POLITICAL JOTTINGS.

The Democrats of the Thirtsenih ward will hold a cancus at Nettleton's hall, on Green Ridge street, Saturday evening, Jan. II. to nominate district officers and a candidate for select councilman.

This evening at 7.30 the Republicans of the Tenth ward will hold a caucus at the regular polling place. There is a lively battle on for the nominations for common council and school controller. Edward Wenzel, the present common councillant from the Tenth, is desirous of succeeding himself, but is opposed for the nomination by Warren La France. Both men have made an active canvasa for votes and as they have many friends the battle this evening promises to be interesting Jacob Schelle and William Hoffman are the rival candidates for the nomination for school controller.

however, limited owing to a number of other churches of the same denomi-nation in that section of the city, and

Meeting of the Committee.

It was 7.55 when Vice-Chairman Vaughan of the city committee, called the members of the committee to order in one of the first floor parlors of the St. Charles hotel. Those present be-side the chairman were M. F. Sando, secretary: H. T. Koehler, treasurer; William Hookins, Third ward; John P. Feeney, Fourth ward; John Devanney, Jr., and M. J. Kelly, Seventh ward; Colonel F. J. Fitzsimmons, Eighth ward; D. J. Campbell; Ninth ward; John Schwenk, Eleventh ward; David Clark and Morgan Sweeney, Twelfth ward; Thos. of the committee is thirty-eight.

Mr. Vaughan explained that the committee had been called together to select a time for holding a city convention and suggested that the date be an early, one, as Jan. 21 is the last day for filling certificates of nomination. M. J. Rely made a motion to the effect that the primaries be held next Saturday between the hours of 4 and 7 and the primaries be held next Saturday between the hours of 4 and 7 and the convention on the following Tuesday at 2 p. m. This motion prevailed and on motion of D. J. Campbell a committee of three was selected to secure a place for holding the convention. On that committee D. J. Campbell, M. J. Keliy and H. T. Kochler were appointed with instructions to notify Chairman with instructions to notify Chairman Vaughan today of the place secured Morgan Sweeney called the attention of the committee to the fact that there is no record of the vigilance committees elected to conduct Saturday's primaries and suggested that the voters when they assemble at polling places select persons to conduct the primaries.

Republicans of the Eleventh ward caucused at Germania hall, Cedar avenue, last evening and nominated a ticket to be voted for at the February election. A resolution was unanimously adopted endorsing the candidacy of Colonel Ripple for mayor, Daniel Whiliams for treasurer, F. J. Widmayer for controller, and William Dawson, Christian Fickus and Charles Fowler for assessors. There were 300 Republican voters present and it was a very harmonious gathering. John Scheuer, fr. was chosen chairman and James McGuinness was chosen secretary. The names of Charles Stone, Philip Wirth and B. F. Moore were put in nomination for select councilman; Messrs, Wirth and Moore declined and Mr. Stone was chosen by acciamation. Fred Schuman received the unanimous nomination for alderman; for constable Leopold Yearing and William Schlotman were put in nomination and on the balloring Yearing led and was declared the nominee. The district officers nominated were: First district, judge of election Hen Bauchsples; inspector, Peter W. Hartman; register of voters, George Keib; Second district, judge of election, Joseph K. cerning the method to be persued in selecting vigilance committees and the chairman said in a jocular way: "I thought there were no Democrats in the Eleventh ward, Mr. Schwenk." "Oh, yes, we have a few down there yet;" was the reply; "we're not as bad purpose of the meeting was to prepare a slate to submit to next Tues-day's convention, but the gathering did not think itself equal to the task and decided to postpone this important action. Ex-Sheriff Pahey, County Treasurer Schadt, M. J. Kelly, D. J. Campbell and Henry Koehler were selected to comprise the committee comprehended in Mr. Vidaver's motion. M. F. Soon before 10 o'clock at night he brought in coal and fixed the fires. Before retiring he sat down to a light.

From indications that dropped out from beneath last night's blanket of secrecy the principal difficulty that will confront this body will be the task of inducing some one to accept the candiday for mayor. There was a good deal of talk in the corridors of the hotel about the probable complexion of the ticket. The general opinion seemed to be that C. G. Boland would make the strongest candidate for mayor, but Mr. Boland stuck to his determination not to be a candidate for that office. He is willing, however, to take the nomina-tion for treasurer and it is quite prob-able that he will be the convention's nominee for that office, M. J. Kelly and Henry Koehler are also willing to go on the ticket in the same place, though Mr. Koehler expressed himself as believing that the nomination ought to go to Mr. Boland if he wants it.

