

Cleaning Up Price 31c

20 pieces-an odd lot of figured and striped Taffetas. All excellent in everything that can make them de-sirable, and not a yard in the lot worth less than 75c.

Cleaning Up Price 50c of the house. The motion was antagonized by Mr

20 pieces handsome seed effect Taf-fetas in all the new and popular stripes. Brilliant color combina-tions for stylish waists. Tester-

Henderson (Rep., lowa) in charge of the committee report, on the ground that no other custom was practicable than that which obtained, of permit-ting the speaker to determine who

DUEL TO DEATH.

Woman's Love.

GIRL SAVES A TRAIN.

High Trestle.

TRIUMPH FOR MR. STORRS. Not Afford to Strike.

tion of goods to final consumers.

prices, but there is also, without doubt, a considerable decrease in the distributurn to work until an increase of wages was granted by the Delaware, Lacka-wanna and Western Coal comany, Their demand is that they be paid 36 a yard on the pitch, and $2.75 a yard on the cross-cut for work done in cutting coal, which is an increase of $1 a yard on Cleaning Up Price 59c Mr. Bell (Pop., Col.) expressed his gratification at Mr. Hepburn's motion. gratification at Mr. Hepburn's motion. illustrating what he claimed to be the unjust effect of the present practice by asserting that not since the session opened had a Populist member been recognized by the speaker. He de-nounced the committee assignments made by the speaker, describing the present organization and management of the house as that of a "body of bosses; a body of tyranny." the former and 25 cents a yard on the latter work. General Superintendent Storrs informed the men that the increase could not be granted. At a meeting this afternoon the miners who have families to support decided to go to work again tomorrow at the old rate as they could At the conclusion of Mr. Bell's speech Mr. Hepburn raised a general laugh by dramatically withdrawing the amendnot afford to enter into a prolonged strike A motion by Mr. Ds Armond to in-MORE WEAK ARMOR.

Wilkes-Barre, Jan. 10.-The miners at the Hilss shaft in Nanticoke all came out this morning and decided not to re-

Nantiooke Miners with Families Could

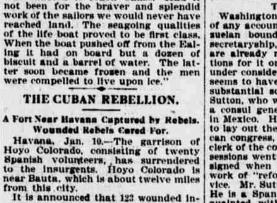

Great Brital

Johannesburg, Jan. 10.—Twenty-two memburs of the reform committee, in-cluding Col. Rhodes, brother of ex-Pre-mier Cecil Rhodes of Cape Colony, Sir Drummond Dunbar, Lionel Phillips, and

Dr. Saner, were arrested at their club yesterday on the charge of high treas-son, and were conveyed under escort to Pretoria.

Perfect quiet prevails here: the popu-lace is callous and the Uitlanders are disarming. London, Jan. 10.-The Globe denies the truth of the statement made by the Pall Mail Gazetta that a second special squadron of British warships consisting of fast cruisers is being formed. of Cuba.

surgents who were picked up on the battlefield at La Ceiba are now in the Spanish hospital at San Antonio de los

Paris, Jan. 18.—A decree has been ga-zetted prohibiting the export from France or the French colonies of war-like munitions intended for the island

WORK OF THE GHOULS.

s of Drake University Carve

MET DEATH WHILE ASLEEP. 1800

John Bowen's Selection for a Nap Was a Fatal Error. The dead body of Jo hn Bowen, found

510 and 512 LACKAWANNA AVENUE

6 pieces 24-inch fancy stripe Taffetas. The color effects and weave are all right, and better values for $1 is unobtainable in the regular way of selling.

Cleaning Up Price 75c

6 pieces of the new Chameleon Stripe Taffetas. The prettiest thing of the senson for an up-to-date nobby waist. Yesterday's figure Was $1.60

Cleaning Up Price 75c ment.

Herring Bone Surahs

6 pieces Herring Bone Stripe Surah Silks.Full color range in a quality that never sells under 65c. Cleaning Up Price 45c and the second second second second

Staple Black Silks

5 pieces Black Silk Rhadames; are excellent 70c, quality. Cleaning Up Price 55c

4 pieces Black Satin Duchess, our well-known $1.00 quality. Cleaning Up Price 79c Mount Pleasant, Fla., Jan. 10.-For the love of a woman Henry Thomas and Albert Stafford fought a duel to the death near this place Tuesday after-

Half Price Velvets

20 pieces fancy Velvets in all the new and popular weaves and shad-ings. Yesterday's price was $1.50. Cleaning Up Price 75c

Contraction of the second s

Salc Begins Friday Morning, January 10

GLOBE WAREHOUSE.

