BURIAL OF ELIAS THOMAS.

The Services Largely Attended Yesterday

The funeral of Elias Thomas, who departed this life on last Thursday afternoon, took place from his new residence at Wilson Creek, this city. A large number of persons had assembled at the residence at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, when the Rev. Charles Lee of the Presbyterian church, preached a powerful discourse which was delivered from the words of St. Paul: "For me to live is Christ and to die is gain."

At the Brookside cemetery the beautiful ritual of the brotherhood of the Shields of Honor was said and the Rev. Lee said a few words and offered prayer.

There were many relatives and friends from a distance, among whom were David, his son, and wife, of New York; Lottie and her husband, of New Jersey; John, his wife and mother-in-law, Mrs. Roberts, of Dighton, Pa.

THE DOUBLE FAIR.

Winner of the Fifty Dollar Door Prize

The fair was crowded to its utmost capacity last Saturday night. Over 900 people paid for admission, and the party hall was very animated. All the people had a good time. The entertainment had a very excellent programme which was very much enjoyed. The band seemed to excel itself and the performances were rapturously enjoyed. J. C. Leonard, the comedian, was also engaged for his many specialties. The dance music was provided by Prof. Ronnie and a large number who played the fantastic music was an ample proof of its popularity.

There was repeated a drawing of the fifty dollar door prize, since the last draw, the owner of the number failed to claim his prize, notwithstanding all the advertising the number had had. Now the lucky number was No. 96, and the ticket was in the possession of Peter Larkin, of the Herald office, in this city, and he is today receiving the congratulations of his friends.

Probably the fair will close tonight and that the success has been phenomenal. The profit of the undertaking has been assured and a good sum has been realized which will be for the better equipment of both companies.

TOTALLY BLIND.

Such is the Misfortune of George Dennis, of Wilson Creek Mines.

Some time ago George Dennis met with a serious accident at the Wilson Creek mines, which caused him to lose one of his eyes. He has suffered very much and recently he had gone to Philadelphia to have the other eye treated by an eye specialist.

Now information is to hand that the second eye ball has had to be removed, so that now this unfortunate man is totally blind.

Scrofula Broke Out

On our boy when a baby. We gave him much treatment without avail. Noticing in the papers Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended for scrofula and blood diseases we gave it a trial. We soon saw a change for the better. He has taken four bottles Hood's Sarsaparilla and is now entirely well, hearty and free from all scrofulous symptoms. I have also taken three bottles for my own skin, scalp and catarrh. It gave me great relief." MRS. T. M. SMITH, Kuther Glen, Va.

The sad and sudden news of the demise of Captain Joseph H. Hurst reached this place last Saturday, he having been found dead in his room at the home of his brother J. W. Hurst, in Herkiville, on that morning.

The day previous he had been at the county seat and returned that night supposedly to be feeling as well as common, although his health had been on the decline for some time.

Mr. Hurst was known to the members of the Grand Army of the Republic through his wife's connection, he being a member of the United States army and but a few years ago placed on the retired list, and up to the time of his death was allowed a liberal commission.

He will be greatly missed in this county, as he was always found willing to assist in public exercises.

When called upon, we have been unable to secure a notice of the funeral.

Several of our young people were entertained at Frank Nichols' last Thursday evening. Dancing was the principal feature of the evening's entertainment.

Supper was also served.

The World's Fair Phonograph Concert company are billed for school hall this week, Monday and Tuesday evenings.

The "wonder" is under the management of L. S. Tuttle, who comes highly recommended by the press and general public. They come from Nichols, N. Y., where they had a three-night stand, which goes to show that their programme must be of a high order and well appreciated.

Their instrument is said to be one of the finest ever carried on the road. We bespeak for the gentlemen crowded houses, and we hope next week to say more in their favor as they expect to soon visit the many towns of the Tribune's territory.

Parties seem to be a great craze among our friends these days, as several have recently been held nearby.

Last Friday evening a very pleasant one was had at the Methodist parsonage in honor of Miss Mattie Warnock's birthday.

A sumptuous repast was served and it is needless to say that the guests were themselves justly entertained.

The guests were: Messes Mattie Johnson, Lizzie Rockwell, Maud Coolbaugh, Ada Buttler, Nellie Miller, Grace Gorham, Helen Moore, Ethel Babcock, Carrie Agnew, Carrie Rogers, Mable Morris, Lena Ellisworth, Minnie Parks, Mattie Gonsworth, Nellie Hutchinson, and Messes, Albert Miller, Arthur Worden, Ben Maynard, Judson Coleman, B. POOR POLICY

We have always considered it, without regard to ethics, poor business policy to depart from the lines of strictest truth in the statements contained in our advertisements.

We think, however, like the woman who killed the goose that laid the golden egg.

We Are in Business for "Keeps."

Very often we have rare bargains for our customers. Then is the time when we want what we say to be implicitly believed, and we never intend to advertise a single article or group of articles or a special sale of any kind without a thorough foundation, in fact, when you see it in an "Economy" ad it's so.
