A cry of horror from the lips of a half-dozen workmen and several pe-destrians on Lackawanna avenue yes-terday morning was justified by the

POLITICAL CHIT-CHAT.

E. M. Strong, the Republican candidate

Fred L. Wormser, who has for years been one of the most valuable and earnest members of the board of control, is a candidate for re-election from the Eighth ward. His Democratic opponent is John J. Gorman. There is no doubt that Mr. Wormser will be returned. For common council William J. Schiffer is the candidate of the Republicans of that ward and John J. Flanaghan has been named by his Democratic neighbors. Indications point strongly to the election of Mr. Shiffer.

In the Second ward a spirited contest is in progress between C. H. von Storch and A. L. Francois for the office of school controller. Mr. von Storch is a Republican and at present represents the ward. He has made such a good record that a large percentage of his reighbors want to send him back again. Mr. Francois is the nominee of the Democrats of the ward and is making as good a fight as can be expected under the circumstances.

FATHER HOBAN IS NAMED

Will Be Condjutor to Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Hara of This Diocese.

SOME PACTS ABOUT HIS LIFE

He Is a Comparatively Young Man of Scholarly Attalaments Who Was Educated in This City and at Rome.

As foreshadowed in The Tribune in October last, Rev. Michael J. Hoban, of Ashley, is to be coadjutor to Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Hara.

A bulletin announcing his appointment as "asistant bishop" was received last evening, but as nothing was known of the matter at the Engagest resi. sketch: Miss Mary Powell, vocal solo; John Dempsey, song and dance; Miss Genevieve Manly, declamation. Hugh Frayne, monologue; Miss Mamle Shearin, vocal solo; Richard Gaughan, banjo solo: Miss Nellie Lawless, vocal solo; selections by Washington quartette, composed of Henry Miller, Ir., Theodore Sheppleman, John Kerr and Fred Pulaski; P. J. Noon, eccentric comedian; P. J. Moore, vocal solo; O'Malley and Lewis, negro sketch; Master Thomas O'Donnell, vocal solo.

Following the entertainment dancing was indulged in for several hours. last evening, but as nothing was known of the matter at the Episcopal residence or by Father Hoban himself, where the information would be naturally first known, The Tribune directed the New York office of the United Press to query Rome for a confirmation of the report. While awaiting an answer to their cablegram the United Press received from London what can be safely taken as a sure confirmation and fortaken as a sure confirmation and for taken as a sure confirmation and for-warded it to this office at 1 o'clock this morning. It was as follows: London, Feb. 5.—The Standard tomor-row will publish a dispatch from Rome announcing the appointment of Rev. Michael J. Hoban, of Ashley, Luzerne county, Pa., as bishop of the diocese of Scranton.

The word "bishop" in the above should be conductor, of course. The mistake no doubt occurred in the different translations which the message underwent between the Vatican and this country. The language of the Vatican is Latin, and no doubt the information was first couched in that language. Then to be transferred by wire it was turned into French, in which language cablegrams are forwarded from the continent. Then in London it was turned into English and either through the confusion of synonym or of some translator's ignorance of the distinctions it is quite palpable that the error occurred in this way. ferent translations which the message

At all events coadjutor is the office to which Father Hoban has been appointed as The Tribune was positively assured at the Episcopal residence, The messages merely falled to make the fine distinctions.

Sketch of Rev. Farther Hoban. Rev. Father Hoban was born in 1853 in Waterloo, N. J., where his father, Patrick Hoban, was engaged on conbig flagstones than the stone cracked and without a second's warning snapped plumb across the center and dropped about ten feet into the cellar. With it went Neu and Burke. The two pieces of stone fell in a V shape.

Many were afraid to look into the opening, as the possibility of surviving a fall along with three tons of iron and two huge nieces of flagging did not seem possible. Burke was comparatively uninjured. Neu had one arm broken and badly crushed, his scalp cut open and two ribs broken. He was taken to the office of Dr. L. M. Gates on Washington avenue where his wounds were dressed. Later he was removed in a Lackawanna hospital ambulance to his home on the South Side.

After one year at the seminary he was selected by Bishop O'Hara to study at the American college in Rome and in the fail of 1875 he salled for Rome. He studied there for five years, at the end of which time he was ordained to the priesthood, the ceremony being performed in the Church of St. John of Lateran, one of the oldest churches in Rome. One of his preceptors at the American college was Cardinal Satolli.

Father Finnen and Rev. Father Hoban. Father Finnen's earnest re-quest that his name should not be conquest that his name should not be considered virtually decided that Father Hoban would be the choice. This forecast was verified when the action of the convention was made public and it was seen that Father Hoban was nominated as "dignissimus"; Rev. Father Garvey, of Williamsport, as "dignior," and Rev. Father Coffey, of Carbondale, as "dignus."

