THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-MUNDAY MORNING, JANUARY 6, 1896.

Ripple, Widmayer and Williams Get a Big Majority of the Delegates.

SOME VERY LIVELY PIGHTING

It Was Indulged in by the Adherents o

MOIR SLATE VOTED DOWN Norrman & Moore FIRE INSURANCE. 120 Wyoming Ave.

BIG BARGAINS IN SHOES RUSSET SHOES AT COST AT THE COMMONWEALTH SHOE STORE Washington Avenue.

	YOUR	LINEN
	LOOKS	RIGHT
	FEELS	RIGHT
	WEARS	RIGHT
	WHEN	LAUNDRIED
		AT-
THE	IACK	AWANNA
	LAUN	AWAIIIIA

January Remnant Sale OF ODD PAIRS Lace, Tapestry and Chenille Curtains, also Short Ends of Carpet, Wall Paper, Oilcloth and Window Shades AT ABOUT HALF THE REGULAR PRICES.

WILLIAMS & M'ANULTY

27 WYOMING AVENUE.

CITY NOTES.

The grand jury will meet today. There will be a meeting of managers of Florence Mission tomorrow at 10 a. m. Tom Hughes, of Maple street, South Side was sent to jail from police court for being drunk and wandering aimlessly about. The child born to Mrs. Fred Hoffman at the Lackawanna hospital ten days ago, died Saturday night. The mother is still a patient at the hospital.

the Rival Candidates in Many of knowledge on my part of what my friends have to say, obliges me to say little until I hear what is said at tothe Election Districts of the City. norrow night's meeting. Then my course will be decided upon. Until then I can say nothing positive except that whatever my decision I shall be influ-enced by no person but myself." "Will you say it is probable that you will decide to run?" No primary elections ever held in the No primary elections ever held in the city caused so much interest as that of Saturday to choose delegates to Tuesday's Republican city convention. The great vote polled was of itself an indication of the deep feeling of the Republican voters of the city concern-ion the contests will decide to run?" actly the contrary. ing the contests. While a spirited and determined bat Thomas Q. Seabrooke, who will pre-sent George H. Broadhurst's new com-edy, "The Speculator," at the Academy of Music this evening, has always been just now.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

noted for his selection of pretty girls for his cast, and in his new venture, in which he has been so successful, he has surpassed his former efforts. Misses Ethel Winthrop, Jeannette Lowrie, and tle was waged all along the line by the adherents of the Ripple and Moir slates the result was a most decisive victory for Colonel E. H. Ripple, Fred J. Wid-mayer and Daniel Williams. Of the seventy-six delegates who are entitled to seats in Tuesday's convention at least forty-seven were chosen by the voters of their districts because they represented that if elected they would vote for Colonel Ripple for mayor, Mr. Widmayer for controller and Mr. Wil-llams for treasurer in Tuesday's con-

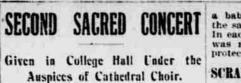

Marion Young form as bewitching a trio of feminine beauties as has ever been seen on the stage together and Not the set of the stage together and hardly a criticism of the play has been made without a comment on this fact. The South Side made a splendid rec-ord sending a solid delegation for Rip-ple, Widmayer and Williams although Charles W. Westpfahl, the candidate for controller on the Moir slate, resides for controller on the Moir slate, resides to one which gives him ample opportunthere and did what lay in his power to one which gives him ample opportun-swing at least the delegates of his own ity for the display of his well-known ward, the Ninteenth, into line for the versatility. The production is one of ward, the Ninteenth, into line for the slate he represented. So confident were Moir and his friends that they would make a good showing in that part of the city that many of the captain's admirers were willing to wager and did wager that he would get half the dele-rates "The Cotton King," Sutton Vane's latest melodrama, will have its first presentation in this city at the Acad-

gates

It Was Not Pleasant News. Captain Moir, Mr. Westpfahl and Thomas Davies, the candidate for city preted by naturally drawn characters treasurer, received the returns in Cap-tain Moir's tailor shop on Lackawanna who are typical of the classes they rep-resent, heroic, romantic, pathetic and humorous. Several of the incidents are avenue Saturday night. It was a crushing blow to their hopes when they heard from the South Side. From the North End they also received disap-pointing news and the West Side fur-nished the same kind of information. of the most thrilling character. There is a sensation when the ponderous ele-Some of the hardest fighting of the day was done in that part of the city.

