COUNCIL IN SESSION.

Alderman Jones Addresses the Members on the Condition of the Jail—Bills Read and Ordered Paid.

The common council met Wednesday night and the following were in attendance: F. W. Mills, H. G. Baker, P. F. Devine, P. Loftus, C. A. Klase, F. I. Colwell, W. J. Glennon, P. C. McDonough, H. L. Smith and Thomas Bender, also the clerk of the council, J. E. Brennan.

Mr. Mills took the chair and said that Alderman S. S. Jones, as secretary of the board of health, wished to be heard before the council. Permission was readily granted. He said that it was a well-known fact to some extent that the condition of the jail is a disgrace to a progressive city and that some six months ago the board of health investigated its condition and suggested some desirable changes.

The condition of the cells is so terrible as to be dangerous to the health of those that were unfortunate enough to be incarcerated therein. The stench at times was something unbearable, really sickening. Although the class reformatory to the jail are the unfortunate, still from a humanitarian standpoint, and for the honor of our citizenship, they should have cells where their health would not be endangered. Mr. Jones further remarked that the respected Mayor Hendricks had donated his salary for this object, and contractors have made out the carrying out the work, after thanking the council for permission and attention, Mr. Jones left.

The Case of P. F. Carroll.

The next in order was the reports of the various committees, and when that on finance was reached the chairman entered a defense for the delinquent tax collector, P. F. Carroll. He stated that he thought that the committee was hard on Carroll in a false light before the citizens. It was made public that Mr. Carroll was indebted to the city in the sum of $2,565.51 since 1882, and that a resolution had been passed by the select council authorizing the city solicitor to enforce collection.

The chairman wished to understand that the matter ought to be closed up, but that the amount was not correct, and that Mr. Carroll had just informed him that he was prepared to pay up as soon as the city controller, Mr. Smith, would adjust his accounts, giving him credit for extensions and commission. He claims that there is due to him $200 for extensions of $100, and $400 in commission, which leaves a balance due to the city of $100.

Then the controller's report was read and accepted. The Young Peoples Society Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church have elected the following officers for the ensuing year: president, H. E. Robinson; vice president, Mrs. S. A. Hall; recording secretary, W. W. Adams; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Adams; treasurer, Mrs. H. E. Robinson.

INUNCTION CONTINUED.

Judge Woodward decides That There is No Vacancy of City Clerk. Judge Woodward yesterday made permanent the injunction granted on Thursday of last week restraining Captain J. T. Flannery from exercising the functions of city clerk. The judge's decree is as follows:

On the first day of April, 1895, J. P. O'Boyle was duly elected city clerk of the city of Pittston for the term of one year. So far as appears from the evidence submitted Mr. O'Boyle is still the incumbent of the office and it is true that at a meeting of the common council of the city of Pittston on December 20, 1895, a paper purporting to be a resignation of John T. Flannery upon the minute book. Nor does it appear that the resignation has been accepted or that any action whatever in relation to it has been taken by either the common council or the city clerk, therefore, that no vacancy in the office of city clerk existed on December 20, at what time the election of John T. Flannery, the defendant in this bill, is claimed to have taken place. To the fact thus presented the case of Updegraff vs. Caus et al does not apply.

It is further shown that the bill in question is contrary to law, and prejudicial to the interest of the community, is vested in the courts. And it would seem that the defendant, by appointment, an office of a municipal character of which there is at the time an incumbent, whose term has not expired, and whose resignation has not been accepted, was premature and illegal. The motion to continue the injunction is granted and the injunction is continued.

John P. Kearney, select councilman from the Eighth ward, brought the proceedings to oust Flannery, who comes from the same locality. Mr. S. J. Flannery, the defendant in this bill, and Henry Palmer and James L. Morris appeared for Flannery.

The V. and L. social club gave their second annual ball at Eagle hall and it was a very brilliant affair. The committee in charge of the affair was: J. W. Young, L. W. Fitch, E. G. Nagle, E. E. Dean, G. P. Schooley, W. L. Hewitt.

Mrs. Elizabeth Finney, wife of Richard Finney, of West Pittston, died last evening at 10 o'clock. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon.

FRANCE LIKES THE MOTOCYCL.

Tests Thus Far Show Petrolinism the Best for Use. United States Consul C. M. Chancelor of Havre, France, has just made to the State department an interesting report on the subject of horseless carriages. He says that the time seems rapidly approaching when automatic road carriages, propelled by steam, electricity or petrolinism, will come into general use in France. He adds at present, his reports seem to be in favor of petrolinism.

An interesting competition between various specimens of motor carriages has recently taken place over a course from Paris to Bordeaux, a distance of 285 miles, and back again, each vehicle to be disqualified which consumed more than 100 hours on the road. The largest car, 40,000 francs, or $7,720, was captured by Les Pils de Pengerot Freres, with a four-seated carriage, while the second, for a two-seated vehicle, was won by Panhard & Levasson, in 24,53.00. Consul Chancelor thus writes of the contest and its probable results.

The winning conveyances were propelled by gasoline and the race was completed in 19 hours, 10 minutes, made for the purpose of taking in coal and water. The electric conveyances had also to stop from time to time to renew their dynamo charges, but the petrolinism machine carried over a distance of twenty-four hours' run, and on the return journey the run was made without a single stop.

In comparing the merits of the different conveying agencies, the petrolinism, so far, is awarded to petrolinism, which is clean and can easily be carried. The ordinary feeder used for such a distance contains less than four quarts of oil, which will last over a journey of twenty miles, or two and one-half hours. For long distances a receptacle capable of holding enough petrolinism to run at least twenty or twenty-four hours is provided.

We hear also of bicycles being propelled by petrolinism, in which great interest has been expressed. A half dozen of such machines started in the race to Bordeaux, one at least holding its own among the larger vehicles. It is believed that light petrolinism bicycles, propelled by petrolinism, will soon come into general use, which will tend to relieve lady cyclists from the necessity of wearing short skirts. Altogether, it seems that petrolinism is destined to become the popular agent for solving the problem of traffic and conveyances without horses in the streets of great cities and on smooth country roads.
