Attractions Seen in the Three Theaters Last Night.

WAITE ENGAGEMENT OPENS

Copmuny Seen at the Frothingham it "the Black Flag"-"Grimes' Cellar Door" at the Academy and "From Sire to Son" at Davis'. Theater.

Waite's Comedy company began a two weeks' engagement at the Froth-ingham last night by presenting "Ine Black Flag" before an audience that crowded every part of the house. Mr. Waite has a very strong company this season, a fact demonstrated by the manner in which last night's drama was given. "The Black Flag" has been familiar to theater-goers for years, but familiar to theater-goers for years, but it was invested with a new interest last night by the good work of the mem-bers of the Waite company. Cameron Clemens, who was seen in the role of Harry Clyndon, is a graceful young actor who apparently has a promising future before him. He is forceful and earnest in his method and in the many dramatic scenes of the play in all of which he figured prominently. his acting showed thoughtful discrimination.

The comedy lines of the drama were assigned to William H. Chace and Will-lam Barbour, who kept the audience highly amused. As the stone fakir at the prison Mr. Barbour gave a fine piece of character acting that was hugely enjoyed.

Miss Katherine Crego, the leading lady of the company, appeared to good advantage as Naomi Bradford. She is pretty and elever and a very capable actress. Other-members of the east who created a good impression last night were Henrietta St. Felix, Annie Ainsley, Lee Sterrett, W. A. Moriarity and Mamie Harvey.

Incidental to the drama, Waite's Concert orchestra, under the leadership hugely enfoyed.

ort orchestra, under the leadership of Professor Vincent F. Irolli, rendered a number of selections. It is a splendid musical organization, and the descripmusical organization, and the descrip-tive piece, "A Day with the Circus," which closed the programme, was rap-turously applanded. A. H. Knoll and Marle McNeil played cornet solos and duetts. They are a strong feature of the show. Before the performance last evening Waite's Beass band gave a con-cert on Wyoming avenue in front of the theater and will give a similar concert theater and will give a similar concert before the afternoon and evening per-formances each day during the engagement, weather permitting.
This afternoon the company will be seen in "Kathleen Mayourneen," and tonight in "Michael Strogoff."

GRIMES' CELLAR DOOR. James B. Mackle, he of the large outh and terrible grimace, was the star of an aggregation of farce comedy artists that produced "Grimes' Cellar Door" at the Academy of Music last night. Mackie first won fame for himself by his performance in the role of "Grimsey" in "A Bunch of Keys." There was a distinct flavor of Hoytian methods and humor in the farce in which Mackie was seen last night, and the star dld a number of things that made theater-goers howl when "A Bunch of Reys" first made its appearance on the farce comedy horizon. As a tribute to the durability of that style of humor, it might be remarked here that many persons in the audience last night laughed when Mackie exploited the same old Taken altogether, "Grimes' Cellar Door" is an amusing entertainment. It is liberally sprinkled throughout with specialties, the greater part of which are given by a bevy of pretty young women headed by Louise Sanford. The Mahr sisters do some clever daucing and a good quartette rendered several selections which were highly appreclated.

Rev. Dr. Pearce, of Elm Park church, will preach the sermon at the dedication of the new Methodist Episcopal church at Hallstead, March 19.

STRONG ATTRACTION AT DAVIS'.

"From Sire to Son," one of Milton Nobles' dramatic creations, was given at Davis' theater yesterday afternoon at Davis' theater yesterday afternoon. by a capable company led by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wayne. The story of the play is very interesting and is told with some originality. Scenic effects are better than usual and the cast includes two especially excellent actors. Mr. Wayne and J. Irving Southard, Rose Adelle is pretty, and filled the part of Adelle is irretty, and filled the part of Aurelia Stockup to a nicety.

Miss Adelle and Frank Bouman, a man with a flexible face, sing a catchy song. They were recalled many times. Manager Davis has a show in "From Sire to Son" which is above the standard of the average popular price house It contrasts greatly in purity to the show of last week. Four more presen-tations will be given up to Wednesday night inclusive with performances in the afternoon.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

