CITY NOTES.

The work of putting steam heat into the newly-fitted-up draught room at the city hall, was begun yesterday.
The electric city dancing class will conduct its class at the Lackawanna avenue, every Friday night.
B. F. Armstrong, secretary of the Pittston Young Men's Christian association, will speak at the Rescue mission this evening.
In the estate of Mary Reap, late of the borough of Olyphant, letters of administration were yesterday granted to her son, Stephen Reap.
William Barriss and Sarah Jones Vaughn both of the city were married by Alderman Fuller, yesterday at his office, on Linden street.
Tax collector William Moses, of Dickson City borough, yesterday made his settlement with the county commissioners for the year 1895.
Licenses were granted by Clerk of the Courts John H. Thomas yesterday to Arthur M. Sherwood and Helen Moore, both of the city.
Inspection of Circle 19, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, will be held at their rooms, Saturday evening, March 7. All members are requested to attend.
The Delaware and Hudson company paid yesterday at the Olyphant and Eddy Creek mines. The Delaware and Hudson and Western company will pay today at the Dodge and Oxford mines.
John Cubino, of Prieberg, who was in jail awaiting trial on the charge of attempting to kill Louis Kerliko, gave bail yesterday before Judge Gunster in the sum of $300. N. G. Goodman became his bondsman.
Elmer Berry, of the Tenth ward, an officer of Company D, Thirtieth regiment, who was operated on recently for appendicitis by Dr. Bernatt, assisted by Drs. Burns, Longstreet and Gunster, has almost fully recovered.
Brother A. H. Knoll, 508, and Sister Marie McNeil, 107, who are playing an engagement with the Waite Comedy company at the Frothingham, delighted the members of the local lodge, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, at their rooms last evening with their delightful cornet playing, where they gave "The Elks Social Walk," composed by Mr. Knoll and dedicated to the "Scranton lodge, Mr. Knoll and Miss McNeil stand at the head of their profession.
The Young Men's Christian association has arranged for a popular presentation of the "Silver Sluice," a non-partisan and non-political standpoint, on Tuesday evening, March 10, in their auditorium, by Theodore C. Knauff, of Philadelphia; the representative and lecturer of the "Sound Money League of Pennsylvania." The lecture will be illustrated with stereoscopic views, giving a vivid portrayal of the history of money through all ages. Reserved seat chart opened on Thursday, March 5, at 9 o'clock a. m.
A musical extravaganza in three acts will be produced by some talent in the Young Men's Christian hall, March 28 and 27, for the benefit of the Rescue mission. It will be similar to that of the Brownies in Fairland, presented last year. It is based on "The Rose and the Ring," by William Makepeace Thackeray, dramatized by Will R. Wilson and Charles Bradley, with original music by Percy Grant. Already about seventy young people are being drilled under the direction of Mrs. J. L. Langford, B. R. Bindamore and Mrs. Edith Richards Hecker.

A NOBLE OUTCAST.

Produced at the Frothingham by the Waite Company.
"A Noble Outcast" received a fine presentation at the Frothingham last evening from the Waite company. It is a very interesting drama and one well suited to the members of the company. In the original "Michael Stragg" was given with the same excellence that marked its presentation Tuesday evening.
This afternoon "The Prince of Liars," a very entertaining comedy, will be the bill and tonight "The Buckeye" will be given.

GIRL STRUCK BY A TRAIN.

Miss Jennie Salisbury Run Down on the Delaware & Hudson Road.
Miss Jennie Salisbury, a 15-year-old girl, living on Market avenue, was run down by a passenger train at the Delaware and Hudson depot in Green Ridge yesterday afternoon and had a narrow escape from death or serious injury. As it was she sustained an ugly gash on her head and several painful bruises about the body, but her injuries, luckily, are comparatively slight.
She was crossing the road, going towards the depot, just after the train from Carbonade had pulled out and failed to notice the approach of the north bound train, due at 2:24. She was presumably about in the center of the track when the pilot struck her. The train had slowed down in approaching the depot and to this fact she can attribute her escape from death.
She was picked up and thrown on the platform, the blow from the engine cutting a deep gash in her head and her contact with the platform of the station, causing another slight cut. She was unconscious for a time, but soon recovered her senses and was able to tell her name and address. Dr. Van Cleef attended her at the station, and after her wounds were dressed she was conveyed to her home in a carriage and the family physician, Dr. Logan, was called to further administer to her.
The physicians say that no bones were broken, and that it is likely that no internal injuries were sustained.

PARTNERS HAVE TROUBLE.

