CITY NOTES.

The school teachers will be paid Friday.

The regular weekly social of the Young Women's Christian association was held last night.

The Ladies' Aid society of Elm Park church will hold a supper tonight from 6:30 to 8:30 o'clock.

There will be a joint session of the streets and bridges committee of councils tomorrow night at 7 o'clock.

There will be a meeting of St. Patrick's Ladies' I. C. B. U. tonight. All members are requested to attend.

The Delaware and Hudson Canal company paid its employees on the Gravity road from Waymart to Honesdale yesterday.

Marriage licenses were yesterday granted to John E. Leyh and Caroline Engel, Scranton; Leonard Schlangner and Frieda Laiser, Scranton.

An Old Folks' Concert was given at the African Methodist Episcopal church last night, which proved a great success, both from an entertaining and financial standpoint.

The sewers and drains committee of select council last night awarded to Bolton G. Coon the contract for the construction of a lateral sewer on Capouse avenue, near Green Ridge. The contract price is $127 per linear foot.

William Thornton, of Feltville, Taylor borough, after spending in vacation thirty days at the county jail, was let yesterday. He was sent up for venting the boiler of John Gibbons, where he lives, on Jan. 2 last by means of cobblestones sent through the plate glass window.

It is proposed by Street Commissioner Kinley to have a map made showing the location of all the water, gas and steam pipes. At present there is nothing to show where the many miles of pipes are buried and often in many places they are unexpectedly encountered and prove a great hindrance to work.

Tickets may be obtained from the secretary of the Scranton board of trade for the lecture to be delivered Friday night at the Franklin street theatre by Nelson W. Perry on "Utilization of the Cumb Banks." It was Mr. Perry who wrote the column articles which have become a regular number of Cassier's Magazine. Scrantonians may obtain free tickets to the lecture.

Mayor Connell yesterday signed ordinances providing for the reconveyance of the lot of Mary J. Davis, of the Fourth ward, acquired by the city at a tax sale for the construction of a lateral sewer on Olive street, between Mulberry and Olive streets; for three electric bells in the Tenth ward, and an electric light at the arch on Bridge street; also, resolutions authorizing the city controller to pay the asphalt paving bill out of the fund still due on the Bridge company, and directing the traction company to raise their Luzerne street tracks to grade.

COURSEN-SAWYER NUPTIALS.

Ceremony Took Place at Home of Bride's Parents on Washington Avenue.

The marriage of Miss Anna Blair Coursen to Walter Dean Sawyer, of Cambridge, Mass., took place last night at the home of the bride's parents, Colonel and Mrs. H. A. Coursen, on Washington avenue. The ceremony, which was witnessed by only relatives and a few close friends, was followed by a large reception.

The bride is the only daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Coursen, and is one of Scranton's very popular and accomplished young women. Mr. Sawyer is of an old New England family and is engaged in the wholesale mercantile business in Cambridge.

At 6:30 o'clock the ceremony took place in the front parlor. Rev. Dr. James McLeod, of the First Presbyterian church, officiated. Miss Coursen wore a gown of pearl de la mer, trimmed with point lace and made plain and demi-train. She wore a veil and carried a bunch of white flowers. Her maid of honor was Miss Eleanor Newell, of Brookline, Mass., who wore a pink brocade satin gown and carried a bunch of white flowers. The bridesmaids wore a gray silk, trimmed with Irish lace.

The groom was attended by his brother, John Sawyer, of Cambridge. The ushers were Charles E. Coursen and C. Edward Blair, of Scranton; Walter C. Daggett, of New York city, and Frank Coursen, of East Orange, N. J.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony a reception was held and continued until 8:30 o'clock. Those who received with the bridal party were Colonel and Mrs. Coursen and Mr. and Mrs. George Sawyer and Miss Sawyer, of Cambridge. The rooms were beautifully decorated by Clark with a profusion of roses, hyacinths, carnations and other cut flowers and trailing green stuff. The catering was by McKenney and the music by Bauer.

Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer left Scranton on the Lackawanna road about midnight. They will reside in Cambridge.

Among those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. John D. Vail, of Blairtown; Miss Coursen, of Cambridge; Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Nye, of Unionville, N. Y.; W. P. Coursen, of Frelton, N. J.; Miss Kenney, of Leominster, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Macal, of John's River, N. J.; and William Anderson, of Philadelphia.

ANNIE BELLMAN AGAIN.

Mother and Daughter Accuse Each Other in Police Court.