struct the sergeant-at-arms in the rules to withhold pay of members ab-sent for any other cause than illness, Second Plate from Carnegie Works Fails to Stand the Test. was voted down. The Randolph Tucker proposition for Washington, Jan. 10.-A second test of the plate representing a group of armor for the lowa and the Brooklyn. counting a quorum adopted by the committee in place of the one followed in the Fifty-first congress, met only the objection on legal grounds, that it would which failed on Wednesday, was held at the Indian Head proving ground yesterday. In the first test most af the plate was shattered, but one end re-mained intact and a 6-inch projectile authorize the passage of a bill by the votes of less than a majority of a quorum. Before the discussion on the was fired at this at yesterday's trial. The velocity was increased to 1,840 feet a second, and the shell entered the proposition was concluded the house adjourned till tomorrow. Mr. Jones Relents.

plate about two inches, cracking it through. This marked another failure and the plate was wholly rejected. There will probably be no meeting of he senate finance committee until Another plate representing the group is being selected for testing by the gov-

the schate binance committee until next fueesday, the regularm eeting day. The Republican members say that at that time they expect to report the tariff bill just as it came from the house. They understand that Mr. Jones, of Nevada, will not longer insist ernment inspector at the Carnegie works at Homestead. ENDED IN SMOKE.

A Case Created by the Mistake of a Stenographer is Dismissed.

upon the imposition of the additional 15 per cent.o n raw sugar. Messrs. Allison and Aldrich, of the committee, are both out of the city for a few days. Philadelphia, Jan. 10.-The charge of perjury brought by Police Sergeant Richards against ex-Policeman James W. Naylor for swearing before the sen-atorial investigating committee that he (Richards) had passed the night Two Florida Men Fight with Pistols for in a disreputable house when he was supposed to be on duty was dismissed oday by Magistrate South.

When the magistrate began to hear the evidence it developed that Naylor never mentioned Richards name in his For two months they have gone heavily armed, and it was known that when they met a fight would follow. testimony before the committee but that a stenographer for one of the newspapers made an error and got Richards named mixed with other men. when they met a nght would follow. Tuesday Thomas and two friends went hunting, not knowing that Staf-ford and three friends had gone on a similar errand. In the afternoon they met and it seemed that a general fight

ROBBERS' FIENDISH CRIME.

They Throw an Unconscious Man on a would ensue. Thomas, however, said that only he and Stafford were con-cerned, and asked that they be allowed Railroad Track.

Columbus, O., Jan. 10.—James Ram-age, ex-auditor of Delawareco unty, was robbed and while unconscious thrown on a railway track at Marysville, O., last night. A train coming along soon afterwards, cut off one arm and one leg. He willp robably die. He was at the railway station waiting for the train and went out to get a cigar. Three men assaulted him, knocking crime by murder.

High Trestic. Portsmouth, O., Jan. 10.—A wreck on the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern was averted last night by little Mary Och, a 9-year-old gifl, near Slocum bridge, this county. The little girl was out with a lantern hunting a stray horse, which she discovered was caught fast in the bridge, which is near a sharp curve of the railroad and not in sight of an engineer until his engine is with-in a short distance. Knowing that the

in a short distance. Knowing that the evening accommodation train, which fr is generally crowded with passengers, a Never before has the isolation of Great Hritain been so completely driv-en home in the minds of the British people. Hitherto they have been ac-customed to believe that should Engcustomed to believe that should Eng-land become embroiled in a war with a foreign power she would find sympathy if not actual aid from some of the Eu-ropean hatlons. Now it is known that in all Europe she has not a single friend and many believe that her enemies are der Beil, which had been buried in the Saylorville cemetery within ten days, and taken from the graves by ghouls. Three other bodies were found in the dissecting rooms which are supposed to have been taken from the same cem-etery. There is no trace of the robbers, the authorities of the school claiming the bodies were shipped to them. Other graves have been discovered to have been tampered with in other coun-try cemeteries in the last two months. only awaiting an opportunity to attack her and deprive her of some of her vast

A despatch from Berlin today if it is true, shows that there is some sort of understanding between the powers as to the action to be taken by them rela-tive to England. This despatch states tive to England. This despatch states that unless Great Britain accedes to the demand of the Transvaal, which includes the abrogation of the treaty of 1884 Germany will urge President Kruger to appeal to the European pow-ers to support him in his demands. This if it means anything means that Ger-many is in president to know that the Mrs. George Gartside Beaten and Driven from Her Home in Her Night Clothes. many is in position to know that the powers would support the Transval and the only way in which such support asked protection from her husband, who beat her for an hour with heavy rubbe should be given unless England receded from her position would be to declare war upon Great Britain. That this will be done few persons believe. STRIKE IMMINENT.

Employes of the Union Traction Company, of Philadelphia, Will Probably Go Ont Today.

