

News of the Suburbs.

25-LB. SACKS DUCKWEAT FLOUR

40c. Guaranteed to Be the Best Made.

Luce Bros. Scranton and Taylor.

WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Party Rendered to Thomas G. Evans in Honor of His Twenty-first Birthday.

Thomas G. Evans, teller of the West Side bank, was twenty-one years old yesterday, and in honor of the event several of his friends assembled in the evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Evans, of 1722 Washburn street, and passed a pleasant time.

Those present were the Misses Joseph, Mattie Jones, Margaret Phillips, Miss Phillips, Lillian Reynolds, Jennie Price, Grace Acker, Margaret Hutton, Edith Evans, Will Hutton, Will John, Albert Carson, E. G. Jones, Beverly Reynolds, David Davis, Lewis A. Howell, David Owens, Walter Jones and Bert Fern.

FROM COAL MINE TO COLLEGE. Rev. Rhys A. Lloyd, a former West Sider, is honored by the following sketch published in the Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph of last Saturday's issue:

From a coal mine to a professor's chair is the almost unparalleled leap that was taken by Rev. Rhys A. Lloyd, who 17 years ago was working with pick and shovel in the depths of a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western mine at Scranton and who today is professor of Greek, the New Testament and exegesis at the Pacific Theological seminary in Oakland, Cal. It can be conceived how a poor boy can become a millionaire in this country of possibilities, but how a man can start in the race for education with a handicap of twenty-three years and outstrip many competitors in four years is a feat of which several children, his father was a coal miner, wretchedly poor, and when young Rhys was but 8 years old, he had to go into the shaft as a helper. At intervals he attended night school, and eagerly grasped the crumbs which fell from the scantily set educational table. When he was 14, his parents emigrated to America and went to Scranton, where he toiled as he had in Wales, eager for knowledge, but with no opportunity for acquiring it. In 1879 there was a great strike, and he improved the time of idleness by attending school in three months he finished three grades, in which ordinary scholars spent six months. His progress astonished his teachers, but when work was resumed, he had to go back into the mines. It was not until he was 21 that he left the mines for good. He had been married three years before, and when he entered the academy at Marietta, O., he had a son a year old. In one and one-half years he had graduated from the classical course, supporting himself and family by teaching in Scranton. He immediately entered the college at Marietta, and after four years graduated second in a class of eighty, having won every theoretical and oratorical prize. After a summer spent in preaching in southeastern Ohio, young Lloyd entered the Chicago Theological seminary, where he spent three years. For the next four years he preached in a prosperous West Side Chicago church, but his sermons grew too learned, and he was advised to become a professor. He took the advice and when he was offered the position of the chair of Greek, at Oakland, he accepted.

Many on the West Side remember Mr. Lloyd. He was assisted in his studies by the Wesleyan philosophical society, which conducted a concert for his benefit. Mr. Lloyd is a daughter of the late Evan P. Davis, who is well known for his scholarly ability.

LEAP YEAR PARTY. A Leap year party was tendered Miss

NORTH DOUBLE.

- Mens All Wool Pants reduced to $1.98, worth double. Mens All Wool Suits reduced to $7.00, worth double. Mens All Wool Suits reduced to $8.00, worth double. Mens All Wool Suits reduced to $8.50, worth double. Mens All Wool Suits reduced to $9.50, worth double. Mens All Wool Bicycle Pants reduced to 75c., worth double. Mens All Wool Bicycle Pants reduced to $1.00, worth double. Mens All Wool Bicycle Pants reduced to $1.25, worth double. Mens All Wool Bicycle Pants reduced to $1.50, worth double. Mens All Wool Bicycle Pants reduced to $2.00, worth double. Mens All Wool Bicycle Pants reduced to $2.50, worth double. Mens Latest Style Spring Hats reduced to 87c., worth double. Childrens Double-Breasted Reefe Coats reduced to $1.59, worth double. Childrens Double-Breasted Reefe Coats, bound, reduced to $1.98, worth double. Childrens Double-Breasted Navy Blue Suits reduced to $1.98, worth double. Childs Double Breasted Reefe Suits reduced to $1.75, worth double. Childs Double-Breasted Reefe Suits reduced to $1.98, worth double.

THE SAMTERS Square Dealing Clothiers, Hatters and Furnishers.