While Father Hoban is not one of the most prominent of the priests of the diocese in the eyes of the general public he is such nevertheless and is regarded by his fellow priests who know him best as one of the most illustrious of their number. That he has not attained more prominence before the public is due to his retiring disposition and the fact that he is a great student, spending all the time he can spare in the company of his books in his somewhat obscure pastorate in Ashley. One of his greatest distinctions is his thorough and extensive education. While Father Hoban is not one of Henry Coyle and his old adversary, Morgan Sweeney, are again opposing each other in the Twelfth ward. Mr. Sweeney is the present common councilman of that ward and he wants to succeed himself, Mr. Coyle is an ex-councilman and he would like another term. He has been nominated by the Republican and Independent Democratic voters of that ward and Mr. Sweeny has received the Democratic nomination. The candidates on the ticket with Mr. Sweeney are: For school controller, James O'Boyle; for assessor, James McCann; for constable, John C. As a traveller, too, he has some renown, having had excellent opportunities of enjoying his tastes in that direction. His summer vacations while at school in Rome were spent in touring Europe and about two years ago he made an extended visit to the Holy Land, making a quite thorough tour of Egypt at the same time. These accomplish-ments coupled with his plety, executive ability, earnestness and affability make him peculiarly fitted for his

The exact meaning of the term "as sistant bishop" which the cablegram contains is not thoroughly clear. It is thought to mean suffragin bishop, but thought to mean suffragin bishop, but this is believed to be a mistake, as a coadjutor was asked for and it is to be expected that the request would be literally adhered to in the granting of it. The difference between "assistant bishop" and suffragin bishop and coadjutor to a bishop is quite marked. The distinction will be seen by a perusal of the definitions of both terms given below in full as printed in Addis given below in full as printed in Addis & Arnold's Catholic dictionary, a stan-

& Arnold's Catholic dictionary, a standard authority on such matters:

Suffragin Bishop.—The term has two meanings, according to the two-fold signification of the Latin verb from which it is derived. In the more common sense it means an auxiliary bishop who is consecrated to assist another bishon, who, from age, ill health or other valid reason has become unequal to the administration of his diocese. But the suffragin, unlike the condjuior, cannot exercise jurisdiction; he only performs those things which belong to the episcopal office and order; he may, However, be nonlinated by the bishop, whom he assists as his vicar-general, in which case he has the right to exercise jurisdiction. In the other sense those are suffragin bishops who are members of a college having equal deliberative and decisive rights under a metropolitan.

If a coadjutor is required for a bishop, the nominaton belongs to the pope, any usage to the contrary notwithstanding. The various infirmities which justify coadjutorable—serious and incurable filness, leprosy, loss of speech, etc.,—are specified in the canon law. In the case of a bishop the terms "administrator" and "suffragin" mean much the same as coadjutor, the differences being that the administrator's function ceases when the bishop resumes charge of the diocese or dies, and a suffragin assists the bishop in things which relate to his ministry, but has no jurisdiction; while a coadjutor has jurisdiction, and his rights may, as we have seen, by special papal permission, subsist after the death of the coadjutor. At the episcopal residence last evening it was stated to a Tribune reporter that Father Hoban's appointment, if it is true that the appointment has been made, is to the office of coadjutor and it is true that the appointment has been made, is to the office of coadjutor and that it carries with it the right to sucession

Will Not linve to Go to Rome. As is somewhat generally supposed, Father Hoban will not have to go to Rome to be inducted to office. His con-secration will probably occur here in the cathedral and by Rt. Rev. Bishop the cathedral and by Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Hara. These details, however, are subject to agreement and will be arranged by consultation between the bishop and the coadjutor. The ceremony will be virtually the same as those which attend the consecration of a bishop.

To sum the matter up briefly the coadjutor will assist in the episcopal functions, having the authority to per-form any and all of them, but be-functions, having the authority to perform any and all of them, but being subject to the will of the bishop in their performance. He can not act independently of the bishop.

Whether or not the coadjutor will move to Scranton or remain at his present pastorate is also a detail left to the discretion of the bishop. With the conferring of the pallium Father Hoban becomes a doctor of divinity, which degree the office carries with it.

PREPARING THE MAJORITA

Daily Gains for the Republican Ticket on the West Side.

LEADERS ARE ENTHUSIASTIC

lany Sanguine That Hyde Park Will Roll Up an Unprecedented Republican Vote-Some Difficulty in the Fourth and Fifteenth Wards.