Another chapter was added to the history of the famous Bellman family yesterday when the mother had the daughter arrested for being wayward, and at the hearing the daughter gave testimony that led to a raid on her mother's home. The girl, as a result, will spend the next few years in a reformatory, and the mother, with two of her boarders, answered in police court this morning.

The daughter is the Annie Bellman, who, it will be remembered, gained no end of notoriety last summer through her conduct proceeding from her release from the House of the Good Shepherd. Court placed her in charge of an uncle living at Hunlock's Creek, and while there Annie, who was only 17 years of age, gained additional fame by placing herself at the disposal of some American Protective association lecturer, who exhibited her as a young girl rescued from the terrible influences of a convent. Annie, it seems, did not behave well of late, and her Hunlock's Creek relatives about two weeks ago shipped her back to Scranton.

CONDUCT OF THE GIRL.

The girl refused to live at her mother's house, and as her mother didn't particularly care to have her around, she was without care of any kind, and as a consequence fell sadly away from grace, spending her time about the saloons and resorts. During this time the girl told some stories about her mother, and when they reached the mother's ears she asked the police authorities to have her daughter picked up and sent to the House of the Good Shepherd.

The girl was arrested last night in a Penn avenue saloon and taken to the station house, where Mayor Connell gave her a hearing, and told of the business her mother was engaged in and also made a certain charge against her which it is hard to believe a mother, no matter how low, could be guilty of. The mayor forthwith issued a warrant against Mrs. Bellman, and dispatched Chief Simpson and a squad of officers to raid her house at No. 18 Lackawanna avenue. They returned inside of half an hour with Mrs. Bellman, Lizzie Marks, Kittle Lewis and three men. The mother glared fiercely at the daughter when they were brought face to face in the police court, but nothing was said on either side. The daughter was placed in the Emergency hospital over night, the three women were allowed to bunk in the court room and the men were locked up in cells.

SOUGHT THE FIRE ESCAPE.

While the raid was being made one of the girls, Kittle Lewis, made an attempt to get out by way of the fire escape which Kittle Woods was trying to reach when she took her famous fall, but Patrolman Roland, who was watching the rear of the building, advised her to get back and "take her medicine like a man," and she did.

The building is a veritable nest of disorderly houses, and when the officers entered it last night all three floors poured forth a frightened mass of men and women. Only those who were on the second floor, which was occupied by the Bellman woman, were detained.

SPORTED WITH LUCAS.

Bicycle Club's Captain-to-Be Gets an Unexpected Blow-Out.

A score or more well known members of the Scranton Bicycle club last night amused themselves and had no little sport with Harry Lucas, the prospector of the city, who is the only member mentioned for the position, but this fact did not deter his friends from engaging a drum corps and visiting him at his home, on Platt place, from whence he was forced to accompany the party and do the honors customary with prospective officers of organizations like the bicycle club.

The sportive members paraded the streets with the captain-to-be in tow and were preceded by a transparency bearing these inscriptions:

Vote for Lucas; Slow Riding; Beautiful Seenery.

Lucas for Captain; Record from Olympia to Scranton in 12 minutes. Never Rode Slow in My Life.

Tomorrow is the club's election night, but as Mr. Lucas leaves today on a business trip his friends grasped the opportunity of making him celebrate before their ardor was dampened.

TICKET CAME IN GOOD.

Gertrude Baker Was Going to Pittston Before She Took Poison.

Dr. Blanchard at the Lackawanna hospital reported that Gertrude Baker, who tried to kill herself one evening last week, to leave the hospital yesterday and go to her parents' home in Pittston. She is all right in body, the same as before she gave her internal system a laudanum bath.

She had a ticket for Pittston in her pocket-book when she was brought to the hospital, and it came in handy for her. She was not at all satisfied with it, they prevented her from destroying herself.

ANTI-HARRITY MEN ALL

Democrats Elect Delegates to the Coming State Convention.

THERE WAS NO OPPOSITION

Joseph O'Brien and John J. O'Boyle Will Probably Be the National Delegates From This County—M. J. Cadden Chosen State Committeeman.

John J. O'Boyle smiled a very pleasant smile last night after the meeting of the Democratic county committee which elected delegates to the State convention in Allentown on April 21. He saw the day approaching when he will be able to pay off his little score with the anti-Harrity men and Mr. O'Boyle is one of them.

When he was called for postmaster of this city several years ago, he felt that he received very shabby treatment from Mr. Harrity, and he has since lost no opportunity to show that his regard for the national chairman is not the highest.

