WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Death of Annie Bunnett Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Bunnett.

One of the saddest deaths that has recently occurred on this side was that of 15-year-old Annie Bunnett, daughter of Attorney and Mrs. L. M. Bunnett, who passed away Saturday morning after a brief illness.

The deceased suffered a fall several weeks ago while in the company of her school girl friends. She never recovered from the effects. As a pupil at the high school Miss Bunnett had fair to become an accomplished young lady.

Services conducted yesterday afternoon by the Salvation Army over the remains of a deceased member, Mrs. Thomas Sheppard, attracted a large crowd to the army barracks on Price street.

Stricken While in the Mines. Patrick Mangan, a miner at the Dodge mine, was stricken with paralysis Saturday morning a few moments after he had reached the interior of the mine.

They Worked strenuously. Now that the vladet is beginning to be forgotten for the time being, the thanks of the community can opportunely be bestowed upon those members of the West side board of trade and the others who assisted, for their strenuous effort in behalf of that large portion of the West side who desire the improvement.

New Notes and Personal. The funeral of the late Wendell Oswald will occur today at 2 o'clock from his late home on Merril street.

Saturday evening's meeting of the Welsh Philanthropic society was very interesting. The programme was in commemoration of Washington's birthday.

SAVANTONI IS A MURDERER

His Victim, John J. Rafter, Died on Saturday Night at His Home.

SHOOTING WAS UNPROVOKED. It Was Done at Old Forge on the Night of Feb. 4—At First the Wounds Were Not Thought Serious.

John J. Rafter, of Green Ridge, died at 7:30 Saturday evening at his parents' home, 1431 Wyoming avenue, as the result of wounds inflicted by Sam Toni, an Italian, on Main street, Old Forge township, Tuesday night, Feb. 4.

He and a companion were going along the main road and Rafter stepped aside to let Toni pass, when they met him. Rafter slipped and fell to the ground at Toni's feet and the latter, without the slightest provocation, whipped out his revolver and sent two bullets into the prostrate body.

Rafter was immediately attended by Dr. J. J. Timlin, and after a day or two the indications were that the wounds would not prove fatal. As soon as practicable the young man was removed to his parents' home.
