Polish Laborer's Back Broken in the Greenwood Mine Yesterday.

Greenwood Mine Yesterday.

By a fall of roof in No. 12 drift of the Greenwood Coal company, John Kaplinskey, a Polish laborer 33 years old, was fatally injured and his condition at a late hour last night was very low. He was brought in the mine ambulance to the Lackawanna hospital, and the doctors there think he may linger a short while, but his recovery is not looked for. His spinal column is broken and he is bruised internally.

The accident happened soon after the man started to work. A blast had been fired and he went to the face of the rhamber within a few minutes, as is the usual custom with miners. A large heap of rock fell on him and buried him beneath it. Owing to his weakened condition there could not be much done except to make him as comfortable as possible. He was unmarried and re-possible. He was unmarried and resided in Greenwood.

Judge Gunster Declines to Send Stackel and Yobs to Jail.

HAVE AGREED TO PAY COSTS

Young Mon Charged with Burgiarizing the Rendham M. E. Parsonage on Trial-John and Mary Lukan Guilty of Keeping a Tippling House.

Judge Gunster changed his mind about the legal guilt of Fred Stackel and August Yobs, the two members of the Arbiter Verein, which organization rents Workingmen's hail on Prospect avenue and Alder street, South Side. They were tried this week for selling liquor without a license, selling on Sunday and selling to minors. They were found guilty of the first two charges. The Arbeiter Verein is a club and it was offered as a defense that these men as agents of the club had the privilege of furnishing beer to the guests of the club. The prosecution was on the ground that the guests had to buy a ticket for admission to the hall and that this was virtually receiving pay for the liquor furnished. Attorney John F. Scragg asked the court to give binding instructions for a verdlet of not guilty; this Judge Gunster refused to do, but on the contrary he directed the jury to convict the defendants. The defense did not deny that they furnished the liquor, but by their attorney held they had the right to do it.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty. Yesterday Judge Gunster decided to the case if the court had not made this concession.

The burglary case against W. J. Van Dyke, Elias Thomas and John Moran was on all day before Judge Gunster. They were charged with breaking into the Methodist Eniscipal parsanage, at Rendham on the morning of Aug. 22 last, shortly after midnight, and with perpetrating the outrageous crime of tieing up Rev. Mr. Cochrane, the preacher, and his wife, both elderly persons, with a rope, and putting gags in their mouths to hinder them from making any outcry. The visit was made for the purpose of ransacking the parsonage. This was done and they got away with some jewelry. the parsonage. This was done they got away with some jewelry.

Burglars Wore Masks. The burglars were masks but the Cochranes were sure that they recognized the young men. When the defense opened Moran's side of the case was an alibi. His father and two sisters swore he was home on the night of the burglary. Thomas said he was in Kingston when the affair happened, that he went down there to look for that he went down there to look for work. His sister swore that she was the first one to tell him about the case. VanDyke said that on the night in question he was at the bedside of his sister, who was suffering from an above on the night He was with her spess on the neck. He was with her from early in the evening all through the night and until the next morning. not having left the house but twice, once at 9.30 or thereabouts when he went to a neighboring saloon for some liquor, and the second time he went to the well for two pails of water. He was corroborated by another sister, who was present the same evening. The arguments of Attorneys Burns and Chase for the defendants were made Chase for the defendants were made and it was then time for adjournment. Attorney M. J. Donahoe was also associated for the defense. Assistant District Attorney John M. Harris will make the closing argument for the commonwealth this morning after which Judge Gunster will charge the jury. John and Mary Lukan were found guilty of selling liquor without a license and the husband was forthwith sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and spend six months in the county jail. He is up there now since the last term of court, when he was convicted of assault and battery and sentenced to six months. Mrs. Lukan will not be sentenced until some provision is made for taking care of their children.

Thomas Connell Found Guilty.

Thomas Connell, the Duryea liveryman, was found guilty of simple assault and battery upon Newton Williams, of Moosic, A nolle, pros. was entered in the case of John Raymond, charged with cruelty to animals.

Clem Marsh, jr., was called for trial on the charge of felonious wounding. The prosecutor was a young man named Richard Morgan. John P. Keiley defended Marsh and Mr. Jones represented the commonwealth. At a pigeon shooting match last summer Marsh was one of the contestants and a bird that he fired at fell within the 50-yard boundary, but was not dead. Young Morgan ran and got the bird and Marsh followed him. After several repeated shouts to drop it and Morgan still running away, Marsh fired in the air and the prosecutor alleges that part of the shot struck him in the back and some of it went through one of his hands.