Last fall when the desperate fight was made for the control of the county committee with last night's election in view, Mr. O'Boyle was arrayed with those who were fighting to secure an anti-Harrity delegation to the state convention. The anti-Harrity men, but to do so had to make certain concessions, one of which was fulfilled last night in the naming of Martin J. Cadden, of the Thirtieth ward, as a member of the Democratic county committee. Boynton, ex-Sheriff Charles Robinson. After the anti-Harrity control of last fall's convention the more radical ones made an effort to have the unit rule as applied to the Pennsylvania Democrats to Democratic national conventions, condemned by a resolution which also sought to instruct the delegates to the next state convention to seek its abolition. To the surprise of many of Harrity's opponents this resolution the convention refused to adopt and many of the anti-Harrity men were thereby shorn of half of its sweetness.

LAST NIGHT'S MEETING.

A strong anti-Harrity county committee was named and about thirty of its thirty-nine members met last night in one of the rooms of the Boynton hotel to elect nine delegates from this county to the coming Democratic state convention. The men present at last night's meeting were: John J. O'Boyle, Carbondale; E. F. Edmunds, Mayfield; M. S. Collins, Jersey; P. E. Timlin, Jersey; Miles J. McAndrew, Archbald; M. F. Egan, Scranton; E. J. Lybett, Dunmore; E. J. Ward, Moosic; F. H. Coyne, Old Forge; M. Hannick, Taylor; W. W. Baylor, Benton; D. J. Campbell, E. J. Roche, B. Schmitt, J. H. Schmitt, Joseph O'Brien, J. J. O'Boyle, M. P. Flynn, John E. Gaffney, James Flynn, D. W. Vanhan, G. C. Griswold, Daniel Battle, P. J. Schmitt, J. J. Sheehan, Frank Mangum, T. C. McIvlin, E. P. Blewitt, M. J. Cadden, John J. Shea, Scranton.

At a few minutes after 8 o'clock John E. Gaffney, secretary of the county committee, called the meeting to order and announced that James J. O'Neill, of Carbondale, had been named as unable to be present. On motion of W. W. Baylor, Joseph O'Brien was chosen chairman, after which the following names were read as credentials as substitute for Mr. O'Neill and D. J. Roche presented a similar paper as substitute for John E. Roche. Mr. Gaffney then called the meeting to state the object of the meeting and he said they had met to elect delegates to the state convention and a member of the state committee as well.

THE DELEGATES NAMED.

Without any preliminary speech making M. P. Flynn arose and moved that the following gentlemen be elected delegates: First legislative district, James Flynn, Providence; John E. Gaffney, West side; Second district, John J. O'Boyle, Charles Schmitt, John J. Shea, Third district, W. W. Baylor, Benton, Fourth district, James J. O'Neill, Carbondale; Miles J. McAndrew, Archbald; James J. Lynch, Olyphant. These gentlemen were chosen without opposition and after this list of business was disposed of Mr. O'Neill's name as substitute for Mr. O'Neill and D. J. Roche presented a similar paper as substitute for John E. Roche. Mr. Gaffney then called the meeting to state the object of the meeting and he said they had met to elect delegates to the state convention and a member of the state committee as well.

YOUNG PIANISTS.

Give a Splendid Piano Recital in the Y. W. C. A. Rooms.

The first piano recital by the pupils of Miss Linder was given last night in the Young Women's Christian Association rooms. Mrs. Joseph O'Brien, soprano, and Fred J. Widmayer, violinist, assisted.

The pupils were from ten to fifteen years of age and their efforts showed a splendid training. The young performers were Ethel Jackson, Mabel Fordham, Eva Terwilliger, Anna Henry, Edna Caryl and Kittle Goodwin. Those who ushered and distributed programmes were Kittle Goodwin, Pearl Henry, Bertha Hall, Lyman Keelin, Herbert Dolph and Perry Hall.

TWO GOOD PERFORMANCES.

Given at the Frothingham by the Waite Company.

Large audiences continue to be attracted to the performances given by the Waite company at the Frothingham. Last night the drama "The Inside Track" was greeted by the usual good-sized house. The specialty entertainers were A. H. Knoll and Marie McNeill were particularly well received. "Sentenced for Life" was played in the afternoon.

There will be the usual matinee today. "From St. Louis to San Francisco" and "Driven from Home" will be presented tonight.

BOARD OF CHARITIES.

Report of What Has Been Accomplished During Last Two Weeks.

The Board of Associated Charities met in regular session last night, with Colonel E. H. Ripple, president; Rev. Rogers Ingraham, secretary; D. E. Davis, assistant treasurer, and Messrs. Philip Kirat, T. J. Kelly and John Gibbons present.