Anna Adams last evening in honor of her seventeenth birthday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Adams, of Jackson street and Main avenue. There was much enjoyment. Dancing formed the chief amusement. At a late hour refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. Adams. Several solos were sung. Those present were: Anna Adams, Coraline Adams, Sarah Stetter, Lillian Miller, Ella Tucker, Grace Miller, Annie Jones, Lizzie Jones, Annie Anderson, Joseph Clark, Katie Loughney, Agnes Brennan, Maggie McDonald, Mame Murray, Anna McDonald, Nellie Clarke, Anna Mullarkey, Annie Kille, Mary Mul-lack, Annie Greenburg, Renle Archer, Grace Woodrich, May Call, Mary L. Thomas, Phil Martin, C. L. Kelley, Alfred Moir, Alfred Tucker, Charles Slack, Joseph Gibbons, Robert Moir, M. McCann, Charles Droushbaugh, Mr. Zorlich, Bert Adams, Ed. Van Stone, J. S. Short, W. P. Joyce, A. Brown, Joseph Slavin, Harry Carmine, Frank Smith, Mark A. Depe, J. H. Crane, James Langran, William Junks, John Mullarkey, James Vail, Otto Winters, George Busherville.

IVORITE MEETING. Robert Morris lodge of Ivorites will meet this evening. As this will be the last regular meeting of the lodge before the election of officers on March 17, the members are specially requested to attend. The election will be a great success. Already almost enough tickets to insure a present many of the friends of the happy members. The day for the handling of the literary efforts has passed, and the several adjudicators are busy delivering for the superior composition. Several of the lodge working committees journeyed to Pottsville this week for the purpose of creating interest in the event. At the meeting this evening the members will make returns for the tickets sold.

WEDDED TWENTY-FIVE YEARS. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carroll, of South Sumner avenue, celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage on Tuesday evening. The occasion has been made doubly happy by the presence of the happy couple. Solos, both instrumental and vocal, were given by Mrs. James Lewis and Mrs. Fisher. Those who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Haas, Mr. and Mrs. Fuhrman, Mr. and Mrs. Karcher, Mrs. F. Foster, Mrs. Richard Owens, Mr. and Mrs. James Woodley, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Richards, Mrs. E. L. Reber, Mr. and Mrs. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stewart, Mrs. Samsenbaugh, Mrs. Nautmann, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mrs. J. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. William Norton, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Phillips, Mrs. Hinckley, the Misses Margaret and Kate Karcher and Mary Owens.

WILL NOT CONTEST. Frederick Berge was defeated at the late election by John McAndrew for the representation to select council from the district of the West Side. Mr. Berge margin was but eleven votes and Mr. Berge asked that the ballot boxes of the two districts be opened and a recount made, but Mr. McAndrew declared that he will not continue the fight, although he believes that the returns were false.

NEWS NOTES AND PERSONALS. Iva Davis, of Washburn street, returned Tuesday from Stroudsburg State Normal school where he visited Will Jamison, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hought, of South Hyde Park avenue, entertained a few friends on Tuesday evening at a progressive euchre party. It was a very successful one. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. C. Stephens, Mrs. Willard Lanning, Mrs. William Madigan, Mrs. Dora, the Misses McCawley, E. Becker, Belle Burt and B. Williams and W. Proud.

Rev. J. T. Logan, of Wilkes-Barre, will preach at 7:30 o'clock, subject, "The Methodist Doctrine of Entire Sanctification." All are welcome. The board of directors of the West Side bank met last evening. Nothing of public interest was transacted. Bert Fern, a student at the University of Pennsylvania, arrived home last night for a visit.

The Chi Epsilon society will banquet on the evening of March 23. Mrs. Hanna Smith, of 529 North Bromley avenue, is ill from the grippe. Mrs. Thomas Jordan and Mrs. John A. Watson, both of Piltston, visited Mrs. W. H. Jones, of North Sumner avenue, yesterday. Master Justin McCarthy, of Washburn street, has begun employment at the West Side barbers shop. Mrs. Mary Brown and daughter, Kitty, have removed from Hyde Park avenue to Washburn street. E. B. Cronk is foreman of the corps of men now engaged in putting the finishing touches on the new No. 13 school on Bellevue Heights. William Lewis, of South Garfield avenue, has accepted a position with Barner-Fred Brown, of Spruce street. Born, a son, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Davis, of Swetland street. The spring inspection of Company F will occur Saturday evening in the St. David's hall armory. It will be conducted by Major W. S. Miller. The company will have at least one office visitor. The Elks club class meets tomorrow night. Fred C. Walker has moved with his family from New York city to 132 South Rebecca avenue. John A. Reese will become a West Side resident in the near future. The Elite dancing class meets tomorrow night. Andrew Gustafsson, the Swede who fell over the bridge several weeks ago and was seriously injured, is able to be about again. John and Larsen, the two men who figured in the shooting affray, conducted after the fall of Gustafsson, will recover, but are still at the Moses Taylor hospital. Rev. J. T. Logan, of Wilkes-Barre, will preach at Beer's hall this evening.

