Matters That Will Occupy Attention of House and Senate.

THAT ARKANSAS LAND BILL

Measure That Is Designated as Questionable-Speech on the Tariff Silver Question-House Will Act on Cuban Question.

Washington, March 1.—The coming week will inaugurate the discussion on a question of the highest privilege in the senate—the title to a seat in the body. Mr. Mitchell, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections, gave notice Friday that he would call the Dupont case up Wednesday at 2 o'clock. Mr. Mitchell will make the opening speech and will be followed during the week by Mr. Turple, of Indiana, for the Democrats, and by Mr. Pritchard, of North Carolina, for the Republicans. The chairman of the committee is of the opinion that debate on this subject will not last longer than ten Washington, March 1.-The coming this subject will not last longer than ten days or at the outside, not to exceed two weeks. Tomorrow there is every probability of the senate locking horns over a mat-ter against which there appears to be a very determined opposition in the a very determined opposition in the senate. It is the bill unanimously reported by the senate committee on public lands to approve a compromise and settlement between the United States and Arkansas. Mr. Berry sough; to call it up late Friday afternoon and make it the unfinished business, but several senators objected, and upon his motion being pressed to take it up, the absence of a quorum forced by the opponents of the measure was developed. Mr. Berry then gave notice that motion being pressed to take it up, the absence of a quorum forced by the opponents of the measure was developed. Mr Berry then gave notice that he would move to take the bill up immediately after the morning business tomorrow. In antagonizing the measure Friday it was characterized by Mr. Gear as a "bill of a very questionable character involving millions of dollars."

The agricultural bill will also be called up tomorrow by Mr. Cullom, who has it in charge. Inasmuch as there has been no amendments to the legislative features of this bill as it came from the house it will probably came up behind her, looked over her shoulder, and said:

"Louise, will you marry me?" She replied impatiently:

"Get away from me. Don't bother me."

Hadlin turned and went into the pantry. He came back with a knife about eight inches long and without a word plunged the knife into her breast just above the heart. Miss Trebbe sank to the floor and died in fifteen minutes. Miss Trebbe's body was discovered a few minutes later by her widowed sister, Mrs. Thomas Ward, with whom she lived.

that Mr. Teller, of Colorado, may make his promised speech on the tariff silver question, in which he will explain the stand he has taken and the reasons his recent opposition to the tariff Beyond this there is no programme for the week.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

There is so general a demand for action on the senate Cuban resolutions, that the managers of the house of representatives have consented that as soon as the legislative executive and judicial appropriation bill, the pending refusitional preferations by the free disposed unfinished business, has been disposed of, Cuban resolutions shall be the next order. How much time will be devoted to their consideration is as yet unde-cided. At least a dozen members have expressed to Mr. Hitt, chairman of the committee on foreign affairs, a desire to speak, and it is probable that at least a full day's session will be oc-cupled by the debate.

HIS LOVE WAS MURDEROUS.

Miss Trebbe Wouldn't Marry Hadlin and lle Killed Her-Capture of the Mur-

Hartford, March 1.—Miss Louise Trebbe, 35 years old, daughter of the late Herman Trebbe, was murdered at her home in South Manchester, yester-day morning by Casper Hadlin, a farm hand, employed to do chores about the place. Hadlin had been in love with his piace. Haddin had been in love with his victim, and had importuned her to marry him. She did not reciprocate his affection and repeatedly told him so.

About 6.30 o'clock she was combing her hair in the kitchen, when Hadlin came up behind her, looked over her shoulder and said:

When he entered the room where the negroes were, they seized disarmed and tied him. His wife rushed to his assistance and when she appeared she was seized and dragged into peared she was seled and dragged into the yard. She screamed for help, but one of the negroes placed his hand over her mouth and shut off her cries. She was detained in the yard some time and whether or not she was criminally assaulted she declines to say. She is strongly reticent on that point. It is believed she was assaulted by the negroes while they had her in the yard.

A young lady staying in the house, made her escape to the residence of a neighbor, some distance away. Assistance was procured and ment to Mr. Courgues' place. Upon reaching there the negroes had gone. Mr. Gourges had recognized his assailants and next day a vigorous search was made for day a vigorous search was made for them. ALL THE PASSENGERS SAVED

The Brutal Spanish Sallors Seize Life Boats and Men and Women Passengers Are Obliged to Climb the Rigging.

New York, March 1.-To a very heavy fog which descended upon the city and vicinity carly yesterday morning and shrouded everything in gloom all day is due to a remarkable list of disasters in the harbor.

