HAD EXCUSES, OF COURSE.

Buits Against Certain Railroads Will Be Withdrawn.

Harrisburg, Jan. 6.-The suits which the attorney general has been instructed to bring against railroads failing to send their reports in on time to the department of internal affairs will form the subject of a conference this week between Attorney General McCormick and

Major I. B. Brown.
In a few cases the suits will be withdrawn inasmuch as valid excuses have been presented for the delay. The ac-tion in the other cases will shortly be decided upon.

SCHOFIELD SUSTAINED.

Court of Appeals Reverses the Decision in Case of Major Armes.

Washington, Jan. 6.-The court of appeals of the District or Columbia has reversed the decision of the lower court in the case of Major Armes, a retired officer of the army, who was arrested by order of General Schoffeld, when act-ing as secretary of war, for writing him a threatening letter and who was released by Judge Bradley, of the Dis-trict court, on writ of habeas corpus. The court of appeals sustains the au-thority of Schofield to order the arrest.

Brief Biographies of the Members of the Keystone Delegation at Washington.

Tribune Bureau,

No. 515 Fourteenth street, N. W.,

Washington, Jan. 6.

The readers of The Tribune would probably like to know something about the men who represent the great state of Pennsylvania in the national legislature. I will hot attempt to give an extended biography of any of them.

James Donald Cameron, the senior senator, was born in Middletown, Dauphin county, Pa., in 1833. He was secretary of war under President Grant from May 22, 1878, to March 3, 1877; was first eleted to the senate to succeed his father, the late Simon Cameron, resigned in March, 1877, and took his seat Oct. 15, 1877, and has served continuously ever since. His present term will expire March 3, 1857. Senator Cameron claims Harrisburg as his legal residence, but lives in Washington.

Mathew Stanley Quay, the junior senator, was born in Dillsburg. York county, Pa., Sept. 30, 1832. He entered the war as a lieutenant in the Tenth Pennsylvania Resserves; acted as private secretary to Governor Curits for a time and was mustered out of service at the close of the rebellion in the rank of colonel. He was a member of the Pennsylvania legislature two terms; was secretary of the commonwallth six years under Governor Harrianft; was chairman of the Republican national committee in 1888, when Harrison was elected president. He was elected United States senator to succeed John I. Mitchell; took his seat March 4, 187, and was re-elected in 1893. His term will expire March 3, 1899. Senator Quay's home is at Beaver, Pa.

Great Special Sale of 700 pieces of Cotton Goods saved from the Appleton Mills fire. Consists of White Domet Flannels, Outing Flannels in checks and stripes, Single and Double Napped Cheviots, Grey Domet Flannels, etc.,

ASSORTED INTO FIVE LOTS:

These goods are all worth from 6c to 15c per yard.

The bulk of the stuff is in first-class condition, only a small percentage being slightly damaged by smoke and water, not enough, however, to seriously affect the value of the goods.

In connection with this sale of the Appleton fire goods we propose to conduct a special Clean-Up Sale for the next three weeks in all departments previous to our semi-annual inventory.

The economically inclined buyer and the bargain hunter will find goods and prices to their entire satisfaction during this sale.

Watch the papers for special announcements from time to time.
