THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-MONDAY MORNING, JANUARY 13, 1896.

pletes the Democratic tleket as it will be made up in Lackawanna township. Andrew Diskin, of Main street, Mi-nooka, a married man with a large family, fell on the ice on his way home from the South district caucus, and his right leg was broken above the angle.

He was discharged only a short time ago from the Lackawanna hospital af-ter a long confinement there with eye

TALLIE MORGAN RESIGNS.

Choir on Sunday Next.

is chairman.

generally.

every Friday evening.

Norrman & Moore

FIRE INSURANCE,

120 Wyoming Ave.

BIG BARGAINS IN SHOES

RUSSET SHOES AT COST

AT THE

COMMONWEALTH SHOE STORE

Washington Avenue.

THE LACKAWANNA

January

Remnant Sale

OF ODD PAIRS

Curtains, also

Oilcloth and

AT ABOUT HALF THE REGULAR PRICES.

WILLIAMS & M'ANULTY

127 WYOMING AVENUE.

CITY NOTES.

John B. Gillespie, of Oak street, is seriously ill.

The poultry show will begin Wednes-day in Samter's hall.

will be resumed tomorrow.

Full time in the North Steel works

Alex Dunn, jr., has returned from a business trip to New York.

Window Shades

YOUR

LOOKS

FEELS

WEARS

WHEN

Lace, Tapestry

Carpet,

and Chenille

Wall Paper,

LINEN

RIGHT

RIGHT

RIGHT

LAUNDRIED

symphony concert at the Academy of Music for the benefit of the Home for the Friendless. The members of the Symphony orchestra will give their sertices gratis. The exchanges at the Scranton Clearing House last week were as follows: Jan. 6, $149,716,62; Jan. 7, $179,481,26; Jan. 8, $130, 411,39; Jan. 9, $120,411,39; Jan. 10, $95,698,95; Jan. 11, $958,329,45; total, $773,717,37, Clearings for the week ending Jan. 12, 1895, $798,325,03.

The recently chosen board of revision and appeals met Saturday afternoon but failed to receive the tax assessment books from the assessors who have been at swords points with the board since ts creation by councils, ouncils will be asked to aid the board in the matter.

Secretary D. B. Atherton, of the board of trade, has been asked by a committee from the Pittston board of trade to address that body in the near future on the best methods of conducting a stock exchange similar to the one operating in this city, and on board of trade work n general. A party was given by Mr. and Mrs.

J. C. Elder Saturday evening in honor of the birthday of their daughter, Miss May Elder. About twenty couples were present, many from out of the city. Dancing was indulged in and supper was served, at which time P. H. Barnes acted as toastmaster.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Weston Mill company Saturday the following board of directors were elected: William Connell, A. W. Dickson, F. E. Platt, C. S. Weston, James A. Linen, Mr. Connell was chosen president and Mr. Dickson secretary and treasurer and general manager.

The editor of The Tribune has re-ceived the manuscript of a short story entitled "A Soldier of the Potomac." Will the writer kindly let him know whether it is entered in the Robert Morris eisteddfod competition, and if so, send, in a sealed envelope separate from the regular letter, his real name? All manuscripts intended for this com-petition should be sent in as soon as nossible.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harber leave this morning for Hartford, where Mr. Har-ber has secured a good position in the State Soldiers' Orphan school. Mr. Harber has been a member of the First Presbyterian church choir, and for the past six months the solo bass at the Washburn Street Presbyterian church. He is the possessor of a fine voice at is a gentleman with a host of friends. voice and Mrs. C. W. Kirkpatrick gave a thimhle tea Saturday afternoon. The guests were Mrs. H. M. Boles, Mrs. I. A. Linen, Mrs. G. L. Dickson, Mrs. E. P. Sturges, Mrs. G. L. Dickson, Mrs. E. F. Sturges, Mrs. A. H. Christy, Mrs. C. L. Frey, Mrs. C. H. Welles, Mrs. Richard Matthews, Mrs. Thomas Dickson, Mrs. L. S. Oakford, Mrs. Frank Fuller, Mrs. Seldon Blair, Mrs. G. L. Catlin, Mrs. George Foster, of Pittston; Miss Vall, Miss Platt Miss Platt.

