George W. Porter Rearrested Because o His Pailure to Settle as Promised. George W. Porter, the defaulting col-lector of the Suburban Electric Light lector of the Suburban Electric Light company, was again consigned to a prison cell yesterday.

Last week when the cases against him came up before the grand jury the prosecutors, E. B., Sturges representing the Electric Light company; A. Rose, upon whom Porter passed a bad check, and Fred Von Storch, who was swindled by his false pretenses, refrained from pushing the charges upon Porter's attorney assuring them that he would settle, and as a consequence the cases against him were ignored.

But when the prosecutors looked for the promised settlement it was not forthcoming so they had him re-arrested yesterday and in default of $800 ball he was committed to the county jail by Alderman Wright.

PLANS OF HOME MANAGERS.

Will Make the Building Habitable as Soon as Possible. The board of managers of the Home of the Friendless met yesterday morn-ing in the Young Women's Christian Association rooms where fourteen chil-dren and four old ladies of the twentyeight children and eight older inmates of the home are quartered pending re-pairs to the home which was rendered uninhabitable by fire Saturday afternoon. After a brief discussion the board adjourned to the home on Adams evenue to determine the exact damage caused by the fire preparatory to refurnishing as soon as is completed the

The fire occurred on the twenty-fourth anniversary of the home's active work. The annual meeting will be held Saturday in the Young Women's Christian Association rooms.

Tonight at 7.30 o'clock, a meeting of prominent and representative business men will be held in the Board of Trade rooms to take steps for raising the $40,000 needed to complete the new Home, for which the foundations had already been laid in the vicinity of the Oral school. The meeting is called early to enable those who wish to attend the reception to the superior court judges, in the Elks' club rooms. The names of nearly two-score gentlemen have been suggested who could, it is thought, give $1,000 apiece to the new building fund, without missing it. determined effort will be made to raise the whole fund in this way, thus, if successful, leaving to the community at large the pleasant duty of providing, by liberal attendance at the Kirmess and at the Symphony orchestra bene-fit concert, as well as by subscription to The Tribune list, for immediate needs and current expenses.

A feature of the recent fire which has afforded much gratification to the managers of the Home has been the prompt proffers of assistance from other benevolent local institutions. Especial gratification is felt at the prompt offer of St. Patrick's Orphan Asylum, the Home of the Good Shepherd and the Foundling Asylum, to take in the Home's inmates until the Home itself had been prepared for their resumed occupancy. That these generous offers were not accepted was due to no lack of appreciation on the part of the managers, but was due to the fact that pro-vision for the inmates had already been

The only authentic bit of political news given out last night was the an-nouncement that C. G. Boland would not be a candidate either for mayor or treasurer. Accompanying this an-nouncement was the information that M. J. Kelly and Captain Samuel Hines were willing to accept a nomination for treasurer and that Mr. Kelly's chances of nomination were good. This is the slate for the three leading offices made up last night by a well-known Dem-

Mayor—James G. Bailey. Controller—Edward Robinson or S. S.

Spruks.
Treasurer—M. J. Kelly.
Mr. Bailey is still an unknown quality, as he has not positively declared his intention, although it was stated by Democrats last night who should know that he will not be a candidate. C. G. Boland Interviewed.

C. G. Boland was seen last evening at his office in the Republican building by a Tribune reporter and this is what he said:

"My friends already know that I am not and have not been a candidate for any office, and I desire that my name shall not be presented at the conven-tion. My consent to be a candidate at this time under any consideration was based on the desire to assist in making up a ticket to be voted for at the com-ing election with James G. Balley and Edmund J. Robinson, if they were nominated or would accept the nomination for mayor and controller respec-

NO CONTRACT EXECUTED.

Contractor McNally Did Not Wait for the City's Certification. On Sept. 28 last an ordinance was ap-proved for the laying of nagstone side walks, curbs and gutters where these improvements had not already been made on that portion of North Main avenue between Jackson and Pettebone streets. At about the same time a resolution was passed awarding the work to James McNally. A contract was drawn up and signed by McNally, but was never executed on the city's part. Unconscious of this the contractor went ahead with the work and yesterday came in with his claim, which alto-which altogether amounted to over $1,000.

When the approval of City Controller Widmayer was sought that official refused to certify to the bill because of his inability to find any contract for the work. An investigation showed the omission that had been made and