The report of the agent, Mrs. W. B. Duggan, was as follows: Cases investigated, 25; found worthy, 25; found work for, 6; transportation furnished, 3; sent to Foundling home, 1; sent to House of Good Shepherd, 1; sent to Rescue mission, 4; lodging and meals furnished, 2; sent to hospitals, 2; referred to board of health, 2; referred to district attorney, 2; removed to better quarters, 1; children returned to parents, 1.

Miss Kiesel, the district nurse, reported having attended eight patients. Colonel Ripple reported that through the efforts of Rev. Mr. Ingeal, the estimates committee had been persuaded to lay aside the necessary appropriation for separate cells for female prisoners in the central police station. A letter from Manager George E. Davis, of Davis' theater, acknowledging the vote of thanks tendered him for the benefit performance given at his house, was received, and was the cause of again bringing forth many complimentary remarks on the generous showman's annual donation.

Mr. Kelly for the child saving committee, reported that the Lithuanian girl, Mary Brown, sent to the House of the Good Shepherd on account of her waywardness was returned to her parents on Lloyd street, on trial. The Conway children, whose mother is in the county jail on the charge of enticing young girls to their ruin, will be cared for by their aunt.

After the meeting Rev. Mr. Ingeal gave an informal report of his recent trip to New York, where he attended the meeting of the commission, which

MARCH 17 PARADE.

Many of the Preliminaries for It Arranged Last Night.

A meeting of representatives from all the Ancient Order societies of the county was held last night at the rooms of Division 7 in A. O. U. W. hall on Lackawanna avenue. The arrangements for the parade on St. Patrick's day was what brought them together. County Delegate M. J. McAndrews, of Archbald, who will be grand marshal of the parade, has decided that it will be in two divisions. The first will consist of St. John's Total Abstinence society of the South Side, which will have the right of line; St. Joseph's Total Abstinence society of Minooka, and the divisions of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, of the North Side. There are five divisions in Scranton and one in each of the other places.

The second division of the parade will be commanded by William Piel, of Carbondale, and will consist of the divisions from Simpson, Forest City, Vandling, Carbondale, Mayfield, Archbald and Jessup. The respective societies will arrive in Scranton at 10 o'clock and begin forming at 10:30. The parade will move at 11 o'clock and will pass over the principal streets of the city.

The programme in full has not been altogether arranged yet, but will be in a few days. In the evening an entertainment will be held at St. Thomas College hall, the principal feature of which will be an address by Rev. F. P. McNally, of the West Side.

SALE OF WILLIAMS' EFFECTS.

Ex-Cashier's Personal Property Went Under the Hammer for $979.10.

Deputy Sheriff J. D. Ferber yesterday sold out the personal property of ex-cashier of the National Bank, John Williams, on an execution entered up by W. W. Watson on a bond and mortgage of $10,000 held by him against the National Bank. The property was recorded Sept. 11, 1895, and the execution was made and the sheriff's levy nearly a month ago, but the sale was delayed.

The amount brought yesterday was only $979.10. The purchasers were B. Moses, F. Arndt, W. W. Watson, Chas. Schlager, James J. O'Brien, J. M. Dewey. The latter bid in Mr. Williams' library for $350. It is easily worth $1,000. The personal property not having been sold, the sheriff's sale of the National Bank, the ex-cashier's very poorly represents the value of the furniture and furnishings.

HAD TO DROP THE CURTAIN.

Gallery Eight Stops the Performance at the Frothingham.

Cornelius Coleman, of Jackson street, and John Murphy, of Seventh street, two young men who were in the gallery for creating a disturbance at the Frothingham.

Special Officer W. B. Knight who has charge of the gallery attempted to eject Coleman for forcing himself into the front row during the second act and causing those who had secured the coveted place by coming early to Coleman refused to move and when the officer tried to force him out, he and two patrolmen, J. D. Thomas and I. P. Jones were summoned and the two offenders were hustled off to the station house. The fracas necessitated the dropping of the curtain, so great was the future.

THE MONEY OF THE COUNTRY

Is the Subject of Theodore C. Knaufl's Lecture.

MEN COMPOSING SILVER PARTY

Speaker Said They All Belonged to It From More or Less Interested Motives—Those Who Desire Sound Money for the Country.

"The Silver Question" from a gold man's standpoint was the topic of the lecture of Theodore C. Knaufl last night in the Young Men's Christian association hall. The lecture was illustrated by a number of line stereopticon views intended to show many of the classes of workmen who are affected by a change from a gold to a silver monetary basis.

