insult-ed would clap their hands and rejoice at England's misfortune. But this war talk is all exaggerated. If Salisbury went before the country at a general election on that issue he would be whipped out of his boots. The people of England do not want to engage with the United States in war. They are closely interested in the people of this country and in her industries. More-over, they want the cheap food which comes from America, and a war would double the cost of living to the English Reason for Salisbury's Conduct.

Mr. Davitt advances the reason for the position taken by Salisbury in the Venezuelan dispute that the premier pursued the course he did in order to divert attention from Armenia and thus escape censure from his cowardly attempt to bully the sultan, although it is regretted that in his bullying he did not succeed. Salisbury more than any other is responsible for the Armenian atrocities, for had it not been for him and his interference, Russia some years ago would have forced Turkey to an attitude of submission. The difference between the Irish fac-belonged to any faction.

His health was never better than it is now and he looks to be a strong and rugged man, ready for any contest that arises.

Estimating 14,000 for this month, the total for 1895 is 229,607, and the increase over last year 61,944. For 1894 the arrivals at the immigrant station were 167,-663, and for 1893 they were 152,944.

Deputy Commissioner McSweeney says the character of the immigrants is much better than in previous years. This improvement in quality is due to the rigid enforcement of the immigration laws, he says.

Scranton has never been noted for "boulevarding," a new term for de-scribing a promenade or stroll, but yesterday the bright, crisp air was irresis-table to scores of fashionably dressed men and women whose favorite thoroughfares were Jeefferson, Monroe and Clay avenues and the cross streets.

Miss Bertha Carpenter, who for several years has resided with Mr. and Mrs. George S. Horn at $27 Mulberry street, was married at noon to F. Leonard Mc-Wade, of Philadelphia, The ceremony was performed at the Horn residence by Rev. J. W. Ford, of the Green Ridge Baptist church. Miss Eva Brown, of this city, was bridesmaid, and Arthur Hewett, of Philadelphia, best man. The flower girl was Helen Horn. Miss Jen-nie Hazlett played the wedding march. The bride was attired in a green traveling suit. After the ceremony a wedding super was served, following which Mr. and Mrs. McWade left for Philadelphia where they will reside in a home already prepared and furnished by the groom. Ely, was wedded to Frank O. Keyes, formerly of Lake Ariel, where he is very popular, now a clerk for the Delaware and Hudson Railroad company in this city. The parlor where the ceremony took place was beautifully decorated with palms evergreens, ferns and other plants. The bridal party entered the room to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march played by Miss Susie Smith, a neice of the bride; next the bridesmaid. Miss Maud Thomas, of Laceyville, and Dr. Olin J. Marcy, of Dunmore; then the bride and groom. Rev James Rainey, pastor of the Baptist church, officiated, using the beautiful ring service. The using the beautiful ring service. Mr. Beynon has many friends in this city and hereabouts, and his bride is held in high regard by a large acquaintanceship. Mr. and Mrs. Beynon will reside at 314 Twelfth street.
