MONROE DOCTRINE DEFINED

Mr. Sewall Condemns President Cleveland's Venezuelan Policy.

PEPPER'S SPEECH CONCLUDED

Mr. Cullom Offers a Resolution Asking for Information Regarding Naturalized Armenian Citizens of the United States Detained by Turkey.

Washington, Jan. 16.—At the beginning of the proceedings of the house today Mr. Grow (Republican, Pennsylvania) sent to the clerk's desk to be read as the basis of a statement upon a question of privilege, an extract from a pamphlet published by the New York chamber of commerce, to the effect that congress had refused to question the seizure of Canadian sealers and found to be due by the Paris tribunal of arbitration, thereby preventing the government from suing for the sealers, and that the sealers were to be paid. On a point made by Mr. Crisp (Democrat, Georgia) Speaker Reed ruled that it presented no question of privilege, but Mr. Grow succeeded in denouncing the publication as false.

Limits of Monroe Doctrine.

A resolution offered by Mr. Sewall (Rep., N. J.), and which now lies on the table, condemns the course of the president in the Venezuelan boundary dispute and defines the limits of the Monroe doctrine. It was originally meant to prevent European powers from acquiring the then revolting Spanish colonies when their acquisition would, by reason of proximity, be dangerous to the safety of this government; and that we have never given any pledge that binds us to act merely for the protection from invasion of these countries. It then states that the president has pressed the doctrine beyond what was originally contemplated, and that the result would be to commit this government to a protectorate over Mexico and the Central and South American states; that this course of the president would be to commit this government to a protectorate over Mexico and the Central and South American states; that this course of the president would be to commit this government to a protectorate over Mexico and the Central and South American states.

COUNTERFEITERS BAGGED.

Chief Hazen, of the Secret Service Captures a Band of Ten Italian Money-Makers—The Prisoners Show Fight. New York, Jan. 16.—After a month's careful and secret investigation, William P. Hazen, chief of the United States secret service bureau and several secret service detectives, last night captured a band of ten counterfeiters. Among the prisoners is Nicolo Toronto, the alleged chief of the Mafia in the United States and the king of the underworld in the king's palace in Italy, and has been in this country only about seven months. The other arrests are equally as important and Chief Hazen has evidence of their having handled or passed spurious five-dollar certificates bearing the Grant vignette. When surprised, all the men showed fight and drew big revolvers, stiletos and razors upon the secret service agents. They were arrested, however, and arrested.

POLICE IN POLITICS.

Important Testimony Brought Out at the Philadelphia Lexow. Philadelphia, Jan. 16.—The sessions of the senatorial investigating committee which is inquiring into the municipal affairs of this city, were resumed this afternoon. Probably the most important development was the evidence of several witnesses as to the very active participation of policemen in the Republican primary election last Tuesday night. The testimony to this effect related to the Eleventh ward, where Jimmy Hagen and Sam Hagen, who are known as pugilists, worked with the police in "trying to run things." Isaac B. Jeffers, an ex-policeman, testified to the "political power" of Magistrate Lukens in the Thirty-third ward. The connection of police officers with "speak easies," the immoral conduct of similar officials at a patrol station in the Twenty-sixth police district, the alleged retention, by Special Officer Mar-

RECKELS ON CURRENCY.

Idiotic Experiments Made by the Financial Expert Before the Chicago Real Estate Board.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—The thirteenth annual banquet of the Chicago Real Estate Board was held at the Auditorium hotel last evening. About 500 members and guests were present, a great many of the latter coming from a distance to see and hear Comptroller of the Currency Eckels speak. Mr. Eckels spoke to the toast "Our Currency." He explained the importance of the currency question in general and alluded to the manner in which some of the evils crept into the system. He then said that nowhere in any nation, whether of great or little power, is there a more defective currency system than that of the United States. It presents in its circulation features the singular spectacle of a different kind of currency, all except two being directly or indirectly dependent upon the credit of the United States.

REMEDY FOR ALL EVIL.

