

In Correct Spring Styles

province province and a second province

WE ARE TODAY SHOWING A FULL LINE OF SEPARATE SKIRTS FOR EXTENT AND VA-UNDOUBTEDLY FULLEST REQUIRE-THE BEST DRESSED IN THIS CITY OR ANY TY. THE MATERIALS HICH THEY ARE MADE IE NEWEST AND BEST THAT THE MAKE, ART AND FINISH ARE QUITE UP TO On the 24th inst. the Spanish general OUR USUAL HIGH STANDARD OF Gonzalez Nunez, with 1,200 men infan-EXCELLENCE.

Puyals, with their party, had an en-counter with the Spanish column of Lieutenant Colonel Escudero, 700 strong, on the 24th in Monto Oscuso, Bayamo. The Spanish column retired to Bayamo after half an hour's fighting, leaving three soldiers prisoners with the rebels. three killed and eight wounded. The insurgents had nine wounded. FORT BLOWN UP. Day before yesterday (the 27th) a party of rebels compelled the garrison of Fort Escondido, near Caiman-era, Guantanamo to surrender. The insurgents blew up the fort with dyna-mite hombs. The garrison was com-posed of one officer and forty soldiers. try, cavalry and artillery had an encounter in La Herradura and Sal, near Manzanillo with the rebel forces of plantations.

his wounds.

Recas.

esl.

them all the arms, annumition and provisions they found there. There was no Spanish garrison in Moron as the Spanish troops had left the day before in compliance with the general order of the military governor of Santiago to abandon all the small villages. This gago declares that he has relatives in Brooklyn. order has been harmful to the govern-ment as all the men of those small places, have joined the insurgents. The foreign planters have presented a joint protest to their consuls against the order compelling them to abandon their can be furnished for their maintenance. for one year they will probably be sent back to Cuba again. On the 23d inst, the rebel forces of Brigadier Periquito Perez had an en-gagement in Ramon De Las Saguaf ETLINGER'S BODY STOLEN. with the Spanish column under Colonel Recas. The Spaniards retreated, losing eight soldiers killed and twenty wound-It Is Thought That the Remains of the Outlaw llave Been Turned Over to Medical Students. Two mules laden with ammunition were captured by the rebels. The rebels had one killed and seven wound-ed, among the latter Captain Vega who Bellefonte, Pa., March 9.-All sorts fell into the hands of the troops and subsequently died from the effects of Insurgent leaders Salvador Rios and early Sunday morning by a party of young men who arrived at that place late Saturday night from Lewisburg. Four of the party waited at the hotel while the others drove into the mountains in the direction of the grave. They all left the place at 4 o'clock Sunday morning for Lewisburg presumably with the body in the carriage. The grave is in a seemingly undis-turbed condition, but as only stones covered the coffin in the first place it have actually been stolen. but by parties as a subject for some Mendicta, Vera and Estrada, 2,000 in number. The Spaniards retreated, leaving on the field twenty-five killed and eighty wounded. Among the form-er was Lieutenant Colonel Lolo Bonitez. of the Saphish guerrillas, whose body was taken to Voquita and buried there.

cannot be told whether the remains Sheriff Condo when seen this evening said he had investigated the rumor and was satisfied it was correct. The body, it is said, was not exhumed by the ndignant citizens in a spirit of revenge medical college either in Philadelphia or Baltimore. It was taken on Saturday night, according to the most authentic statements, but this is not known for sure, as no one has taken sufficient interest to dig open the grave and find out whether the remains were there or not. The feeling of the citizens of Wood-tions. During the whole afternoon The feeling of the citizens of Wood-ward against Mrs. Etlinger for the forced part she took in the tragedy is the country. He had $7 when he start-ed, but was helped to this country by The authorities did every ed, but was helped to this country by the governor of the province of Matan-zas, Adolfo Parelo, who secured pass-ports for his family and himself. Del-gago declares that he has relatives in Brooklyn. persed again and again. Eventually, The board of special inquiry will de-for action on the case until tomorrow. In the meanwhile Delgago's relatives in the meanwhile Delgago's relatives with sticks and cudgels and the police with sticks and cudgels and the police