Thomas Davies lives in the Fifteenth ward and so do John and H. T. Fellows. By the hardest kind of work they succeeded in carrying that ward for the Moir slate but in the adjoining Fifth alistic ever set upon the English-speaking stage. ward where they also expected that their influence would be potent they se-cured only two of the eight delegates. "Shadows of a Great City," an origi-nal melodrama from the pen of L. R. Shewell, will be produced at the Froth-The most cheering news that came to the Moir heaquarters during the even-ing was that he secured all of the deleingham Wednesday evening. The whole of the picture are correct represates from the Ninth ward where he lives. From the Seventh, Eighth and Seventeenth came solid anti-Moir dele-gations and three of the four delegates from the Thirteenth ward were the same kind of antis.

REV. P. P. M'XALLY'S LECTURE

He Paid an Eloquent Tribute to the Genius of Hayda-Piano Solos by Miss Luta Spieske, of Hartford, Coun.

The second sacred concert under the auspices of Prof. W. P. Schilling and St. Peter's cathedral choir was held last evening in college hall, and the attendbut my inclinations are against such a ance was large notwithstanding the zero weather. The exercises began have rested and passed the day as a religious man should; so I haven't giv-en the matter careful thought." zero weather. The promptly at 8 o'clock.

A programme of ten numbers was rendered; those who took part were the members of the choir, Miss Lulu Spieske, concert planist of Hartford, Conn.; Alfred Wooler, tenorsoloist at the He was reminded that the primaries had been exciting, that the primaries had been exciting, that the excitement had not wholly subsidied and that some-thing definite concerning his inten-tions would be of special importance bust nor Elm Park church; the choir of St. Mary's church, Dunmore; the Scranton Saen-gerrunde, of the South Side: Miss Sadle "First of all." he replied, "I am a Republican and the idea of running as an Dougherty, of Dunmore; Miss Lillian C. A. Hammett, accompanist, and John T. Watkins, who kindly consented to independent is repugnant to me. However, some queer things happened in many wards, which, together with no appear instead of R. J. Thomas, bass soloist at the Elm Park church. Mr. Thomas is ill and could not be present The first number on the programme was rendered by Mrs. W. P. Schilling. soloist, and the cathedral choir; the piece they sang was "The Marv'lo Work," from Haydn's "Creation." Th This was given with a brilliancy that won merited applause and prepared the audience for what was to follow. because my inclination is ex-

Rev. F. P. McNally, assistant priest at St. Patrick's church, West Side, de-livered a lecture on Haydn. The speaker said that the great Austrian composer was grand master of the art of instrumental music. Rev. Father McNally did not wish to emerge as a critic; he felt that he is too great a lover of music and too earnest a devotee at the shrine become a critic.

Music the Whisper of Angels. The strain of music vibrates through every human life, but it is very often rendered unharmonious through the discord of human misery and wrong and the discordant notes of man's inhumanity to man. Music is the whispe of the angels and the universal language of every human heart. The public in-terest in Joseph Haydn centers in his musical career. He had a very short childhood; he lived only for music, cared only for it and his last regret was that he could not live longer. He was born March 31, 1732, and died May 31, 1809.

