

A sower in the court next to the new Gould building became blocked yesterday and it is feared that it is broken.

By a fall Thursday night Arthur, the 4-year-old son of Robert Harrington, of Fifth avenue, fractured his collar bone. The Prohibitionists will hold a conven-tion at Raub's hall, on Wyorning avenue, oh Monday evening at $ o clock, to nomi-nate a full city ticket.

now in Florida. It is his first winter in the North during many years. He remarked that the present fac-tional quarrels and strife of his party in Kentucky offered him no inclination for continuing his editorial work on his paper, the Louisville Courier-Journal.

REV. LANGE HAS RESIGNED.

No Longer Pastor of the Evangelical Church of Peace.

Church of Peace. Rev. August Lange has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Evangeli-cal Church of Peace, of Prospect ave-nue, the reason advanced for his step being that ill health forces him to take a rest from the arduous duties which devolve on the shepherd of a flock that has just undertaken the erection of a large new church.

Rarge new church. Rev. Mr. Lange came to this city and assumed the pastorate of the Hickory street German Presbyterian church afstreet German Presbyterian church af-ter the departure of Rev. C. L. Wiss-waesser. The new minister was a young man, just fresh from ordination in Bloomfield Theological seminary of New Jersey. After a year's incum-bency in the Hickory Street church, he resigned, but the congregation per-suaded him to reconsider his action, which he did, and he remained about six months longer, when he resigned again and absolutely refused to recant his ylews on the matter. The troubles of and absolutely refused to recard his views on the matter. The troubles of the Hickory Street church have ap-peared so often in print that to repeat them is uncalled for. From the church went with him over 100 adult members, it is claimed, and they organized a congregation of their own, called it the Church of Peace, and bown, cannot it the charten of France, and prevailed on Mr. Lange to assume the pastorate. The first inkling that all was not harmonious with the Church of Peace was a month ago, when Prof. John Lentes resigned from the position of organist and superintendent of the Sunday school. The congregation owns a lot on Prospect avenue and a large church is now in process of construction. Rev. Mr. Lange went to Philadelphia in the early part of the week. His wife and child had been there visiting relatives for ten days and she sent a telegram to him Tuesday that the child was ser-iously ill. He went to join them without delay after receiving the message. In a letter sent to a member of his congregation he announces his resignation as pastor and states that it is not his intention to return, but that his brother-in-law will arrive in a few days and settle all accounts against him. Rev. Edward Lang, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, Prospect avenue and Beech street, will likely be the one to administer to the spiritual wants of the Church of Peace until a pastor is chosen. The members feel very sore at the summary manner in which their pastor has departed. It was rumored that domestic troubles have all to do with Mr. Lange's depar-

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

The largest as well as the most per-The largest as well as the most per-fectly equipped operatic organization in the United States, with the single exception of Abbey, Scoeffel and Grau's Grand Italian Opera company, is the magnificent ensemble of artists in sup-port of Lillian Russell. Miss Russell's company numbers nearly one hundred people and for "The Grand Duchess," which will be sung during her tour through Pennsylvania, Miss Russell carries two carloads of scenery and cos-tumes. The magnificent production carries two carloads of scenery and cos-tumes. The magnificent production given "The Grand Duchess" at Abbey's theater, New York, is world famous, and it is precisely that production which will be seen from the stage of the Acad-emy Wednesday, January 29, for one performance only. The advance sale of seats and boxes for Miss Russell's ap-pearance, will begin on Wednesday morning. norning.

attempted repetition. Ilis Appearance on the Platform. Probably the majority of the audi-ence saw in Colonel Watterson, except in an oratorical sense, a person entirely different from the one they had plc-tured. In figure he is neither tail nor commanding and in face he looks the

The position of chief of fire depart-ment in a big city like Minneapolis, with its acres of valuable building property, crossed by numerous railroad lines and dotted with factories where the fires are never "banked." is one of the utmost responsibility, and can be entrusted only to a man of unques-tioned character and ability. August H. Runge, who has filled this responsible position for several years with so much credit to nimself and to the city, was born in New York in 1852, where he received a common school where he received a common schoo education. What such a man as this has to say can scarcely fail to carry weight with Paine's celery compound.'

"With the hope that what I say may in some way be brought to the atten-tion of others who, like myself, have suffered without any apparent cause, I feel constrained to recite a brief tale regarding an experience which I trust may never be repeated in my case.