Marsh said he fired in the air and Thomas Connell, the Duryen livery

Marsh said he fired in the air and Marsh said he fired in the air and the shot could not possibly have hit Morgan at all. The court took the felonious wounding part of the charge away from the jury and sent them out to consider whether he was or was not guilty of assault and battery. They brought in a verdict of not guilty.

M. W. Gunster and John R. Thomas were called for trial on the charge of larceny by bailee. James Farrell was the prosecutor. Mr. Guernsey's name was stricken off the indictment at the request of the district attorney and Thomas alone was tried. Hon. John P. Kelley appeared for the defendant and Attorney W. R. Lewis for the commonwealth. The charge was tat of taking a piano back to the store which was to be moved to another house. The defense was that there was a contract in which the purchasers were to pay so much a month and that they fell away behind in their payments, for that reason the plano was taken away rightfully. A verdict of not guilty was rendered by the jury.

sister and co-laborer, Mrs. A. E. Saxton.

In the death of this dear servant of God not only has one of the noblest institutions of our city lost its ablest and most consecrated worker, but the entire community, recognizing her worth, and in grateful rememberance of her labor of love, as deeply mourn the loss of this thoroughly unselfish and Godly woman.

Her heart went out in love and sympathy to all who were in any trouble or affliction, but especially to her wayward sisters. Previous to her assuming the arduous and responsible position of matron of the Florence mission all of her sparetime was spent in earnest personal endeavor to lead these forsaken ones back to paths of virtue and to Him who alone is able to keep us from failing. We rejoke that God permitted her to see many a prayer answered before He called her to her heavenly reward.

Resolved, That to all sorrowing ones we extend our sympathy and pray that her between the control of the strends of the control of the prayer that her between the control of the property of the called her to her heavenly reward.

THE NEW SANITARY CODE.

loard of Health Is Preparing to Make Its Provisions Operative in This City. Plumbers, Nurses and Midwives Must

In consequence of the new sanitary code adopted by the last legislature the board of health was called upon at its regular meeting yesterday to adopt measures to take advantage of the new powers invested in it and to begin the carrying out of the new duties thereby imposed.

The registration of plumbers and the framing of a set of rules, regulating house draining and sewering was given the most serious consideration by the board. Secretary Briggs was directed to attend to all the necessary details for the registration and granting of certificates and Dr. Allen was entrusted with the work of getting up the rules ed with the work of getting up the rules being empowered to invite the building inspector an architect and a master plumber to act in conjunction with him It was announced that the plumbers association has already drafted a set of rules and in view of this fact the board suggested to Dr. Allen that he allow the association to select the master plum-bers who will sit on the committee so that they may have the benefit of the rules in question. The new law also directs that midwives and professional nurses shall register with the board and shall be subject to the health officers directions in certain instances, which are enumerated and which must be reported. A book is to be provided for those who are to register and a printed copy of the law bearing on their case will be given

Duty of the School Roard As to the quarantine of school chil dren the board decided that the board of control is permanently responsible for the carrying out of this law and directed the secretary to transmit a copy of the act to the superintendent of schools. This feature of the act provides that every school pupil must be vaccinated and a register kept of the time of the vaccination and the like. Also a pupil must be excluded from the schools if he or she is a member of a household in which there is a case of contagious or infectious disease and must not be allowed to return to school until thirty days after the disinfection of the house which of course occurs after the patient has been removed, has died or recovered. With the co-opera-tion of the school board, the board of health intends to rigidly enforce this rule.

Dr. Paine, Health Officer Allen and
President M. J. Kelly made informal reports of the Harrisburg convention of the state coard of health, which was held during the last week of Janu-ary. Each held that there was no board represented there that, judging from their reports, could teach the Scranton board in practical matters and none of them gave evidence of hav-ing accomplished as much as our local board, during the past five years.

DIRECTORS

Auditors of the l'oor District Say They Are Paithful Servants.

PULLER'S RESOLUTION

It Called Forth a Most Vigorous Protest from Mr. Gibbons but Nevertheless It Passed by a Four to Three Vote.

The directors of the poor and the of-ficials and employes of the district have just cause for pride in the commenda-tion given their work by the auditors in the report submitted to the poor board yesterday.