West Side Business Directory. PLUMBING—William D. Griffiths, 313 North Washington street. Satisfaction is strictly guaranteed. BARBER—Hair cutting and shaving done in a first class manner at John H. Reynolds' Barber Shop, at Fairchild's hotel. FLOREST—Cut flowers and funeral designs appropriate for all occasions, as well as for the superior composition. Several of the lodge working committees journeyed to Pottsville this week for the purpose of creating interest in the event. At the meeting this evening the members will make returns for the tickets sold.

PHOTOGRAPHY—Cabinet Photos, 50-cent dozen. They are just lovely. Give yourself by calling at Starner's Photo Parlor, 101 and 103 South Main avenue. GROCERIES—Revere Standard Java Coffee is unequalled. The leading coffee of the day. F. V. Mason & Co. Fine Groceries, 118 South Main avenue. SECOND HAND FURNITURE—Cash for anything you have to sell. Furniture, Stoves, Tools, etc. Call and see the stock of J. C. King, 103 and 105 Jackson street.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

Proposition Which Will Be of Mutual Benefit to Axle Works and Lackawanna, Iron & Steel Company.

Thomas J. Moore and J. B. Decker, president and general manager, respectively of the Scranton Axle Works, held a conference with General Manager H. Wehrum, of the Lackawanna, Iron and Steel company, a few days ago and the subject talked of was a proposal to make arrangements whereby the 100,000 tons, or thereabouts, of steel that is used monthly by the Axle works, can be made at the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company instead of going to Bethlehem.

The result of the conference will, no doubt, be to the mutual advantage of both companies. The Axle works will be spared the delays, etc., incident to ordering and shipping the steel from Bethlehem, and the Lackawanna company will be able to dispose of its steel more readily. The North mill is where the steel would have to be made as it is equipped for the manufacture of billets, or it could be done at the rolling mill.

AUGUST SCHIMPF'S AMBITION. Proprietor August Schimpf, of Germania hall and restaurant, on the corner of the street of the South Side, is a candidate for street commissioner when the time comes for Mayor-elect Bailey to choose a successor to Michael Schimpf, who has always been a Democrat and an active worker year in and year out. To his unflinching devotion to the interests of the undershirted citizen he has added the good record majorities that have been recorded from the South Side. His friends have asked him to become a candidate at the next municipal election which has entered the lists.

TALK ON HEALTH. Miss Janet Adams, physical director, will give a health talk at the South Side Young Women's Christian association tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. The talk will be free to all and the women of the South Side are cordially invited to be present.

KILLED BY SHOCK. John Zemar, the Hungarian whose leg was amputated at the Moses Taylor hospital, where he was confined for being squeezed between cars at the blast furnace, died at the hospital at 4:30 Tuesday morning. His wife and four children were present at the funeral. The funeral will be held this morning at 9 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Greek Catholic cemetery in the Twelfth ward.