"A few months ago, owing doubtless to the exacting nature of my duties as to the exacting nature of my duries as head of the fire department, I began to feel a sort of languor and listless-ness, to disguise which I was com-pelled to bring into play all the strength of will I could command. The feeling grew upon me, however, and in a short time it took such possession of reeing grew upon me, however, and in a short time it took such possession of me that it affected my appetite and caused insomnia. I approached my meals with a feeling amounting almost (Saturday, January 18) at 12.30 p. m., Card from Wagner & Reis. (Saturday, January 18) at 12.20 p. m., with fatigue cap, coat and white gloves, to attend the funeral of W. F. Thomp-gine company. By order of H. F. Ferber, Chief engineer, LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE, LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE, Glassware success of the play that at the expiration of the time allotted it at Palmer's it was by special arrangement trans-Lamps ferred to the big stage of the Academy of Music, where it continued to enor-mous business through the wane of ons, and we guarantee it to be first Democratic Nominees Will Go on the class in every particular. Silver-Yours very truly, Wagner & Reis, Managers the Frothingham. the season and far into the heat of the Ticket. summer months. It will be given here in its entirety. Scenic embellishments and mechanical effects, marvelous in A letter of accentance of the nominations accorded them was yesterday send by candidates James G. Bailey, C. G On Wednesday, January 22, we will Plated their accomplishments, are as much a open our magnificent new stock of Em-broideries, Laces, White Goods, Organ-Boland, Edmund J. Robinson, Daniel feature as the strength of the company P. Battle, James T. White and Charles A. Yoos, of the Democratic party. The dies. Indian Diminities and Sc otch letter was addressed to Edward F. Blewitt, chairman of the notification One of the admirable features of this season's great success. "A Social High-wayman." to be presented at the Froth-ingham Thursday, January 23, is the fact that Mr. Richard Mansfield has surrounded his stars, E. M. and Joseph Volland, with a company of artists long Ginghams. Finley's, Ware The Tribune Fund for the Home for the Friendless is growing, but it ought to grow a great deal more rapidly. Have you contributed to it? committee of the recent convention. The text of the letter says that as the honors came without solicitation, and believing that the ordinary obliga-ALWAYS UP TO DATE. PRICES LOW. tions of citizenship alone make it a plain duty for them to accept the nomi-Mothers-See flannel nightgowns for yourself and children at Baby Bazaar, Holland, with a company of artists long and favorably known to play-goers of all large cities, and who have always been prominent participants in the great successes, and under the best managements. 231 Penn Ave. Opp. Baplist Church. nations and they promise to make an honorable canvass for election. They have placed their cause in the hands of 512 Spruce street. No matter how small the sum, send the people and pledge them if elected a pure, honest, and clean administration it along to The Tribune Fund for the benefit of the Home for the Friendless, of city affairs. Sattlar's Galety Burlesque company will be the attraction on Monday, Tuesand it will be promptly acknowledged. EDWIN G. LLOYD'S NEW STORE The Artisans Building Association. The Artisans' Building and Loan asso-ciation is now ready to issue stock at The Lackawanna Ayenne Jeweler Will Remove to Hotel Jermyn. Edwin G. Lloyd, the well-known jew its office, 421 Lackawanna avenue, day or evening. First pay night, Saturday, Jan. 25, J. C. Vaughan, eler, will take possession of his new store, 127 Wyoming avenue, in the Ho-412 Spruce, tel Jermyn, on February 1. Mr. Lloyd has been engaged in the jewelry busi-ness on Lachawanna avenue for a num-Dr. Dunnell's Croup Powder, the Favorite medicine for croup, sore throat and cough. Sold by dealers, 25 cents a box. ber of years with marked success. His stock has been of the very best, and FUNDS FOR THE FRIENDLESS. Inquiries have been made as to his customers have found it a pleasure to deal with him. He will no doubt en 25 for 25c. joy increased prosperity in his new Lowest price on record for fancy quarters. arge Valencia oranges. E. G. Coursei After taking inventory we find we are carrying entirely too much stock. We can get along withis great deal less and can use the money to good situantage, therefore have concluded to reduce prices during the present month. Be-low are a few: Wants Picture? On third page we talk about framed pictures at price of glass alone. Read and come. Rexford's, 213 Lack'a ave.  