It Was Visited by Fire on Saturday Afternoon-Inmates All Taken Safely from the Burning Building.

The Home of the Friendless on Ad-ams avenue, near Gibson street, was the scene of a fire Saturday afternoon, Saturday's Primarics. The primaries Saturday to elect delewhich, had it happened at night, might gates to Tuesday's convention were very quietly conducted and resulted as have caused injury and perhaps death the twenty-eight children and eight old ladies, inmates, and the ma-tron and assistants. However, no acci-dents occurred. The flames caused follows: First ward, First district, Patrick Cullen. Second ward, John Flynn. Third ward, First district, J. J. Jen-nings; Second district, A. F. O'Boyle. Fourth ward, First district, Fred Warnke; Second district, Brian Kerri-gan; Third district, Michael English; Fourth district, John O'Hara. Fifth ward First district, William Haggerty: Second district.Conrad Lutz: Jullen. enough damage to prevent occupancy of the Home for probably two weeks. The fire was discovered soon after 4 o'clock by Matthew Robling, who lives in that vicinity. He notified Mrs, Wal-ker, the matron, and an alarm was sounded from box 25, corner of Adams avenue and Olive street, which brought Phoenix Chemical, Crystal, Nay Aug Fifth ward First district, William Haggerty; Second district, Conrad Lutz; Third district, Michael Gavan; Fourth district, John McCauliffe. Sixth ward, First district, Patrick Golden; Second district, John F. Lynch; Third district, F. K. O'Hearn. Seventh ward. First district Camp-bell; Second district, Patrick Tolan, one-half vote and Frank McCandrew, one-half vote. Owing to a tie vote, the vigilance committee granted a half vote to each of the candidates. Third district, M. F. Gliroy. and Relief companies to the scene. An-other alarm from box 28, corner of Jef-ferson avenue and Gibson street, brought the Century and Neptune com-panies from the South Side and Hook and Ladder company. and Ladder company. The flames appeared in the roof work and walls of the upper rooms in the south wing of the building, and, it was later found, extended all the way up inside the walls from the first floor. district, M. F. Gilroy. Eighth ward, First district, Thomas C. Melvin: Second district, T. J. Lane where they started from a defective furnace flue. Prompt work with the chemical apparatus checked the first C. Melvin; Second district, T. J. Lane and F. J. Fitzsimmons. Ninth ward, Second district, Nathan Vidaver; Third district, W. J. Burke. Eleventh ward, First district, Mich-ael Kramer; Second district, no elec-tion; Third district, Martin Flaherty. onslaught of the fire, but it was neces-sary to resort to water to finally sub-due them. The firemen were at work for two hours. It is estimated that the building was damaged $2,000 and furnishings $1,500. Twelfth ward, First district, John F. Kearney: Second district, Patrick This is fully protected by an insurance of $10,000. The young and old inmates of the Home were housed by neighbors, but eventually sixteen children and four old ladies were taken to the Young Wo-men's Christion association lown, ir. Mawn, Jr. Thirteenth ward, First district, Wm. Dougherty: Second district, M. T. Jack-son: Third district, John J. Holleran. Fourteenth ward, First district, Wm. Kelly: Second district, James McCormen's Christian association rooms, where they will remain until the Home is again ready for occupancy or until after a meeting of the board of man-agers, with the advisory board at 9 o'clock this morning in the Young Men's Christian Association rooms. Twelve children and four old ladles are still being carned for by the meister Fifteenth ward, First district, Daniel Murray: Second district, W. J. Rowan, Sixteenth ward, Second district, E. F. Blewitt. Blewitt. Seventeenth ward. First district, T. Lavelle: Second district, P. W. Stokes. Eighteenth ward, Thomas Morris. Nineteenth ward, First district, John Twelve children and four old ladles are still being cared for by the neighbors. The matron, Mrs. Walker, is with Mrs. C. P. Matthews, vice-president of the Home. Mrs. Walker was ill at the time of the fire and over-exerted herself in looking after the safety of her charges, but was yesterday feeling all right again. J. Moran: Second district, John J. Murhy: Third district, Andrew J. Conway; Fourth district, Richard Sherldan, Twentieth ward, First district, Willlam McCrea; Second district, M. J. Donahue; Third district, John B. O'Malagain. Through The Tribune the officers of the Home wish to extend their thanks to firemen and neighbors and to call the attention of the advisory board to the meeting at the Young Women's Chris-tian association rooms this morning. Twenty-first ward, First district, J. F. Roache; Second district, Patrick Casey. Caucus in Lackawanna Township. In the various districts of Lackawanna township the Democratic cau-MANAGER M'DERMOTT COMING cuses were held Saturday afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock, and they deserve to take front rank among the lively incl-Location of the Base Ball Park to Be Determined This Week. Determined This Week. Manager McDermott, of the Scran-ton base ball club of the Eastern league, has been directed by the owners to confer with them here during the last of this week. No special significance is attached to the proposed meeting. His advice is wanted relative to the leas-ing of a plot of land on Providence road, the site of the old driving park, or in improving and enlarging the pres-ent park. No decision will probably made until McDermott's arrival. President Powers, of the league, has