ared 77 years. His father was a wheelwright. They lived in the lower confines of Austria, along the Danube river, and when Joseph was six years of age a friend came to the house and saw the musical genius of the boy. An anecdote illustrative of the precocity of the youth at that ten-der age was related. This friend took Joseph with him to town; the day they emy of Music tomorrow night. It has a arrived there was a procession in honor of the king. At the last moment it was discovered that the drummer of the leading band had become ill. Young Haydn practiced a few hours vator car is seen coming down slowly on a tub with a meal sack drawn over but surely to crush out the life of the beautiful young heroine, who has been locked in at the bottom of the well by it, and when the procession started he took the drummer's place and never once did he get off time in his beating of the drum. He was so small that a hunchback had to be got to carry the the villain of the play, who is bent on her destruction because of jealousy and greed for wealth. The scene in the calico factory is probably the most redrum for him. At the age of eight years he went to

St. Stephen's cathedral at Vienna and sang in the choir until he was eighteen. when his voice gave way and there was when his voice gave way and there was no further use for him. He was an out-cast, hungry and penniless on the strets of Vienna after losing this position. A friend came to his assitance and gave him temporary relief, out Haydn made whole of the picture are correct repre-sentations of actual localities in, and in the vicinity of New York. The play opens in a pawn-brofter's shop near Catherine market, and the first act in-troduces the audience to the chief charup his mind that determination, perse-verance and hard study would encompass his success as a composer. Beginning of His Troubles.

His mother wanted to see him study for the priesthood, but his father was man. In his twenty-eighth year he married and that was the saddest epi-sode in his career; then all his troubles began. He had fallen in love with a young lady whose ideal was above the things of this world. She had begun to prepare herself for the cloister and she did enter it. Her father, not wishing Given by Choir of First Presbyterian viable reputation for himself in the baby blizzard Saturday night and practice of his profession and is sure the same is true of the Pocono region. In each of these sections the cold, too, to make an efficient, business-like con was much more severe than in this A. B. Dunning, jr., also retires from office today. He has been county sur-veyor for six years and during that time succeeded in having settled the protected valley.

SCRANTON GIRL'S SAD DEATH.

Gussie Rosencranz Sacrificed Her Life to Save ller Reputation

There is considerable speculation rife here over the death in New York on Friday of Gussie Rosenkranz from criminal operation, and her dying dec-laration that A. S. Cleveland, a commis-sion merchant of No. 11 Lackawanna avenue, caused her ruin. Interest is added to the case by the fact that Mr. Claraband is a well known Secontar Cleveland is a well-known Scranton business man and denies the relations with the young woman who was his typewriter. She was twenty-two or twenty-three years old.

MRS. SAMUEL JESSUP DEAD.

MARRIED.

MILSON-WILLIAMS-At the Methodist Episcopal parsonage, Forty Fort, Jan. 1, 1895, by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen, Ellis Wil-son and Miss Margueretta Williams, all of Rendham.

Buy your Carpets, Lace Curtains, Draperies and Window Shades at Sie-becker & Watkins', 406 Lackawanna avenue, (next to Lackawanna Safe De-

DIED.

CONDIT-In Scranton, Jan. 5, 1896, Will-lam J. Condit, aged 73 years and 5 months. Funeral Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at residence, 202 Mulberry street. Interment at Waymart, Thurs-day morning.

HOFFMAN-In Scranton, Pa., Jan. 4, 1896, Alma, infant daughter of John L. and Annie M. Hoffman, Funeral at St. Luke's church, Wyoming avenue, at 2.39 p. m. today.

MONEY FOR THE HOSPITAL.

for Raising It.

posit Bank.)