Despite the past efforts of a handful of leading bolters and despite the present great effort of the Democratic organization, the Republican strength on the West Side is increasing daily. While a week or ten days ago it was feared there would be some cutting in the West Side wards and that the normal Republican vote could be made with only hard and laborious work. present indications are that Colonel Ripple, Mr. Williams and Mr. Widmayer, together with the Republican candidates for assessors, will get at least 1,000 and maybe 1,200 majority in that section of the city.

This statement is based upon careful and minute investigation and it might and minute investigation and it might be further stated that many Democrats have this early announced their deter-mination to vote the straight Republican ticket. In accounting for this con-dition there does not appear to be any dition there does not appear to be any specific grudge or reason for throwing over Mr. Bailey and the other Demoocratic candidates; it is simply a case of loving Bailey less and Ripple more. This Democratic vote, on the West Side at least, of itself argues a support by Republicans of the same vocations. The Democrats who will vote the Republican ticket are miners and laboring men who believe that in Colonel Ripple they have a friend and a man who can be trusted with their interests, and no amount of Democratic argument or money seems to move them gument or money seems to move them from their opinion. Among Republi-can wage-earners this feeling or senti-ment, or whatever else it may be called. for Colonel Ripple is just as prevalent as among their fellow-workmen who are Democrats.

Assurance of Victory Is Stronger. Assurance of victory is Stronger.

Among prominent Republicans the assurance of victory is more noticeable now than on last Saturday or Monday evening. The annoyance which came from the howlings of the rump convention chorus has entirely subsided in all but one ward, the Fifteenth, where lives Thomas D. Davies, the defeated candidate for the treasurer nomination. The fact that Fellows lives in this ward candidate for the treasurer nomination. The fact that Fellows lives in this ward will have little or no bearing on whatever cutting the ticket may get, as in this or any other West Side ward his power for evil or good is not considered especially important. In the Hyde Park wards he is considered a political backnumber with a backnumber's usual ragitail following. But Mr. Davies' refusal to openly work for the ticket has been taken by his friends as a sign that they should work against it. They are doing so in a spasmodic and half-hearted way but are sufficiently numerous to make impossible a prediction of the result in the Fifteenth.

As previously mentioned in The Tri-of the result in the Fifteenth.

As previously mentioned in The Tribune, the miners at the Briggs shaft and other Republican and Democratic voters of the Fourth ward are directly and indirectly being influenced through William Penn Morgan, coal superintendent of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company, to knife the Republican ticket, Ripple in particular.

Aside from the Fifteenth and Fourth wards the Republican campaign work is gradually meeting a success fur in excess of what the city committee had excess of what the city committee had dared to hope. Inquiry among West Side men thoroughly in touch with the situation reveals a general prediction that the Republican majority on the West Side will be more than normal while many are sanguine that it will reach eleven or twelve thousand.

As Dr. Paine Views It. W. A. Paine, ex-president of the West Side Republican league, said yes-terday to a Tribune reporter: "Colonel Ripple will receive the usual Republican majority in this section of the city and there will be a corresponding vote for Mr. Williams and Mr. Widmayer. I am confident of this, but would not be surprised at a Republican majority of over 1,100. Two wards, the Fifteenth and Fourth are not in the best of shape, speaking from a Republican stand-point, but there will be a great improvement before election day. Gener provement before election day, Generally the situation has for two weeks shown a gradual but marked change for the better. We are hearing less about bolters every day."

William S. Mears, president of the West Side Republican club, said: "We are perfectly satisfied with the results of the campaign work. The cry about Republican opposition to the Republican candidates is not borne out by facts. There will at least be the usual Republican majority from this section of the city; it may be more than usu-

Druggist John J. Davies said: "Re-publican leaders have made only one mistake since the convention and this remark applies as well to me and many others who are not known as 'leaders.'
We paid too much attention to the calamity how that the ticket would be deserted. It was later ascertained that the howlers were only a few of the West Siders who bolted from the convention. Their efforts soon subsided west Siders who botted from the con-vention. Their efforts soon subsided and there is a pronounced disposition among all classes of Republicans to give a good, strong vote for the ticket. Our strength is increasing daily.

Alfred Godshall Talks. Mine Foreman Alfred Godshall said: "I come in contact every day with voters from every ward in Hyde Park and their approval of the Republican and their approval of the Republican candidates leads me to believe we will go over the river with the usual majority. Two weeks ago the outlook was not quite so favorable. There is no cause for worry about the West Side. I shall be satisfied if we do as well in other parts of the city."

Have you read about the increase of furs in the Loudon market? Furs were never so high as they will be for the next two or three seasons.

If you intend to buy furs buy at once. We are selling our manufactured stock for 10 per cent. less than skins alone cost.

We use the best materials, have the prettiest styles, the most skillful operators and long experience. That's the combination that has won such reputation for our furs.

CLOTH COATS, SILK WAISTS, MACKINTOSHES

we will sell at your own prices.