They commended the very business like method in which the affairs of the district have been conducted and as-sured the taxpayers that they are receiving careful, conscientious work from both the directors and officials. The amount of the item for outdoor relief the auditors thought might seem large, but, to use the words of the report, "we believe it fully justified and that it was expended in cases where the relief was absolutely needed. where the relief was absolutely needed. Considering the sufferings of the poor and the growth of the district during the past two years, we do not see how outdoor relief could be more judiclously given." Further on in the report the auditors say:

given." Further on in the report the auditors say:

We would recommend that the following portion of the act of May 13, 137, be adopted by the board: "Any overseer or poor director of any poor district who is or shall be appointed by the court of quarter sessions, may at his discretion and without order or certificate from a justice of the peace or alderman, enter upon the poor-book, grant relief to, or admit to the poor house of his proper district, any poor or indigent person or persons, entitled by the law of this commonwealth to such order be required or fees allowed to any justice or usities or alderman or aldermen therefor. We recommend this, if it can be legally advocated, as we believe the directors are the best judges of the need of the applicant and that obtaining an order from two magistrates is a mere form and a useless waste of money.

Paid a Visit to the Farm.

Paid a Visit to the Farm.

They visited the farm, they state, and found everything in first class order and their investigations there led them to express their opinion that no institution in the state is more carefully managed and at no other institution do the inmates receive better treatment. The report was signed by W. J. Costello, C. H. van Storch and Frank T. Okell, auditors.

The following resolution introduced by Mr. Fuller brought forth warm dissension and a roll call #ote:

sension and a roll call vote:
Resolved, That in order that the routine work and management at the home and on the farm may not be interfered with during the secular days of the week, hereafter all religious services shall be held and conducted on Sunday, in the following manner: Commencing Feb. 16 by the Catholic denomination; next following Sunday by the Methodists; next following Sunday by the Catholics; next following Sunday by the Presbyterians, and so on in the same alternate order of succession. ension and a roll call vote:

Mr. Gibbons strenuously objected to the measure on the grounds that it would greatly inconvenience the Catholic clergymen, who had charge of the station; possibly it might be so inconvenient that he could not attend to the could be inconvenient. to it and consequently the inmates would be deprived of the great boon which they have enjoyed for the last ten years. He explained that the priest who visits the farm has comparatively large congregations which demand his attention on Sundays and that unless he could be allowed to conduct services on some week day he might not be able to visit the place at all. Then Mr. Gibbons combatted the statement of Mr. Fuller that the work at the home would be materially interfered with would be materially interfered with by an occasional week day service. In answer to Mr. Gibbon's question, Su-perintendent Beemer stated that Mr. ruller's contention was quite true. Whenever mass is celebrated at the home on a week day, the routine of the place is disarranged for half a day.

Resolution Was Adopted. Nevertheless Mr. Gibbons insisted on Nevertheless Mr. Gibbons insisted on consulting the convenience of the clergy if it does cost the district a few pennies. "They ought to have a little time for prayer," said Mr. Gibbons, referring to the inmates. "There's none of us who have too much time for prayer." Mr. Gibbons moved to lay the matter over till the next meeting and promised to see Bishop O'Hara in the meantime to ascertain if a priest the meantime to ascertain if a priest could be sent from Scranton on Sun-days. Mr. Murphy seconded the mo-tion and urged the board not to deal with the matter hastily, but the mo-tion was lost and resolution passed by a vote of 4 to 3: Ayes, Fuller, Shotten, Swan, Langstaff; nays, Williams, Mur-phy, Gibbons, "The solid four," re-marked Mr. Gibbons, when the vote

Evans the resident physician, reported having treated 36 sane and 47 insane patients during the month. During January eight patients were admitted, and on reb. 1 there were remaining in the asylum 160 patients.

An Increase of Sa'arv. Mr. Shotten, acting for the finance committee, recommended that the salary of Bookkkeeper John F. Williams be increased from $50 to $75 a month, but the matter was laid over owing to objections on the part of Mr. Gibbons and Mrs. Swan, who considered $75 a month and board as pretty high wages for a bookkeeper. The fact that Mr. Gibbons and Mrs. Swan had finally found a question on which they

Mr. Globons and Mrs. Swan had that by found a question on which they could agree, no doubt influenced the board in its action. Mrs. Swan will suggest at the next meeting that the salary be increased $15 a month. WAR CRY MEETING.