ANEASYWAY TO GET Key West and Imported Cigars. Prices guaranteed lower than New York or Philadelphia. Light colors, Sugar Cured-Hams .0834 E. G. Coursen. - .8534 Bacon Light, Read to-morrow's Free Press for the latest news of every description. Inside Pure Lard .09 natest news or every description. Inside political sensations. The situation summed up editorially. Most beautiful and helpful woman's page. Illustrated humorous page. Music and drama. The biggest, brightest, best Sunday paper published. $3.75 Our Best Flour 20-lb. Pail Jelly -.52 30-lb. Pail Jelly .69 25 lbs. Buckwheat Flour-.39 Ice! Ice! I will deliver ice on the cars of D., L Feed, Meal and Corn .79 . & W. R. R. at Scranton, by the car-load, at sixty-five (65) cents per ton. Tribune will in turn receive vouchers. O^{UR} plan of rental, with rent to apply as purchase money, is very popular, and makes it possible for almost any family UR plan of rental, with rent Tea, Choice Grades .15 ٠ William H. Smith. ... Clark's Green, Pa. 3 lbs. 12c Candy -.25 Fine skating at the Driving Park. .25 to get a first-class instrument. Full particulars on application. 3 lbs. Mixed Nuts Music this evening (new building fund)..... 500 1-Ib. Package Starch .05 . Mrs. Henry A. Knapp..... 50 00 BORN. PULLIS-To Mr. and Mrs. James Pullis, of Elmhurst, a daughter. NAYLOR-TO Mr. and Mrs. William Nay-lor, of Duryes, on Jan. 15, 1895, a son. NAYLOR-TO Mr. and Mrs. George Nay-lor, of Old Forge, on Jan. 17, 1896, a daughter. 3-lb. Package Starch -.15 G. F. Schwenker..... 50 Powell's 1 lb. Corn Starch -.05 Total$155 50 .08 Music Store, Mustard Sardines ONLY THIS AND NEXT WEEK Oil Sardines . .04 1/ 226-230 WYOMING AVE. And lots of other good bargains. We have been opening up goods for the past three days and marking them at greatly reduced rates. DIED. INGALLS-In Dunmore, Jan. 17, 1596, John F. Ingalis, aged 72 years, at his home. Monroe avenue and Delaware street. Funeral from residence Monday at 2 p. m. Services will be conducted at North Main Avenue Christian church by Rev. D. M. Kinter, assisted by Rev. W. J. Foul, of Monsey Avenue Baplist church. Interment in Dunmore cemetery. THOMFSON-In Scranton, Jan. 16, 1896, W. F. Thompson. Funeral Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of his father, C. W. Thompson, 1825 San-derson avenue, Funeral private; inter-ment in Forest Hill cemetery. ANNOUNCEMENT. SPECIAL ms: Opt I have for sale some of the F. P. PRICE, Agent. best business Real Estate ever offered in this city. The location is central, and first- BESI SEIS OF ILEIN, 58.0 class investment in all reincluding the painless extracting of spects. 'Call for location and description in person to S. C. SNYDER, D. D. S., C. P. JADWIN, Tribune Almanac 1896 Cor. Penn and Spruce St. as CENTS, POSTPAID ED SPINCE STREET. 110 PAGES knew that the suggestion was a good one. I felt an improvement. I con-tinued to use, and felt restored. My appetite is good, and I sleep well, and instead of an irksome grind my business is again a pleasure to me. I at-tribute this happy state of affairs to Paine's celery compound." As in the case of Fire Chief Runge, the beginning of poor health is very apt to rob one of the will power to start immediately about getting out of dan-ger. It is this inertia of poor health that makes an ordinary "run down" bodily condition so dangerous, and so likely to go on to something worse. Ev-ery day it is clearly shown that it won't do to live tired-out, and on the verge of breaking down. The languor and the lack of strength are sure to increase. breaking down. The languor and the lack of strength are sure to increase. Now is the time to throw off disease. As the new year begins there are few-est hindrances to getting back strength and sturdy health. The bracing