AND

Jewelrv

On Dec. 11 She Passed Away in Beirut, Syria. Advices have been received here of the death of Mrs. Samuel Jessup in Beirut, Syria, Dec. 11. Her husband is Rev. Dr. Samuel Jessup, a brother of William H. and George A. Jessup, of this eity; Hunting C. Jessup, of Mont-rose, and Rev. Dr. Henry Jessup, who for many years has been and is now one of those in charge of the Presby-terian missionary stations in Arabia and Armenia. The girl left Scranton December 19 after telegraphing her sister at Beech Pond, Wayne county, that she was going to New York, where she immediate-ly went for treatment at the establish-ment of Mrs. Eliza Landau, a midwife, and Armenia. at 122 East Forty-first street. She left the house Monday of Christmas week apparently well and went to the home Mrs. Jessup was a sister of Mrs. Wil-liam H. Jessup and of Douglas H. and Hixon Jay, of this city. of her uncle, William N. Van Sickle, at No. 12 West Fifteenth street, where she died on Friday from septic poisoning DE SIVA-BRAVIN-At Plymouth, Jan. 1. 1295, William De Silva, of Kingston, and Miss Annie Bravin, of Plymouth. LUTZ-SCHETZER-In Wilkes-Barre, Jan. 2, 1895, by Rev. G. A. Struntz, Henry Lutz and Miss Mary Scheizer. and peritonitis.

Statement Made to Recorder Thourout. To Recorder Thourot, who had been summoned by Dr. E. C. Armstrong, of 515 Fulton street, West New York, the girl dictated an affidavit that Mrs. Landau had performed three operations up-on her and that Mr. Cleveland had ruined her. She was too weak to sign her name to the document.

The warrant issued for the arrest of the midwife was served at 4 o'clock Saturday morning as she was attempting to escape from the basement door of her house. She is well-known to the New York police, having been several times arrested but always managing to escape punishment. In her apartments were once found the bodies of two infants were once found the bodies of two infants under a sink and a dying baby in a bed. When she was arraigned in the Yorkville police court Saturday, Mr. Van Sickle, the dead girl's uncle appeared as complainant. The midwife said she had never seen Miss Rosen-kranz but she was held by Magistrate Mott in default of $5,000 ball for examination today. Mr. Cleveland denies absolutely charge made against him by Miss Ro-senkranz in her dying statement. Graduate of Elmira Business Collete.

Directors Will Consider Ways and Means Miss Rosenkranz was a graduate of the Elmira Business college and after completing the course about two years Next Friday night the directors of the Lackawanna hospital will hold a meetago she came to this city to accept a position as Mr. Cleveland's typewriter. He is a married man and she boarded at his home on Rock street, West Side. She was a tall, beautiful young woman. ing for the purpose of raising money to pay the debt incurred during the year The expenses of the hospital for the year ending Dec. 31, 1895, amounted to $17,000 and to meet this the state approwell educated and during the time she has been in the city made a host of friends to whom the news of her death priated $12,500, leaving a balance of $4,-500 to be contributed by the local supin New York was a most unpleasant shock. Mr. Cleveland came to this city about three years ago from Elmira and en-gaged in the commission business at 11 a lively caucus Saturday. The princi-pal fight was for the nomination for school controller, John M. Casey, M. J. O'Toole and William McDonough being O'Toole and William McDonough being the candidates. The vote was as fol-lows: John M. Casey, First district, 140; Second district, 81; Third district, 7; total, 228. M. J. O'Toole, First dis-trict, 69; Second district, 42; Third dis-trict, 5; total, 14. William McDonough, First district, 34; Second district, 56; Third district, 15; total, 99. Nominations for ward officers were as follows: For common councilman, J. E.

follows: For common councilman, J. E. Regan; for constable, Thomas A. Welsh; for assessor, D. P. Mannix; for judge of election, A. F. Flannery; for inspector, Patrick Murphy; for register of voters, Gwing to the warm weather our stock is large and our prices low. We will sell for less than skins cost. Our prices are too low to mention.

BOLZ

138 Wyoming Avenue.

And Lower Grades at Very Low Prices.

J. LAWRENCE STELLE,

John Higden, born in California thirty-five years, but now living wherever he hangs up his hat, was arrested for va-grancy and being drunk. He was sent up for thirty days.