One of Them Appeals to the Court for Redress.
Ex-Judge W. H. Stanton, counsel for Andrew Timos, began an equity suit in court yesterday against George Makulka. On December 13, 1895, the two men entered into a partnership for the purpose of carrying on a general butchering business, and for buying cattle, sheep, etc., and selling the same in the borough of Throop, under the firm name and style of Timos & Makulka.
Each put in $200 and they started the business. A large amount of goods have been sold by the firm to various parties on credit, whose accounts still remain open and unsettled. The partners could not agree as to the management of the business and have been constantly at variance for some time past, and the plaintiff believes that the defendant from time to time has been committing the partnership, has applied to his own use from the receipts and profits large sums of money greatly in excess of the proportion which he is entitled to and is now greatly indebted to the firm, and that he is now disposing of the goods of the firm and that he has collected and is fraudulently applying to his own use the money collected and refuses to apply it upon the debts of the firm.
The plaintiff asks the court to grant a preliminary injunction restraining the defendant from collecting the money owing to the firm or disposing of any of the goods of the firm, and to be appointed by the court to take possession of the property of the firm and collect all the moneys due, and generally to wind up the business of the partnership.
Judge Gunster granted a rule to show cause why the injunction should not be granted and a receiver appointed and prayed for. The rule will be argued in open court at 9 o'clock next Monday morning.

PETITION FOR A CHARTER.

Filed by Stockholders of Carbonade Base Ball Club.
Attorney Henry C. Butler, of Carbonade, yesterday morning filed a petition in the office of Prothonotary Pryor for a charter for the Carbonade base ball club, a corporation the amount of capital stock of which is $3,000, divided into thirty shares of the par value of $100 each and the yearly income of the corporation other than that derived from real estate, will not exceed $2,000.

ROBINSON STREET DEED.

The deed of the Traction Company for their Robinson street strip of street, was transmitted by City Solicitor Torrey and approved by council. By a resolution afterwards passed it was directed that the newly acquired strip be incorporated in Robinson street on the city maps.
The bond of Edmund J. Robinson, controller-elect in the sum of $10,000, was read and approved by council. The sureties were: Philip Robinson and Mina Robinson. The bond of Treasurer-elect C. G. Boland in the sum of $5,000 was also read and approved by council. The sureties were: James Jordan, R. G. Brooks, P. J. Ruane, Charles Du Pont Breck, A. J. Casey, Franklin Howell, Robert C. Willis, P. J. Horan, E. J. Lynett, W. J. Lewis.

CITY GETS THE DEED.

For Land Occupied by Traction Company Along Robinson Street.
The Scranton Traction company, through President Silliman, yesterday gave the city the deed of the land occupied by the company's tracks along side Robinson street. In return the company will be permitted to lay its tracks in the center of the street. The transfer of the land is absolute.
For years the tracks, because of their location in court-angled traffic on the west side of the street by vehicles going in any direction. The consequence has been a number of accidents. Then, too, any project for paving the thoroughfare was prevented. The deed of the city was brought about chiefly through the efforts of the West Side board of trade.

DICKSON BOROUGH SUE.

John Pressman Wants Damages in the Sum of $5,000.
An action of trespass has begun yesterday in court against the borough of Dickson City by John Pressman with damages claimed in the sum of $5,000. The plaintiff is represented by Attorneys J. Comery and E. H. Shurtlett.
The cause for which the suit is brought is that on July 15, 1894, a certain embankment was built by the order of the borough at the northwest corner of Main and Steers streets within its limits, and that this embankment was adjacent to the premises of the plaintiff.
Instead of paving the thoroughfare a sufficient pipe or sewer accumulating at this point, the defendant caused to be built a pipe or drain wholly insufficient so that the water accumulating at the said place by reason of the embankment, has continued to flow over the sidewalk into the cellar of the plaintiff, destroying his house and personal property therein, causing damage to the amount for which the suit has been brought.

Delegates to the Reading Convention Selected Last Night.
The joint session of councils last night resulted in the selection of City Engineer Phillips, City Solicitor Torrey, City Clerk Lavender, Street Commissioner Anderson and Finn and Common Councilmen Nealis and Reagan as the delegates to represent Scranton at the convention to be held in Reading, Pa., on March 11 for the purpose of proposing amendments to the act of 1889.

INQUEST IN GUDDY CASE.

Jurors Declare That Death Was Due to Her Own Negligence.
Coroner Longstreet conducted the inquest in the case of Mary Guddy, of March street, who died on Tuesday evening on the Delaware and Hudson railroad tracks near the Steel works station, last night at the arbitration of the coroner. The jury found from the evidence that her death was due to her own carelessness.
Martin Nealon noticed Mary Guddy on the tracks near the Steel works and heard the engine whistle when the train was down the road several hundred feet. She continued walking along until the train overtook her and she was struck.

MR. BURNS' RESOLUTION.

Before the routine business was commenced Mr. Burns asked unanimous consent to bring a resolution. The privilege being granted he presented the following:
Whereas, Hon. W. L. Connell, mayor of the city of Scranton, Pennsylvania, is about to retire from office and the expiration of his term is:
Resolved, By the council, the common council, concurring, that the members of these bodies, representing the highest and noblest office of the government of the city of Scranton, take occasion to express their appreciation and approval of the services of Mr. Burns during the three years in which he has been chief executive officer of this city.

VERDICT OF THE JURY.