An immense crowd then got together on the leading thoroughfare, and marched toward the residence of the The Salvationist Will Organize His New United States consul, shouting "Long live Spain!" "Down with the Yankees!" On the way to the consul's house the Command-Philadelphia Soldiers Will members of the mob hurled stones through the windows of stores and pri-New York, March 9.-The new relig-ious movement on similar lines to the vate residences, overturned a number of vehicles, pulled several mounted po-licemen from their horses, and general-Salvation Army, to be led by Ballington Booth and his wife, may now be said to be fairly started. Ballington Booth Bellefonte, Pa., March 9.—All sorts of rumors were current here today con-cerning the exhuming of the body of William Etilinger, the Woodward out appeared at his new headquarters in the Bible house today and at once be-gan to get the work of getting the or-William Etlinger, the Woodward out-law and suicide. The inhabitants of Woodward say the body was carried off of the consul's house were badly shat-tered, although the police defended the building

ENCOUNTER WITH POLICE.

gan to get the work of getting the or-ganization under way. A name for the new movement has not yet been decided upon and it may be several days before that is settled. There is also doubt as to just what uniform will be adopted. The indica-tions are, however, that a dark blue costume and black slouch hats for the men will be chosen The mob then proceeded in the direction of the United States consulate, evidently intending to stone that building also, but the authorities had taken the men will be chosen. precaution to send a strong force of police to guard it. A detachment of po-lice was also stationed across the streets Philadelphia. March 9.-The Salva-tion Army in this city will probably leading to the consulate. When the mob reached the vicinity of the consul-ate, it was confronted by the police with drawn swords. The men halted, but began pelting the police vigorously with stones and pieces of brick. The policemen, however, held their ground. his division: and a squad charged the rioters. The latter began firing pistols at the police-men, two of whom were wounded. Then the police charged in a body, and used their swords with good effect. The rioters were dispersed, yelling and hooting at the authorities and shouting main true. "Down with the Yankees!" and "Long live Spain!" The police made a number of arrests not cast its lot with the Ballington Booths. Brigadier William Evans, the commander of the Atlantic coast division of the army, said this afternoon, when questioned as to the attitude of "So far as my knowledge extends, as So fall as my knowledge extends, as commander, the Atlantic division is solid for the old flag. There may be some who will prove disloyal, but the great body of the commands will re-

The Atlantic coast division embraces Pennsylvania, Delaware, Virginia, North and South Carolina and a portion of New Jersey. The leader of the German branch of Army Matters, Annual Meeting of McAll Mission, Municipal Hall and Other City Build-ings to Be Lighted by Gas,

"The Bostonian's Watch," a sketch. Late Industrial Topics.

Happenings in Scranton's Suburbs, Live Sporting Miscellany.

BOOTH'S NEW ARMY.

8 News Up and Down the Valley.

Not Join the New Movement.

the army in this city was also seen, and he said the portion he commanded would remain true also. to a better lighted cell, after first being

GREAT BARGAIN SALE

and Almost Give Goods Away.

Collision.

The sheriff announced before going to prison that the witnesses at the execu-tion would not be in excess of the at-tendances at less important hangings. When the sheriff and his party reach-ed the prison they were met by Deputy Anderson and the party was conducted to Holmes' cell. He had been reading and when he arose to greet his visitors he tossed the book upon his cot and smiled a welcome. Lawyer Rotan in-troduced the sheriff and the others and then without further ado Sheriff Clem-ent drew the death warrant from his finish, as well as THE CORRECT PRICES. We solicit your inspecent drew the death warrant from his pocket and proceeded to read it. The spot in the cell where the sheriff stood tion. was not adapted to reading owing to a lack of light. Holmes observed the sheriff's dilemma and remarked in a cheerful tone, "Step over to the win-dow, Mr. Sheriff; you will find more light there." WILLING TO DIE.

