work, which he had never hoped to do again. He has taken altogether only ten boxes.

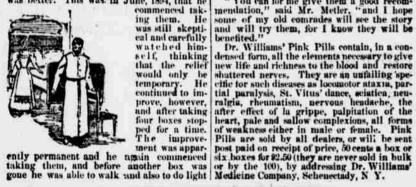

Mr. Weaver was born in Seneca Falls, where with the exception of a few years spent in the West, he has always lived, and his condition and marvelous cure is well known and can be easily verified.

George B. Davis, of the drug firm of Davis & Seaman, says that the cure of Mr. Weaver was nothing less than a miracle, and that it has resulted in largely increased sales of "Pink Pills." From the Courier, Seneca Falls, N. Y. Milton Weaver, who lives on Throop Street, Seneca Falls, N. Y., was a soldier in the late war, serving in the Third Wisconsin Cavalry. In 1862, while being transported from Janesville to Chicago, the train was wrecked by a broken axle, which threw the cars down an embankment.

With many ethers, Mr. Weaver assisted in rescuing his less fortunate compan-ions, and while linions, and while lift-ing the wreckage from the wounded men, he received an injury to his spine that rendered his lower limbs useless, beside rupturing himself. He was taken to St. Louis, where he received the best medical treatment, but withinself. He was the taken to Fort Leaven-worth, but with no better success. While can be at the latter place he was examined by the Board of Medical Examiners, who promoues eld his case a hopeless one, telling him that although he might live for years, he would always be helpless.

Since then he has spent thousands of dollars, but has never been able to get any relief, and he felt that he would always be helpless. Some years ago, when the was not able to get any relief, and he felt that he would always be compelled to drag himself about with the aid of crutches. The latest political, gossip here is that within a few days a leading canddate for Don Cameron's seat in the United States senate will address an open letter to Senator Quay, as chair man of the Republican state central commettee, making the sug

Congressman "Jack" Robinson who has Congressman Leisenring has his political troubles as well as other older and more experie aced statesmen. Some time ago he announced himself a candidate for delegate to the national convention from his district. It was thought that he would have 110 opposition, as it has been customary for Lussene to send her congressmen to the national conventions. But Mr. Leise aring has opposition and a lively fight is anticipated before it is all over. Colorsel Bill Harvey, Editor Hart and Morigan Morgans are all candidates, and as only two can be elected there is a heap of trouble ahead for Mr. Leisenring. He thinks, however, that he will be able to pull through but I think he sort of wishes that ise had never entered the race. If defeated he will not be the only congressman who had to take a back seat. His collegue and neighbor, Mr. Scranton, wanted to go, to the St. Louis convention, but his constituents wouldn't have it. It doesn't pay to want too much even in politics.

$1,100,000 for the purchase of a new site and the erection thereon of a new mint building, but for some unaccountable reason Secretary Carlisie has not obeyed the law. He purchased a site for something like $300,000, but the remaining $300,000 is lying in the treasury untouched. The house has passed a resolution introduced by General Bingham asking the secretary of the treasury to tell congress why he is delaying the erection of the new mint building. Secretary Carlisle's reply will probably be that there is no need for a new mint at the present time. In this respect he is right.

guestion that at the time the delegates to the April state convention are elected the voters of the party be permitted to give expression, by popular vote, of their preference for United States senator. By this means, it is argued, a full and free expression of opinion can be obtained.
While it will be in no way binding it will serve as a guide for the members of the next legislature. There would be no more impropriety in authorizing this expression of sentiment than in ascertaining at the election of the state delegates the sentiment as to the Quay reform plank which will be injected into the next platform. The fortlacoming letter a all events is likely to create a breeze if not a sensation in state politics. The New York, Lake Eric and Western railroad has been re-awarded the contract for carrying the malls between Hones-dale and Lackawaxen, and between Car-bondale and Suscephore.

Charles Schlager, wife and children, of Scranton, are in the city.

Speaker Reed is becoming very exclusive. When he was speaker of the Fifty-first congress he was easy to approach but now it is next to impossible to get at him either at his hotel or committee room. This is evidence that he is a presidential candidate.

