

SUITS, SKIRTS AND WAISTS In Correct Spring Styles

WE ARE TODAY SHOWING A FULL LINE OF SEPARATE SKIRTS WHICH, FOR EXTENT AND VARIETY, WILL UNDOUBTEDLY MEET THE FULLEST REQUIREMENT OF THE BEST DRESSED WOMEN IN THIS CITY OR ANY OTHER CITY. THE MATERIALS FROM WHICH THEY ARE MADE UP ARE THE NEWEST AND BEST ON THE MARKET, AND YOU CAN DEPEND THAT THE MAKE, ART AND FINISH ARE QUITE UP TO OUR USUAL HIGH STANDARD OF Blacks, Navys AND A HOST OF FANCY MIXTURES AND SHADINGS GIVE A HINT AT COLORINGS, WHILE THE MATERIALS ARE AS VARIED AS IN A DRESS GOODS AND SILK STOCK.

Suits THE FORTYRUNNERS OF COMING DELIVERIES ARE NOW TO HAND. THEY OUGHT TO INTEREST YOU IF FOR NO OTHER REASON THAN TO GET A LOOK AT STYLES THAT ARE SURE TO LEAD AS THE SEASON ADVANCES.

Waists WE'RE MAKING NO OPEN SHOW YET, BUT THEY'RE IN STOCK IN ROYAL ABUNDANCE. OF COURSE, WE'LL BE MORE THAN PLEASED TO SHOW THEM FOR THE ASKING.

GLOBE WAREHOUSE

THE SPANISH-CUBAN WAR

Result of Monday's Session of Congress Anxiously Awaited. SPANISH MERCHANTS ANGRY They Threaten to Boycott American Goods--Seville Ship Owners Offer the Spanish Government Boats for a Navy--Other War Notes.

Havana, March 7. Via Key West, March 7.—The tension in the public mind since the action of the senate and house continues. The results of Monday's session is awaited with great suspense. The Spaniards are much concerned. The talk of war between Spain and the United States adds joy to the Spaniards.

The students made no attempt at a demonstration and are divided among themselves. The Spanish merchants made a protest with great success, threatening to boycott American goods. The leading newspapers advise prudence and calmness. There is some talk of Spanish talk in the cabinet circles and some threats of dire results to follow the final action of the United States. Troops are still kept in the city as a precaution. General Weyler is ready to stop any trouble.

The prospects of grinding cane is growing less. Thousands of acres have been burned recently in Matanzas, Santa Clara and Havana provinces. The insurgents are more numerous than ever in these provinces. Maceo is in Havana province, and Gomez is in Matanzas near the Santa Clara line.

Several recent encounters between these troops and large forces of insurgents are not reported officially in detail. There were two engagements so close to the city that the wounded were brought to Jesus Del Monte, a suburb. Gabriel Durarte, the American citizen taken prisoner in his own house in Guatano and afterward shot in the arm is still confined in Moro castle. Marquis Arce and Captain Galvo, who commanded the troops at the Guatano massacre, still hold positions. The investigation has had no result yet.

Several of the captured men and also those of fifteen prisoners taken have visited the palace several times but were prevented from seeing Weyler.

A prominent named Bernardo Duarte, manager of the Ovalta estate, near San Domingo, was shot dead in the act of raising the French flag on March 8. Several of the captured men and also those of fifteen prisoners taken have visited the palace several times but were prevented from seeing Weyler.

Nearly every government report of an engagement mentions a number of prisoners taken. There is no subsequent mention and the men drop out of sight. The terrified relatives ask no questions. The commanders of columns are authorized to take summary proceedings in cases of prisoners captured. The provisions require detailed reports, but if reports are made all are supposed to be true. General Weyler says no executions are being held.

Weyler's Proclamation. Havana, March 8.—The following proclamation was issued by Captain General Weyler today:

Harrassed by our troops, beaten and demoralized, the rebel forces in the provinces of Pinar del Rio and Havana are turning east. The moment has come to pursue with all activity and vigor the small parties, more bands than insurgents remaining in said provinces, and to adopt the necessary means to attain speed and more immediate success. The authorities of the provinces are hereby notified to make lists of the people in their localities who are in league with those who are presenting themselves within fifteen days of the publication of this proclamation. All property will be seized and subjected to civil administration, for which a board will be appointed.

