HOAR'S PLEA FOR SPAIN

An Arraignment of the Committee on Porcign Relations.

APPEAL TO SENATOR SHERMAN

The Statesman Is Earnestly Urged to Recede from His Position-The Excitement of Mobs Should Not Be Imitated in This Instance.

Washington, March 11. - Senator Hoar's resolution to postpone the con-ference report on the Cuban concurrent ference report on the Cuban concurrent resolutions till Monday, the sixth of April was taken up early in the morn-ing hour today, and after a speech by Mr. Hoar in support of it, lost its place in the morning hour and went to the calendar, from which there will prob-ably be no effort to resurrect it. But the debate in the senate will go on, all the same tomorrow and until the subthe same tomorrow, and until the sub-ject is disposed of, as the conference report of a privileged question, at least until 2 o'clock every day when it come in conflict with the resolution for seat ing Mr. Dupont as senator from the of Delaware-a question of still higher privilege. Mr. Hoar's speech was largely an arraignment of the committee on for-eign relations for reporting the concurrent resolutions without having any facts to justify such action. He ap-pealed to Senator Sherman, who he placed on the same pedestal with Lin-coln, Grant, Fish, Seward and his own illustrious brother, General Sherman, to recede from the position which he had taken; and the only reason for which was, he intimated, because a presidential election was at hand. Mr Hoar said some very severe things about the action of the committee on foreign relations and said that when it wrote the word "concurrent" at the head of the resolution, it meant "it is to be distinctly understood that this is pickwickian resolution." Mr. Hoar deplored the idea of rush-Mr. Hoar deplored the idea of rush-ing matters through congress that properly belonged to the functions of the state department. He did not agree with Secretary Olney politically, but he knew him well: he was a generous, square, honest, old-fashioned Massa-chusetts Yankee and M. Hoar said he was not afraid to trust him in the diplomatic affairs of this government. He then related a story of one of the old emperors who was walking along a naremperors who was walking along a nar-row path accompanied by a fine lady of his court, when they met a laborer car-rying a heavy burden. The lady re-fused to step aside when the emperor commanded her to respect the burden the man was carrying. Applying this to existing conditions, Mr. Hoar said the means and the unset in criticishing the people and the press in criticising the president and the administration in Venezuelan and Spanish question should respect the burden that rested upon them and the responsibilities that belonged to the executive alone.

CAUSE FOR LAMENT.

It was to be lamented, Mr. Hoar said, that the youth of the Spanish universi-ties had been so excited as to offer indignities to the American flag, and that the minister from Spain, a gentleman of great accomplishments and the representative of a friendly power, was stung into breaking over diplomatic propriety and making an appeal, in an irregular way, to the people of the United States. Mr. Hoar spoke, in that connection, of American colonies in that connection, of Spain as the ally and friend of the American colonies in the war of inde-pendence, and as having exercised a potent influence in preventing armed intervention by France and Great Britian in the late civil war. The senate, Mr. Hoar declared, must do its duty with courage and firmness. Whatever the senate did should be done in a calm, quiet, dignified spirit, as befitted the action of a great people. It ought to imitate not the excitement of mobs, it ought to indulge, not in the mobs, it ought to induge, not in the impassioned eloquence of orators; and not in the stimulant appeals to love of liberty or to any other public pas-Several days ago Marshal Griffith, of sion, good or bad. This was a time and an occasion for the judicial faculty. At various points in the speech Sen-ators Sherman and Morgan were goaded into rather angry responses; but on the whole the debate went on with but small manifestations of asperity.

Mr. Turple (Dem. Ind.) concluded his three days' speech against the claim of Mr. Dupont to a seat in the senate from the state of Delaware, and the senate at 4 p. m. adjourned until tomorrow.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

The postoffice appropriation bill was finally disposed of in the house today, and sent to the senate. The session was chiefly devoted to a consideration of the "spy" system in the postoffice as espionage upon letter carriers in the past year has been called, and it was vigorously attacked by several ers. Upon an amendment offered by Mr. Quigg (Rep., N. Y.) to strike out the increase of appropriation made in the bill for the payment of postoffice in spectors, the principal speeches were made by Messrs. Quigg, Cummings (Dem., N. Y.), and Belknap (Rep., Ill.) Messrs. Loud (Rep., Cal.) in charge of the bill, McMillen (Dem., Tenn.), Bing-ham (Rep., Penna.) and Kyle (Dem., Mess (Dem., Denna.) and Kyle (Dem., Miss.) in opposition. The amendment was agreed to-162 to 63. After the bill had been reported to the house, Mr. Bromwell (Rep., O.) moved to strike out the appropriation of $195,000 for special facilities on the trunk lines from Boston via New York and Washington to Atlanta and New Orleans, which was the subject of yesterday's debate. The motion failed, 111 yeas to 134 nays, Members from the east and south generally supported the appropriation and Western members opposed it. Before adjournment Mr. Daniels (Rep., N. Y.) gave notice that he would move tomorrow to proceed with the consideration of the contested election case of Aldrich vs. Robbins, from the Fourth district of Alabama.