SHORTER PARAGRAPHS OF NEWS. Edward Phibbin, of Minooka, whose injury was noted yesterday, is in a critical condition and his death is expected. The Century Hose company will hold a regular meeting tomorrow evening. Miss Anna Smith, of 529 North Bromley avenue, is ill from the grippe. Mrs. Thomas Jordan and Mrs. John A. Watson, both of Piltston, visited Mrs. W. H. Jones, of North Sumner avenue, yesterday. Master Justin McCarthy, of Washburn street, has begun employment at the West Side barbers shop. Mrs. Mary Brown and daughter, Kitty, have removed from Hyde Park avenue to Washburn street. E. B. Cronk is foreman of the corps of men now engaged in putting the finishing touches on the new No. 13 school on Bellevue Heights. William Lewis, of South Garfield avenue, has accepted a position with Barner-Fred Brown, of Spruce street. Born, a son, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Davis, of Swetland street. The spring inspection of Company F will occur Saturday evening in the St. David's hall armory. It will be conducted by Major W. S. Miller. The company will have at least one office visitor. The Elks club class meets tomorrow night. Fred C. Walker has moved with his family from New York city to 132 South Rebecca avenue. John A. Reese will become a West Side resident in the near future. The Elite dancing class meets tomorrow night. Andrew Gustafsson, the Swede who fell over the bridge several weeks ago and was seriously injured, is able to be about again. John and Larsen, the two men who figured in the shooting affray, conducted after the fall of Gustafsson, will recover, but are still at the Moses Taylor hospital. Rev. J. T. Logan, of Wilkes-Barre, will preach at Beer's hall this evening.

PHOTOGRAPHY—Cabinet Photos, 50-cent dozen. They are just lovely. Give yourself by calling at Starner's Photo Parlor, 101 and 103 South Main avenue. GROCERIES—Revere Standard Java Coffee is unequalled. The leading coffee of the day. F. V. Mason & Co. Fine Groceries, 118 South Main avenue. SECOND HAND FURNITURE—Cash for anything you have to sell. Furniture, Stoves, Tools, etc. Call and see the stock of J. C. King, 103 and 105 Jackson street.

EASTERN LEAGUE MEETING

Held in the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York City, Yesterday.

SCHEDULE NOT ANNOUNCED

Names of the Delegates Present at the Meeting—Terms of the National Agreement Were Considered at Length—Business for Today. The Eastern league of professional base ball players commenced their spring schedule meeting in the Fifth Avenue hotel yesterday afternoon. A good deal of general business is before the meeting, and President P. T. Powers, who is the schedule committee, stated that he was ready to announce the schedule for publication yesterday. After the reading of the minutes, the meeting took up the report of the committee on the resolution of the constitution. Some important changes will be made in the constitution. The following delegates are in attendance: Babe Ruth, James Franklin, F. Rogers, A. C. Baker, Robert, Jas. H. Buckley and Daniel Shannon; Syracuse, George N. Kuntz; Scranton, H. B. Simpson; St. Paul, Parker and H. McDermott; Wilkes-Barre, F. Bogert, C. W. Long and C. W. Tammany; Springfield, C. T. Sheen and T. E. Burns, and Providence, W. H. Draper, E. A. Johnson and W. C. Bates. The meeting adjourned at 6 p. m. The time of the delegates was taken up in considering the national agreement. There was considerable discussion of the feeling of the delegates seemed to be on the whole, that the Eastern league is benefited rather than otherwise by the terms of the new agreement. It will be decided today whether a delegate will be sent to the meeting of the league which is to be held in Washington on March 10 to take action on the national agreement. While it is possible that a delegate may be sent to see what the committee will take, President Powers said that the general sense of the delegates was that the Eastern league had no grievance against the Big League, and that if such should arise in the future the Eastern league would be able to cope with the same. No new business was transacted.

MOMENTS WITH THE WITS.

"It's too bad," said Willie Wellington, "that the good old custom of making calls 'til your ears ring is slowly but surely dying out." "Do you like the practice?" "I don't like it, but I can't think of anything else, you can say 'Happy New Year' and it's the only time when the Mayor and his staff are not so formal."—Washington Star.

McGuire (the tramp)—Spare a copper to an old soldier, sorr? The Mayor—What? You a soldier? McGuire—Yes, sorr, sorr. On one occasion I made a whole regiment of the enemy run, sorr. The Mayor—Did they catch you?—Illustrated Bits.

Exasperated Citizen—Look here, I want to make a complaint against your confounded cable-cars. Yesterday I got caught in a blockade and had to sit and wait for nearly an hour. Superintendent—That's just like you fellows, never satisfied. Why, another man just came in and complained that the cars went so fast he couldn't get on.—Life.

Not Unreasonable—"Haven't had anything to eat for twenty-four hours, haven't you?" said the man who had stopped a moment to listen to a tale of woe. "Well, here's mine." "That don't go very far toward satisfying an appetite like mine," responded Mopsy Wraggs, with an apologetic cough. "I don't mind, Cap'n, I'll use it for squinchin' my thirst." And he disappeared with great alacrity.—Chicago Tribune.

