On Tuesday evening, Jan. 21, 1895, the St. Aloysius Total Abstinence and Benevo-lent society of South Scranton will give its first ball at Excelsior hall, on Wyoming

"What Is Worth While?" is the subject of the Sunday afternoon Gospel meeting at the Young Women's Christian associa-tion, to be led by Miss Anna Yan Nort. The meeting will begin at 3.45.

Marriage licenses were granted yester-day to Carl Malinowski and Alexandria Wilcewska, Scranton; John D. Boyle, of Hartford, Conn., and Ida Kromis, Scrin-ton; John Derrig and Julia Comiskey, Mi-nooka; Felix Barowich and Lucy Bill, Beranton; Stephen Kerekas and Mary Boleg, Scranton.

A PLUMBING INSPECTOR.

Board of Health Will Be Asked to Ap point Such an Official.

Several members of the Master Plumb ers' Association went to the city hall y erday for the purpose of attending ti meeting of the board of health to confer with the members of that body relative to the appointment of a plumb-ing inspector. On account of a quorum failing to materialize a meeting of the board was not held but the matter will probably be taken up and considered at the next meeting.

The recent legislature enacted a law which provides for the appointment by the board of health of cities of a certain standing-and the plumbers believe that Scranton is in the category-of an inspector whose duty it shall be to see that all plumbing work is properly done. The plumbers feel satisfied that the appointment of such an inspector will raise the standard of sanitary work,

KERNE LL IN A NEW ROLE.

Seen at the Academy of Music as the Irish Alderman.

John Kernell, the same old Kernell, made his bow on the Academy of Music stage last evening in a new play called "The Irish Alderman." The play in which Kernell appears is not of much consequence, for the audience usually goes to hear him and his personality dominates any comedy in which he appears. It was so last night. "The Irish Alderman" is not bad, as farce comedies go, but at best it is only a vehicle for Kernell.

He had a good deal of original monologue to treat his audience to last night and kept it in good humor from the time the curtain rose until it fell.

He was supported by a capable com-pany last night, which included George F. Marion, Sam Marion, Dave Marion, Edna Urline, Emily Vivlah and Bea-trice Tait trice Tait.