clerk, M. J. Egan, 151; Patrick J. Mul-herin, 72. In the Southwest district, Patrick MR. BAILEY IS WAVERING

Timid About Accepting the Democratic Numination for Mayor. auditor and ratices reasency was nominated for treasurer. At Moosle, the West district, James Ward was nominated for supervisor, and at the Sloan Patch, the East district, Dennis O'Lenahan was nominated for school director for three years. This com-pletes the Democratic ticket as it will be made up in Lackswarms township

WILL BOLAND BE TURNED DOWN Conference Held Last Night at Which the Matter Was Discussed-Result of Saturday's Democratic Primarica.

Lackswanna Township Caucus. Leaders of the Democrats of the city are still somewhat at sea concerning the make-up of the city ticket. At a meeting held in the St. Charles hotel Saturday night the following hotel Saturday night the following ticket was agreed upon: Mayor, James A. Balley; city con-troller, Edward Robinson; city treas-urer; C. G. Boland; assessors, Charles Yoos, Jacob Smith and Lawrence Duhigg. Yesterday Mr. Bailey was disposed not to accept the nomination even if tendered to him although he had given some assurance Saturday night that he would accept. He told the leaders that they were forcing him to lead a forlorn hope and that if there was a reasonable chance of election he would not be accorded the nomination. To offset Mr. Balley's arguments the leaders told him that as an earnest of their sincerity of purpose toward him and interest in his behalf the nominaand interest in his behalf the homina-tion would be tendered to him freely and without cost and that the money to conduct his campaign would be fur-nished. Still Mr. Balley hesitated and at a late hour last night it was reported that he was still in doubt as to the course he will pursue. One of Balley's Fears.

It is stated on excellent authority that one of Balley's strong reasons for hesitating about going on the ticket was the fear that he might not receive the entire vote of his party and that our zealous friends of the other candidates would neglect to work as hard for him as for their particular favorite. Dr. Burnett was seen by some of the leaders yesterday morning and they talked over the situation. Last night the doctor said he could not under any circumstances be induced to become a circumstances be induced to become a candidate for mayor. A conference of a number of the leaders was held in the afternoon to consider the case of Balley. Last night John J. Fahey, M. P. Flynn, Joseph O'Brien, John P. Kelly, Charles Schadt and H. T. Koehler met charles Schadt and R. R. Robins and cerning the treasurership. What oc-curred there those present refused to divulge but it is understood that the ad-visability of turning down C. G. Boland and shating M. J. Kelly was discused at inserts. It was argued by some that it length. It was argued by some that it would be the part of wisdom to take such action. This morning there will be another conference between candi-dates and leaders when something defi-nite may be arranged.

