HE DROPPED DEAD.

George Correll, of Canaan Street, suddenly Passes Away.

A respected citizen of this city, George Correll of Canaan street, passed away very suddenly at 8 o'clock this morning. Mr. Correll was employed as fireman on the Delaware and Hudson engine, No. 57, of which he was in charge. They left the city about 7 o'clock this morning, and when they had arrived at Jermyn Mr. Correll told his engineer that he was ill and would be obliged to leave him and make for his home. He left the engine and entered the depot at Jermyn to wait for the arrival of his passenger train. He sat near the stove in the waiting room, and he had only been there a short time when he suddenly dropped to the floor, and when he was picked up life had disappeared.

From what could be gleaned he had not been subject to heart disease and last night was the first time his wife ever heard him complain of any pain in the region of the heart. He had always enjoyed the best of health, and was one of the happiest of men. Mr. Correll was a native of Sterling, Wayne county, and was a very popular and beloved resident of Carbondale for over thirty years. He has been connected for many years with the Order of Odd Fellows, the Knights of Pythias, the Masons and the Brotherhood of Railroad Firemen. He leaves a wife and one son and one daughter.
