Effort Made to Disband the Hyde Park Literary Society-Action Taken in Mr. Edwards' Office.

It is to be regretted that a society with such good intention as the Hyde Park Literary society should be the scene of factional disorder. Several months ago an attempt was made to disband the so-ciety, but the majority of the members were opposed to the movement, and the were opposed to the movement, and the suggestion fell flat. Some of the members are dissaffshed with the condition of things and an coffrt was made last night to dissolve the organization. As it was the regular meeting night of the society six members gathered at the accustomed meeting place in the rooms of the Free library on South Main avenue. As seven is necessary for a quorum, a meeting could not be held and the members depart-

It Was a Successful Fair.

The fair which closed Saturday night and had been running since the holidays under the auspices of the congregation of St. Mary's German Catholic congregation, netted over $2,000, which is a very satisfactory sum in view of the business depression on the South Side, owing to the sus-pension of work at the steel mills. The exact amount cleared is not known, because there are some outstanding ac-counts yet to be heard from, which are only small matters; but the proceeds are a little over the sum named. For the suc-cessful ending of the fair the greater part of the credit is due Rev. P. C. Christ, the pastor, whose untiring labor and guid-ance served to bring about the result, Rev. Father Christ is duly grateful and he has ommunicated his thanks to all who in any way contributed to help along the fair. The money will go into the church

GOT THE NOTES IN NEW YORK

They Came from the Hendquarters of the Gang Recently Arrested in That City-Perone's Brother Is a Prisoner at Williamsport.

Charles Palmer and Charles Perone, the Sicilians arrested at Pittston on Jan. 15. for passing counterfeit $5 bills, were given a hearing before United States Commissioner Colborn yesterday morning and committed to the county jall in default of $2,000 bail. They will be tried at the March term of the United States District court in this city. Attorney W. H. Gillespie, of Pittston, appeared for the accused, and Assistant District Attorney Samuel Griffiths, of Pittsburg, was the representative of the United States.

The evidence showed that on or about Jan. 14 the two accused men passed thirteen counterfeit bills on residents of Pittston. In their case thirteen proved an unlucky number for after the thirteenth was put in ciruclation they were arrested and now have an expectancy of a long term of imprisonment in the Western peniten-

The witnesses examined at the hearing yesterday were: Secret Service Detec-tive Mathew Griffin, G. W. Brown, detective for the Lehigh Valley railroad; Alderman Thomas Loftus, R. E. Bennett. Max Ludwig, sr., Max Ludwig, jr., Patrick Collins, Thomas J. Kelley, Charles Ouinn.

Immedaitely after the men were arrested they were given a preliminary hearing and were committed to jail pending yesterday's final hearing. They told Secret Service Officer Griffin that they got the counterfelt bills from a macaroni dealer in New York city. They gave the address of the dealer and it appears that he resides at the address where the secret service officers arrested a number of counterfeiters in New York 'wo weeks ago.

Her husband seems to have been a worthles fellow, who left her with seven children to support. Henry Irving has ever since allowed her $5 a week from his private purse, which she supplemented by taking as a border a Mrs. Pearson.