C. G. Boland Interviewed.___

Mr. Boland was seen at his home on Stone avenue last evening by a Tribune reporter. When the subject of politics was introduced Mr. Boland smiled and shook his head, saying: "I wish my friends would kindly let me alone. I am not a candidate for any office, but be headers of the Democratic userty in the leaders of the Democratic party in the city held a conference Saturday night at the St. Charles hotel and se-night at the St. Charles hotel and se-lected James G. Bailey as the candidate for mayor, myself for treasurer, and Edmund J. Robinson for controller. The situation is still the same, but I an not in any sense a candidate for of-fice at the present time." The reporter asked Mr. Boland if he would consent to go on the ticket for treasurer, and he said that if Mr. Bai-ley agrees to take the mayoralty nomi-nation, he might then be induced to ac-cept that of treasurer.

cept that of treasurer.

SUPERIOR COURT Foley, of Greenwood, was polainated for school director for one year; Eu-gene Driscoll was selected to run for auditor and Patrick Fitzhenry was Opens at 11 O'clock Today in the Federal Building.

Court Etiquette Provides That Everybody Shall Rise When the Crier Announces

the Judges' Entrance-Particulars of the Duties of the Body. The first session of the superior court of Pennsylvania will begin in this city today in the Federal building. Twice has the court sat in Philadelphia while has the court sat in Philadelphia while the seven members were holding an ap-pointive office, but the session which begins here today is the first since the judges were elected to their high office by the people. At 11 o'clock the court will open and will continue in session all this week and probably during three days of next week The Well-Known Musical Director Will Take Charge of a New York Church with the First Presbyterian church as Etiquette of the supreme court of the Etiquette of the supreme court of the United States, lately adopted by the supreme court of Pennsylvania will be followed in the superior court. When the judges enter the chamber the crier will strike his desk with a gavel and formally announce. "The honorable, the president judge and the associate judges of the superior court of Pennsylvania." Lawyers and spectators will be standing chorister last evening, and next Sunday he begins a year's engagement at the Washington Square Methodist Episcopal church, New York city. Mr. Morgan will continue to reside in this city, spending Friday and a part of Satur-day here. He has had charge of the music at the First Presbyterian church Lawyers and spectators will be standing while this announcement is made and for the past two years, and his chorus of twenty-six volces has justly gained will not be seated until the judges oc-cupy their chairs. The method of practhe reputation of being one of the finest in the valley. All the choir has also tice will be the same as that before the supreme court. It will be the first official sitting in resigned, together with the present mu-slc committee, of which A. W. Dickson

Tallie Morgan closed his engagement week.

It will be the first official sitting in the superior court by Judge P. P. Smith, of this city, who was not a member of the body appointed by the governor. This circumstance and the fact that Judge McCarthy, appointed by Gover-nor Hastings, was not afterward elect-ad by the nonne accounts for the indix-It is a very pleasant thing to know that not the least disagreement or bitterness exists, and the choir with its leader leave with the best and kindest wishes of the membership and congregation. The choir will not disband, but will at once reorganize into a glee society under the leadership of Mr. Morgan, and rehearsals will be held and the set of the set Leading Figure in Musical Circles. Mr. Morgan has been a leading figure in the music of this city for the past ten years, and his sight singing classes has been the means of creating a great deal of new musical material. As high as a thousand pupils has been under his charge during one season, and some of his choruses has numbered five hundred members. Mr. Morgan's most noappointive term. table work was the production of "The will arrive this morning. All the out-of-town judges will stop at the Wyom-SESSION ing. The court will be tendered a reception tomorrow night in the Elks' building on Franklin avenue. In charge of the affair is a committee composed of Lem-HOW THE JUDGES WILL ACT HOW THE JUDGES WILL ACT

SURPRISED THE THIEF.

William Mooney, Caught Red-Handed in Robbing a Store.