the party. The sheriff announced before going to

Throughout the reading Holmes maintained an affable manner. At the con-clusion Sheriff Clement, who was visibly affected, turned to the condemned man, and extending his hand, offered his sympathy and implored him to make his peace with God. Holmes thanked the sherin and expressed himself as willing to die. There was another round of handshaking and the sheriff, the lawyers and the deputy left the cell. the sheriff was passing out he omitted to bow his head to clear the upper part of the low entrance to the cell. Holmer observed that the official's silk was in danger of collision with the door, and he called out:

"Be carfed out: "Be carfed, sheriff, or you will bump your head." This caused a ripple of laughter. As the sheriff was moving down the corridor Holmes called after him. "You can, of course, find me here when you want me." As was expected, Holmes proved to

As was expected, from the party. As-be the coolest one in the party. As-sistant Superintendent Richardson will probably not remove Holmes from his present cell for a week, but the prisoner will be more closely guarded. It is usual to set the regular death watch about a week previous to the day of execution. When that shall be done the condemned man will be taken

Muslin gowns, trimmed with insertion and cambric ruffle. 69 Cents Muslin gowns, tucked and embroid-ered collar and cuffs, 75 Cents Muslin gowns, tucked and insertion yoke, embroidered collar, 89 Cents Cambric gown, tucked yoke, embroid-ered collar and cuffs, $1.00

is sufficient proof of its popularity and a guarantee of the excellence of the goods in style, quality and Sacque gowns, embroidered front, col-lar and cuffs. $1.10 Cambric Sacque gowns, embroidered and ruffled collar and cuffs, $1.50 The Melba gown, square neck and embroidered ruffle, $2.00 Extra super Nainsook gowns, bishop sizeve, ruffied and embroidered collar, $2.50

Elegant gowns with lace and embroid-ery trimming 33, $2.30, $4 and up to $7 each. Also a line of extra size gowns, 17 and 8-inch.

Note: A state of the second state of the secon

Among the latter was Lieutenant Colonel Tejorizo, who was very seriously wounded. There was a fatal fire last night in the town of Cristo._ Several houses were burned and the bodies of two soldiers were found under the ruins burned to ashes.

The sugar estates San Luis and Santa Anna have stopped grinding, all the employes having joined the rebels. ARREST OF CIVILIANS.

lieutenant or major. They posseds arbitrary powers. Under the proclama-tion the life or death of any man, we man or child in their zone is in their hands. A large proportion of these hands. A large proportion of these commanders believe Weyler to be a man of severe measures, a man who will quickly approve any extreme act on their part. They look upon his circu-

REIGN OF TERROR.

and was told that the people did not dread the insurgents, but field from fear of the excesses of the Spanish troops. On the other hand in some sec-

AND A HOST OF FANCY MIX TURES AND SHADINGS GIVE A have been made at such a rate and in many cases with so little evidence of HINT AT COLORINGS. WHILE THE guilt that General Weyler was com-pelled a week ago to issue instructions MATERIALS ARE AS VARIED AS IN A DRESS GOODS AND SILK STOCK.

Navys

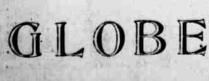

to the the successive and the second

Suits

THE FORERUNNERS OF COMING DELIVERIES ARE NOW TO HAND. THEY OUGHT TO INTEREST YOU IF FOR NO OTHER REASON THAN TO GET A LOOK AT STYLES THAT field. ARE SURE TO LEAD AS THE SEA-SON ADVANCES.

