C. T. Boland, Vice-President; William Dawson, Secretary; W. J. Campbell, Treasurer; Three Cases That Came Up for Argument M. H. Griffin, C. C. Donovan, J. H. Devine, James J. White, John V. McCabe, There Yesterday.

Three cases came up before the su-perior court yesterday. The first one was an appeal taken from Monroe county. The appellant was the East Scranion, Pa., Jan. 14, 1894. Stroudsburg Lumber company, and the stroudsburg Lumber company, and the appellee was the Keystone Fibre com-pany. The latter was represented by Congressman John B. Storm and ex-Collector of Internal Revenue C. B. Another Enjoyable Gathering in the Scran-Staples. The attorney who appeared for the former was Henry J. Kotz, who was admitted yesterday to the superior given last night in the Scranton Bicycle club house. The cotillion, led by R. M. Scranton, was danced after supper.

A lien of $586 was on a double building in East Stroudsburg, the material of the building being brick and wood. of the building being brick and wood. The brick part was connected with the frame part by a chute. The brick por-tion was destroyed by fire and the Key-stone company then held that the lien did not extend to the frame portion because it had not been apportioned be-tween the two, but was on both, and also because the frame part was not more than an appurtenance of the brick Attorney Edward Butler for the appellant. Mr. McGovern made a motion that the appeal be dismised because the appellant has not printed a history of the case in the paper book filed.

The third case argued was the Delaware and Hudson Canal railroad company against the Scranton and Pittston Traction company. This was the first Lackawanna case called in the new court. Ex-Judge W. H. Jessup and Attorney Horace E. Hand appeared for the appellant and ex-Congressman Lemuel Amerinan, Colonel L. A. Watres and Attorney John T. Lenahan, of Wilkes-Barre, for the appellee. The argument made was to have the superior court reverse the ruiling of Judge Gunster in decreeing that the Traction Gunster in decreeing that the Traction company could cross the railroad tracks at the Moosic station at grade.
