What Is Happening Among Religious Organizations and People.

CONFERENCE IN BINGHAMTON

Wyoming Gathering Promises to Be of Unusual Interest -Letter from Evangelist Shellborn-News Gathered in Local Church Circles.

The coming session of the Wyoming conference will be held in Centenary Methodisf Episcopal church, of Bing-hamton, beginning Wednesday morn-ing, April I. One of these interesting matters is the election of delegates to general conference—a bit of important business that comes up but once in every four years. Among those spoken of as likely candidates are Rev. Dr. L. L. Sprague, president of Wyoming seminary; Rev. Dr. M. S. Hard, secretary of the Church Extension society, also of Kingston; Rev. A. Griffin, representative of the Preachers' Aid so-ciety; Rev. J. O. Woodruff, presiding elder of the Binghamton district; Rev. J. G. Eckman, presiding elder of the Wyogning district; Rev. A. J. Von Cleft Wyoming district; Hev. A. J. Van Cleft, presiding elder of the Onenonta district, and one or two others. Five elegic delegates are to be chosen, and two alternates. Of the laymen, only two delegates of whom are to be chosen, tieorge S. Bennett, of Wilkes-Barre; William Connell, of this city, and A. Decker, of Waverly, N. Y., are promi-

ently mentioned.
A new feature of this coming session will be a course of afternoon lectures by Professor R. W. Rogers, of Drew Theological seminary, on archaeology— some of its most recent features as re-vealed in modern researches. The lecures will be heard each afternoon at . o'clock. On Tuesday evening, March terans of the Grand Army of the arblic, Colonel S. A. Urquhart, of West Pittston, will lecture on "Libby Prison." The regular business sessions will on Wednesday morning. April 1, Bishop John H. Vincent presiding. Business sessions will be held evry morning at 9 o'clock. On Friday evening at the anniversary of the Preachers' Aid society the address will be delivered by Thomas H. Dale, of this city. The whole scheme of anniversary and auxiliary entertainment is by far the most elaborate that has ever distin-guished a Wyoming conference annual ssion and it shows that some nendous energy has been expended.

EVANGELIST IN THE WEST. George L. Field, freight claim clerk of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company in this city. has received a very interesting letter from Rev. Lewis Shellhorn, who is now laboring in Winslow, Arizona. Mr. Shellhorn will be remembered by Scrantonians as the evangelist who was associated with Rev. Mr. Moore and conducted gospel meetings in a tent at Green Ridge, and at the Archbald and Pyne mines last fall. The letter was written Feb. 20 and among other things says:

"As I promised to write you after I arrived in Arizona I will do it before am killed. I began meetings here last Monday evening with a full house, seven came to the altar last night and there has been eighteen conversions so far, ten seeking at the altar. The devil is doing his best out here. The third day I was here I received a red letter from the devil stating that if I did not leave the town inside of twenty-I was shot at three times, twice coming from the church and once while in my room, the last shot massing only two feet above my head, went through three walls. They shot to kill no doubt, I am guarded nearly all the time by two or three officers while in church, and at my stopping place. The Godless people here move sworn that they will not eat a process worn that four hours I would go out a dead man. church, and at my stopping place. The Godless people here mave sworn that they will not eat a monthful of food pastor, Dr. L. C. Floyd. while I am here. I told them the night before last I was afraid some of them would get hungry before I left as I was going to remain two weeks yet. Oh, how I wish I had the money to meet expenses out here. I would preach the true gospel to these heathers and let them know that the Son of Man would soon be here to judge them. The people here are very poor. are willing to give have nothing to thirty-five cents in my pocket and I don't know how I will get out of here. I intend to trust in God. If you know of any one in Scranton who wants to put his money in a place where it will receive the largest interest in this life and in the life to come, tell them to send some out here for this work. I have not all I have in, and myself thrown in. I am now about to go down in the worst part of the town with the minister and two officers to help clean out two more bad houses. We have succeeded in cleaning out three places and the people who conducted two of them have opened their houses for onehalf hour prayer meetings before preaching. I go to Flagsloff next to be gin there March 1" Anyone wishing to encourage Mr. Shellhorn in the unselfish work of soul saving under the opposition and influence he states in his letter, can leave their offerings with Dr. G. E. Mr. Pennington's Third Organ Recital. Successful Debut of Miss Anna Ida Koch-News of Church Choirs. Other Musical Notes.