Waists

WE'RE MAKING NO OPEN SHOW VET, BUT THEY'RE IN STOCK IN ROYAL ABUNDANCE. OF COURSE, WE'LL BE MORE THAN PLEASED TO SHOW THEM FOR THE ASKING.

the subscription of the su

WAREHOUSE.

charges against her and is satisfied that she cannot be indicted. CLUBS SUSTAINED.

They May Legally Dispense Jag Liquid to Members, Philadelphia, March 9.-The question Havana, March 7, via. Tampa, Fla., March 9.-Arrests of civillans under of the right of incorporated clubs to sell liquor to their members has at last been the sweeping provisions of General Weyler's proclamation of February 16, brought fairly and squarely before the Supreme court in the case of the appeal of William R. Klein from a decree of the common pleas court of Lehigh county. dismissing a bill in equity in which Klein, who was a member of the Livto his officers to the more careful .as he ingston club, sought to have the club required more proof than verbal denun-clation. Yesterday he issued a circu-lar, in which he stated that absolute restrained from buying liquor and selling it to its members. It appears that the Livingston club har, in which he stated that absolute proof must be furnished by other than interested parties before accused per-sons will be deported, and warning commanders that they will be held rewas incorporated for social purposes, and owns a lot and a fine brick building in Allentown, the real estate and furniin Allentown, the real estate and thru-ture costing over $23,000. The member-ship is limited as to resident members sponsible for false answers. Without doubt Ceneral Weyler has in view the to 100 within the limits of Allentown or effect of this order abroad, as well as one mile beyond, and all members must be at least 21 years of age. There are no sleeping rooms in the building for either here, for the manner in which Cubans who have never borne arms against Spain have been dragged from their members or guests, and no games of chance or other violation of the laws homes, from their familles, the stores o their farms and thrown into prison with are permitted under the by-laws and felons, and after a few days delay placed on board ship for what is probhouse rules.

At a meeting regularly called the ably the vilest penal colony on the face of the earth, has become a shame governing committee resolved: governing committee resolved: That the steward he directed to pur-chase a stock of softinous and malt liquors and furfilth the same to the ment-bers of this chick and receive pay thereof from them only, and turn over the money so received to the treasurer of said chus, which money shall be again used to re-plenish the liquors, etc., so furnished to its members and in the purchase of en-ables, eigars, etc., and also for the defray-ing of the expenses connected therewith The club reserved no profit on lits that eries aloud for redress. General Weyler, upon his arrival, set at liberty a number of these civilian prisoners, whom Ceneral Pando had taken from their daily occupation in the castern end of the island. I saw twenty of them at the palace one day. They were whit, intelligent looking, and hore the appearance of being shop keepers or clerks. They were not bronzed by ex-posure to the weather, as all are in the The club received no profit on its liquer. Klein filed his bill in equity to field. The only evidence against these men was a paper purporting to be a list restrain the carrying out of the direc-tions of the governing committee in reference to the furnishing for pay to of the people who were aiding and communicating with the enemy. It was made up by a Spanfard. Since that time General Weyler has released its members of spirituous and main liquors in the club house, alleging that others captured in the same way. Hun-dreds have, however, been sent to Cen-ta, Africa, and to the Isle of Pines, this proposed action was in violation of the license laws, and that as a member he was entitled to require that the club and the arrests are increasing in num should be maintained solely for the ing advices today from British Guiana; purpose expressed in the charter; and that the property and right should not General Weyler has relieved the Alcades of all towns in whom he had not be injured or made liable to forfeiture amongst the boatman, porters and esabsolute confidence, and has appointed the ranking military officers of regular by any violation of law, and that the proposed action of the steward subtroops or volunteers alcade or mayor ected the charter to forfeiture. these men are usualy of the grade of President Judge W. W. Schuyler, pre-

President Judge W. W. Schnyler, pre-siding in the common pleas of Lehigh county, refused the application for an injunction and dismissed the bill. From this judgment Klein appealed to the supreme court, where the case was this morning argued on his tehalf by James P. Deshler and on the part of the club by Edward Harvey? The matter was held under advisement.