The will of Thomas Orchard, late of Carbondale, was admitted to probate by Register of Wills Hopkins Saturday and letters testamentary were granted to the sons, John H. and Charles Orchard. Thomas H. Cavanagh, of Mayfield, wishes it understood that he is not the person who was prosecutor in the case of malicious mischlef against Edward Ken-nedy, tried last week in criminal court.

mulicious mischler against inninal court. Employes of the Delaware and Hudsen Canal company at Olyph at and Eddy Creek mines were paid Saturday. The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Rall-troad company paid its employes at the Manville mine Saturday. Manville Mine Satur

The exchanges at the Scranton Clearing The the Lowery and Daniel

The exchanges at the Scranton Clearing House last week were as follows: Dec. 30, $177,925.42; Dec. 31, $163,358.37; Jan. 2, $22,-$21,99; Jan. 3, $219,515,53; Jan. 4, $103,027,22; total. $77,725.50. Clearings for the week ended Jan. 5, 1895, $897,636,92.

The body of the tramp who died from teh injuries he received Friday on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western rail-road, is still at the Lackawanna hospital morgue unidentified. Unless some one claims it soon the corpse will be used for dissecting nurnoses. lissecting purposes.

The Sheridan fair re-opened Saturday night, when it was expected the results of the contests would be annoanced, but this plan miscarried, as all the books of any one contest were not presented. On this week Saturday night the fair will re-open again, when, it is expected, all the books will be in.

will be in. The second term of the industrial classes of St. Luke's church was begun Saturday in the parish rooms, Linden street and Adams avenue. The classes are held every Saturday afternoon. The officers of the work are: Mrs. Gilbert Cobb, president; Miss Lizzie Sherer, vice-president; Mrs. R. J. Foster, second vice-president, president; Mrs. Frank Jermyn, secretary, and Mrs. Coleman, treasurer.

Two Boys' Parents Greatly Worried. John McVarrish, son of Michael Mc-Varrish, of Cedar avenue, and Anthony Connolly, son of James Connolly, of Greenwood, left home after last pay day which came on Dec. 20, and a day or two afterward a dispatch appeared in the daily papers chronicling the fact that two young lads, about 17 years old, had been ground to death under the wheels of a train at Shamokin. It just occurred to the folks of the two boys that, mayhap, they are the ones whose misfortune it was to thus meet death. They expect to hear something definite about the matter today. John McVarrish, son of Michael Mcabout the matter today.

Truthful Advertising Always Pays.

Truthful Advertising Always Pays. It is useless to attempt to deceive the public with fake sales as they are too good judges to be deceived. One of the firms that always have exactly what they advertise is The Leader. They inaugurated their January clearance sale Saturday morning and the crowd was so great that they could hardly accommodate them. They will have ad-ditional sales-people during the bal-ance of the sale, which lasts until Feb-ruary 1st. If you haven't already at-tended, be sure and go.

Taylor's New Index Map of Scranton and Dummore For sale at Taylor's Directory office, Tribune building, or given with an order for the Scranton Directory 1896.

same kind of antis. Colonel Ripple and those who battled with him received returns at the colonel's office in the Third National bank building, which was crowded during the evening with the most rep-resentative Republicans of the time. The play and creates an in-terest in the seemingly impenetrable mystery surrounding them. The place concludes with a very well painted rep-resentation of Benson, the bankers mansion, with its hall on the right and resentative Republicans of the city, who received with applause the returns as they were announced by Hon. C. P.

who received with applause the returns as they were announced by Hon. C. P. Considering the great and widespread interest shown in the outcome of the primaries and the strong feeling that prevailed at times among the supporters of the various candidates the election was very quiet and o try. Following is a list of the delegates elected: Names of the Delegates Chosen. First ward, First district. Thomas ended Jan. 5, 1895, 4897,630.92. Mrs. Ida R. Olin, asced 29 years, died Friday night at her home, in Green Ridge, She is surfived by her husband and three children. The funeral will occur this morning at 8 o'clock and the remains will be taken to Jackson, Pa., for interment. The teachers of the public schools of Scranton are requested to attend a meet-ing to be held at Liberty hall this after-moon at 4 p. m. sharp, for the turpose of discussing the propriety of having an en-tertainment for the benefit of the teach-ers.

