ONE DAY'S GREAT RECORD

Elm Park Church Gives $2,500 to the Missionary Society.

CHAPLAIN M'CABE CAUSED IT

Sustained file Reputation as a Successful Pleader-His Hearers Could Not Withstand Ilis Famed Persistent Appeals-His Evening Sermon.

Chaplain McCabe, who individually has raised more money for domestic and foreign missions and other purposes of the Methodist Episcopal church than any other three or four, and maybe more, men, collectively, was in Scranton yesterday. He succeeded in securing cash and pledges to the amount of $2.500 from Elm Park church members and organizations and preached two very interesting sermons in that edifice. This sum is believed to be the largest ever raised in one day in a Scranton church for such an object. a Scranton church for such an object.

The money will go into the general fund of the Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church, for which association Chaplain McCabe is the fa-mous solicitor of money. He has made several visits to Elm Park church. The first time he obtained $500. It is esti-mated that the congregation today is mated that the congregation today is three times as large and three times as influential as when Chaplain McCabe first personally solicited their aid, so the $2,500 he secured yesterday does not indicate that his peculiar fitness for getting money has in any way diminished.

In the afternoon Chaplain McCabe was greated by a large congregation in Cash and Pledges Received. At the close of the morning service in Elm Park church Chaplain McCabe secured each and pledges to the amount of $950, the Sunday school sub-scribed $800 and during the day enough other piedges were received to make a total of $2,050 when began the evening service and during which the remaining $450 of the $2,500 was obtained.

The chaplain's evening sermon was one of his many attractive discourses which the present the blass which the present the blass. one of his many attractive discourses which suggest to his auditors the blessing of giving and it quite properly led up to the plea, at its conclusion, for aid. His remarks were upon the text. Psalms lyxicits and 19 nd amen." Psalms, lxxii:18 and 19. He emphasized the truth that God's works only are wonderful, and that works only are wonderful, and that what is commonly described as the greatness of man really consists only in man's discovery of God's natural powers and their application. Watts, who first studied steam power, and Stevenson, who applied the power, Edison and Morse displayed their inventive greatness in discovering and applying God's natural powers rather plying God's natural powers rather than by creating any power of their

EASTER CANDLE BLESSED. Feast of Candlemas Day Observed at St. Peter's Cathedral.

Candlemas day, or the Feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary, was observed yesterday at St. Poter's cathedral with the usual pomp and ceremony of the occasion. Right Rev. Bishop O'Hara blessed the Easter candle and preached the sermon. He explained the object of the candles as being the fire of faith and his discourse throughout was most eloquent. Masses will be said today and the candles for the congregation will be blessed. Yesterday was the regular feast day, but it being Sunday the practical part is left for today.

People living in that neighborhood heard a pistol report about 4.20 o'clock and soon after men were seen hurrying out of the house. The police were informed of the affair and upon going to the place found W. H. Johnson, president of the club, stretched on a bed with a bullet wound in his hip.

He succeeded in separating them with the assistance of some others who were present and after locking the one man in a room returned to eject Lewis who was the agressor. While his back was turned he received a bullet from the revolver which Lewis was flourishing. The wounded man persisted in denying to the public that Lewis shot him intentionally and refused to have a warrant issued for his arrest. Lewis escaped after the shooting and has not as yet been apprehended.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

be presented at Davis' theater, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next. The action of the play occurs in Texas, and tells of the rivalry which existed between two warm-hearted, yet hot-blooded Texans, in love as well as in business. A grand production of the Texas Derby is decidedly a feature, and one from which the play derives its name. King Faro, the finest leaping horse in the world, a recent importation from England, will be introduced, as well as two Derby thorough-breds, Victor and Bay Prince. "The Derby Mascot" is an up-to-date comedy-drama, compris's; many starting features and exciting scenic effects never before presented in this city.