lars as intended for effect in the United Imprisoned as Spies. States. They look for no punishment Imprisoned as Spies. Berlin, March 5.—A secret trial of Engi-neer Schoren, Lieutenami Pfeiffer and a journalist named Ringbauer, who were arrested at Lepsic on the charge of being spies in the employ of the French govern-ment, ended today in the conviction of the accused. Schoren was sentenced to seven years imprisonment at hard labor: Pfeiffer was sentenced to two years, and Ringbauer to one year imprisonment. for summary executions of Cubans who sympathize with the insurgents. 1 have visited towns where nearly every family had fled in terror, leaving dishes standing upon the tables and everything in disorder, showing the haste in which homes were abandoned.

Mrs. Maybrick Doomed.

Mrs. Maybrick Boomed. London, March 3.—The Daliy News will tomorrow say that Sir Matthew White Ridley, the home secretary, after a cara-ful - xamination of the additional evidence submitted to him had decided that no at-teration should be made in the sentence imposed on Mrs. Florence Maybrick, the American woman who is undergoing life imprisonment on conviction of having pol-soned her husband. tions where towns have been used by the Spanish, the insurgents have burned the whole town and the people were Olney Reads the Blue Book.

left homeless. Other towns which have harbored the insurgents have been de-stroyed by the Soanish troops, and the wreck and ruin which is being visited upon the fair island of Cuba is pitiful Othey Kends the line Book. Washington, March 5.-Secretary Olney did not appear at the state department to-day. He is supposed to have been at his residence reading a copy of the barlla-mentary blue book containing the British case in the Venezuelan boundary dispute sent him by Ambassador Bayard. to conterminite. But for the warmth of the climate and the ease with which life is sustained in the tropics, thou-sands would have perished ere this, and the Island would be a charnel bitter, and they are demanding and the police had been recalled, it was Monongahela Grocers Become Warlike that she be either arrested or that she leave the county. The district attor-ney has thoroughly investigated all until further orders, as there seemed Monongahela City, Pa., March 9.to be danger of another outbreak of war between grocers here has caused a popular fury. The United States consulate is now great reduction in prices. A leading merchant reduced the regulation price guarded by a strong detachment of gendarmes armed with carbines, revoltions to protect the consulate at any cost.

tion

injured.

city.

sugar estates.

ed.

arcal reduction in prices. A leading merchant reduced the regulation price on flour, and as a consequence a bitter feeling prevails. The following price list gives an idea how the matter stands: Fine tea, 25 cents per pound; coffee 1 cent per pound; five pounds best rice, 5 cents; table peaches, 10 cents per can; crack-ers, five pounds, 10 cents. The residents of Monongahela are taking advantage of this and are laying in a supply of the QUIET AT VALENCIA. Madrid, March 9 .- Quiet prevailed in the city of Valencia today. More ar-rests were made of persons who took part in yesterday's riotous demonstra-

of this and are laying in a supply of the goods. Further reductions are looked At Bilbao the manifestations against the United States were resumed today TROLLEY CAR TRAGEDY.

A large crowd of rioters proceeded to the American consulate and stoned the Two Men Die from Injuries Received in a gendarmes who were guarding the building. Nine of the guards were quite severely hurt. Reinforcements were St. Louis, Mrch 9.-Two men died at the Highland Inn. at Meramac this hurriedly dispatched to the consulate and upon their arrival a charge was morning, from injuries received in the street car collision on the Kirkwood electric railway yesterday afternoon. made upon the mob, which was quickly dispersed. A score of the rioters were wounded by the gendarmes and six electric railway yesterday afternoon. The dead are: Robert Aitken, motor-man of the east bound car, and E. J. Jones, claim agent for the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway. Both men were arrested. The Heraldo says that the Hon. Hannis Taylor, the American minister, is about to send his family away from lived in this city and leave large fam-illes. The death of three more of the victims is expected hourly. Madrid. Their baggage, the paper adds, was taken to the railway station Madrid. today.

