WAS A RUSH MESSAGE.

She Was in a Hurry to Send a Telegram to Her Husband. The ways of "lovely woman" when she calls to her aid the telegraph service, together with glimpses into a dis-ordered household, were both shown in a down town telegraph office one day last week, says the Times-Herald. It was nearly 4 o'clock when a young wo-man, tall, well dressed and consider-ably agitated, appeared there, and, seizing a blank, wrote rapidly for a moman in charge.

"Won't you hurry that along as fast

s possible, please?" she said, laying he dispatch on the counter. It was addressed to an office on the North Side. The operator, used to this request, took the message and began the usual annotation.
"Twenty-six cents, please," he said,

still jabbing at it with his pencil.
"How soon will it go?" asked the "At once."

"It ought to get there before half-past 4?" she hazarded, with a rising in-'It ought," assented the operator. But will it, do you think?" she per-

"If there is no delay at the other end."
She paused in the act of putting down the money.
"I wonder if a messenger would be quicker?" she said, half to herself.

The operator waited.

"I'll be back in a minute," she went on and hurried to the messenger desk.

"What is your shortest time to Chicago avenue on the North Side?" she burst out, breathlessly.

"We have done it in 25 minutes. Fifty-six," called the manager, in anticipation of a quick service.

"Oh, I don't believe he could get there so soon as that," objected the young woman, as a boy presented himself.

"In 30 he could," said the manager.

'In 30 he could." said the manager. "How would he go?" persisted By street car, and a run up Chicago

"Still she hesitated. A glance at the clock decided her.
"It's on the stroke of 4," she said.

"and the message must be delivered be-fore half-past. I think the telegraph is quicker." And now in frantic haste she returned to the operator. He was busy with a message, and two more precious inutes were lost. "Send that dispatch just as fast as you can," she said, when her turn came, "and do put on it to deliver at once, won't you?"

"I'll rush it," said the operator. "Oh, do," urged the young woman.
Tou see how important it is," and for the first time she unknit her pretty-brows. The operator indulged, too, in a fleeting smile. The dispatch read: "Don't bring Mr. --- home to dinner. Cook just left in a tantrum."

BE LOYAL TO THE PARTY.

Editor of The Tribune. Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: Permit me through the medium of your valuable paper to say a word or two regarding two of the candidates nominated by the Republicans, one for mayor and one for city treasurer, namely, Colonel E. H. Ripp is and Mr. Daniel Williams. I have been personally acquainted with both of the above named gentlemen for thirty-four rears and have had thousands of dollars worth of business relation with them both, and found them to be honest and conscientious in all their dealings and liberal to a fault. There are not very many here who can recall that mot very many here who can recall that was fired at, carrying supplies to that gullant commander, Major Anderson, at Fort Sumter, and what a stir and commotion it made throughout our broad country, Buchannan holding the reins of government at the time, and everybody anxious to know what would likely be the result. But when the time came that grand old man, Abraham Lincoln, colled to arms 100,000 men. Our town, then in its infancy, was not slow to answer that call. It needed money as well as men and Colonel Rip-ple's father, then an aged man, but a Republican, full of patriotism, was one of the foremost and most liberal men of the day. While recruiting was going on no man who came along hungry at that time, and they were many, went without food or shelter, for within and over the roof of that famous old hostlery were Stars and Stripes. Many were fed and the night before the departure of the boys from Hyde Park for Harrisburg a rousing meeting was held and a bounti-ful supper given them at the White Tavern, and for three months there were not many here that shared from their pockets more than Colonel Ripple and his people. Also, when th boys came back the same courteous treatment awaited them and ere a short while after a call for 300,000 more was made Colonel Rippje, then a youth in his teens, was soon on the on-ward to the front, and while there engaged in many a bloody struggle for that emblem of liberty. He stood manfully and loyally to his Republicanism, and while a captive in Libby and Anderson-ville prison he never flinched from his sworn duty. To such a man, I say this city and people owe a debt of gratitude which we can only pay in voting for him as mayor of this noble city. His able management of the past is conclusive to every true Republican that the affairs of our city government will be handled with care, honesty and fidelity. He who stood by the guns, boys, will stand by also be said of Mr. Daniel Williams. He has always been foremost in the welfare of our city. For as a Republican citizen, he has always been loyal to his party and its best interest. Therefore as Re-publicans of the old school, we ought to feel it a pleasure as well as duty to vote the whole ticket and commend it to all with out shouder to the wheel and a helping hand for the viaduet. R. J. Hughes. Hyde Park, Feb. 14.

THE WORLD OF BUSINESS

New York, Fe. 14.—London sellins due to the reopening of the Transvasi question mad an unfavorable effect on the local stock speculation this morning. The early loss was equal to $425 per ceal., and nearly every prominent railway stock on the list participated in the cownward movement. The decline was checked soon after the opening by neavy buying of body and the list participated in the cownward movement. The decline was checked soon after the opening by neavy buying of body and the list participated in the list participated to purchases for lower wan street interests while Chicago Gas was bought by speculators who believe that the lithing supreme court will decide in layor of the reorganization committee. The strength of the stocks named had a good effect on the general list and the Grangers. Louisville and Nashville, leather preferred, Delaware and lind-son and Lead, preferred, all scored higher agures. In the afternoon the feeling was less confident, the steady withdrawals of gold from the sub-treasury to pay for the new bonds; the failure of outsiders to respond to the peciaive decided of the ratical silverites in congress yesterday and the decime in government bonds having led to sales for both the long and short accounts. Manhattan was conspicuous breaking from 185 to 85; Tobacco from 325 to 81; Intego Gas from 864 to 675; St. Paul, 16 to 756; Rock Island from 735 to 724; edneral Effective from 235 to 81, and Louisville and Nashville, 515 to 805. In the specialities consolicated Gas broke 154; on 1535, and Pullman Palace, 25; to 325, and Illinois Steel, 4 to 50. Near the close the general market displayed a little more steadiness and prices railled fractionally. Set changes show osses of § to 3 per cent. Sugar and Leather, preferred, however, gained I to 15 per cent. Total sales were 19,200 shares. Bonds were higher, sales aggregating 31,140,00. Chicago Burlington and Western fours, 15 to 75, Missouri Pacific Coal Trusts fives dropped 5 to 65.
