Samuel Davenport, James S. Beason and George V. Lawrence Named as Successors - The Preference of Mr. Quay is a Mystery.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 25.—(Congressman Huff is out with a card declining to be a candidate for renomination.

COLONEL GEORGE F. HUFF.

He has concluded not to enter the race. He has neither the time nor the inclination, he says, to enter a contest which will require his entire time between now and the meeting of the state convention.

House of Representatives. Washington, D. C., Feb. 25, 1896. I desire to say to my friends in Lackawanna county and throughout the state who have personally and by letters given me assurances of their continued confidence and devotion...

There is considerable speculation among politicians tonight as to whom will be nominated for congressman-at-large from the western end of the state, to succeed Colonel Huff.

FOR COAST DEFENSE.

Senate Committee Submits a Report Asking for an Appropriation of $80,000,000—Property to be Protected.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Chairman Squire, chairman of the senate committee on fortifications, today submitted the report of that committee on the bill before it to the senate.

IN CASE OF WAR.

Although appreciating the strength of the navy, the committee think it would be unsafe to rely exclusively upon that arm for means of defense.

As a minimum sum, the chief of engineers says that forty millions would provide an efficient defense, but nothing less than this would do.

The committee recommends that authority be given the chief of ordnance to contract for forgeries, carriages, rapid fire guns and projectiles to the amount of $1,750,000 to be paid out of...
