CITY WILL GET THE INTEREST

This Means That the City Treasurer's Office Will Be Worth $7,000 Per Annum Less Than Ileretofore. Repositories Also Designated.

The following is the full text of the ordinance introduced by Mr. Lansing in select council last night night, regulating the depositing of the city funds and providing for the verification of his accounts and realization of Interest upon unexpended city funds:

An Ordinance Designating the Deposito-ries of City Funds in the Hands of the City Treasurer; Providing for the Veri-fication of his Cash Accounts and for the Realization of Interest upon Unexpended City Funds. Sec. 1.—Be it ordained by the select and common councils of the eity of Scranton, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, that in compliance with the provisions of Article VIII, Sec. 2, of the municipal act of May 23, 1889, the follow-Remnant Sale ing-named banks and public depositories are named as the places in which public moneys in the hands of the city treasurer moneys in the hands of the city frequency shall and may be deposited, to wit: The First National bank, the Third National bank, Traders' National bank, Lackawanna Trust and Safe De-posit company, the Merchants' and Me-chanics' bank, the Scranton Savings bank, the Scranton Savings Bank and Trust company, the Dime Deposit and Discount bank, and the West Side bank; and the city treasurer shall not at any time have on deposit in any one of the said banks or depositories more than 20 per cent, of the gross amount of all city funds in his Short Ends of

As the matter WORKING FOR THE VIADUCT has been before council a long time Mr. Chittenden suggested that the mat-ter be referred to a committee for investigation and Mr. Roche had a reso lution passed withholding the payment of Koons' claims until the committee makes its report. By the provisions of a resolution introduced by Mr. Manley the city controller was directed to pay from the moneys due the Phoenix Bridge company the claim of the Barber Asphalt company for work done on the Roaring brook bridge, securing an indemnify-ing bond to protect the city in case of future litigation. A special committee, consisting of Messrs, Chittenden, Burns and Willlams, was appointed to present to the family of the late C. F. Mattes the engrossed copy of the resolutions adopted upon his death. The following ordinances passed third reading: Providing for the appointment of a second assistant city engineer; providing for an electric light on the corner of Deacon street and the boulevard, three lights in the Second ward, and one on Sunset avenue in the First ward; licensing night lunch wagons and other street venders; providing for the construction of a lat eral sewer on Monsey avenue, between Marion and Green Ridge streets; prohibiting the sale of goods, wares and merchandise at public auctions by any but licensed auctioneers.

IN COMMON COUNCIL.

What Was Done in the Lower Body the City Fathers.

The Barring & McSweeney detective bill will not down. After many months of flitting hither and thither and sojourns of more or less length in one committee box or the other, the auditing committee last night reported favorably upon it and select council approved of it and it was thought councils had seen the last of it. But this the city was liable for it, as the city solicitor, whose opinion he had quoted, has already ruled. City Engineer Phillips, in a communi cation, sent in the following estimates: For opening Oak street to connect with the proposed new turnpike, $6,998,16; for opening Vine street, $18,600. Of this latter amount $6,650 is pay for the land of Henry Reifenburg, $6,850 for the land of John Gehrens, $4,500 for the NECESSITY OF IMPROVEMENT Was Set Forth in Vicorous Language by

Powderly, Farr, Pitcher, Thomas and Others-The Resolutions Adopted by the Meeting.

Citizens of all classes, business men laborers, rich and poor, assembled last evening in St. David's hall, on North Main avenue, for the purpose of expressing West Side sentiment on the viaduct question. The meeting was called by the West Side board of trade whose committee has assisted greatly in engineering the Oliver viaduct reso lution through councils. About four hundred men were present and, despite the uncongenial weather, there was an abundance of enthusiasm. The following resolution was adopted:

Citizens of the city of Scranton, assem-bled now, Jan. 23, 1896, in public meeting to forward the project for construction of a vinduct on West Lackawanna avenue, between Seventh and Nath streets, hereby resolve

First, That the present grade crossing over the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad tracks is a menace to life and limb; therefore, the viaduet is a ne-cessity for public safety.

Second. That the aforesaid crossing causes such delays to pedestrians, vehicles and street cars as to ofen seriously interfere with business, therefore, in the interest of sity. Third, That as the number of taxables and the value of assessments in the Hyde Park wards entitle West Scranton to the viaduet, it should be built, Fourth. That the benefit which would result from the construction of the viaduct would concern the more than 30,000 people cils had seen the last of it, "Full this residing in West Scranton, and directly was not to be. Mr. Nealis moved to or indirectly every resident of the city. lengthen the agony by having it re-ferred to the finance committee and his motion prevailed by a vote of 10 to 6. notwithstanding Mr. Keller's efforts to show that the claim was just and that the city was liable for it, as the city the city to cast his ballot for the viaduct in the interest of public safety and a Greater Scranton.