Fourth district, John Lowry and Danie Robertson.

Burke; Second district, Herman Hagen, Eighth ward, First district, William S. Millar; Second district, William T.

Jenkins, C. Q. Carman. Ninth ward, First district, E. M. Vernoy, Harvey Long: Second district, W. H. Withers, Miles D. Hines; Third dis-trict, O. B. Wright, George Parrott. Tenth ward, Harry Bastian, Fred. Bielfeidt.

Eleventh ward, First district, Albert Heler, Philip Wirth; Second district, Chasles Weber; Third district, James McGuiness. Twelfth ward, First district, Fred, Ehrhardt.

Thirteenth ward. First district, John Ellis; Second district, Conrad Schroe-der and Preston Robinson; Third district, E. D. Hugnes. Fourteenth word, First district, Reese

Pritchard; Seco.d district, Charles Stet-Fifteenth ward, First district, Joseph

Reynolds and William Wilhelm; Sec-ond district, John V. Weisenfluh and Thomas Watkins.

Sixteenth ward, First district, Adam Schroeder and J. D. Herbert; Second district, G. C. Jones and E. M. Strong. district, G. C. Jones and E. M. Strong. Seventeenth ward, First district. Charles Schlager and J. W. Oakford; Second district, Montrose Barnard. John W. Kambeck and Luther Keller. Eighteenth ward, Charles Beckett. Nineteenth ward, First district, Jo-seph Weber; Second district, Peter Naeher; Third district, Jacob Weiss-man; Fourth district, Fred. Zeigler. Twentieth ward, First district, Julian; Cooper; Second district, Fred. Islass; er: Second district, Fred. Hass; Third district, James Mc v. Twenty-first ward, First district, S. D. Roberts; Second district, Henry Dale. Captain Moir Interviewed.

While there has been some talk of an independent movement by friends of the Moir slate Captain Moir himself has not indicated by word or sign that he will be a party to such a course. He was interviewed last night at his home, 841 Madison avenue, by a Tribune re-porter and in language and demeanon created an emphatic impression that he would not be led by the nose; that whatever he does will be "according to the dictates of his own conscience." the dictates of his own conscience." Captain Moir when asked for the truth of the rumor that he would become the head of an independent ticket, laughed lightly and said: "I don't know what my course will be office on the left, and where the snad-ows are dispersed and the clouds drift production as a whole, star, company production as a whole, star, company and play, would be difficult to imagine. The audience is fairly carried away from itself from the rise of the first to the fall of the last curtain. 'Forgiven' is a play that everybody should see and they will be the better for seeing it. Mr. Forsberg will be at the Davis theater today, tomorrow and next day.

THE FENCING MASTER.

Was Creditably Produced in the Academy Saturday Night.

"The Fencing Master." with Miss Katherine Germaine in the title role, was presented to a fair-sized house in the Academy of Music Saturday night. The bright, catchy music of the opera long ago won its way to public approval, and the costuming and stage busi-ness of which the piece is capable as well looked after in the present produc-H. W. Tre Dennick and Arthur Etherington did some clever comedy work and were many times encored, as was Miss Germaine, who appeared to be a very good student of Marie Tempest. Very good student of Marie Tempest. Others in the cast were Miss Nella Ber-gen, Miss Marion Langdon, and the Messrs, H. Arthur Leiblee, H. v. Tre Dennick, Arthur Etherington and Harry De Lorme,

GRENADA AND THE ALHAMBRA

Will Be Described by Colonel George Sandarson at Green Ridge Library.

Nex! In the series of entertainments provided for the friends of the Green Ridge library will be the illustrated description of Grenada and the Alhambra which will be presented on Tuesday evening, January 7.

Colonel George Sanderson has pre-pared a most interesting description of his recent visit to this famous place, and his address will have added interest from the fine pictures secured by the colonel and to be first shown on this oc-casion. While there will be no charge for admission and all are welcome, a silver offering will be received at the

CHEMICALS DID THE WORK.