This evening at the Academy of Music there will be a great produc-tion of "The Brooklyn Handicap," concerning which the Philadelphia Times The plot turns upon the life of an adventuress, who gains entrance into a banker's family, only to bring it on the verge of ruin. She is apparently successful, but her plans are thwarted by the shrewdness of a niece of the banker's. The banker's son has taken $5,000 from his father's safe to meet a note, and this, too, is restored, and the Brooklyn Handicap proves the means of restoration. The young man is without funds, but his nervy cousin places all her money on 'Dr. Rice,' and from the winnings restores the sum taken. The plot is a not improbable one, and is never spoiled in straining after effects. The fourth act, the 'Great Brooklyn Handicap,' must be seen to be fully appreciated. The horses, the jockeys, the crowd in the grand stand. the excitement of the race, the thril-ling finish, upon which so much de-pends, are all so lifelike that they baffle description. Five times did the curtain ascend on the horses, and gatlaries vied with the lower part of the house in vociferous cheers. As a stir-ring, up-to-date play, the 'Brooklyn Handicap' has before it a winter of certain success.

Joseph Hart, the comedy end of the vell-known firm of (Hallen & Hart). well-known firm of (Hallen & Hart), which appears at the Academy of Music tomorrow evening, has scored a great success with his new musical comedy farce, "A Gay Old Boy." The play is said to be a step or several steps higher than anything that Mr. Hart has aspired to in the past, and the characterization which he gives to Forty Lest Tree is worthy to rank alongside. rest Tree is worthy to rank alongside of those supposed to be higher up. The company supporting Mr. Hart is said to be the strongest ever gathered to-gether for farce comedy, among whom are Carrie De Mar, May Thompsan, Leona Amrose, Adel Archer, Al Leech, Harry M. The Academy of Music has secured a popular success in "The Creat Dia-mond Robbery." which comes here for two performances only on Thursday and Friday. Its three months' triumph and Friday. Its three months' triumph in New York has again demonstrated Manager A. M. Palner's knowledge of the public taste. "The Great Diamond Robbery," in addition to the absorbing interest of the story and its startling denouements, has the additional advantage of being superbly staged. The four leading scenic artists in the country, Clare, Hoyt, Albert, Marston, furnished the numerous scenes. Every accessory is of the best. The cast is an ideal one. Rare judgement has been exercised in the selection of actors for all the roles, with the result that each character is perfectly portrayed. Such well known artists as Mme. Janauschek, Mrs. Annie

GILES COULD NOT BE FOUND.

Papers in the Quo Warranto Proceedings Could Not Be Served. Bernard Giles, of Winton borough, was a much sought after man Satur-day and yesterday morning, but he was as non est around his usual haunts as if the ground opened and swallowed him up. His right to a seat in the council of Winton is contested by James Strong who ran against him at the recent election and was defeated by five votes.

The ground on which the opposition to Ciles is based was set forth in The Tribune yesterday; namely, that he has not paid borough tax within a year, and cannot therefore be an elector of Winton, and is not according to law entitled to his seat. The rule to show cause why a writ of que warrante should not issue which was obtained Saturday by Attorney T. V. Powderly, representing Strong, was made returnable at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon with the understanding that notice of it should be forthwith served on Giles.

As soon as the rule was issued by the court, the papers were placed in the hands of Sheriff Clemons, who sent Deputy Sheriff Thomas Jay up to Win-ton to serve Giles with the writ. Mr. Jay knows every foot of territory in Winton and was the proper man to send out, but Giles could not be found.

but the guest was fruitless.

The return made by Sheriff Clemon to court yesterday was that after due and diligent search Giles could not be found. It is strongly suspected that he left town to evade the service of the writ, so that he would not have to answer yesterday afternoon. The coun-cil of Winton met last night and Glies was probably around to take his seat. If Strong wants to follow the matter further he will have to renew the writ, but in the meanwhile Giles will have his seat in council.

TO PREVENT OVERFLOWS.

Washington Avenue Flats Sewer Trouble

to Be Abated. The experience of the past week has proved beyond a doubt that something must be done to relieve the sewer on Mushington avenue flats. The streets and neighboring cellurs have been flooded at every storm and damage suits will undoubtedly result. The cause of the trouble is that the sewer cannot accommodate the volume of water which flows down from Cedar avenue, and the other higher portions of the district. The water is carried all right where there is an incline to the sewer, but when it reaches the level portion on the flats the flow is not so swift, and as a consequence the water pours through the manholes into the treets.

To remedy this, Street Commissioner Kinsley propses to tap the sewer where it crosses Roaring Brook on its way to the river and erect at that point an overflow sipe which will be lower than the outlets of the manholes on the streets, and make it of sufficient size to carry off at least one-third of the water. This, he feels confident, will prevent any further overflows,