William Mooney, a confirmed burg-lar just back from the penitentiary, was caught in the act of robbing the safe of R. H. Frear's grocery store, next to the armory on Adams avenue, safe of R. H. Frear's grocery store, next to the armory on Adams avenue, at 1.30 o'clock yesterday morning. John Mann, the engineer at Keller's carriage works across the road from the store, heard the crash of falling glass from his bedroom on the second floor front of the factory and peering through the window saw a man climb-ing into Frear's store through a hole broken in the glass panel of the door. He telephoned to the central police sta-tion and in less than five minutes after the thief gained an entrance four po-licemen, Lieutenant Davies, Patrolmen Lowry, Rodham and John D. Thomas were at the store Mooney was found crouching behind the safe door with his body partly in the safe, which had been negligently left unlocked. He had not had time to possess himself of the $11 which the safe contained so sudden was the surprise party which the police gave him. He offered no resistance. At the station house Mooney feigned drunkenness and would say nothing further than "I guess I got it in the neck."

Mooney's record is a bad one. Besides several terms at the county jail he has twice done time at the eastern peniten-tiary for thieving.

filed by Attorneys Saturday in the Prothonotary's Office. The defense of the Chamberlain Coal company to the suits brought by the Sterling Coal company and Lackawanna Supply company were filed by Attorneys Warren & Knapp Saturday in the prothonotary's office. It is alleged that the notes held by the prosecuting companies are not collectable until the collaterals are sold which will bring sufficient to pay all the notes. A meeting of the Chamberlain company bondholders was held Saturday afternoon. A meeting of the creditors was also held at the office of Attorney C. H. Welles.

AND

Jewelry

AT REDUCED PRICES.

PIANOS. Shaw, Emerson.

Clough & Warren, Carpenter,

And Lower Grades at

Dunn's

our stock is large and our prices low. We will sell for less than skins cost. Our prices are too low to mention. We will sell our CLOTH COATS, CAPES, SUITS,

INFANTS' COATS AND CAPES

at your own prices.

J. BOLZ

High Grade

ORGANS. Malcolm Love.

Waterloo.

thor, Prof. E. M. Bowman, and numbers 180 members. He meets that cho-rus every Monday evening left. According to seniority, are Judges Charles E. Rice, of Wilkes-Barre; E. N. Willard, of Scranton; John J. Williams, of Beaver; James A. Beaver, of Belle-fonte: Howard J. Reeder, of Easton; George B. Orlady, of Huntingdon; P. P. Smith, of Scranton. They will be at-tired in long black silk gowns, cut large around the neck and displaying collar and cravat, with big sleeves slit at the wristbands so as to permit free use of Selecting the Positions. Fall of Babylon" in character at the While the law specifies that seniority and position shall be decided by lot. the Frothingham, nearly five hundred singers being in the cast. It was by far the court in a way carried out the letter of the law and arranged the drawing by numbers so that the members will ocgreatest musical dramatic work ever at-tempted in this city, and its great success is still remembered by our citizens He will organize at the Washington above. Beginning at the right of Judge Rice will sit Judge Williard, No. 2; at Wristbands so as to permit free use of the hand and arm. After the crier, W. K. Taylor, of Philadelphia, has formally announced the entrance of the court, the opening business will probably consist of the handing down of opinions. Probably two of the theta want of the terms will be Square church a chorus of one hun-dred and fifty to two hundred voices. He has already been engaged to teach sight singing to the great Temple choir cupy the same positions as before elec-tion, except in the case of Judges Or-lady and Smith which is explained the left of Judge Rice will sit Judge Wickham, No. 3, and so the seniority continues alternately from right to

Mr. Morgan's music, however, will not be his chief work in New York city. He has been the manager of the National Press bureau for the past three years, and the head office has been removed to New York. He has under his charge over one hundred newspapers, with a total circulation of over half a million copies for each issue. He supplies twelve columns of matter a week, which goes to the papers in plate form ready o print. He is also the managing editor of the New York True Reform, the city organ of the Prohibition party. It looks like a good deal of work to undertake for one man, but he has been doing it for the past three years, and of Brooklyn, which is under the direction of the well known organist and aullis Work in New York City.

Short Ends of possible

A. A. Patterson, of S. G. Kerr, So Co., is in New York on business. Tipstaff Jacob Ritter on Saturday celebrated his seventy-fourth birthday. Congressman and Mrs. Joseph A. Scranton left Saturday for Washing-The sewers and drains committee of select council will meet Wednesday night.

