THE WORLD OF BUSINESS Wall Fareet Review.

New York, F.B. 7.—Lower cobles from London led to sellers of stocks in the local market during the early trading and a general though moderate decline in orices followed. There was no special pressure to sell, and realizations easily account for the slight shading in prices. As the day advanced, however, the market broadened and in the afternoon trading there was an approach to buoyancy. The improvement in the market was the result of increased buying by commission houses, a belief that the Morgan syndicate will be awarded a large proportion of the sult of increased buying by commission houses, a belief that the Morgan syndicate will be awarded a large proportion of the new bonds which the street interprets as meanig a comparatively easy working of the money market, at east until the settlements for the new loan is completed. The rise in call loans to 7 per cent. today had no significance and was due to bidding by belated borrowers. The gwatest activity was in the Industrials, Sugar having risen nearly 3 per cent. to 1324 on buying by brokers said to be identified with the refining interests. Leather, preferred, jumped nearly 2 per cent. to 672 on stories that the dividend will be declarely shortly. Distilling and Cattle Feeding moved up to 1812 on an increased business. Chicago Gas was quiet at 645a 153a, the opinion of Attorney General Moloney adverse to the consolidation of the companies having had no effect. In the late traiting, Tobacco suddenly dropped from 79% to 75% and this tarted selling all along the line. The prominent issues receded 14 to 14 per cent, in sympathy. In the final trading the market was teadier in tone. Net changes show gains of 4a15a per cent., except for Missouri Pacific, Manhattan and Tobacco, which lost 3 to 2 per cent. THEATRICAL GOSSIP.

THEATRICAL GOSSIP.

This evening "Rush City" will be produced at the Academy of Music by one of Davis & Keogh's companies. It is a farce comedy founde on the efforts to create a boom city in the far west and the fun comes fast and furious. The artists gathered by Davis and Keogh to present the play have all made successes heretofore in other productions, and each has a certain personality which is of great consequence to the present performance. The greatest amount of mirth is of course provoked by George Marion and E. J. Huffman, the former appearing as Mr. Rush, and the latter as thet rainmaker. Those two artists are inimitable in their line, and are the most original specialty artists in America today. As Parodists they have no equal. Other notables of the cast are: Joe Coyne, Frank O'Brien, M. J. Gallagher, John Hyams, Michael Hieckert, Olive White, Mabel Craig, Maym Mayo, Heleb Reimer, Carrie Loo and Edna Aug. All the scenery, propyvites, electrical and mechanical effects used are carried by the company.

"The Windsor theater was packed at both performances yesterday afternoon when John A. Fraser's new sensational melodrama received its initial production. The play is above the average of its class, and seemed to please the large audience present. The people presenting the play are all well cast. "The Train Wreckers" affords ample opportunity for scenie and mechanical opportunity for scenic and mechanical effects, which was taken advantage of by the management, the blowing up of the bridge and the escape from prison after it had been struck by lightning, being the principle events."—Chicago Times. Three days next week, at Davis' theater opening Monday afternoon. The entire receipts of Tuesday afternoon will be given by Manager Davis to the Associated Charities.

The pen of Charles Dickens never The pen of Charles Dickens never more truthfully depicted the humorous side of life in the London byways than the author of the latest musical comedy, "Paradise Alley," portrays the funny scenes in one of New York's most famous localities, "Paradise Alley" will be presented Wednesday evening at the Academy and with an organization that numbers no less than twenty-two specially selected persons. When it is announced that the roster twenty-two specially selected persons. When it is announced that the roster of the company includes such names as Barney Fagan and Sam J. Ryan, Frank M. Willis, John Queen, Misses Lily Post, Iola Pomerov, the three Sisters Dunbar and Josie Bacon, some idea of the enterprise may be imagined. Surely such an array of talent is sel-dom connected with a single play.

A new play full of funny situations, witty dialogues and bright catchy music, a first class company of actors, sic, a first class company of across singers and dancers, and last but not least, those two unique sons of "Old Erln" Conroy and Fox, are what we are promised in the production of "O'Flarity's Vacation" at the Academy Tuesday evening. It is unnecessary to dilate on the merits of the stars; their work in the pest is a guarantee for the future. They hold the first place among trish comedians and hold it without much effort. As their new play is said to be the best they ever had, having been written especially for them, their future prospects look rosy.

Manager Davis, of Davis' theater, Manager Davis, of Davis' theater, will give the entire receipts of his house on Tuesday afternoon to the Board of Associated Charities. This is an annual custom that Mr. Davis has adopted and for the last three years these benefits have been instrumental in placing a snug sum of money in the treasury of the Board of Associated Charities. Police officers are now selling tickets for the benefit. ing tickets for the benefit.

Joe Ott's initial starring tour last season was of unusual prosperity. In each and every city in which the com-edian appeared he harvested a hearty endorsement and in many instances he was overwelmingly received. He's coming to the Academy Thursday evening in "The Star Gazer."

perance advocate, once accosted a laborer who was walking along with a black bottle, and lectured him on the wickedness of intemperance. The manwhereupon Sir Wilfred, highly pleased. whereupon Sir whired, highly pleased, gave him a sixpence, with the remark. "Take that; it will buy you something better." A few minutes afterward Sir Wifred saw the man go into a public house and spend the money in beer. He had been carrying a bottle of beer.
