COMMON COUNCIL MEETS.

A Breezy Session-The Members Air Their Feelings-R. D. Stuart, the City Solicitor, Censured-Resolutions and Bills Read and Ordered Paid.

The common council of the city met in regular session Tuesday night and neld a protracted meeting. The following members of the council were present: Messrs. Mills, (chairman), Lindsay, Kase, Devine, Colwell, Glennon, Mc-Donough and Baker. The members of the several committees reported as follows: The streets committee reported favorable in the Dilton avenue petition of the residents of the district for its re-opening as a convenience, The finance committee reported that the treasurer, L. Cramer, should give a rebate of taxation to John Hopkins in the sum of 75 cents, paid on property which was assessed both in the city and the township; the property is situated in the latter. Upon the explanation of the treasurer that he was satis fied that it was as stated, it was immediately agreed upon the motion of Mr. Glennon that the rebate be granted. The committee on light and heat had considered favorably upon the petition of the residents of Brook avenue for an are light, and it was concurred in. The park commissioner submitted his annual report and it was received. It reads as follows: To the Honorable Members of the Select and Common Councils of the City of Carbondate, Pa. Gentlement-I submit for your considerntion and approval the appended report of the receipts and Expenditures of the park commissioners for the year 1895: Exponditures

I would also suggest that the appropriation be increased to $300 instead of $200, as the care of the municipal grounds will cost as much as those of Memorial park. This will not conflict with the ordinance passed Dec. 14, 1885, as no stated sum is mentioned. The Grand Army of the Republic post elected the following commis-sioners: A. W. Daley, Isaiah Vandermark and J. M. Alexander, I would also suggest, that as the position I have held for nearly twelve years and now looks like life one, and is not a salaried one, that I be relieved from paying "dog tax."

Yours respectfully.

Why the Whistle Blew.

(From the Buffalo Evening News.)

If you were to call at 27 Front avenue you would find a pleasant elderly lady, Mrs. Captin Henesy by name. Her kindly smile and joyous manner are to no small extent due to the escape she has had. Her own words can better de-scribe her rescue and one can easily un-derstand her present happy condition when they realize what she has gone "rough. She says: "About five Lonths ago I had an attack of sickness which lasted for a week and since that time I have been subject at intervals to similar attacks, some of which were longer in duration. It is hard for me to describe how I suffered. The pain would commence in my head, after which it would seem to pass down my body and settle in my back, my sides ached, my back ached, and I had a feel-ing of great distress in the bowels. The increased pain which seemed to come from lying down, would be almost un-bearable, my face and stomach would bloat up and I could hardly stand on my feet, dizziness made it almost im-possible; this feeling was always with me even after the violence of the attack passed over. The hast attack I had was the worst, and was so bad I would not have been able to tell this story but for Doan's Kidney Pills. As soon as I com-menced their use I found immediate re-lief. The pain in my back and sides left me and the dizziness went with it; the bloating in my face and body dis-appeared and all distress in my bowela was gone. I have great failth in Doan's Kidney Pills; in a short time they did a great deal more for me than all the plasters and medicines which I had re-Her own words can better de-be her rescue and one can easily unscribe great deal more for me than all the plasters and medicines which I had re-sorted to in seeking relief and cure. Jim Watson, the engineer of this train, ever since the night his engine crushed out a life at that spot, has made that signal when he goes by there. It was on a forgy night, as I have heard Jim say, and the headlight only showed a big white bank of mist which he couldn't see through. "He had an uneasy feeling like men-have sometimes when something disas-trous is going to happen and that made him unusually alert. It was on a part of the road where the trains are scheduled up to a high rate of speed and Jim had her going at a lively pace. The feeling that there was something wrong could not be shaken off and he cursed the fog that shut out the track ahead.