After alluding to the injury being done by the advocacy of impracticable remedies, Mr. Eckels said: "The legal tender issues of the government ought and must be redeemed and retired, if the American people are to have any chance of escaping danger and loss arising from their being a part of our currency issues. They doubled the cost of the civil war, and prematurely drove us from a specie basis to one of paper, of irredeemable paper. Had it not been for the circumstances surrounding the government at that time, the money market would have been obtained in either the senate or the house for a legal tender principle. It is asserted that when the revenues of the government are exhausted, the expenditures, bond issues will cease and no further trouble follow. The difficulty, however, goes beyond the question of revenue and taxes, the vital point intrinsically being the matter of those dealing with us in our ability to always pay these obligations in gold. Complete confidence cannot be restored by simply increasing the government income; but even if it could, there would be no guarantee against future impairment of it through the same cause. There is one road to absolute safety, and that lies through their payment and cancellation."

APPEAL TO THE BANKS.

The Various Institutions Asked to Sell the New Bonds. Washington, Jan. 16.—Mr. James H. Eckels, comptroller of the currency today issued a circular to 3,300 national banks of the United States, which was in part as follows: "Some days since, at the request of the secretary of the treasury I caused to be forwarded to you circulars inviting proposals for the four per cent bonds soon to be issued by the government. It is the desire of the government that these bonds be distributed as widely as possible, and as they are sold as soon as they are received at banks especially desiring to obtain circulation thereon a long time investment, your attention is called to them, both as to this particular feature and that of their general character of the investment."

BARELY ESCAPED THE MOB.

A Tennessee Doctor Confesses to a Crime to Escape Lynching. Chattanooga, Tenn., Jan. 16.—To prevent a mob and avoid an inevitable lynching, Dr. Eugene Logan, who a few days ago outraged a little 12-year-old girl in his office at McMinnville, was taken from jail at midnight and given a speedy trial. The prisoner admitted his guilt and threw himself on the mercy of the court. He was sentenced to serve twenty years in state prison. His victim, Florence Gardner, is the daughter of prominent parents and was in the dentist's chair when the doctor took advantage of her. Logan has a wife and two children and was highly respected previous to this deed.

TELEGRAPHIC TICKS.

Bill Doolin, the Oklahoma outlaw, has been captured at Eureka Springs, Ark. A special session of the Wisconsin legislature has been called to make a legislative reapportionment. William Wittland, receiving teller of the Grangers' bank in San Francisco, Cal., has disappeared with $12,000 of the institution. Wesley C. Rippey, the eccentric old man who shot Millionaire John W. Mackay, at San Francisco, Cal., several years ago, died yesterday. Captain Holstead, of the regular army, has secured a furlough and engaged himself to ex-Governor McKinley as private secretary for a period of four months.

TWENTY-NINE BALLOTS TAKEN

New York Is Downed by the Free Silver Forces—St. Louis the Rallying Point for White Metal Enthusiasts.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The Democratic national convention will be held at Chicago on July 17. Each of the twenty-nine ballots by the national committee this evening after a spirited contest in which Chicago won by a bare majority of the free silver forces on the one hand and the sound money men on the other. It was practically a fight between the free silver forces on the one hand and the sound money men on the other. It was practically a fight between the free silver forces on the one hand and the sound money men on the other. PROTECTION FOR AMERICANS.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Nothing further bearing on the arrest of John Hays Hammond and other Americans in the South African republic has been received by Secretary of State Olney. A cable dispatch from Mr. Manyon, United States consular agent at Johannesburg, saying that Mr. Olney's instructions relative to sending Hammond and other Americans have been received and will be attended to. British consular officers in the Transvaal are presumably caring for the interests of citizens of that country in accordance with the request of Secretary Olney and the instructions of Colonial Secretary Chamberlain, with which the British government has agreed.

ARMENIAN RELIEF FUND.

George Kennan, the Traveler, Expresses the Opinion That the Red Cross Work Will Not Be Carried On. Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 16.—Mr. George Kennan, the celebrated traveler, in talking about Armenia today, said: "It is absolutely improbable that the Red Cross will seek to enter Armenia at this season for the non-turkey Kurds which infest the mountain highways and the sufferings of the Red Cross people from these causes can only be imagined."

LAUGHED AT HIS OFFER.