Extinguished a Fire in the Clothing Store of B. Lehman & Company.

Soarks from a furnace set fire to the floor in the clothing store of B. Lehman & Co., at Franklin and Lackawanna avenues, Saturday morning about 11 o'clock.

An alarm was turned in, to which the central hose companies responded. The blaze was extinguished by means of chemicals before much damage was STARTING OUT YOUNG.

Lesson for Young Men in the Experience of a Tramp Arrested Last Week.

Thomas White was sent up for thirty Thomas White was sent up for thirty days on Saturday morning. He was ar-rested the night before on Penn avenue by Patroiman Meinzer for being drunk and begging money from passers-by. At the hearing in police court he said his place of residence is in Philadelphia, and his occupation that of cabinet maker when he works. He is twenty-one years old and has the appearance of a twoical hobo.

to lose such a genius as Haydn for a son-in-law, persuaded him to marry the oldest daughter of the family. He did so and she turned out to be a very unlovable wife; her ambition was to squander all her husband's money. They spent forty years of miscrable ex-istence together and she died in 1800. The oratorio, "Creation." is what Haydn's fame rests upon. He wrote it in eighteen months. Handel wrote his

"Messiah" in twenty-eight days. Haydn "Messian in twenty-eight days, Haydn was sixty-five years of age when he started on his great work. The speaker closed his lecture on the great com-poser with a noble tribute to his re-ligious qualities, that in his musts sparkles of devotion are always shin-

The audience was next treated to two delightful plano selections by Miss Spieske. Her first was Chopin's "Nocspieske. Her hist was Chopin's 'Noc-turne:" op. 15, No. 2; and the second was Mozkowski's "Melodie;" op. 10, No. 1. Her playing evinced the fouch of a skilled planist and the even and un-time. failing correctness of time.

Selection by the Choir. The choir of St. Mary's church, Dun-more, under the direction of Peter Peuser sang the "Gioria" from Lejeal's fourth mass. The solo singing of Miss Kate Mongan, soprano, and Miss Sadie Dougherty, alte, deserves special men-tion. Miss Mongan possesses a voice of great volume, well controlled and of much sweetness. Miss Dougherty has a splendidly modulated alto voice and uses it with fine effect. The chorus singing of the choir was well done and the rendition of the "Gloria" was one singing of the choir was wen done and the rendition of the "Gloria" was one of the best features of the concert. The Scranton Saengerrunde next sang a male chorus, entitled, "Am Amersee." They received hearty applause. Alfred Wooler sang Dudley Buck's "Fear not ye, O, Israel" and did the number full justice. John T. Watkins sang "O, Jesu me!" in his usual splendid style. Miss Spleske played Chopin's "Kolon-aise;" op. 53, No. 7. Miss Sadie Dough-erty sang "Oh, Rest in the Lord!" from Handel's "Elijah." and the concert con-cluded with "The Lord is Great." from the "Creation." This was sung by Messers, Watkins and Wooler, Mrs. Schilling and the cathedral choir.

GREAT ICE-MAKING WEATHER

Mercury Hovered Near the Zero Mark All of Yesterday.

The weather prophets in Washing-ton have risen several points in the es-timation of a frozen but delighted pubtimation of a frozen but delighted pub-lic. The dear public wanted "some cold weather" and it got it. Last night with the thermometer threatening to burst itself at 10 o'clock at 6 degrees above zero, it was officially predicted from Washington that there would be a gradual rising temperature. Since Thursday the government progwould be a gradual rising temperature. Since Thursday the government prog-nostications were fulfilled to the letter. Friday it grew colder and it snowed during the night. Saturday it was colder and colder, and yesterday morn-ing and night there was zero weather. At 7 o'clock yesterday morning the mercury registered only 2 abura Durmercury registered only 2 above. Dur-ing the day there was a change, the registry fluttering from 10 to 15 until 6 o'clock when, as if with deliberate in-tent to give the country the freeze it tent to give the country the freeze it longed for, there was a drop which stopped at 4 degrees above zero at 11 o'clock. The registration was about the same at 2 o'clock this morning, at which time everything indicated a ful-fillment of the prediction that today will witness a gradually rising tem-perature.