The first annual ball of the Iron doulders' union will be held in Turner hall Feb. 17.

Auctioneer A. R. Harris has resumed business after an absence of four months in California.

The weekly meeting of public school ea will be held at 4 o'clock this in Liberty hall.

Attorney Edward H. House will leave for Pittsburg tonight and be absent from the city about ten days. Misses Cahill and Williams, of Binghamton, are the guests of Miss Mary Nolan, of Harrison avenue.

The Ladies' Deborah society will give a dance and festival at the Excelsior Social Club hall tomorrow evening.

Leyton Schock, the center of the Cor nell foot ball team, was the guest yes-terday of his cousin, Harry Rhinehart, terday of his cous of C. M. Florey's, sion was only concerned with routing work.

There will be a meeting of the lady managers of the Home for the Friend-less at Young Women's Christian association rooms this morning at 9

All ladies interested in the McAll mission are invited to attend the meeting Monday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. A. Linen, 622 Jefferson avenue.

A quarterly convention of the An-clent Order of Hibernians of America was held yesterday in Olyphant. The next convention will be held in Scranton the second Sunday of April.

For constructing an elevator in the Federal building a contract has been awarded the Tulzer-Vogt company of Louisville. It will cost $2,454 and is to be completed in seventy days.

William Struening, aged 70 years, died at his home, 316 Railroad avenue, yesterday. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. In-terment will be in Forest Hill cemetery.

Another rehearsal of the Choral union took place last night in Rallroad Young Men's Christian Association hall. On Wednesday evening the choir will be formally reorganized at the same hall.

The stockholders of the Board of Trade Building company have author-ized the directorsto expend $185,000 in-stead of $150,000, as was first contem-plated, in erecting the proposed build-ing on Linden street.

Andrew Gados, an 18-year-old Polan-der, was injured by a fall of rock in the Riverside mine at Peckville Satur-day and was brought to the Lacka-wanna hospital. It was only his second day as a min laborer. day as a min laborer.

Rev. A. C. Gaebeleon, who has re-cenly been among the Jewish people of Russia, will give an address of deep interest to all lovers of Israel in Young Men's Christian Association hall on Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Delaware and Hudson trainmen, north of Scranton and the Carbondale loco-motive shop employes were paid Sat-urday. Some of the Delaware, Lackaurday. Some of the Delaware, Lacka-wanna and Western trainmen were paid Saturday. The others will be paid to-

There will be a meeting of the board of managers and advisory board of the Home for the Friendless this morning at 9 o'clock at the rooms of the Young Women's Christiani Association. The attendance of every member is earnest-ly requested.

take front rank among the Hvely inci-dents of the current campaign. The caucus of the South district, held at No. 3 school, Minooka, was especially inter-esting. The two prominent factions had each a set of slated candidates and there was a flerce battle fought until the last ballot was deposited. A heavy vote was polled, the number cast being 283. Patrick Coyne was nominated for supervisor, Thomas F. Coyne for school director, and M. J. Egan for township clerk. clerk.

That was the slate championed by made until McDermott's arrival. President Powers, of the league, has approved the following contracts: With Toronto-Thomas J. Dowse, Will-iam H. Dinneen and John A. Walsh. With Rochester-William Day, William Friel, Frank Donnely, Olile Beard, John J. O'Brien and Charles Dooley. With Syracuse-John C. Rafter and H. J. Jordan. John J. Coyne, and he made a vigorous fight for victory. The opposition slate was: Anthony Cusick for supervisor, Thmas Mongan for school director, P. Thmas Mongan for school director, P. J. Mulherin for township clerk. The tival forces first assembled in open ses-sion in the school house and measured swords. The Coyne element proved the stronger and selected John T. Brown for judge of election over Justice of the Peace P. F. O'Hara. Before the ballot-ing began the following district officers to be voted for next month were chosen by a viva voce vote: Judge of election, Stephen Kenavey: majority inspector J. Jordan. With Wilkes-Barre-E. B. Lytle, Fred Betts and H. W. Luckey. Terms accepted-By Providence, Frank Released-By Scranton, Alex Smith, Released-By Rochester, E. N. Crane, E. I. Breckinridge, Joseph Keenan and

Stephen Kenavey; majority inspector, James Mangan; minority inspector, Patrick F. McDonnell. For conferees WHEN ORDERING COCOA OR CHOCOLATES, be sure and ask for HUYLER'S. Purity and flavor unex-nelly.