Literature.—Editor—Your narrative is too long, please. Author—Very well, I will produce some hair-raising incidents.—Detroit Free Press.

"A friend in need," said Uncle Eben, "am I b'lie ter be de frien' dat you done paid back when you borrowd money on previous occasions?"—Washington Star.

Have you—Jack says he proposed to Miss Susan and she refused. Auster—Did she accept him? Have you—She was too full of the horse. Auster—Could get out of her was "No."—Puck.

Prof. Schullch—I don't know what's the matter with me, doctor; I am perpetually limping today. Is it locomotor ataxy, I wonder? Doctor—Why, professor, you are walking with one foot on the curbstone and the other in the gutter.—Lustige Blaetter.

Knickerbocker—What do you think I found last night in my pocket? Knickerbocker—I've no idea. Was it a pocketbook? No. I found that everything was very dark.—Texas Siftings.

Teacher—What was Joan of Arch maid of? Bright Pupil—Maide of dust.—Boston Transcript.

"Oh, you not ashamed of yourself, beggar!" said the man who had caught a young woman in the act of stealing a loaf of bread from a bakery. "Oh, I beg in the daytime, too!"—New York Times.

Teacher—So, George, you were named after George Washington, were you? Young George—Yes; some time after.—Hoxbury Gazette.

Customer (looking at himself in the mirror)—Where is the hair on my head? He is wearing this season, are they? They seem to be out of style. Clothing Merchant—Mean friend, your pants are all right, but your legs was yooat a liddle base.—Chicago Tribune.

The teacher was asking questions—teachers are quite apt to ask questions, and the sometimes receive curious answers. This question was as follows: "Now, pupils, how many months have twenty-eight days?" "All of them, teacher," replied the boy on the front seat.—Utica Observer.

A Bure Thing—"You don't have a prominent nose in your system of government," remarked the English statesman to Emperor William. "Yes, it was the reply. "When I want anything done, I will do it myself."—Washington Star.

An Austin youth whose income is not quite as extensive as that of Vanderbilt's, a friend how the state could be removed. "You can get a chemical preparation for it," said the doctor, "soak the spot with it and it will come out." "I guess I had better soak the whole state," said the youth.—Texas Siftings.

Aunt Matilda—How many young men are there at the academy? The Student—About 20. Aunt Matilda—Indeed! All studying for the ministry? The Student—Well, some for the ministry, and some for the police force.—New York Times.

A Little Girl's Appeal.—A poor little girl had trouble with her mother not long ago. The direct consequence was that she was sent to her room for medication and, supposedly, repeated the lesson and later happened to hear the mother's defiance. She then thought, "I'm a poor little girl, before her bed and, hurrying herself in the pillow, began to pray for guidance. But the petition had this very significant commencement: "Lord, consider how I am treated."—New York Times.

"I should think you would feel a bit nervous over the idea of your husband going away out there among the gold mines to be gone a whole year or longer," said the caller. "I don't care," replied Mrs. Fanky. "I'm afraid he'll lose all interest in me and the church."—Chicago Tribune.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day. "Myself cured of Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits. 75 cents. Sold by Carl Lorenz, Druggist, 418 Lackawanna avenue, Scranton.

Chamberlain's English Diamond Brand PENNYROYAL PILLS

Chamberlain's English Diamond Brand PENNYROYAL PILLS. Great relief in all cases of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Headache, Toothache, Stomachache, Colic, Cholera, and all other ailments. Sold by all Druggists.

EASTERN LEAGUE MEETING

Held in the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York City, Yesterday.