> Ebenezer Williams, F. J. Johnson,

At 8 o'clock President T. F. Mason, of the West Side board of trade called the meeting to order by calling for nominations for chairman of the evening.

Hon, T. V. Powderly was named by Dr. P. F. Strapper. The name of the mag-netic ex-labor chieftain and lawyer was received with cheers and Mr. Powderly was unanimously elected. In accepting the honor Mr. Powderly said in brief:

"We have knocked for admission to the city of Scranton for the past fifteen years, but the railroad on West Lackawanna avenue has made entrance inconvenient to such a degree that we are in reality still on the outside. We should not be merely hitched to the city but should be a part. We cannot be amalgamated while that railroad is a barrier.

"We need the railroads but we need a bridge to cross them. I compute that five hours are wasted every day because of blockades on West Lackawanna avenue. How many dollars this means, I canot tell, but I do know that the barrier retards business and is a constant menace to life and limb. We have the Linden street bridge, which

NOVEL KIND OF MEETING.

Up to date Topics of Epworth Leaguers in Elm Park Church.

A novel programme of addresses was suggested for last night's meeting of Epworth league of Elm Park church by the present great problems of international and diplomatic discussion. Cuba, Armenia and Venezuela and allied subjects had been assigned several speakers, each having a separate topie. While the subject matter of the speakers gave the meeting a most pronounced patriotic tone, there was a quantity of valuable religious sentiment and suggestions for international charity and forbearance thrown into the speeches.

"The United States Navy" was the subject teated by Mark K. Edgar, secretary to Mayor Connell; "American History," by G. F. Reynolds; "Christian Citizenship," by H. H. Beidleman; "Reserves," by W. H. Peck; "Monroe Doctrine," by W. M. Curry; "Cuba and the Cubans," by Attorney S. W. Edgar; "Results of a War with England," by F. A. Beidleman.

nform to any of the prov ordinance. The ordinance was referred to the finance committee, reported forthwith and passed on first and second readings all within the space of one hour, a rec-ord made possible by the new regulation which permits a committee to report an ordinance printed if reported favorably.

Mr. Wagner's Objections.

Mr. Wagner objected to the ordinance going through on first and second readings, as it had not been thoroughly digested. Mr. Lansing stated that five members of council had conferred with older and younger social element was the city solicitor in drafting the ordinance and they had given it careful and thorough consideration. Moreover, there was no necessity of delaying the ordinance, as it would have to lay over until the next meeting for consideration on third reading, at which time it can be amended, if such proceeding is deemed advisable. Mr. Chittenden ex-plained the necessity of hastening the James McLeod, Judge and Mrs. Alfred passage of the ordinance by stating that such a measure must be adopted before the new city treasurer is inducted to office, or it will possibly have the law which provides that the compensation of an officer can not be raised or lowered during his incumbency.

The city treasurer, said Mr. Chitten den, is at present receiving in addition to his salary interest amounting to about $7,000, which rightly should go to the city. Mr. Williams also spoke for the immediate passage of the ordinance. The vote in favor of the measure was overwhelming.

keport of Park Commissioners

The report of the park commissioners, Ezra H. Ripple, Thomas J. Moore and D. P. Mannix, proved to be a very interesting document. After reciting the improvements made during the year, the report went on to state that there were eighteen church picnics held in Nay Aug park and upwards of 100,000 people visited there during the year. On Sundays during the summer from 7.000 to 8.000 people were usually on the grounds. There were no accidents of any kind and good order prevailed. The arrests which were made were as follows: Vagrancy, 12: discharging firearms, 7; destroying park property, 6: bad conduct, 2; drunkenness, 1; total. 28. At Connell park there were many family picnics, a Young Women's Christian association picnic, and two kindergarten school picn'es. The Sunday attendance averaged about 2,000. Mayor Connell sent in the following Crystal Hose company appointments.

which were referred to the fire depart ment committee: George A. Connors engineer; M. McManus, stoker; Isaac Tice and John Lilly, drivers. The approximate estimate of the cost of paving Spruce street between Penn and Franklin avenues submitted by City Engineer Philips is $6,123, of which amount the city pays one-half and the property holders the other.