Congressman "Jack" Robinson who has just returned from Pittsburg after a two weeks' business trip to that city, is chock full of politics. Of course, this is nothing new for "Jack." If there was no politics "Jack" would n't want to live any longer. His life is one; continual round of politics. During his wakeful hours he talks politics and his dreams are disturbed by ghosts of living as well as dead politichans. Mr. Robinson co ademns Quay for the peace policy he is, pursuing with members of the late commane, and says the senator will stir up a hor net's nest in the camp of his friends if the attempts to patch up a truce with the fellows who tried to kill him politically last summer. "Jack" likes a fight and he has no hesitancy in Senator Call's bill providing for a home and employment for reputable girls and young women of the District of Columbia who are without means of support and are unable to obtain work may look plausible on paper, but it is hardly feasible. A home of this kind would be a most charitable enterprise, but it would soon be overcrowded with immoral women. It would serve as a sort of refuge for the demimende when out of work, and would tend to encourage immorality rather than condemn it. One of the provisions of the bill is that the girl or woman must be under the age of 25 years, and must be recommended by at least two reputable citizens or a member of congress or United States senator. There is no limitation to the number each senator of member can recommend. For this, if for no other, reason the home would soon be filled to overflowing with all sorts of girls and women. It would be next to impossible to discriminate against the class of women that the home was not intended for. An appropriation of $100.00 is asked for, one-half of which is to be paid by the District of Columbia and the other one-half by Uncle Sam.

friends if the attempts to patch up a truce with the fellows who tried to kill him politically last summer. "Jack" likes a fight and he has no hesitancy in denouncing Quay for filrting with the opposition. He predicts trouble if Quay agrees to send Governor Hastings to the St. Louis convention as a delegate-at-large. In discussing the probable slate for delegates-at-large Congressman Robinson said he thought the following guess would not be far from the mark: John Russell Young and Senator Penrose, of Philadelphia; ex-Lieutenant Governor Watres, of Lackawanna; Senator Cameron, of Dauphin: Lleutenant Governor Lyon and Hon. John J. Hopkins, of Allegheny; Samuel Davenport, of Erie, and himself from Delaware county.

Mr. Rolenson brings back with him rather new and alarming intelligence as to the real 'aliment of Governor Hastings. He says that while in Pittsburg he learned from the governor's closest friends that he is suffering from Bright's disease. The suspicion that the governor was a sufferer i rom this fatal disease has been entertain set for some time, and the rapid development of the symptoms during the last four weeks seem, in Mr. Robinson's opinion, to corroborate these fears. The term of the postmaster at White Haven, Luzerne county, expired on Jan. 6. Ex-Congressman Hines wants a man named Andrews appointed. If Mr. Hines has no more influence when out of congress than when he was a member of that body the chances of Mr. Andrews are mighty silm.

New York, Jan. 10.—After a somewhat irregular opening the stock market developed strength and at the close of the day the leading issues registered gains of ½3. 2½ per cent. The firmness of the market was due to the ease with which money on call can be borrowed on pledge of ordinary Stock Exchange collateral and the light engagements of gold for export to Europe tomorrow. The withdrawal of the Chemical bank from the Morgan syndicate did not affect the market in any way, neither did the rumors of other important defections. The street has settled to the belief that in the end the government will secure the gold it rekuires whether it be through the agency of a combination of bankers or by popular subscriptions. At the opening the market was irregular, the rail vay issues showing weakness, while the ludustrials were in demand at a higher range. As the day wore along, however, the entire list moved up in unison and better prices were recorded than for some time past. Sugar advanced a couple of points on favorable advices from Germany regarding the export bounty question. Leather preferred rose on the denial by Presiden! Hoyt, of the company, was in the market as a borrower of money. The jump in Chicago Gas to 65½ was on a wild romor that the reorganization certificates were ready for delivery and that the past due dividends on the stock will also be declared at once. In the railway list, the anthracites, the Grangers, Louisville and Nasaville and Western Union gained anywhere from ½ to 2 per cent. In the last hour Leather, preferred, ran off to 35½ on realizations, but the general list held the early advance and closed firm in tone. The total sales were 159,509 shares.