Charles Hamburg.

everything is done well. A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM handing down of opinions. Probably two of the three court tipstaves will be present. The three are Daniel Ahearn and Samuel Collins, of Philadelphia. and John T. Comly, of Jenkintown, Montgomery county. Samuel H. Stev-ens, of this city, is court prothonotary. It is his duty to keep a record of ap-peals and a docket, which contains the court minutes Given a Splendid, Production at the Acad emy of Music.

emp of Music. "A Midsummer Night's Dream," with a wealth of beautiful stage settings, was seen at the Academy of Music Sat-urday night by a large audience. The company that produced it was under the management of Arthur Rehan and the comedy was given as nearly like Daly's sumptuous revival of it as the possi-bilities of a traveling company will alcourt minutes. To the superior court is appealed all civil cases involving amounts of leas than $1,000 and criminal cases other than murder. From this body an appeal cannot be taken to the supreme court unless by vote of four of the seven judges of the superior body or upon the request of any one member of the supreme body. Either event is un-likely and will probably occur only in a case of extreme importance or where the superior court decision on a point ourt minutes. bilities of a traveling company will allow. The stage settings throughout were beautiful and artistic, the woodland scenes in the second, third and fourth acts excelling the others in these respects. The comedy is one of the most poetic of Shakespeare's works, one difficult to stage and easily marred by in-adequate setting. Saturday night's production was the work of an artist, deft in the difficult art of harmonizing olors and producing beautiful stage pictures.

An excellent company spoke the lines of the comedy Among the members of it worthy of mention were John Doud, John Craig, Byron Douglass, William Sampson, George Lecoir, Miss Eliza-beth Grath, Miss Lila Convere, Miss Marie Wellington, Miss Lillian Swain, Miss Sybll Carlisle.

Thomas McMillan Burled Saturday In Forest Hill Cemetery.

The funeral of Thomas McMillan, foreman of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western blacksmith shop, was held Saturday afternoon at the residence, corner of Madison avenue and Mulberry street, where the services were conduct-ed by Rev. Drs. Charles E. Robinson

There were many handsome floral tributes, among which was an anvil from the employes of the shop in which the deceased was foreman, a Masonic piece from Hyde Park lodge, 339, Free and Accepted Masons, and many bouquets from friends and neighbors. Interment was made in Forest Hill cem The pall-bearers were David Brown,

Frank McFarland, Charles Lanning, Frank Glover, Alvin Stone and James 'ranston. The flower-bearers were Robert Palmer, James Bryden, Douglas Harvey and John McAndrews

DIED,

C. P. JADWIN,

S. C. SNYDER, D. D. S.,

SO SPINCE STREET.

to represent the district, Patrick Lowry, John J. Lydon, James Mangan, John T. Holleran and Thomas Butler were cho-sen. Patrick J. Diskin was unanimous-Home for the Friendless this morning at 9 o'clock at the rooms of the Young Women's Christian Association. The ittendance of every member is earnest-ly requested. Professor Theodore Hemberger has fendered the net receipts of the coming MARRIED. STROH-HAWK-In Forty Fort, Jan. 6, 1895, by Rev. H H. Welles, Fuller R. Stroh and Esther W. Hawk, both of Forty Fort.

Buy your Carpets, Lace Curtains, Draperies and Window Shades at Sie-becker & Watkins', 406 Lackawanna avenue, (next to Lackawanna Safe Deposit Bank.)

Positry Show. The first annual exhibition of the Scranton Pet Stock association will be held at Samter's hall, coner Penn and Lackawanna avenues, Wednesday Jan-uary 15, and continuing balance of the week. Competition open to all. Show opens from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. description in person to Cor. Penn and Spruce St.