NICHOLS MADE AN ASSAULT.

Used a Flat-Iron with Serious Effect on Constable Miller.

An assault was made on Constable J. S. Miller Saturday by Lee W. Nichols, at the latter's home on Vine street, between Wyoming and Washington avenues. The constable was seriously injured. Nichols has not been presented.

Constable Miller says he went to Nichols' residence to serve a land-lord's warrant at the instance of Mr. Prendergast, who lives on the opposite side of the street and sub-lets the house to Nichols. The constable had told Nichols the levy could not be deferred until Monday, and had seated himself at the kitchen table to make a memorandum on the warrant, when Nichols selzed a flat-iron and struck him a blow on the head, He struck the constable with the iron three times, breaking his arm and jaw-bone, cutting his ear and ripping his scalp open.

Miller managed to escape from the house. Dr. Fulton was summoned to attend him at his home. He is badly attend him at his home. He is badly but not fatally injured.

Mr. Nichols' version of the affray is somewhat different than the constable's. He says than when Mr. Miller came into the house he acted in a very gentlemanly way. Nichols protested and Miller took an iron from the stove and in his attempt to strike Nichols burned the latter's hand severely. Nichols says he thereupon knocked the constable down and the latter in his descent struck the stove and sustained some burns and bruises.

Monday and yesterday Professor Munyon advertised to give away abso-lutely free 10,000 vials of his Rheumatism Remedy, requesting the newspa-pers of the city to investigate and pub-lish the results in each case as reported to them, either good or bad. In this way Professor Munyon proposed to prove the efficacy of his Rheumatism Remedy before asking 1842 $6686 for spend one cent. Never before m the history of medicine has there been a physician or company who have tinred to risk their reputation in an actual fest of the remedies by the people. Such unbounded faith in the virtue of their medicine, as shown by the Munyon company, at once gave the public conidence in them, and the result has been this: Monday 1.634 samples were given away: yesterday 1,789 more were acommodated, and now there are 3.423 sick and afflicted persons testing the value of the cure. As the results are published each day in the leading papers, no doubt thousands who have given up all hope of being relieved will be tempted to try this and other remedies, just as effective, manufactured by the Munyon Company. During the past four years Professor Munyon has given away free over 3,-000,000 bottles of his cures from leading dailies all over the country, and in no case have they reported, after careful investigation, less than 90 per cent. out of every 100 cured or greatly benefited. What a contrast between this honest method of proving the virtue of his remedies and others who promise so nuch, but always ask the patient for

COMING ATTRACTIONS

This evening at the Academy of Music "Paradise Alley," the very newest up-to-date musical comeily, will be presented with the aid of special scenery and some of the most extraordinary effects ever seen on a stage in this country. With such a company of star artists as is announced the piece cannot fail to make a deep impression on all intelligent theatergoers, it is seidom indeed that such a galaxy of talent is engaged in a single play as Barney Fagen, Sam J. Hyan, Lily Post, Frank M. Wills, Iola Pomeroy, John Queen and Henrietta Byron. The piece abounds in the latest songs, catchy melodies, bright dialogues, curious mechanical and electrical effects and side-splitting scenes. The favorite song, "The Sunshine of Paradise Alley," which was suggested by this play, will be grandly sung by the finest chorus ever heard in a musical comedy.

Bidding for actors is guarded by their supply of public favor. Stage talent is bought and sold like everything else; the manager, looking for talent, deals in his peculiar commodity with a similarity of the average Wall street speculator. The talent that usually pleases the average theater-goer, eventually bears the fruit of distinction. Probably few comedians upon the stage are better known and liked than that limitable king of buffoonery. Joe Ott, who will initiate his audience into the diversified secrets of astronomy in his new play "The Star Gazer," to be presented at the Academy Thursday evening. Mr. Ott is an accentric character creator of the very highest type. His name probably has done as much toward the assembly of large audiences as any recent year entertainer. He has sold his talent to the highest bidder, at extravagant figures, and yet large profits have always been the outcome for his manager.

Last evening the Grand introduced for the first time in this city the German dialect comedian, J. E. Toole, in "Killarney and The Rhine," a play written by Edward Jerome. Mr. Toole as Conrad, a knight, errant in Ireland, proved to be an artist of more than ordinary ability. Some of his methods were similar to those of the late J. K. Emmet. Miss Alida Cortelyou, who appears as the leading lady, did some clever acting especially in the prison scene.—Farmer, Bridgeport, O. This attraction will be seen during the last three days of this week at Davis' theater.