RIOT AT BRITISH GUIANA.

minates in General Riot

Cordelia, which was lying at a neigh landed all the blue jackets and marines that were on board, but order was re-to retreat before the marines and blue jackets, have joined in the country dis-tricts in beating and killing sugar plantation authorities and destroying ma-chinery, buildings and cane fields on

The British West Indian and North American squadrons have been sent for but it will be some days before they can get the vessels together in St. Kitts harbor. The trouble is due to low

. Business is completely suspend-The rioters, who were compelled

Boston, March 9,--C. Osborne Grant,

CARLISLE'S CHANCES. AMERICAN FLAG BURNED.

Madrid, March 9.—The students at Salamanca paraded the streets today hooting and making other noisy demon-strations against the United States. Constituents of Blackburn Are Becoming Tired. Covington, Ky., March 9.-Representative Pence, in an interview this after-noon with reference to the senatorial The governor tried to pacify them, but his efforts were in valn. The crowd stoned the gendarmes and finally disdeadlock said Yes, I am still for Blackburn, and so persed of their own accord after is all of our delegation, but I am doubt-ful of his election. In the event that it becomes positive that Blackburn caning an American flag. During the riotous proceedings several persons were not be elected I will vote for Carlisle I believe the fight will end in Carlisle' election.

FEDERAL COURT OFFICIALS. Strike on the Island of St. Litts Cul-

Marshals and District Attorney Ap pointed-Other Presidential Favors.

general secretary of the Loyal Guianez Union of America, received the follow-Washington, March 9.- The president today appointed James M. Beck to be attorney of the United States, Eastern district of Pennsylvania; James B. Relly, to be marshai of the United States, Eastern district of Pennsyl-"Yesterday a general strike took place in the West Indian Island of St. Kitts Media, Pa., March 9.–Rev. Dr. Henry Whoeler is seriously ill with acute rheu-matism. He was to have preached his farewell sermon to his congregation here in the First Methodist church yesterday. He was unable to leave his bed, but his wife took the pulpit and delivered an elo-man the first methods of the farewell of quent sermon, and made the farewell ad-dress for the sick htsband.

Emporia, Kan., March 3.--Charles Cur-tis was unanimously renominated for con-gress today by the Fourth district Republican convention. A motion was adopted that the Fourth district Re-be instructed to vote first, lost and all the time at the St. Louis convention for Mc-Kinley.

Letting Up on Debs

St. Lucia is the nearest military sta-tion where troops could be obtained and the authorities have telegraphed there for a detachment of the first West In-dian regiment, which is expected to ar-rive in time to save the ntire destruc-tion of the island.

clothing to prevent his having in his possession anything that would permit suicide. Lawyer Rotan had a long conversation with Holmes after the warrant had been read, the subject of which Mr. Ro-tan refused to make known.

NEW TRIALS REFUSED.

Action of the Court Yesterday in s Number of Cases.

Court yesterday refused new trials in everal cases. The verdict in the case f Mary Johnson and others against . H. Shurtleff, administrator, must stand. In the case of William Davis against W. P. Bolland, a suit over a horse, the court refuses a new trial In the case of Ambrose Mulley against George H. Shoemaker a new trial is refused. The verdict must stand in the case of Townsend Knowles against Mary Jacobs. New trials were refused in the case of Jacob Harris against George C. Wilson, and in the case of John McGinty against Patrick P. Jordan. In the case of A. T. Philo against Joseph Haldeman a new trial is grant-ed. The plaintiff sued Haldeman for Mrs. Haldeman's board, she having left home on account of domestic troubles Philo was given a verdict for the full amount of his claim. The court is of the opinion he was not entitled to re-

over In the case of the Lackawanna Val-ley Rapid Transit company against Horton A. Lee the exceptions are dis-missed. In the case of Peter Keib against the Scianton Trubion company the report of the referee was confirmed. In the case of Rozelle against Ather-ton, the appeal was dismissed. The rule for judgment was dismissed in the case of M. O. Webster against F. J. Widmayer. In the case of Steinhouse and company against Gallagher the motion to take off judgment is refused.