Planners, estate owners and others within said provinces who facilitate with money the elements of whatever class, except they have been compelled to do so by pressure, which must be proved in an undoubted manner, will be considered unfaithful for supporting rebellion.

A circular was also issued stating that those rebels presenting themselves with their arms in the four other provinces will be pardoned, subject to the supervision of the military. Those presenting themselves without arms will be held under the vigilance of the troops. They will be fed the same rations as the citizens. The city guards in Pinar del Rio and Havana province will be strengthened. The military commanders will be made alcaides of the towns and will be held responsible for the preservation of order.

AN OFFER OF SHIPS.

Madrid, March 8.—The ship owners of Seville have offered to the government fifty steamers to be put to any use the authorities may deem expedient. The chamber of commerce of Granada has issued a circular note inviting all Spanish merchants to break their contracts with the United States, and to cancel their policies of insurance issued by American companies. Many of the merchants have already done so.

Several more Spanish subjects who were acting as American consular agents have resigned. Indignation meetings were held today in many places in the provinces. Malaga, Spain, March 8.—The sailors of the French warship Drome at this port paraded the streets yesterday singing the Marseillaise, and cheering for both France and Spain.

Bilbao, Spain, March 8.—A manifestation of the popular feeling against the rebel theater in this city last night. During the performance the French and Spanish flags were displayed, causing the wildest enthusiasm and vivas for a Franco-Spanish alliance were repeatedly and heartily given.

CAPTURE OF A BRUTE.

Nicholas Cole Commits an Atrocious Assault on Miss Van Ripper—Thought to Have Been Connected With the Sullivan Murder.

Paterson, N. J., March 8.—Nicholas Cole, 49 years old, of the silk throwing firm of Nightingale & Cole, was arrested this evening, charged with having committed a brutal assault on Miss Lizzie Van Ripper, aged 18 years, near the corner of Fair, Eighteenth and Hillson streets, which is two blocks from the place, where Mamie E. Sullivan was murdered on Wednesday evening. It is alleged that he followed the girl for about 200 yards, and when at a bonesome spot caught her by the neck, she cried for help but had scarcely screamed when he seized her by the throat and struck her twice in the mouth with his fist, causing blood to flow.

Cole, seeing some one approaching, ran away but was soon overtaken by a policeman. He was held by a thousand persons surrounded the prisoner and followed him to the station, and threats to lynch him were heard on every side. Cole is a married man and has a young child. He is separated from his wife, however, and is seeking a divorce.

The police tonight think that Cole possibly is connected with the Sullivan murder, and have begun an investigation on that line. One hundred and twenty-five delegates have so far been chosen in the following states: Alabama, 2; Arkansas, 16; California, 12; Colorado, 12; Louisiana, 14; Mississippi, 6; Missouri, 2; New York, 6; Ohio, 8; Pennsylvania, 15; Texas, 18; District of Columbia, 6 for Morton, and granting that Pennsylvania will give a complimentary support to Mr. Quay, 17 are for Quay. It is only just to say, of course, that the choice of the delegates in many contests have been instituted, the ultimate partition of representation at St. Louis by the convention's committee on credentials may seriously alter present estimates.

GOVERNOR MORTON'S BOMBS. His Friends Claim Twenty-three Delegates to St. Louis.

New York, March 8.—The Republican state committee tonight issued the following statement:

More than forty Republican county and assembly district conventions already held in this district tonight issued resolutions in this city on March 8, 1896, electing every one of these conventions has endorsed Governor Morton for his candidacies for president, and for vice president of the United States.

NEWSPAPER FAKE. A Chicago Journal Publishes an Exclusive Story of an Attempt to Blow Up Mr. Armour with Dynamite.

Chicago, March 8.—The employees of the Hyde Park postal station, at Fifty-fifth street and Kimbark avenue, were this evening celebrating the discovery of a supposed dynamite bomb that, from general appearances, was veritable of the kind. The box was addressed to P. D. Armour, 215 Prairie avenue, Chicago.

BURNED BY BOILING LIQUID. Several Men Injured at Works of Standard Oil Company.

