Taken from the Bride on Their Wedding Night.

Reading, Pa., Jan. 7.—The indefinite postponennent of the wedding of Mrs. Mary A. Smith an interesting young widow, of Philadelphia, and Jesse Da-vies, of this place, has set all the tongues in town wagging furiously.

Mrs. Smith is an attractive widow, about 30 years of age. She is a native of Reading, but has resided in Philadelphia for some time past. Jesse Davies, her intended husband, is well known in this city, and his engagement to Mrs. Smith has been known for some months. The wedding was announced to take place at 7 o'clock Saturday evening, and Mrs. Smith accordingly came to Read-ing to prepare for the event early in the week, and was stopping with her sister, at No. 832 Court street. Saturday afternoon the arrangements for the wedding were completed by the engagement of a Lutheran clergyman, and shortly after 7 o'clock in the evening Mr. Davies and his premertive with here the his prospective wife left the home of her sister to be married. But they didn't reckon with Davies'