The audience was not large but what it lacked in numbers was perhaps counterbalanced by quality, there being a generous sprinkling of bank officials and other prominent persons present. Knaufl lectures under the auspices of the Sound Money League of Philadelphia, a gold advocating organization for which he has written a number of pamphlets for general circulation.

The substance of Mr. Knaufl's argument was that the silver party is composed of those who, from what appear to be more or less interested motives, desire a change from the existing order of things. Among these are the owners of silver mines and those interested in the production of silver, one, but one only of our great national industries. They desire that the products of their industry shall be purchased by the national government in whatever amounts they may see fit to offer, and at a fixed price to be set by themselves, without regard to the quantity produced, the cost of production, or the market value of the goods, which is created by the natural laws of supply and demand.

SOUND MONEY PARTY.

On the contrary, the sound money party includes not only those favorable to the single standard of gold, but men who prefer, even desire, the actual use of the two metals, and are true bimetallists, but in a way to insure no one. This party is also included in the addition men who would prefer a single standard of silver, but who hesitate to make a change, as the transition itself would mean ruin to the country. The injury would be brought about by the difference of its own funds. As long as the government can do this and will, it will be the power to purchase a majority of our lawmakers should desire to experiment still further, or a minority, making the attempt and being prevented, should in revenge again deliberately try to cripple its resources, the government might not be able to pay this difference in gold value. The moment it pays out a silver dollar as silver the crash comes and we are on a silver basis. It is too late to make preparation for the change. Anyone with money on hand or invested, reverts to gold value, and so it is. At once the gold in the treasury and in the country disappears under the operation of a sure law which has never varied. The currency is contracted and stringency results.

MONEY DEPRECIATES.

"Under the distrust of such an arrangement, our government and other securities held abroad will be offered for sale at what they will bring. To the extent that the price of such securities is depreciated by such forced sales are the holders of them in this country the losers. Not only so but the government money depreciates and to the extent that it is depreciated, everything are disturbed and business is at a temporary standstill."

The Young Men's Christian association will endeavor to secure the presence here in the near future of an advocate of silver. The silver lecture will be presented in the same concise and plain way as was last night's lecture.

MILLS WILL HAVE TO GO.

Police Committee of Select Council Decried to Interfere in His Case.

The police committee of select council declined last night to interfere in the dismissal of Thomas Mills from the police force, first because it concluded it had no jurisdiction, and secondly because it wouldn't if it could.

The dismissed patrolman and his friends, for some time past, have been circulating among the members of the committee, endeavoring to stir up opposition to the mayor's action. They secured encouragement from some of the councilmen and when the meeting opened last night Mayor Connell explained the reasons of Mills' removal if the committee cared to hear them.

Mills claimed that he was innocent of any wrong-doing and asked that the committee refrain from passing upon his removal until he had been granted a hearing. Every man is innocent, he said, until he is proved guilty. Then Mayor Connell recited the causes for which he had removed Mills. The committee deliberated for a short time and decided that they had not the power to interfere, and some of them indignantly said that they would not if they could.

After the meeting Mayor Connell stated to a Tribune reporter that the reason for a formal hearing had been given Mills was that his own admissions were sufficient to demand his dismissal. It was also thought best to save the city the disgrace which the exposure would bring upon it if they were aired at a hearing. "At all events," the mayor stated, "I am thoroughly satisfied that Mills was not a fit man to be on the force and no matter what councils should do in the matter he will never wear a star while I am at the head of the police department."

The committee decided to report favorably upon the appointment of Harry Lutz, Jr., to succeed Mills. The members of the committee are:

DEATH OF MRS. HACKETT.

To Her Had Been Allotted an Unusually Long Pilgrimage on Earth.

After an earnest, helpful life of more than four-score years, Mrs. Susan Hackett died yesterday morning at the residence of Colonel E. H. Ripple, on Webster avenue. Mrs. Hackett was born in this state in 1810, and in 1838 married Richard M. Hackett, at Nesquehoning. After residing in that vicinity for twenty years, Mr. and Mrs. Hackett moved to Taylor, where the former was for years employed as a foreman by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company. In 1888 the family removed to this city. About eleven years ago Mr. Hackett died and since then his widow has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Ripple.

Mrs. Hackett was a woman of great kindness of heart and deep religious convictions. She was a devout member of the congregation of the Grace Reformed church, of Wyoming avenue. Surviving her are two daughters and a son. They are Mrs. E. H. Ripple, of this city; Mrs. Casper Weisenfeld, of Old Forge, and W. T. Hackett, of this city. The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of Colonel and Mrs. E. H. Ripple, 513 Webster avenue. Interment will be made in Dunmore Catholic cemetery.