New York, March 8.—Boiling hot crude tar overflowed one of the Standard Oil company's big tanks soon after midnight. This morning in the company's yard at Bayonne, N. J. A gang of men at work about the tank ran for their lives, but five of them were overtaken and severely scalded. The injured are: Michael Doyle, feet, legs and hands burned; Timothy Calahan, feet, legs and hands burned; James Donahue, legs and hands burned; John St. John, feet and ankles burned; Ernest Chubb, feet and ankles burned. None of the men were fatally injured.

FARMER CRUELLY MURDERED. Victim Found in His Barn with His Skull Crushed.

Fond du Lac, Wis., March 8.—A cold-blooded murder occurred last evening at a farm house about four miles south-east of this city, the victim being Fred Messner, whose body was found in the barn with the skull crushed. Tramps are suspected. The victim was about 40 years of age and was prominent in Fond du Lac and Winnebago counties.

McKINLEY STILL LEADING

Republican Presidential Sentiment Beginning to Crystallize. RESULTS OF THE CONVENTIONS

Out of 125 Delegates to St. Louis Already Chosen, Sixty-One Favor the Ohio Candidate—List of Delegates Elected Up to Date.

Washington, March 8.—State conventions for the election of delegates-at-large to St. Louis have been held in Arkansas, Florida, Louisiana and Mississippi, and delegates have also been elected in the more congested districts. Nine important states—Ohio, Kansas, Texas, Iowa, New York, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Wisconsin and South Dakota—will hold their conventions within the next three weeks; so that by the end of March nearly one-third of the 800 delegates who are to assemble at St. Louis probably will have been elected and the preferences of the great majority of them will be definitely known.

VICTORIES IN THE SOUTH. The results reached in Arkansas, Mississippi and Florida—all holding conventions during the last week—seem to verify the opinion of the friends of Governor McKinley's strength as a candidate, and to emphasize the decided lead which he has already secured in the race for the presidential nomination. His friends controlled all three conventions and secured solid delegations from Arkansas and Florida, as well as the south of these 125 delegates in Mississippi. In Texas, where several district conventions have been held, great confusion and uncertainty prevailed, but the friends of McKinley were elected in seven districts, and in many cases both contestants and "regulars" seem to have given pledges of support to several of the rival candidates.

DELEGATES CHOSEN. One hundred and twenty-five delegates have so far been chosen in the following states: Alabama, 2; Arkansas, 16; California, 12; Colorado, 12; Louisiana, 14; Mississippi, 6; Missouri, 2; New York, 6; Ohio, 8; Pennsylvania, 15; Texas, 18; District of Columbia, 6 for Morton, and granting that Pennsylvania will give a complimentary support to Mr. Quay, 17 are for Quay. It is only just to say, of course, that the choice of the delegates in many contests have been instituted, the ultimate partition of representation at St. Louis by the convention's committee on credentials may seriously alter present estimates.

MURDERED AND MUTILATED. Two Bodies Chopped in Small Pieces Are Found in a Barrel at Chicago.

Chicago, March 8.—The body of a man chopped to pieces together with an infant with its skull crushed, was found in a barrel in the alley at the rear of 228 Prairie avenue, Chicago, this morning. The bodies had been found in the skull at the forehead with an angle. The right leg was cut off about the knee and two toes from the foot of the same leg had been severed with a cleaver. The right arm was pulled out of its socket the left foot was sawed off at the ankle and the fingers from the left hand. The body of the infant was not mangled, except the skull, which was fractured by a blow.

SILVER MEN WILL FIGHT. Senator Harris Says That There Will Be No Compromise.

Washington, March 8.—Senator Harris, of Tennessee, who is the official leader of the silver party, today said in a speech that so far as he and those who he represents are concerned, there is to be no compromise whatever with the single gold standard party.

MURDERED BY MONEY. Stephen Powell killed in Front of His Own Home.