North of Scranton among the rolling hills of Susquehanna county, there was

In the First ward the Republicans AT REDUCED PRICES. caucused Saturday and renominated Finley Ross for the office of select council. He was opposed by John Reese.

Church Choir in Y. M. C. A. Hall. The choir of the First Presbyterian church gave a fine sacred concert at the Young Men's Christian association auditorium yesterday before a large audience. This was the first meeting held in the newly renovated large hall. The choir, to the number of twenty-six, was seated on the stage, which was handsomely decorated with plants and evergreens, Secretary Mahy gave a short address on the "Barren Fruit Tree," drawing from the text many valuable and practical lessons. He publicly thanked Tallie Morgan and his choir for the programme of excellent music that was rendered.

TWO OFFICIALS RETIRE.

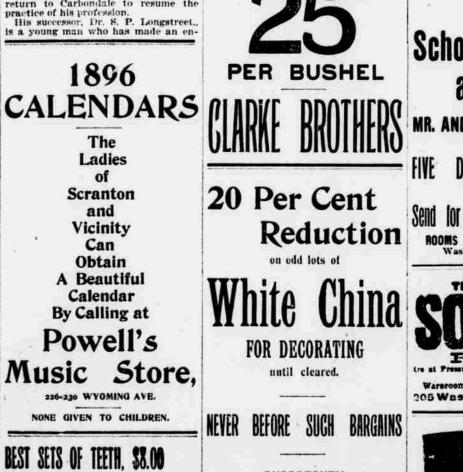

Terms of Coroner Kelley and Surveyor Dunning Expire Today.

At noon today Coroner J. A. Kelley will retire from office and be succeeded by Dr. S. P. Longstreet, who as the canby Dr. S. P. Longstreet, who as the can-didate of the Republican party, de-feated Dr. Kelley last November. Dr. Kelley has held the office three years and during that time performed a greater number of autopsies and conducted a larger number of inquests than any of his predecessors. He made a faithful, attentive official and won many friends for himself during the three years he was in office. He will return to Carbondale to resume the practice of his profession.

Including the painless extracting di

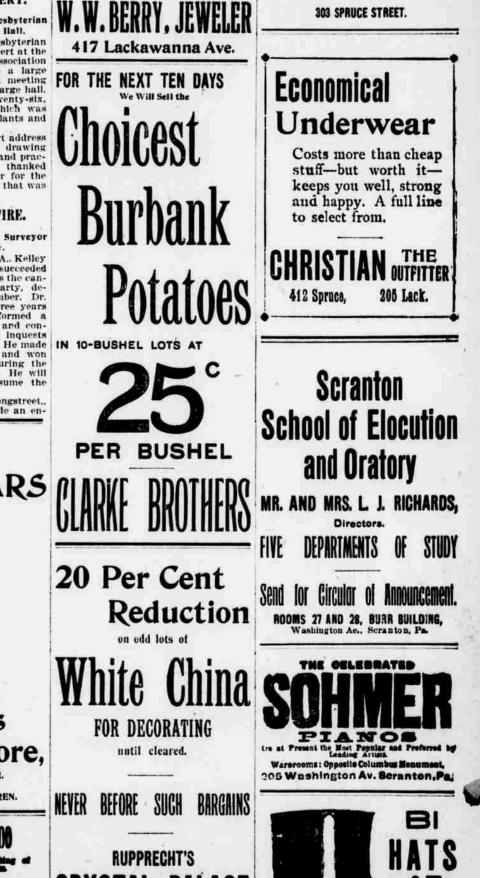

S. C. SNYDER, D. D. S.

STA SPANCE STREET.

231 Penn Ave.

Opp. Baplist Church.

Dunn's