Town with the Stolen Mouey. Streator, Ill., Jan. 8.-W. H. Wade, of Minneapolis, has been in Streator for the past few days visiting his brother. W. W. Wade, a well known citizen of this city. This morning the Minneapo-lis man dressed hurrledly to take a Santa Fe train to Chicago, only to find that during the night he had been robbed of $250, the thief leaving behind a certified check for $1,000. Suspicion was directed to W. W. Wade, and it was soon found that he had taken a west bound train. The police at Chillicothe were notified, ar-rested Wade there and returned him to Streator. The money was found upon him, and he also had his brother's valise, which he had stolen at the same

Slander Suits May Pe the Outcome of a Church Leap Year Party.

Racine, Wis., Jan. 8.-Society circles are stirred up as they have never been agitated before, and an interesting sensation is promised. The ladies of the St. Luke's church guild arranged a leap year party several weeks ago Everything was done to make it a swell event. It came off Friday evening when 100 couples, composed of the best people of the city, were present. It came to the ears of the committee that a couple of young society ladies were to be present and escort society men. Objection was made on the pair many, and letters were sent to part of young men informing them that the presence of the ladies would be obnox-lous, and that should they attend admittance would most likely be refused at the door. The two ladies did not go, at the door. The two hadres did not go, but have been consulting attorneys for the purpose of bringing suit against some one for slander. The young men in question are sons of the wealthlest residents, and the ladies have been well known in society circles for many years As yet the papers in the proposed suit have not been filed.

DOCTOR'S LIFE IN DANGER.

Contracts Blood Poisoning from Patient After Warning Nurses.

Balttenere, Jan. 8.-Dr. J. F. Kirby, physician in charge of St. Joseph's hos pital, performed an operation Jan. 1 on Michael McNamara, in whom bloodpolsoning had set in from the effects of poisoning had set in from the effects of injuries caused by a horse's kick. The following day the doctor delivered a lecture to the sisters at the hospital, impressing upon them the necessity of exercising the greatest care in nursing patients suffering from blood poisoning to avoid having the disease communi cated to themselves.

following morning the doctor awoke to find himself suffering from the disease he had so graphically described, and last night Dr. J. Mullane was summoned and found it necessary to remove a portion of Dr. Kirby's arm as a pos sible means of saving his life. The surgeon is in a critical condition, though hopes of his recovery are entertained.

FIGHT WITH A MANIAC.

Constables and Citizens Face an Ax in Making an Arrest.

Kokomo, Ind., Jan. 8 .- Russlaville near here, was the scene of a desperate struggle with a maniac yesterday. Joseph Calkins, a resident of the village tried to murder his family, driving then from the house with an ax and inflict ing severe injuries before they could escape. Calkins then locked himself in the house, defying the officers to arrest him

Constables Hawkins and Sims, assisted by a dozen citizens, went to the house to take him, when he wielded the ax with frightful effect, attempting to kill the entire posse. Sims was struck on the head with the ax, inflicting a ghastly wound, and others were less severely injured. After a desperate struggle the madman was finally over-powered and captured. He was brought to the jall in this city. Calkins will be sent to the insane asylum.

thable to control hole than a down dele-gates to the national convention. It is now doubtful if Chris Magee will be able to go as a delegate himself. The same can be said of State Senator Film, Magee's chief lieutenant in Pittsburg. The Quay people are daily developing great strength in that city, despite the influence of Ma-ree, and his municipal ring. Dave Mar-tin's influence in Philadelphia is rapidly slipping away, and it is said that both he and State Senator Porter are seriously thinking of getting out of politics for good. The Quay people are entrenching their forces everywhere, and expect to capture a majority of the city committee of Philadelphia at the coming spring elec-tion. If they succeed in getting the city organization away from Martin he might as well give up the ghost. Senator Quay's recent visit to Philadel-phia was for the purpose of strengthening his outposts in that city. He is quite well satisfied with the way things are shaping up in Martin's balliwick, and believes that he will be able to accomplish the com-plet overthrow of his one-time lieuten-ant, but now arch-political enemy. ant, but now arch-political enemy. Sena-tor Quay will succeed Mr. Martin on the national committee. That is a foregone conclusion.