Philadelphia, Jan. 10.-The probabil-ity of another strike of the motormen and conductors of the Union Traction Slayer of Policeman Knox. Sinyer of Policeman Knox. Madison, Ind., Jan. 10.—Ed. Taylor, who killed Officer Knox. of Vevey, two weeks ago, was brought to the Madison jail at midnight for safe keeping. Shortly before that time a mob moved on Vevay jail to string him up. Sheriff Banta received a tip, and, before the mob arrived, the officers, with Taylor, were on their way here. company was not lessened by develop-ments today. A committee of three em-ployes had a conference with President John Lowber Welsh. President Weish received the committee in a courteous manner, and al-though the conference continued for an hour, nothing definite was arrived at. Mr. Welsh eventually referring the men to General Manager Beetem. The ob-The Madison jail is being prepared against an attack, for it is said an ef-are, weish eventually referring the men-to General Manager Beetem. The ob-ject of the committee was to have the president treat with them on what is known as the original agreement—the agreement upon which the men refort will be made to get at Taylor to turned to work on the occasion of the first strike-and which they claim the company is violating.

Company is violating. The central committee of the Amal-gamated association will hold a meet-ing tonight to receive the report of the committee which waited upon Presi-dent Welsh today and unless somedent Welsh today and unless some-thing transpires to change the situation the committee will proceed to make a decision. This decision will be submit-ted to the local divisions later in the of the man. night for approval or rejection and the question of bringing matters to an end will be definitely determined. If an-other strike shall be declared it will probably go into effect tomorrow morn-Columbus, O., Jan. 10.-A. D. Adya a large dealer in real estate, made an avgin-ment today to Ben Monette. At a meet-ing of his creditors held yesterday Mr. Ady stated that his assets were about $550,000 and his liabilities about $420,000.

ng. At headquarters of the Amalgamated association it was learned early this morning that it was improbable that the strike would take place today.

VICTOR M'CORD'S CASE.

Crime by murder.
Treasury Gold Reserve.
Washington, Jan. 10.—A: the close of visioness today the treasury gold reserve stood at $66,100.184. The withdrawais of $1,655,000. of which $1,259,000 were in bar, presumbly for export, and $337,000 in gold. coin for "domestic" purposes.
STATE SNAP SHOTS.
Priests of the Oil City conference in the president's Venesueian policy. To the first time in thirty years rafts are being run down the Delaware river in January.
By a gas explosion in the Shenandooh and Anthony Shaver were badiy burned. Allegheny City recovered only £,2000 tax from Acting Secretary Adde to Mr. McCord's counsel, in which he say that the previous resolution of the tommittee on foreigh relations, re-

sens of Savlorville in a coal pocket of Bell's washery near the Delaware and Hudson depot at Jer-Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 10.-The police today discovered in the medical departmyn yesterday, gave rise to a rumor of foul play and an inquest was held by ment of Drake. university the bodies Coroner Longstreet. Bowen's body was discovered by his of Mrs. Rachel Townsend and Alexan-der Bell, which had been buried in the cousin, Michael Bowen, who was at work about the coal pockets. He had removed the coal from/ a pocket and opened the slide of another when a pair of legs came into view and then the body of his cousin. Investigation led to the belief that he had/fallen asleep in the pocket and was covered and crushed with a mass of coal which came down through the chute too quickly to permit

TREATED WITH CRUELTY.

through the chute too quickly to permit his escape. Empancied on the jury were Dr. E. M. Pennypacker, A. E. Vorhis, John Hock. Alexander Schlanta, J. U. Grant and Dr. P. C. Manley, who returned a verdict that Bowen met death while asleep by being suffocated by the coal and that the company should be ex-onerated from blame. Kalamazoo, Mich., Jan. 10.—Mrs Geo. Gartside walked a mile this morning in her night clothes and stocking feet and

BRADLEY'S MESSAGE.

Wise Suggestions Made by Kentucky's

beat her for an hour with heavy rubber hose, trying to force her to make a confession today, and he let up, and she escaped while he slept. He threatened to chop her up and bury her body if she did not confess today. Her body is one mass of black and blue bunches from the beating. Gartside is in jall charged with intent to kill. Governor. Governor. Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 10.—Governor, Bradley's message was received at 11.30 and was read in the house. It recom-mends a new state capital building and a new governor's mansion. It condemns mob law and asks for the passage of laws imposing rigid penalties. It asks for the passage of laws imposing se-severe penalties for violation of election rules and that foreign corporations he LYNCHERS AFTER TAYLOR. Jail Defenses Strengthened to Save rules and that foreign corporations be rules and that foreign corporations be compelled to organize under the laws of this state before being allowed to do business here. It estimates an in-creased deficit in the state treasury next June and indicates that it will be impossible to reduce the rate of state taxation.