AN EMERGENCY HOSPITAL llas Been Established by the Board of Associated Charities.

An emergency hospital has been established in the basement of the City hall by the board of associated charities. Announcement of this fact was made at the meeting of the board last evening which was attended by Rev. Rogers Israel, J. R. Cohen and E. J. Lynett. The hospital is located in the room formerly occupied by the park room formerly occupied by the park commissioners and is neatly furnished with an iron bedstead, wardrobe and washstand. The bed, linen and furnishings of the room were donated by the Scranton Bedding company. Connolly & Wallace and Hill & Connell. It was found necessary to fit up this room on account of a number of urgent emergency cases recently brought to the attention of the heart by the notice sutention of the board by the police au thorities. It will be in charge of Miss Keisel, the nurse employed by the board.

Daniel Phillips read the report of Treasurer W. T. Smith which showed that there was a balance on hand of $470.99. On motion of Mr. Lynett $100 of that amount was transferred to the emergency fund. The report of the agent, Mrs. W. B. Duggan, showed that she had investigated $5 applications for relief during January of which 39 were found worthy. Three were ad-39 were found worthy. Three were ad-mitted to the hospital, three to the House of the Good Shepherd, two to the Foundling Home, two to the Hillisde Home, one was sent to the county jail, and was cared for by the Girls' Friendly society, seventeen were furnished with work, and four were furnished with transportation.

O'FLARITY'S VACATION.

It Introduced Conroy and Fox to Audience Last Night

A good specialty performance was given at the Academy of Music last evening by the Conroy & Fox combinawhich appeared n O Flarity Vacation" before a good sized audience The play which was written especially for these clever comedians can boast of a fairly good plot and one that is exrecedingly funny, abounding in the most complicated situations, creating much merriment among the audience. It is not often that a performance of this kind is so well balanced, where each of the cast is equal to the requirements, but in "O'Flarity's Vacation" there was not a weak performer among them, all being alive and up to date in their particular line.

The two stars, Conroy & Fox, are too well known to require much comment. They are the same laugh provoking, inimitable fun-makers they always were and kept the audience in a roar all the time they were on the stage. the time they were on the stage. The many new and catchy songs which they sang were encored again and again. Equally entertaining were the specialties of Harry O. Hayes and Ralph M. Post, assisted by Miss Kate Allen. The aerobatic feats of the former were cleves. mer were clever.

WOOLSEY ASSAULT CASE

Jury Was Deliberating on a Verdict When Court Adjourned.

BADDERS WAS FOUND GUILTY

Convicted Man Was a Corpse. Angust Hellerman Found Not Guilty and So Was Jacob Alder.

Defense in the Woolsey criminal assault case yesterday was an alibi and good character. Woolsey took the stand and swore he did not get out of bed the morning of Nov. 8 last until 8.16; and that he did not leave his house until 8.45. The Bostons lived next door to him and they owned a horse. Woolsey went over when he left his own home and rapped at their door to see if he could rent the animal for work that day. He stopped at the door and had a few minutes' conversation with Mary Boston, the prosecutrix, but did Mary Boston, the prosecutrix, but did not go inside.

When he left there he went to Atherton's store and arrived there at 9 o'clock. He denied absolutely that he laid hands on the girl at all. His wife laid hands on the girl at all. His wife testified that they did not get up until after 8 o'clock and that he did not go over to Boston's until nearly 9 o'clock and that she watched him from the window and saw him stand in the door way of the girl's house and talk to her five or six minutes, then go away. She maintained that the purpose of the prosecution was to alienate him from her affection and to bleed him out of $2500. Character Witnesses Called.

Mrs. Frederici, who rents the upstairs

Mrs. Frederici, who rents the upstairs of her house to the Woolseys, corroborated the defendant with reference to his leaving the house. Then three or four character witnesses were called to testify regarding the previous good reputation of the defendant for chastity. Attorney George W. Beale made the closing argument to the jury for the defense and District Attorney Jones argued on behalf of the commonwealth. His plea was a strong and eloquent one. Judge Edwards delivered a very explicit and exhaustive charge and said, among other things, that the law recognizes that it is a very easy matter for a woman to charge a man with assault, and a very difficult charge for him to disprove. The jury went out at 4 o'clock to deliberate on a verdict. It agreed two hours later and sealed its verdict. August Hellerman was found not guilty of assault and between Mercard. August Hellerman was found not guilty of assault and battery on Mrs. Sarah Boland, of Pittston avenue, and the prosecutrix was directed to pay the the prosecutrix was directed to pay the costs. A verdict of guilty was returned in the assault and battery case against Jacob M. Badders, the man who committed suicide Monday night.