SCHEDULE NOT ANNOUNCED

Names of the Delegates Present at the Meeting—Terms of the National Agreement Were Considered at Length—Business for Today. The Eastern league of professional base ball players commenced their spring schedule meeting in the Fifth Avenue hotel yesterday afternoon. A good deal of general business is before the meeting, and President P. T. Powers, who is the schedule committee, stated that he was ready to announce the schedule for publication yesterday. After the reading of the minutes, the meeting took up the report of the committee on the resolution of the constitution. Some important changes will be made in the constitution. The following delegates are in attendance: Babe Ruth, James Franklin, F. Rogers, A. C. Baker, Robert, Jas. H. Buckley and Daniel Shannon; Syracuse, George N. Kuntz; Scranton, H. B. Simpson; St. Paul, Parker and H. McDermott; Wilkes-Barre, F. Bogert, C. W. Long and C. W. Tammany; Springfield, C. T. Sheen and T. E. Burns, and Providence, W. H. Draper, E. A. Johnson and W. C. Bates. The meeting adjourned at 6 p. m. The time of the delegates was taken up in considering the national agreement. There was considerable discussion of the feeling of the delegates seemed to be on the whole, that the Eastern league is benefited rather than otherwise by the terms of the new agreement. It will be decided today whether a delegate will be sent to the meeting of the league which is to be held in Washington on March 10 to take action on the national agreement. While it is possible that a delegate may be sent to see what the committee will take, President Powers said that the general sense of the delegates was that the Eastern league had no grievance against the Big League, and that if such should arise in the future the Eastern league would be able to cope with the same. No new business was transacted.

MOMENTS WITH THE WITS.

"It's too bad," said Willie Wellington, "that the good old custom of making calls 'til your ears ring is slowly but surely dying out." "Do you like the practice?" "I don't like it, but I can't think of anything else, you can say 'Happy New Year' and it's the only time when the Mayor and his staff are not so formal."—Washington Star.

McGuire (the tramp)—Spare a copper to an old soldier, sorr? The Mayor—What? You a soldier? McGuire—Yes, sorr, sorr. On one occasion I made a whole regiment of the enemy run, sorr. The Mayor—Did they catch you?—Illustrated Bits.

Exasperated Citizen—Look here, I want to make a complaint against your confounded cable-cars. Yesterday I got caught in a blockade and had to sit and wait for nearly an hour. Superintendent—That's just like you fellows, never satisfied. Why, another man just came in and complained that the cars went so fast he couldn't get on.—Life.

Not Unreasonable—"Haven't had anything to eat for twenty-four hours, haven't you?" said the man who had stopped a moment to listen to a tale of woe. "Well, here's mine." "That don't go very far toward satisfying an appetite like mine," responded Mopsy Wraggs, with an apologetic cough. "I don't mind, Cap'n, I'll use it for squinchin' my thirst." And he disappeared with great alacrity.—Chicago Tribune.

Literature.—Editor—Your narrative is too long, please. Author—Very well, I will produce some hair-raising incidents.—Detroit Free Press.

"A friend in need," said Uncle Eben, "am I b'lie ter be de frien' dat you done paid back when you borrowd money on previous occasions?"—Washington Star.

Have you—Jack says he proposed to Miss Susan and she refused. Auster—Did she accept him? Have you—She was too full of the horse. Auster—Could get out of her was "No."—Puck.

Prof. Schullch—I don't know what's the matter with me, doctor; I am perpetually limping today. Is it locomotor ataxy, I wonder? Doctor—Why, professor, you are walking with one foot on the curbstone and the other in the gutter.—Lustige Blaetter.

Knickerbocker—What do you think I found last night in my pocket? Knickerbocker—I've no idea. Was it a pocketbook? No. I found that everything was very dark.—Texas Siftings.

Teacher—What was Joan of Arch maid of? Bright Pupil—Maide of dust.—Boston Transcript.

"Oh, you not ashamed of yourself, beggar!" said the man who had caught a young woman in the act of stealing a loaf of bread from a bakery. "Oh, I beg in the daytime, too!"—New York Times.

Teacher—So, George, you were named after George Washington, were you? Young George—Yes; some time after.—Hoxbury Gazette.

Customer (looking at himself in the mirror)—Where is the hair on my head? He is wearing this season, are they? They seem to be out of style. Clothing Merchant—Mean friend, your pants are all right, but your legs was yooat a liddle base.—Chicago Tribune.

The teacher was asking questions—teachers are quite apt to ask questions, and the sometimes receive curious answers. This question was as follows: "Now, pupils, how many months have twenty-eight days?" "All of them, teacher," replied the boy on the front seat.—Utica Observer.

A Bure Thing—"You don't have a prominent nose in your system of government," remarked the English statesman to Emperor William. "Yes, it was the reply. "When I want anything done, I will do it myself."—Washington Star.

An Austin youth whose income is not quite as extensive as that of Vanderbilt's, a friend how the state could be removed. "You can get a chemical preparation for it," said the doctor, "soak the spot with it and it will come out." "I guess I had better soak the whole state," said the youth.—Texas Siftings.

