The "Trilby" craz is still on in Carbondale. Calls for the book have been made upon the librarian by ninety people already. At the municipal building, the com-mittee on estimates attended Tuesday evening to complete their work. There was a full attendance, Messrs, McNulty, Histed and Thomas, of the Select council, and Lindsay. Devine and Colwell, of the common. After Mr. McNulty had willed the market was a full of the common. called the meeting to order a statement was obtained from City Controller Frank Smith, which facilitated the

The mayor's salary question created a heated discussion. Some members of the committee thought that the salary should be made $600. However, the ap-propriation was finally allowed to stand at $300, but with the understanding tha the matter should be discussed when the report is made to council. As to the repairing estimate of the streets, some of the members argued for permanent work. Chairman Mc-Nulty said $3,000 were expended on street repairs during 1895 without any result to show for it. Then they came to the decision to set $2,000 under the heading of repairing and grading streets, instead of repairing streets.

Miss Maggie Thomas Honored by a Number of Her Friends.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thomas, on South Church street, a masquerade birthday party was ten-dered Miss Maggie Thomas Tuesday night. The gathering was made up in a ludicrous manner, and the costumes displayed great taste. Dancing and displayed great taste. Dancing and music, with a variety of games, were indulged in. The friends presented Miss Thomas with a handsome gold watch chain as a memento of the occasion, which she very gracefully accept-ed. Those present were Mesdames and Messrs. W. B. Foster, K. G. Wickwire. George Evans, H. M. Edwards, Charles Smith, Thomas Morgan, William Isgar, to a law of 1851, which reads that in case a member is absent from the meeting a majority of the votes east by those present carries. The councilmen on the ooposite side then made objections and left the room. The next business was to elect a secretary and after one ballot W. J. Schubmehl was elected, as was also McLaughlin for treasurer and Howards for street commissioner. Councilman Flynn then moved that they adjourn to meet at the call of the chair.