The chief of these was the sinking of The chief of these was the shiking of the Atlas line steamer Allsa by the French line steamer Bourgogne. The Allsa had aboard fourteen passengers, three of them women, and had anchored off Fort Wadsworth. The Bourgogne was on her way to Havre.

Unaware of the extent of the damage she had inflicted she proceeded on her course, only to anchor in the lower bay. course, only to anchor in the lower bay. The Ailsa's sailors became panicstricken, and, dashing the passengers to the deck, seven of them made away with the only available life boat.

The Allsa was headed for Fort Hamilton but sunk in thirty feet of water before reaching the beach. The use-liton but sunk in thirty feet of water before reaching the beach. The pas-sengers had taken to the rigging, and when the vessel went down the waves dashed over those who were lowest. They remained in the rigging only a short time, when they were taken off by a tug and brought to this city. Only the masts and a few feet of the smokestack are above water. The Bourgogne, which had one of its plates injured will return for repairs.

The steamer George W. Clyde was off Ninety-sixth street, South Brooklyn, on her way to sea when the Old Dominion line steamer Guvandotte crashed into her port side, making a big hole. The Clyde was towed ashore and beached while the Guyandotte, which was not injured, continued on her course.

As the New York, of the American line, was slowly steaming into port earline, was slowly steaming into port early in the morning, she went aground on the tail of the West Bank, in the lower bay. Her pilot had lost his bearings in the gloom. She remained hard and fast all day, her eighty-seven cabin passengers having been taken off in safety. There is little doubt that she will be floated without difficulty.

A big fleet of vessels was anchored in the bay last night, fearing to proceed on their way because of the fog.

HUNTER OUT OF THE RACE.

Withdraws as the Republican Candidate in Kentucky for United States Senator. Louisville, March 1.—Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter has withdrawn from the senatorial race in a letter which was read before the roll call of the joint session yesterday by Representative Lyons. The letter was brief, saying simply that Dr. Hunter believed that if he were to stay in the race longer, he might put in jeopardy the lection of a United States senator; therefore he deemed it best to withdraw and permit some other name to be tried. He pledged such nominee his support, and his letter closed by saying that he returned to the Republicans their banner unstained.

THE WORLD OF BUSINESS.

Wall Street Review

New York, Feb. 29.—The adoption of resolutions by the senate yesterday, ac-cording rights of belligerency to Cuba was used against the stock market again today. Washington, which was a heavy seller yesterday, again turned up as seller of the industrials, grangers and Baitimore and Ohio. The last named dropped from 27½ to 21%a22¼, while the 5s of 1898 were offered at 9714 seller twenty, against 197 last week. The 5s of 1925 broke 11 to 82. The heaviness of the securities was due to rumors from Baltimore that the necessary papers for a receivership had been prepared and that application for court protection would be made either today or on Monday. Another report was that the company had been unable to secure the money required to meet its interest due on Monday. The general market was feverish and exicted. At the start prices fell anywhere from 14 to 75 per cent, but quickly recovered and in some cases advances were established the industrial steading. established the industrial steading. Leather preferred and sugar showed the greater recuperative ability, Leather or preferred rising from 60 to 62 and sugar from 114 to 115%4%. Western Union was heavy throughout and fell from 84 to 82% a83%. Speculation closed very irregular. Net changes show losses of 441 per cent. B and O, however, lost 54 to 224. Sugar gained 4 per cent. on the day. Total sales were 173,335 shares including 26,700, Sugar, 24,200; St. Paul, 20,000; Louisville and Nashville and 13,400 B and O.

DAILY BARGAIN NO. 2

A FIRST-CLASS HALLET & DAVIS PIANO In the very best of condition, 3 Unisons, 7 1/3 Octaves, magnificent action, full rich tone and rosewood case; as good a piano, except in the matter of the case, as you could possibly buy for $300 in the ordinary way. A chance for early buyers on Monday at - - $125.00

SATURDAY'S BARGAIN WAS SOLD BEFORE NOON. TAKE A HINT.

Sales Are Quick and Plenty with us because we are giving Piano and Organ values such as people never expected to get, and the reason is simply this: We've got

$20,000 WORTH OF PIANOS AND ORGANS TO SELL IN 20 DAYS

Is it any wonder, then, that we're selling instruments at practically what we can get for them? Credit buyers, if responsible, can buy on just as good terms as spot cash purchasers, only they are required to pay 6 per cent. per annum on outstanding balance.