It proposes a cut in the salaries of state officials and the increase of li-cense fees of all kinds in order to replenish the state treasury.

SWIFT JUSTICE,

Goorge II. Smith, Who Murdered His REASON BETHRONED BY FEAR Father-in-Law Is Killed by a Posse.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jgn. 10.-At Ransom St. Joseph Woman Driven Crazy by Daily ville this afternovn Robert Clapsaddle, an aged farmer, was brutally murdered by his profiletate son-in-law, George H. Smith, and three hours later a posse meted out swift justice to the assassin. Expectation of Assassination. St. Joseph, Mich., Jan. 10.-Since the recent attempt by an unknown man to assassinate Minnie Spanke she has gradually lost her mind from fear that he would again attempt to kill her unriddling Ais body with a score of bul Abcot three years ago Smith's disso-lets. Abcot three years ago Smith's disso-lute habits and brutality caused his wift to obtain a separation from him. S'aith nursed the idea that Clapsaddle had induced his daughter to make this til she is now crazy. Officers are working on a clew which they think will result in the capture move. CHURCH FOLKS INDIGNANT,

Their Names Used by a Landlord on Invitations to a Dancing Party.

Lapeer, Mich., Jan. 10,-Leading members of the different churches are in dignant at John J. Graham, proprietor of the Abram bosse, for using their names on printed invitations announcing a dancing party Jan. 30, without their consent.

The ministers, too, are loud in their protests, claiming that the printing of their names will have a bad effect on the members of their flocks. There is talk of the matter being taken some talk into court.

Blackburn Re-nominated

The statehood convention at Oklahoma, O. T., broke up in a row on account of the local rivalry of the delegates. Mrs. Maud Lascelles, who married Sid-ney Lascelles, otherwise Lord Beresford, in New York, in 1891, has sued for a di-vorce. Misa Florence Pullman, daughter of George M. Pullman, of Chicago, Ill., is en-gaged to marry Frank O. Lowden, a young lawyer.

Big Assignment.

SPARKS FROM WIRES.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 10.-Senator Joseph C. B. Blockburn was tonight renominated for United States senator by the Demo-cratic caucus on the first ballot.

The Governor's Trip.

Many negro families in Mitchell county, Oa., have been swindled by a negro who collected for an alleged voyage to Africa. Attorney George Forgy, of Logansport, Ind., incensed by an article published by Editor J. E. Suton, of the Logs, sport Reporter, gave the latter a sever, thrash-ing in his effice. Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 10.-A letter was received by Private Secretary Beitler this morning from Governor Hastings, in which the governor speaks of his improved condition. The party has decided to go to Little Rock on Saturday and then down into the Indian Terrifory

Increase every day in the year; more good shoes make more good friends

LEWIS, REILLY & DAVIES 114 AND 116 WYOMINIG AVE

WEICHEL THE JIEWELER

WISHES EVERYBODS

A Happy New Year.

Great reductions in prices before taking inventory in

Watches. Diamonds

and Silverware.

408 Spruce St. Near Dime Bank.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Terrible Fate of Two Residents of Elanora, Clearfield County.

Williamsport, Pa., Jan. 16.—During a fire at their home at Elanora, Clearfield county, George Keachnack was burned to death and Paul Baker sustained burns which will probably cause his death. The house in which the men and their families were sleeping were found to be afire.

Both men and their wives escaped but Baker went back for his two boys and in their rescue both he and the chfi-dren were horribly burned. Keachnack or a smal sum of money which he had forgotten. While searching for the money the moof and floor fell in and Keachnack was hurned to death burned to death.

WEATHER REPORT.

For eastern Pennsylvania, fair weather; light northerly winds.

Ex-Governor Barnett Gibbs, of Dallas, Tex., has renounced his adherence to the Democratic party. Pennsylvanian Seeks Damages from A call for a free silver conference has been issued by the silver men of Michi-gan, to meet at Lansing.

vorce.

cerned, and asked that they be allowed to fight it out. This was agreed to and Thomas and Stafford, armed with pis-tols, faced each other at thirty yards and began firing. Neither was injured by the first ex-change and the men advanced on each other. At the second shot Thomas fell with a bullet in his bowels. Stafford atill advanced on the prostrate man with a bullet in his bowels. Stafford still advanced on the prostrate man firing, when Thomas staggered to his feet, and, steadying himself by a tree, took deliberate aim and sent a bullet through his foe's heart. Thomas died two hours later. In taking the corpses of the young men home they were borne past the residence of the girl for whom they fought. She showed no emotion. Three men assaulted him, knocking him down and taking his watch and pocketbook, containing about $30. Af-ter the train hadp assed he was found on the track insensible. The robbers evidently intended tocov er up their

Fings It in Time to Prevent a Wreck on