Mr. Kelly was also spoken of as a candidate for mayor, but he does not desire the tables of the ticket. didate for mayor, but he does not de-sire that place on the ticket. Charles du Pont Breck's name was also men-tioned for mayor and it was said by some that he would accept the nomina-tion. There was a pretty generally expressed opinion that the ticket should be made you of these nationalities. be made up of three nationalities, some-thing like this: An American (so called) for mayor, an Irishman for treasurer, and a German for controller. A favorite ticket of the promulgators of this idea was Breck for mayor, Kelly or Boland for treasurer, and Edward Robinson for controller.

Between now and Friday night the counsel of other Democrats will be sought and a complete slate will prob-ably be announced then.

PLANS FOR ENGINE HOUSE.

Considered at Last Night's Meeting of Joint Fire Department Committee. A meeting of the joint fire depart ment committees of councils was held last night in the city clerk's office, and plans were inspected for the new Nay Aug engine house on the corner of Franklin avenue and Page court. Three sets of plans were submitted, and after a careful inspection, in which the mem-bers were assisted capably by Building Inspector Nelson and Chief Engineer At a meeting of the Democratic city Ferber, the set draughted by Architects Brown & Morris was adopted as the best of the three.

It was the sentiment of the committee that a guarantee should be given by the architects that the building according to the plans will not exceed in cost the $10,000 appropriated. Colonel Sander-son made a motion to that effect. The committee will meet next Tuesday ev-ening at 7.30 and will then hear from the architects.

Exoceration of Taxes.

The joint committee then adjourned and the committee of select council went into session. The resolution ex-onerating all members of the fire department from city occupation tax, pro-vided the members have been in active service three years preceding the levy, which was referred to the committee was considered, but was laid over. Mr. Thomas, from the Fourth ward, didn't see that paid firemen are entitled to exemption from tax any more than men who work in the mines. Colonel San-derson thought that exonerating firemen from tax was an incentive to men to join the department for that pur-pose alone. Chief Ferber testified that there are truly a good-sized crowd of feather-bed firemen. The ordinance increasing the pay of permanent men from $50 to $60 a month will be reported to council favorably with the proviso that the man must have been two years employed. All not in the service tha long will get the pay now given and as soon as they spend two years their wages will be raised. Durr Objected to the Plan.

Fred Durr objectd to a sliding scale. The ordinance goes into effect April 1, Colonel Sanderson was not opposed to granting the increase, but he thought that any additional expense now granted to the fire department only succeeds in throwing the possibility of paid service into the dim future. Chief Ferber said the permanent men are entitled to a raise; they have to work al-most twenty-four hours a day and if the mines were working steadily, half of the permanent men would throw up their Jobs.

Prevented Approach Within 150 Feet-Insured for $85,000 and Will Re Rebuilt at Once-Seven Hundred Hands Out of Employment.

One of the largest and best built col-lleries in this region, the Mount Lookout, at Wyoming, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. It was owned by Simpson & Watkins, the Scranton coal operating firm, which conducts a large coal interest up and down this valley. The mine and breaker were in full operation when the fire occurred, but there were no fatalities. It is supposed that the flames started from a hot journal above the screen room. At all events the oller was at another point at the time and the fire secured an uncontrolable headway be-fore it was discovered. The oil-soaked woodwork proved a very combustible food for the flames which developed so rapidly that in a few moments the heat was so intense that no one could ap-proach within 150 feet. Fears were entertained for the safety of several hundred men at work in the mine by those who did not know that the mouth of the shaft is about 300 feet from the breaker. Many were lifted out, but the majority made their escapethrough the safety exits. The several fire hydrants near the breaker were useless, as they could not be approached because of the intense heat. Destroyed in Less That Two Hours

The fire burned fiercely. It started at 4.45 o'clock and in less than two hours the structure collapsed. Traffic was delayed until after 9 o'clock on the Bloomsburg division of the Lackawanna road, whose tracks run beneath the ned of the breaker.
About 6.30 o'clock H. P. Simpson, purchasing agent, and J. L. Crawford, su-perintendent of the firm, arrived in a specially chartered car from Scranton. C. D. Simeson and T. H. Watsins, the senior members of the firm, are in New York.

The tonnage of the breaker war 1.900 tons of coal per day and it furnished emiloyment in and outside the mines to 700 men and boys. The breaker was one of the best in the country. About 1,600,000 feet of Georgia plue and hem-lock was used in its construction. It was put in operation six years ago and was insured for $85,000.

The cost to replace it will be about $100,000. Much difficulty was experienced in sinking the shaft, the job lasting two years. In the tract are 650 acres. The average monthly pay roll was $20,000.

To a Tribune reporter H. P. Simpson said the breaker will be replaced at once. Meanwhile the firm will not be able to utilize the men. He and Mr. Crawford will go to wyoming today and arrange to have the ruins cleared