"We, the undersigned jurors, find that the said Mary Guddy came to her death by being struck by train No. 17 on the Delaware and Hudson company's railroad near the Steel Works station, the cause of her death being her own carelessness in walking on the track."
The jurors were Dr. E. M. Pennypacker, C. E. Jamieson, C. F. Dwyer, J. H. Reynolds, B. S. Sutton and W. J. Kann.
The funeral was held yesterday afternoon, interment being made in the Greek Catholic cemetery, Minooka. The other of the dead girl is a disabled man; one of his hands is paralyzed. Her mother is in a hospital at Philadelphia for treatment. A collection has been taken up for the family yesterday.

IS REALLY SMALL-POX.

Case in Prieberg Is Genuine—Dr. Allen, Scranton's Health Officer, Went There Yesterday—No Danger Approached.
The smallpox case at Prieberg is a bona fide case, at least so says Dr. W. E. Allen, health officer of this city, who went to Prieberg yesterday and examined Filarski, the Polandier afflicted with the disease. Dr. Allen was accompanied by Dr. W. E. Paine and Dr. H. V. Logan.

TRIBUNE HOROSCOPES.

Hundreds Avail Themselves of the Offer Made by The Tribune Astrologer.
The great demand for horoscopes at The Tribune office yesterday gave evidence of the interest taken by the public generally in the science of astrology. The Tribune horoscopes afford much amusement for many callers, and several requests by mail were received last evening.
To the timid it may be well to state that there is no witchcraft about the preparation of these maps of human life. Astrology is science, based upon scientific calculations, the result of thousands of years of accumulated study. Many persons do not believe in the influence of zodiac upon human life. Whether believing or not will be amused at the accuracy of these horoscopes in giving a general outline of one's characteristics.

ROBERT ROBINSON RESIGNS.

March 2d Fixed as the Day for the Special Election in the Eleventh.
In common council last night Robert Robinson, the member from the Eleventh, who has been elected to the select council by his constituents, handed in his resignation as a member of the lower council, and the mayor is to take effect March 12. On motion of Mr. Hickey the resignation was accepted and Tuesday, March 24, was named as the day for holding the special election to name his successor. Captain Moir and Mr. Battle paid nice tributes to the retiring member.
The following passed their reading: Providing for an electric light at the arch on Bridge street; providing for the grading of Prescott avenue, between Mulberry and Olive streets; reconveying the lot of Mary J. Davis, acquired by the city at a public sale; providing for a lateral sewer on Colfax avenue; providing for an electric light on the corner of Fourteenth and Division streets; establishing a new grade of Elyon street, west of Main avenue; fixing the compensation of inspectors of city work at $1 per day; providing for two electric lights in the Tenth ward.

Gertrude Baker Drank Enough Laudanum to Kill Niecey.

DEED DONE IN D. L. & W. DEPOT

She Was a Well-Known Young Woman and Wanted to Die Because Her Husband Left Her—Taken to Lackawanna Hospital.
Gertrude Baker attempted suicide last evening by drinking enough of laudanum to kill ninety persons. The overdose did not prove fatal, but Drs. Blanchard and Lewis, at the Lackawanna hospital, had time to save her life. She will recover and be around in a week or so.

ANTHRACITE COAL TRADE.

Butter Demand on Account of the Cold Weather.
A better demand for anthracite coal, resulting largely from the colder weather, is reported, and it is stated on what is purported to be trustworthy authority that very little coal is being disposed of at prices beneath those contained in the February circular.
It is intimated that the production of anthracite during the current month will be somewhat heavier, but at the same time the increase will be of a legitimate order. The trade does not now look for any change in prices, chiefly because of the fact that the lowest prices of the year are usually made in the spring, and this circular is usually arranged about the latter part of March.

TWO OUNCE BOTTLE.

Officer Goerlitz went back and found the bottle. It was a two-ounce one and had been purchased at the B. & B. store on Franklin avenue. There remained but a few drops of the poison in the bottle. The rest of it, presumably, she drank.
She was dressed in a black dress, and until the train overtook her and she was struck.
John J. Jordan and John Geers gave similar testimony. J. Archie Jones, of the foreman at the Saugott mill, gave an intelligent version of the accident. He had just left the mill and was attracted by the whistle of the engine. He turned around and saw the unfortunate girl walking along in the center of the north bound track. She paid no heed to the whistle, but walked on. He saw her and called out to her, but she was close to the right hand rail. The shock threw her to one side, between the main track and a switch.

LIVED ON WYOMING AVENUE.

The police say that herself and husband had rooms until a few days ago on Wyoming avenue, near Linden street. A quarrel arose and the husband left her. She was married to John Bacon, it is said, and the real of matrimony was a very stormy one for them. From the fact that she had a letter for Princeton it is quite likely that she was bound for there, but she just missed the 6 o'clock train. She had a small dry goods package and a bag of bananas purchased.
Up to a late hour she had not recovered sufficiently from the effects of the drug to talk coherently, but there is very little doubt but that she will be all right in five or six days.