Hempstead, N. Y., March 8.—Stephen Powell, one of the wealthiest ex-gang and most prominent men on Long Island, was murdered in a most brutal manner at about 11 o'clock last night as he was returning from his place of business to his home. Mr. Powell was in the habit of carrying large sums of money upon his person. It is supposed that his murderer or murderers learned of this and awaited an opportunity to way lay him. The murder occurred in front of Mr. Powell's home. Directly opposite was an electric light was brightly shining. His assailant or assailants are supposed to have been hiding behind the electric light pole, and as Mr. Powell passed they struck over the right eye, the light cutting a long gash. There is also a cut on the left wrist, but this wound was probably obtained while endeavoring to avoid his fall. The first blow evidently knocked Mr. Powell senseless and his assailants then struck him terrible blows on the back of the head, which he was unable to resist. Three negroes were arrested on suspicion of being implicated in the murder. They were held to await the action of the coroner's jury. Several other men, both white and colored, are under suspicion. Mr. Powell had $200 in an inside pocket which was unnoticed by his assailants, and they obtained only about $2.50 in change.

THE NEWS THIS MORNING.

Weather Indications Today: Clear; Warmer; Westerly Winds. 1. The Spanish-Cuban War. McKinley Still Leads in the Presidential Race. Another Bomb for Mr. Armour, of Chicago. A Platoon, N. J., Irate Captured. 2. Congressional Forecast for the Week. General Market and Stock Notes. Spanish Students are Still Warlike. Wielded a Knife with Deadly Effect. 3. Practical Sermon to Old Folks. The Conservation of Father Hoban. 4. Editorial Comment. What Our Contemporaries Say. 5. Our Anthracite Coal Supply. Coming Elated? Will Be a Success. Shot Around a Corner. 6. "The Wife's Confession," a Parlor Play in Two Acts. 7. Happenings in Scranton's Busy Suburbs. License Court to Open Today. Interesting Sporting Miscellany. 8. News Up and Down the Valley. Industrial and Railroad News.

NEW SALVATION ARMY. Mr. and Mrs. Ballington Booth Announce Their Programme at Cooper Union.

New York, March 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Ballington Booth addressed an immense audience at Cooper Union tonight. It was one of the largest gatherings ever held in the historic building. In his address to the gathering Mr. Booth said: "It is true that after liberate thought we have decided to institute a new movement. (Cheers.) "Could it have been avoided it would not have been thought of. Mrs. Booth and I received assurances from the people of the United States fighting on behalf of Jesus Christ, that we had done a work for which they were grateful and would not permit us to retire. We should retire to private life and relinquish the field which is the largest of any on the globe, where there is not only work for our salvation army, but for us. "We do not intend to enter into any battle or strife with the Salvation Army. We want no fight, neither ritual or verbal. "We want to have a mission to reach the masses. We have resolved that the consecration we shall make shall be lasting. "Mr. Booth closed by saying: "I want to assure Mrs. Booth and those officers who have taken a stand by me that by faith I see in the distant future a movement that we will not regret having linked our names with. "Mrs. Booth spoke briefly and was cheered enthusiastically. She made no reference to the troubles in the ranks of the army. "Mr. Booth said in an interview that the name of the new movement had not been chosen, and that the name of the "Defender's League" would be the "Defender's League." "A monster mass meeting will be held here at Carnegie hall at some near date.

MISS BARTON'S WORK. The Sultan Has Not Yet Permitted Her Agents to Go to Anatolia.

London, March 8.—The correspondent of the United Press, Constantinople, confirms the telegrams saying that while the Turkish foreign minister had renewed in the presence of Miss Clara Barton his promise to permit her distributors of relief to go to Anatolia, the necessary orders are still withheld by order of the sultan, though it is expected that they will be speedily decreed. In the meantime Miss Barton will be able to do much necessary work. "The start of the Rev. George P. Knapp the American missionary at Berlin, with his charity for Constantinople, has been delayed until April, owing to heavy snows and other causes. "All the English newspapers of March 8 have been prohibited from entering Turkey.

FISHING UP GOLD. The Treasure Box of a Sunken Spanish Cruiser Recovered.

Havana, Feb. 28, via Tampa, March 8.—Yesterday at noon the divers at work on the wreck of the cruiser San Juan recovered a treasure box in the state-rooms of the submerged vessel. After much labor they removed the fastenings of the treasure chest. The chest was then hauled up and landed on the dock. "It contains considerable gold as well as money belonging to the crew. Last fall the Sanchez Barceizigui was sunk at the entrance to this harbor by the Herrera line steamer Mortera. The divers will cut away her masts and smokestacks, as they are dangerous to navigation.

MORE FUNDS NEEDED. Lack of Cash the Only Drawback to Red Cross Work.