Cold Treatment for a Young Man Who Desired to Win a Wife. Youngstown, Ohio, Jan. 16.—Frank Bradley, a farmer, came here from Mecca, Ohio, and calling at a number of stores proposed to several young women, each of whom rejected him. Bradley after advertising for a wife, returned for non-turkey Kurds and letters were received in a feminine hand and sent to him. Bradley said he had secured a license on the day when he went to marry the girl she threw the license in the grate and laughed at him.

RIDER'S REASON UNSEATED.

Henry Ennis, the Iowa Bicyclist, Unconscious Since Friday Night. Ottumwa, Iowa, Jan. 16.—Henry Ennis, aged 19, who has become famous as a bicycle trick rider, fell on the floor of his father's store here Friday night in a swoon and has been unconscious ever since. The physicians say his brain is the seat of the trouble and that it was caused in some manner by the feat he performed on his wheel.

THE GOLD RESERVE.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The treasury lost $111,000 in gold today, leaving the treasury gold reserve at $5,745,000.

STATE NUGGETS.

Burglars cracked the safe in Einstein Bros. store, Harrisburg, and stole $300. Northumberland county bankers report that $105 was the best business year since 1880. The Allegheny county jury acquitted Terrence Shields, charged with the murder of Policeman Doyle. Burglars rifled the New Jersey Central railroad station at Weisport, but did not secure much money. A premature explosion of powder in a Tyrone quarry, Frank Preiser and John Louwer were critically injured. The Schuylkill county auditors yesterday filed an answer to the writ of quo warranto issued by the attorney general. Palo Alto citizens will vote at the coming election upon the increase of the debt $15,000 to furnish electric street lights and new sewers. Dr. Pearson, state veterinarian, has sent out circulars to the proprietors over the state asking for a list of all veterinary surgeons registered. About 300 men and boys at Stockton were made idle yesterday by the closing of the Linderman-Bleeker colliery, which will be idle for an indefinite period.

THE SITUATION IN CUBA

Reports from the Scene of Action Somewhat Conflicting.

REBELS HAVE THE ADVANTAGE

The Spanish Troops Defeated by the Insurgents at Cobre—Rebels Have Cut Off Means of Communication with the Interior.

Santiago de Cuba, Jan. 16, via Key West, Fla., Jan. 16.—The people of the town of Cobre have been greatly alarmed and many families came to this city for fear that Cobre should be entered by a large party of rebels under Higinio Vazquez, who for some days have been around the salt town. On Jan. 4 Vazquez sent a message to the commander of the garrison of Cobre, composed of 500 infantrymen and 50 guerrillas, telling him to come out as far as San Lorge, where he would wait for him. The Spanish chief accepted the invitation, and with the guerrillas and 250 men went to San Lorge. But the rebels, who numbered about 800, received them with such a terrible shower of bullets that, although the Spanish column fought bravely for nearly an hour, they were defeated and were almost disbanded, and had to retreat in haste.

TRANSVAAL DISTURBERS.

Secretary Chamberlain Anxious That the Filibusters Have a Fair Trial—Protection for American Citizens. London, Jan. 16.—On Jan. 14 Joseph Chamberlain, secretary of state for the colonies, sent a telegram to Sir Hercules Robinson, governor of the Cape Colony, asking for certain specific information in regard to the members of the reform committee and other persons recently created by the South African Boer authorities and taken to Pretoria for confinement pending their trial. In this message Mr. Chamberlain expressed the anxiety that should be shown by the Boer authorities in their treatment of the prisoners, and asked Governor Robinson to ascertain and report what the persons arrested would do in the Rand territory, and whether they would be allowed in their cases pending trial, and whether they would be treated by the laws of the Transvaal government for acts of which the prisoners were accused, etc.

BLOCKED BY BEETEM.

Traction Company's Manager Interferes with Work of Peace Commission. Philadelphia, Jan. 16.—The commission composed of representatives from the citizens' committee, the Union Traction company and the employees of the latter corporation to arbitrate upon the grievances of the men of the company, met this afternoon, but in a session of two hours and a half, practically nothing was done. General Manager Beetem, of the Traction company, was present, and as he is not a member of the commission, the representatives of the employees objected to his presence, and over two hours were consumed in discussion before Mr. Beetem withdrew. The grievances of the men were formally presented, and then the commission adjourned until tomorrow.