Boss Harrity finds himself in about the same sort of boat that Martin and Magee are in. Information has reached here that he will be overthrown at the next state convention. The opposition to Har-rity are said to now control a sufficient number of counties to completely rout him. In my opition it is high time the Democrats were cutting loose from Har-rity and his permicious methods. The Re-publican majorities are yearly becoming arger and larger under his leadership. More than one Republican has told me har they hoped the Democrats would keep that they hoped the Democrats would keep whith them. If Harrity has anything to do with nominating the next Democratic of whith nominating the next Democratic to with nominating the next Democratic the state in exchange, it is safe to predict anythere from 20,000 to 500,000 Republi-can majority in Pennsylvania next year, paste this in your hat, my Democratic triends. friends.

Triends. The combine, which elected the officers of the house and controlled all the pat-ronage under it, found itself short of "bones" when it came to fulfilling all its promises. It seems the combine had prom-ised forty-eight more jobs than it had at its disposal, and consequently had to do something toward satisfying the gang of hungry "bone" hunters who have been haunting the capitol since congress con-vened. The leader of the now famous combine, Colonel Stone, made an effort yesterday to have the house create forty-eight new places. The committee on ac-counts, headed by Mr. Aldrich, of Illi-nois, to which committee the resolution was referred, made an adverse report and instead of allowing forty-eight cut the ex-tra number down to two. The combine made a howl and endeavored to sit on the combine is now very mad. Mr. Aldrich, it might be mentioned, was not a member of the combine. Speaker Reed is being criti-citized by the combine for making Aldrich chairman of the committee on accounts. Speaker Reed no doubt anticipated the raid of the combine for making Aldrich raid of the combine for making Aldrich raid of the combine send for that very reason selected Mr. Aldrich for the im-portant position which he occupies. Afflicted with a Strange Disease Tha Puzzles Leading Medical Men.

Lebanon, Ind., Jan. 8.—The strange malady of Dr. J. A. Boyd, for thirty years a prominent physician of Thorn-town, this county, is puzzling the lead-ing medical men of Indiana. In 1890 the disease first began to manifest it-self and has grown constantly ever since with during the last year his leng since, until during the last year his legs have swollen from the knees down to more than twice their natural size and the flesh has assumed a dark purple color. A congress of the leading physicians and surgeons of the state has been heid and they say they are unable to under stand the case, nothing like it having ever been recorded. The doctor's friends are making an effort to have him visit the physicians of this county. Eleven years ngo she was shot in the head, and an examination revealed the fact that the bullet has embedded itself in the brain. The physician failed to remove it. For months the little sufferer lay completely paralyzed. She was blind and could not hear. Then a change took place. Hearing was restored and the child was able to see. Doctors marveled. She is now 15 years old and healthy, and still carrying the bullet in her brain.

Doctors Puzzled Over the Case of Fifteen-Year-Old Girl. Stroudsburg, Pa., Jan. 8.-A young daughter of Morris Newhart is puzzling

STRIKING CHOIR IN CHURCH. Temporary Truco Arranged Between

Methodist Singers at Creston.

Creston, Iowa, Jan. 8 .- The congregation of the First Methodist church was agreeably surprised this morning to see the members of the striking choir in their accustomed places, a truce having been arranged between the warring factions. The compromise is only temporary, however. A meeting of the church directors will be held this week, evidence on both sides heard, and a decision rendered. It is hoped an amicable settlement can be reached, as the choir is the best musical body ever organized in the city. CHARGED WITH ABDUCTION.

Lebanon, Ind., Jan. 8.—A warrant has been issued for the arrest of James Par-ker, aged 18. a son of the late Thomas Parker, ex-mayor of this city, for al-leged abduction of Ora, the pretty 12-year-old daughter of Barton Golds-bury. The daughter disappeared last Monday and her whereabouts was unknown until yesterday, when it was as-certained that Parker had decoyed the girl to take a sleigh ride and had driven to Zionsville, where he took a passen-ger train for Cincinnati.

They were both taken in charge by the police to await the arrival of the officer from this city. CARELESS WITH A GUN.