New York, March 8.—An urgent appeal has been received from Constantinople by the National Armenian relief committee for funds. "In response, $10,000 was sent through Brown Bros., who are the authorized treasurers of the Armenian Relief fund, and of the Red Cross, and to whom all contributions should be sent. The greatest obstacle to the work of relief now is not from the Turks, but from lack of funds. "Wind and Rain Storm. Braddock, Pa., March 8.—A terrible wind and rain storm passed over this section yesterday doing much damage to property. The heaviest snow in a number of years, the most damage being done on the hills of North Braddock and Sandy Hook, where houses were unroofed and a number of frame dwellings were moved from their foundations. "Deaths of Admiral Walke. Brooklyn, N. Y., March 8.—Rear Admiral Henry Walke, United States Army, died this afternoon at his home in this city. He had been suffering since Tuesday last with a severe attack of the grip, but the immediate cause of death was heart failure. "English Soldiers Offered. Madrid, March 8.—General Azarraga, minister of war, has received from an English gentleman an offer of 10,000 ex-soldiers for the Spanish service on condition that he himself be given the command of them.

VIEWS ACROSS THE WATER

Crisp Comments of the Press of Germany. SOME ADVICE FOR SPAIN

The Berlin Papers Advise Spain to Repeal Intervention of the United States—Baker Over the Insurance Cases.

Berlin, March 8.—It is believed and almost desired in official circles here that King Humbert will be unable to find an Italian statesman to form a ministry who will be willing to construct a cabinet on the basis of a continuance of the war in Abyssinia and will consequently, after an interregnum of a week or two, be obliged to recall Signor Crispien, who after strengthening his cabinet, will order General Baldissera to seize the first chance to fight a successful battle with the Shans and then terminate the African campaign. "As representatives of the official and popular views in Germany of the attitude of the United States towards congress in regard to Cuba the expressions of the Vorwarts, the principal socialist organ, may be contrasted. The latter, after a long and important article, accuses the Americans of pursuing schemes of trade and conquest under the guise of a feeling for oppressed and suffering humanity. Spain, according to the Gazette ought to repel the intervention of the United States between herself and the Cuban rebels upon lines similar to those upon which the United States rejected the intervention of France and England in behalf of the secessionists of the southern states of the United States. The Vorwarts on the other hand, holds that the vote of the United States senate favoring the recognition of the belligerent rights of the insurgents in Cuba, was of such enormous moral import that Spain will henceforth be able by any possible success in the field to accomplish the subjection of Cuba. "This utterance of the Vorwarts may mean to imply that a revolution in Spain is among the possibilities, but it must be accepted as referring to the reports now current of an alliance between France and Spain against the United States. The Vorwarts adds: "Such an idea as a Franco-Spanish alliance against the United States is fantastic. The great republic was founded in the belief that there was no power ever since looked toward the sister republic."

THE INSURANCE CASE. Baron Vonder Recke Vonder Horst, Prussian minister, has forwarded a communication to Washington through the regular diplomatic channels, stating that he is astonished to find that a certain number of the American agents are seeking to negotiate directly with the Prussian government through a special envoy, thus ignoring the established usage. The minister says he has not taken cognizance of the fact that Governor Morton has not yet acted upon the proceedings of the Albany senate and assembly, and in turn admits that there was a chance of the decrees cancelling the licenses of two New York insurance companies might be repealed. But he adds, since the intervention of the Prussian minister, the position has been so completely altered that the Prussian government cannot repeat the decrees, as it might now be represented to the public that the influence of an amateur diplomat had caused Prussia to yield. "Even if the risk of Governor Morton's application of the recent resolution to renew the licenses of Prussian insurance companies during business in the state of New York, his decision, he says, will in the meantime be adhered to.

MOBS AT VALENCIA. Madrid, March 8.—The actions of the mob element in Valencia became so threatening today that martial law was proclaimed in that city tonight. A crowd numbered 20,000 gathered outside the bull ring and attempted to enter that place for the purpose of holding a meeting to express anti-American sentiments. The authorities had issued an order forbidding the holding of such meetings, but no attention was paid to it. The pandemonium at the bull ring refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were waitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried: "Long live the republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots and one of the gendarmes was seriously wounded. The crowd refused to allow the mob to enter and were told