The wonder of the amusement world is how Corse Payton can carry his own car loaded with magnificent scenery and effects costing over $19,000 and make money playing at 10, 20 and 30 cents, but he has been doing it for two seasons and is making money. He says it pays to give only good and complete performances at any price, and judging by the crowded houses he is receiving wherever he plays he must be right. He begins a week *Angagement at the Frothingham this evening in Bartley Campbell's masterplece in five acts, entitled "The Galley Slave," when ladies will be admitted free if accompanied by a paid 30-cent ticket purchased before 6 p. m. of that day.

This evening at the Academy of Music "The White Slave," one of the late Bart ley Campbell's best dramas, will be pro-duced under the management of his sons duced under the management of his sons. The play treats of negro slavery with much originality. It has strength and beauty, humor and pathos, a good plot and a number of powerful situations. Opportunity for realistic tableaux, scenery and stage effects are frequently afforded. The scenes are most effective. The drama is mounted in superb style.

The part taken by Frank Bush in the new farce-comedy, "Girl Wanted," which Manarers Davis and Keogh are producing and which is to have a presentation in this city at the Academy of Music on Tuesday next, enables that versatile comedian to show his talent for impersonating all sorts of characters. He has opportunity to portray a young man of great assurance, a gaunt Yankee countryman, a little German girl a New York tough boy, a Hebrew, an Irishman, and a bandsome operatic prima donna. Those who have seen the work of this remarkable entertainer in the field to which it has hitherth been confined, know that this many-sided part is quite within Mr. Bush's powers. With him a large and clever number of people are associated. The funny events of "citrl Wanted" occur in and on a flat building in New York.

Call for the second Caucus. Judge Edwards says in his opinion that the first caucus was not regularly called end even if the call should be called and even if the call should be recognized on account of the failure of the member of the city committee to call a caucus in time, the notice was not specific enough, nor was it made in time. The caucus held on Jan. 20 was called by the proper authority, but the notice was entirely insufficient.

There are about 400 Democratic votes in the Third ward and the result shows that each set of candidates and their friends held a caucus in their own their friends held a caucus in their own interest. Neither one was a caucus of the Democrats of the Third ward. The purpose of the notice in each case failed. The member of the city committee. Judge Edwards said, should have performed his duty regardless of the candidates, and called a caucus in time. The will of the Democrats of the Third ward was not expressed in either of the caucuses, and it was therefore adjudged that both certificates were invalid and none of the candidates named in either certificate is entitled to a place in the Democratic entitled to a place in the Democratic column on the official ballot. Both sets of candidates have filed nomination pa-pers and they will come before the vot-ers on election day, notwithstanding the ruling of the court.

From Dyspepsia and Stomach Some Things Trouble.

INSTANTLY RELIEVED AND PER-MANENTLY CURED BY STUART'S DYSPEP-SIA TABLETS.

New Discovery, But Not a Patent Medicine Dr. Redwell relates an interesting ac count of what he considers a remark-able cure of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia by the use of the new discovery. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. He says: The patient was a men who had suffered to my knowledge for years with dyspepsia. Everything he ate seemed to sour and create acid and rasses in the storocch, he had pain like gases in the stomach; he had pains like rheumatism in the back, shoulder blades and limbs, fullness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh; the heart became affected, caus-ing palpitation and sleeplessness at

I gave him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedles, but to no purpose. As an experiment I finally bought a fifty cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediately relief was given and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearances fully cured.

There was no more addity or sour watery risings, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he has gained between 10 and 12 pounds in weight of solid, healthy flesh. Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores yet I consider them a most valuable addition to any physician's line of remedles, as they are perfectly harmless and can be given to children or in-valids or in any condition of the stomach with perfect safety, being harm-less and containing nothing but vege-table and fruit essences, pure pepsin and Golden Seal. Without any question they are the safest, most effective cure for indigestion, biliousness, constipation and all derangements of the stomach however slight or severe. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are made by the Stuart Co., of Marshall, Mich. and sold by druggists everywhere at