IN FURS. We have purchased the entire stock and will sell them 35 cents on the dollar.

China Seal Capes, 30 inches long, 3 yards sweep, $6.49. Electric Seal Capes, 30 in. long, 3 yards sweep, $8.98. Electric Seal Capes, 30 in. long, 3 yards sweep, trimmed in bearskin and bearskin collar, $10.49.

Astrakhan Capes, 30 in. long, 3 yards sweep, made of solid skins, $6.98. Imitation Wool Seal Cape, 30 in. long, 3 yards sweep, $7.98.

Monkey Capes, 30 in. long, 3 yards sweep, $18.98.

Mink Capes, 27 in. long, 4 yards sweep, $40.00, formerly $120.

Persian Lamb Capes, 27 in. long, 4 yards sweep, $40.00, formerly $120.

COATS.

Astrakhan Coats, large sleeves, ripple back, $35.00, formerly $85.00.

Electric Seal Coats, large sleeves, ripple back, $35.00, tormerly $85.00. Alaska Seal Coats, large sleeves, ripple back, $100.00, formerly $225.00.

Cloth Coats and Capes for your own prices,

Guernsey Bros., represented by Attorney C. S. Woodruff, yesterday began a suit in replevin against W. H. Saut for one Ever-ett plano valued at $150.

Dr. B. H. Throop has given $2,000 for the Home for the Friendless. His wife has given $500 and their daughter, Mrs. Mary Phelps, the same amount.

An action in assumptit was yesterday begun by Porter & Thomas against Heal Bros. The amount of the debt is $446.70 with interest from Jan. 1, 1896.

The men who obtained a letter from the Pittston postoffice by fraudulent repre-sentations will have a hearing before United States Commissioner Colborn this formed

The Democratic city committee was not made up yesterday as was expected and it will probably not be announced for several days. It is said that Attorney M. A. Mc-Ginley will be the chairman of it.

Marriage licenses were granted yester-day to Kazmikos Balukanie and Stephnia Winiarski, both of the Ridge, Archbald borough; Jasenii Sohur and Anna Dud-kovna, Olyphani; Syzmek Mizianty and Teckha Kodysz, Mayfield; John J. Dolan and Katie Canfield, Carbondale.

and Katte Cannen, Carbondale. The Supreme court has refused a rehear-ing in the sult of Joseph Fellows and C. Smith against John H. Fellows and F. E. Loomis. The land involved in the proceed-ings is valued at $50,000. The refusal of the Supreme court settles the title be-yond all further question. The property now reverts to Joseph Fellows.

Among the blcycle enthusiasts who will go from this city to the blcycle show in Madison Square garden, N. Y., next week are Clarence M. Florey, Charles M. Schla-ger, A. W. Jurisch, Parker, Bittenbender, Willis Kemmerer, Harry Van Horn, Har-ry Rinehart, Richard Wambold, Charles Coleman and Robert Williams.

SCRANTON BUSINESS COLLEGE

Exactly fifty names have been added to the rolls suce Jan. 6. More will en-ter later.

George Schroeder has accepted a po-lifon with Architect Duckworth. Earl Parker is keeping books for the Freeman Manufacturing company. Francis B. Kain is stenographer for the National Elevator company at Honesdale.

A request for a bookkeeper came from a Williamsport firm Thursday; also one from the city. A young man from Middletown, N.

Y., became a member of the shorthand department this week. , A stenographer, who has been filling position for several years, will enter Monday to fit himself for the duties of an expert.

When Tired Out

Use Horsford's Acid Phosphate

It steadles the nerves, clears the brain and promotes digestion. Makes a pleas-ant and wholesome beverage. ribune.

Fresh Canned Vegetables

We represent the best packers in the country and our case price to families is as low as any wholesale price. "Best roods for least money" has always been

E. G. Coursen.

Globe Hotel.

Retween the Academy of Music and the Frothingham. Special rates made to the-atrical people and jurors. Rates 11.00 to $2.00 per day. Bird & Flanghan, Props. 20 Wyoming aye, Scranton, Pa.

Special attention and private dining rooms for dinner parties at Lohmann's, Spruce street. Service and cuisine un-excelled in this city.