SOMETHING MAY COME OF 11 Turnpike People Are Ready and Willing to Dicker with the City.

W. W. Watson, attorney for the Providence and Abington Turnpike company, has notified Hon. J. E. Roche, chairman of the special committee of councils, having in hand the consideration of the turn like difficulty, that his people have discussed the suggestions thrown out by Mr. Roche at the previous conference, three weeks ago, and are ready to meet with the city's repre-sentatives next Friday afternoon. Mr. Roche has called his committee together and has set the hour of the meet ing at 4 o'clock. It is possible that this conference may result in a satisfactory solution of the problem of improving West Mar-ket street, and of effecting some more satisfactory compast with the company than the one which now exists, the legality of which is to be tested in the Supreme court.

GONE TO ANOTHER COURT.

Trespass Suit of Dennis Quigley Against a Western Bridge Company.

Dennis Quigley, a cosmopolitan who was severely injured about a year ago by an fron bar falling on him from a tower which was in course of construc-tion in Fell township, brought suit against the Wrought Iron Bridge com-pany, of Canton, Ohio, which was do-ing the work, claiming damages in the sum of $25,000. His attorneys are L. P. Wedeman and Cornelius Smith. The suit was brought some months ago in this county. Warren and Knapp yesterday filed a bond in the sum of $500 and had the case removed for trial to the United states circuit court for the United States circuit court for the Western district of Pennsylvania. They repre-sent the company. The United States circuit court has jurisdiction of only such cases as represent $2,000 or more and where the parties are citizens of different states.

41

BUSY? RE E WELL, YES, WEARE, BUT NOT TOO BUSY TO GIVE YOU PROMPT, PO

LITE ATTENTION.

LEWIS, REILLY & DAVIES 1H AND 116 WYOMING AVE.

THE JEWELER,

For your Wedding and Birthday Gifts. We are constantly receiving new goods.

IF YOU NEED GLASSES

Give us a Trial. Satisfaction Guaranteed.

W. J. Weichel

408 Spruce St.

Near Dime Bank.

APRIL 7 1S THE DATE.

harity Ball Will Be lleld in the Frothingham Theater.

A number of gentlemen interested in the success of the proposed charity ball in aid of St. Joseph's Foundling Home, met in the office of Attorney M. F. Sando last night.

The original intention was to have it in the Frothingham theater on Easter Monday night, April 6, but as the "Messiah" is to be sung in the theater that night for the benefit of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association, the date has been changed to Tuesday, night, April 7.

At last night's meeting committees were appointed, the members of which will immediately go actively to work make arrangements for the hall general riot throughout the Island. The principal buildings were destroyed by fire, set by the rioters. Stores were looted of their stock, sugar plantation managers and overseets were action Went Down with the Bridge. Berlin, March 9.–Floods are reported in the Rhine, Saur and Neckar rivers. At Frieburg, Badea, the Hereditary Grand Duke, accompanied by Councillor Siegel and Director Sonntag, was watching the work of salvage from a bridge over the Triesam river, when the bridge collapsed, Herr Segel and Sonntag were drowned, but the grand duke was saved.

Wife Delivered the Sermon

boring island at the time, was sent for and arrived in port last night and stored only in certain sections of the

For Mckinley First and Last managers and oversects were severely beaten and a good many of them killed Sugar case fields were burned in al the parishes. The damage done to prop-erty is considerable and the sugar industry is jeopardized. The local au-thorities are handleapped and entirely unable to cope with the rioters, and the whole island is in the hands of the rioters. Her Majesty's ship of war.