"Delmonico's at 6." Glen McDon-ougle's musical comedy, which was given at the Frothingham last evening. has been re-arranged for the present season and many new and attractive features in the way of specialties have features in the way of specialties have been introduced. The play still contains its musical attractions which are ever bright and pleasing. The bright company is a fairly strong one, the music bright and the costumes gorgeous. Miss Alice Evans, as Trixie Hazelmere, queen of the vaudevilles, has the leading role and she attends to it admirably. Miss Evans, besides being a clever actress, has a good voice, and the vocal numbers by her are well and the vocal numbers by her are well ceeived. "Defmonico's at 6" will be een at the Frothingham again at matthee this afternoon and in the evening

The many friends of Miss Anna Ida Koch who made her debut as a concert singer at the Frothingham Monday right, will be pleased at her success. Though evidently afflicted with stage fright which married the rendition of her first number on the programme. Miss Koch recovered her voice before the evening was over and demonstrated her talents as a vocalist in a way that won hearty encore. Miss Koch is a young lady of charming personality and possesses a sunny disposition that wins friends among all acquaintances.

No mandolinist has ever impressed musicians and the music-loving public to such a degree as has Valentine Abt. who will play at Young Men's Chris-tian association hall Monday evening

The admiration which he has excited by his remarkable technique and won derful tonal expression, is as simply unbounded. Alfred Wooler, Scranton's popular tenor, has been engaged to as-sist Mr. Abt, and will render several of his most delightful selections, James Sturges, of Sam Jack's "My Uncle, company, is probably one of the best comic opera comedians on the American stage. Mr. Sturges is well known to Segartonians who remember his excellent work in the burlesques and light operas given by the Corinte Kimball opera company. In "My Uncl from New York" Mr. Sturges has little opportunity to display his talents either as an actor or a singer.

|| || || || Mr. Pennington's third organ recital at Elm Park church will be given next at Elm Park church will be given next Thursday evening (March 5) at 8 o'clock. The assisting artists will be Mr. Theo-dore Hemberger, violinist; and the Elm Park church quartette. Miss Sull-van, soorano; Miss Vandevoort, alto; Mr. Wooler, tenor, and Mr. Thomas, basso. Silver offering at the door. admission fee. Mr. Pennington's recit-als have during the season been enjoy-able musical events and it is probable that the coming concert will be superior to any heretofore given.

Miss Lydia Pichel, soprano, of this city, was soloist at the entertainment given by the Bicycle club at Carbondale on Wednesday evening last and acquitted herself in a manner that won the admiration of the critical audience present. Miss Pichel has for some time past been solo soprano at Green Ridge Presbyterian church where her talents are duly appreciated.

Professor Tom Kershaw Introduced at Davis' theater this week a new set of waltzes called the "Trilby Waltzes." The numbers are catchy throughout and given in Mr. Kershaw's usual taste formed one of the attractive features of the week. Mr. Kershaw is engaged up-on another set of waltzes which will probably be heard a few weeks hence

The music at Trinity Lutheran church under direction of Professor Derman, continues to improve and the service. of song is most attractive.

Mr. Watkins has an elaborate Easte programme in preparation which will be rendered by the First Presbyterian church choir. Mr. Watkins expects to go to England soon after Easter and enter the Royal Academy. His succes-sor at the First church has not been

The nautical scenic play, "The Cap-tain's Mate," to be given at the Acad-emy this evening, contains up-to-date musical specialties of the first that will be rendered by Miss Bindle, and her company of excellent vocalist

at intervals during the play. GOOD SHORT STORIES.

Bridget O'Hoolihan, an elderly Irish cook, had been induced to go to a quiet fiftle suburban town to live in a wealthy gentleman's family. Two weeks after her arrival she declared her intention of returning to the city, "Why do you leave us, Bridget?" asked her mistress, in a grieved tone; "we pay you the very highest wages." "Ye do, ma'am, an yer a perfect leddy, O'm nor lavin troo amy fault av de fam'ly but this place is such a dead old place, will no chance to do annything loivly in it, that, begorys, O'have to mek up a pack o' lies iv'ry time O' go to confession or O'd have nothin' to confess."

Once, when one of Farragut's gunbouts on the Mississippi was just going into action, one of the powder-monkeys was noticed by an officer knowing by one of the guastaving his prayers. The officer snearing asked him what he was doing and if he was afraid. "No, I was praying," said he, "Well, what were you praying for." "Praying," said the had, "that the chemy's kullets may be distributed the same as the prize-money, principally among the officers."

General Joseph E. Johnston, the General Joseph E. Johnston, the Confederate commander, now dead, used to relate that in the holtest part of one of the early bettless of the civil war he feit his coat-tails pulled. Turning about he recognized a young man who had been employed in his tobacco factory previous to enistment, "Why are you not in your place lighting," the general demanded, angelly, "Way, I just warted to tell you that, if you don't mind, I recken I will take my day off today,"