Jacob Adler was tried for striking Augusta Maier with a pump handle on the head and leaving her in a condition of coma for a short spell. He was returned not guilty and the costs were assessed against her account as trustee assessed against her account as trustee of the county until the insolvent papers are filled out.

Sunday Morning Affray. Joseph Patroshick was found guilty of assaulting Michael Sullah. The prosecutor was on his way to church one Sunday morning and he dropped into a saloon, where the defendant was serving on the stove committee. A quarrel arose between the men and Sullah got hammered. The two men, Joseph Kalinoski and Joseph Olsheski, who took the law into their own hands who took the law into their own hands and used Constable Max Koehler as a subject, were found guilty. Koehler was roughly handled by the defendants.

The jury went out at adjournment in the case where William L. Bates was defendant and Annie Bossak prosecuder and Bossak prosecuder. But a lives in Forest City, and had a search warrant for a horse, sup-posed to have been stolen by Bossack, the woman's husband. When he went to look for the horse, they set upon m and he had to use his club. H admitted he struck her twice on the head, but claimed he was defending himself.

VERY SERIOUS JOKING.

It Induced Jacob Budders, of Green Ridge to Commit Suicide.

Jacob Badders, 45 years of age, of Jacob Badders, 45 years of age, of Ross avenue, committed suicide Monday night by swallowing strychnine. An inquest by Coroner Longstreet yesterday revealed the fact that Badders was prompted to the deed by the taunts of friends about his part in a case in court on Monday. He was the defendant and the charge was assault and battery. The jury returned a verdict of guilty yesterday. of guilty yesterday.

After the trial several of his friends joked Badders and told him he had been found not guilty but was directed to pay half the costs. It preyed upon his mind, and after supper he took the fatal dose. He fought the efforts of his relatives and Dr. D. H. Jenkins to save him, and died at 11 o'clock. Coroner Longstreet visited the dead

Coroner Longstreet visited the dead man's home yesterday morning and impanneled a jury. THEY ENTERED BAIL.

Accused Vigilants Waive a Hearing and Throw the Case Into Court.

Theodore Gardner and James Burns the accused vigilants of the Eighteenth ward, gave ball before Alderman Fuller yesterday for their appearance at court.
The men could not be found by the constable who had the warrants, but on learning that they were being sought for, agreed to meet their accusers at Alderman Fuller's office at 3 o'clock. They were there with their attorney, Major Everett Warren, at the appoint-ed time, but the prosecutors did not put in an appearance.

The men nevertheless entered bail in the sum of $350 each for their appearance at court. Adam L. Bonn. of $25 Broadway, qualifying for Gardner, and D. J. Cosgrove, of 309 Meridian street, for Burse.

Mrs. William V. Henderson, of New York, felt chilly, sneezed once or twice, and said, "I think I must have taken cold."

cold."
That was on Thursday. On Sunday she died! Doctors said it was the grip, but "it started with a cold."
Mr. James G. Wheatley, of Chicago, went down to the board of trade on Monday morning, buoyant with life and hope. He became heated, went out without his overcoat to get a hasty lunch, and the cold wind chilled him.
He died on Wednesday, a victim of pneumonia, which "started with a cold."

Hundreds of men and women are dy-Hundreds of men and women are dy-ing every day from grip, from pneu-monia, from various troubles, all of which "started with a cold." What is the lesson? Stop the first symptoms, "A stitch in time saves nine." Do not delay. Use the best thing you can get and do it at once.

But what shall I do?

But what shall I do?

Follow the experience of others, Mrs.
Andrew D. Whitman of Brooklyn, says:
"I felt the grip coming on. I knew this from what I had heard others say. I was chilly, my head ached, my bones and muscles seemed in pain. I felt feverish, I was miserable. I did not delay, but began treating the trouble at once. The next day I was better, the third day well and entirely through the use of Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Coughs, Colds and Consumption. It is grand." Mr. Wilmot F. Glover, of Buffalo, says:

"I have no fear of the grip, none whatever. I have been attacked by it four different times, and in each case have driven it off inside of 24 hours. How? By Dr. Acker's English Remedy. I tell you this Remedy will not only do what is claimed for it—viz, cure a cold what is claimed for it—viz, cure a cold in a day, check a cough in a night—but it will keep off the grip every time."

Both of these cases of grip "started with a cold." Be advised and during this season of the year check the first symptoms by the best thing you can get, and thus avoid those terrible troubles which yet may only have "started." bles which yet may only have "started with a cold."
