TREASURY RAID.

The feature of the discussion was Mr. De Armond's attack upon the amendment which he characterized as a raid on the treasury, without right or jus-tice, a salary grab as much as the infamous measure known by that name and a steach in the nostrils of honest men. The chairman of the committee of the whole sustained the point of order reversing a ruling made in the ing of the school lands of Arizona. Was laid before the house and made the special order for tomorrow.

The conference report on the general pension appropriation bill, and the report on the elections committee No. 1, confirming Mr. Jones' title to the sent as representative from the First distinct of Virginia were agreed to At trict of Virginia were agreed to. At 4.50 the house took a recess until 8 o'clock, the evening session to be for the consideration of private pension and relief bills only.

TESTING BLOODHOUNDS.

Narrow Escape of a Deputy Who Ran

Before the Dogs-Indiana Sheriri satisfied They Will Capture Any Criminal.

Crown Point, Ind., Feb. 28.—This morning just before daybreak Sheriff Hayes gave Buck and Jim, his two man-hating bloodhounds, a thorough trial test in the heavy timber and swamp south of the city limits. The dogs made the chase to perfection, not leaving the trail an inch from start to finish until their man was captured. William Zanders, a deputy sheriff, left the county Jali at 5 o'clock, one hour ahead of Sheriff Hayes, Deputy Farley and the hounds. Zanders walked to the county fair grounds, a day. Scranton Jar & Stopper Co into a heavy swamp of canebrakes eight feet high. The swamp covers nearly twenty acres of land. Zanders hearly twenty acres of land. Zanders found the cane brakes so high that he could hardly travel. Through this spot he walked in every direction, over ice and snow. He had hardly reached the edge of the swamp when he heard the yelping of the dogs about a mile behind him. Zanders, knowing he had no time to lose, made a long run for a big patch of hazel bushes a few rocks away. He crawled through this place twice and then started for a tree near by. He turned around and saw Buck and Jim not over four rods behind, comand Jim not over four rods behind, coming on a run without making the least bit of noise. He made a dash for the nearest tree and climbed up just in time to miss the jaws of the dogs. Had he made one misstep and fell he would have been torn in pieces, as the dogs were excited to their highest pitch. Buck stood guard at the base of the tree, while Jim leisurely walked two or three rods away and took his position, which he regularly held in Texas—"a picket on duty," both eagerly watching their captured man. Sheriff Hayes and Deputy Farley reached the spot and Deputy Farley reached the spot nearly an hour afterward.

Anomer way of Looking at it.

A sulky little girl was being entertained by a friend, a middle-aged woman unused to children, who nevertheless was doing her best to arouse interest.

"Oh, look at pussy," said the hostess, "just see how nice and clean she is, See how she washes her face."

The sulky one cast a contemptuous look toward the domestic pet, "She ain't washing her face," she remarked at last, "she's washing her paws and wiping them on her face."—Brooklyn Eagle,