HUYLER'S COCOA AND CHOCO-LATES are . unsurpassed for their purity and deliciousness of flavor. All Read to-morrow's Free Press for the atest news of every description. Inside official sensations. The situation immed up editorially. Most beautiful ad heipful woman's page. Illusirated umorous page. Music and drams. The biggest, brightest, best Sunday aper published.

commanding and in face he looks the scholar rather than the orator whose raised hand, few sentences and unwasted gestures have many times de-manded and been accorded silence and attention in conventions fraught with urmoll and factional strife. He does not, in repose, show himself a leader of men, although his stern, ruddy and soldierly visage, topped with a heavy growth of iron gray hair and with overhanging eyebrows and silver-white moustache and goatee would at any time proclaim him to be more than an ordinary man and would invite respect. It is when Colonel Watterson speaks, when he is on the platform, that the record of how he moves men is received. of players. secret of how he moves men is revealed. Then, it is the thought and heart of the man making themselves known with such force and strength that a person not affected by him would have to be very immobile, indeed. Intensity and force are most prominent in his utterances: of oratorical fire he has little, at least he didn't exhibit much of that quality last night, but his power and magnetism by means of strength and profound gesture were always appar-

day and Wednesday next at Davis' theater. It is represented to Manager Davis as a clean, excellent show, de-void of all objectionable features, and with an aggregation of merit rarely found in an organization of the kind. It was 8.20 when Colonel Watterson appeared on the stage and was intro-duced by ex-Justice Alfred Hand, as one whose fearlessness in support of truth had made him so well-known that an introduction to the audience seemed superfluous. Judge Hand remarked Prof. Austin presents a series of ar-tistic living pictures in conjunction that the audience would undoubtedly introduce fitself as the lecture pro-gressed-and it did. with the other features.

He Arrived Here at 6 P. M.

Colonel Watterson reached here on the 6 o'clock evening Lackawanna train from Philadeiphia, and registered at the Wyoming house, where he im-mediately ate supper and then went to his room and rested a short while be-fore dressing for the heature. He was whether The Tribune fund is to be devoted to the new building near the Oral school or to the more immediate current and incidental expenses of the Home fore dressing for the lecture. He was accompanied in the drive to the theater by Judge Hand and Henry Belin, jr. for the Friendless. In reply we will say that where no condition is attached by After the lecture a few gentlemen were introduced to Colonel Watterson in his dressing room. After the lecture Colonel Watterson the donor, we shall leave the disposition of the fund to the managers of the was a guest for an hour or so at the home of W. T. Smith on Jefferson ave-Home, it to be applied by them as they shall deem proper. Contributions to home of W. T. Smith on Jefferson ave-nue. Those present were: Judges of the Superior Court Orlady, Wickham, Reed-er and Willard, Col. H. M. Botes, Wil-liam Connell, J. A. Linen, H. J. Ander-son, Henry Belin, jr., J. B. Dimmick, ex-Justice Hand, James Archbald, A. E. Hunt, Charles R. Connell, A. D. Hol-land, Rev. Dr. James McLeod, Rev. Rogers Israel, ex-Licutenant Covernor the new building fund will, however, be acknowledged by us in this place, whenever donors shall express such a wish; and money thus received will be recelpted for and duly turned over to the Home management, from whom The

Before leaving the city this morning on the 1.40 train for New York Colonel Watterson paid a visit To the Tribune building and after being shown through the local, editorial and telegraph

Inspected. A Tribune reporter was granted an interview with Colonel Watterson in his room at the Wyoming, where he declined to discuss for publication several important current topics of na-

"I am out of politics and out of public "I am out of politics and out of public life, just nort," he said, "and any opin-ions of mine for public fise would not, I think, be in good thate." Colonel Watterson explained that his present instruction four is under the land, Rev. Dr. James McLeod, Rev. Rogers Israel, ex-Lieutenant Governor Watres, John E. Barrett, Talle Evans, of the Pittston Gazette, and Livy S. Richards and W. W. Davis, of The

This is The Tribune fund to date: The Scranton Tribune.....$100 00 St. Luke's church, "Tithes,"

partments, composing room and other departments of the paper, pronounced the plant one of the most complete and modern for its size that he had ever

Will the Cost Exchange Clothlers Remain in Screnton.

in Scranton. Before moving we invite the public to select some of these bargains that are left, such bargains as these are perhaps will never be had in Scranton for a long time to come and to get the choice of what is left you must come early. Un-derstand this is positively your last chance to buy clothing at less than half price at the Coal Exchange Clo-thiers, 120 and 132 Wyoming avenue. Colonel Watterson explained that his present lecturing tour is under the management of a lyceum bureau and will last until April 6, at Albany. Two days later he will join Mrs. Watterson and his children in New York, and sail for Europe. After a month or six weeks each in London and Paris (for the educational benefit of his children, he explained) he will go to Genoa, where he will occupy several months in writing a one-volume life of Lincoln for popular use. For this work he has already made a contract with the pub-lishers. Colonel Watterson's family is