Aunt Matilda—How many young men are there at the academy? The Student—About 20. Aunt Matilda—Indeed! All studying for the ministry? The Student—Well, some for the ministry, and some for the police force.—New York Times.

A Little Girl's Appeal.—A poor little girl had trouble with her mother not long ago. The direct consequence was that she was sent to her room for medication and, supposedly, repeated the lesson and later happened to hear the mother's defiance. She then thought, "I'm a poor little girl, before her bed and, hurrying herself in the pillow, began to pray for guidance. But the petition had this very significant commencement: "Lord, consider how I am treated."—New York Times.

"I should think you would feel a bit nervous over the idea of your husband going away out there among the gold mines to be gone a whole year or longer," said the caller. "I don't care," replied Mrs. Fanky. "I'm afraid he'll lose all interest in me and the church."—Chicago Tribune.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day. "Myself cured of Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits. 75 cents. Sold by Carl Lorenz, Druggist, 418 Lackawanna avenue, Scranton.

Chamberlain's English Diamond Brand PENNYROYAL PILLS

Chamberlain's English Diamond Brand PENNYROYAL PILLS. Great relief in all cases of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Headache, Toothache, Stomachache, Colic, Cholera, and all other ailments. Sold by all Druggists.

The Fashion 308 LACKAWANNA AVE. 308

ONCE MORE THE PRICES. 5-CENTS per yard for Check and Plaid Nainsooks; also Wash Goods, never retailed for less than roc. and 12 1/2c. See our window display. It will prove the truth of this assertion.

DRESS GOODS. 65c. Black Henrietta or Serges, all-wool, special 49c. 90c. Black Henriettas, 48 Inches Wide, this week 69c. $1.00 Black Henrietta or Serge, Extra Wide, this week 75c. $1.25 Black Henrietta or Serge, Extra Fine and Wide 98c.

LACE CURTAINS. $1.00 Nottingham Lace Curtains, special per pair, 75c. 1.25 Nottingham Lace Curtains, extra size, 98c. 1.75 Nottingham Lace Curtains, 60 inches wide, $1.25 2.75 Nottingham Lace Curtains, this week, 1.75

Tambo, Swiss, Renaissance and Brussels at same reduction this week.

COATS AND FUR CAPES 1/2 PRICE.

AMUSEMENTS. THE FROTHINGHAM. Wagner & Reis, Lessees and Managers. Two Solid Weeks, MON. MARCH 2. Commencing

C. M. FLOREY. I don't keep BICYCLES very long, I SELL THEM as fast as they arrive from the factory.

Call and See The '96 Models of The Spalding and Keating They Are Winners.

C. M. FLOREY. 222 Wyoming Avenue.

THE TRADERS NATIONAL BANK OF SCRANTON. ORGANIZED 1890. CAPITAL - $260,000 SURPLUS - 40,000

DAVIS' THEATER. Thursday, Friday and Saturday MARCH 5, 6, 7, 1896.

DIAMOND - ROBBERY. Presented by A. M. Palmer and Edwin Knowles' UNPRECEDENTED CAST.

INTEREST PAID ON TIME DEPOSITS. This bank invites the patronage of business men and firms generally.

DUPONT'S MINING, BLASTING AND SPORTING POWDER. Manufactured at the Weymouth Mills, Lehigh county, Pa., and at Wilmington, Delaware.

HENRY BELIN, Jr. 118 WYOMING AVE., Scranton, Pa. Third National Bank Building.

SPRING WILL SOON BE HERE. And to be prepared to meet the warmer weather, you want a seasonable suit or an Overcoat of both.

JAMES MOIR'S 406 Lackawanna Ave. THERE YOU WILL FIND The largest stock to select from. Trimming Always of the Best. Latest Styles in Cutting, and made up on the premises by Expert Workmen.

How Is This For a '96 Line? $100.00 STERLINGS, FOWLERS, RICHMONDS, PACKER, $85.00 GALE'S, 75.00 FERRIS, 65.00

ASIDE FROM THESE I HAVE A line of $40 and $50 Wheels. When you are out for a bargain I can surely suit you. I cannot give you the earth, but I can give you the World for $100.

OILS, VINEGAR AND CIDER. OFFICE AND WAREHOUSE, 541 TO 185 ABERDIN STREET. W. W. COLLINS, Mgr.

A. W. JURISCH. 435 Spruce St.