Charles Lasher Says He Intends to Proscente Constables Who Made Mim Pay Money.

Five months ago Charles Lasher was arrested and subsequently sent to the county fail for selling liquor without a license in a house situated on Main avenue near the Round woods. Wednesday he had served his sentence and on that same day he visited Alderman Moses, of the Fifteenth ward, and told a tale of fleecing of which he was the victim. When Lasher was in the hey day of his success as an illegal distri-buter of alchohal he was accosted by a man who claimed that he was the conman who claimed that he was the con-stable of a West Side ward. The con-stable demanded hush money. If he did not receive it he would arrest Lash-er then and there. Lasher paid the money and the constable departed. A few days afterward another man entered the house. This fellow's claim was that he was then acting as deputy constable. He also wanted money, and was that he was then acting as deputy constable. He also wanted money, and Lasher paid it. Shortly after that County Detective Leyshon swooped down on the house and the keeper began his sojourn at the county jail. Now Lasher, again a free man, tells his story of imposition. He knows the two men and is looking for them. If there is a leaf in any law book that justifies the two "constables" arrest. Lasher is going to profit by it, and have the men placed behind the bars.

Fred Phillips Unanimously Nominated by the Democrate of the Eleventh Ward for Common Council.

An ardent gathering of Democrats of the Eleventh ward assembled at Ger-mania hall last evening to place in nomination a candidate for common nomination a candidate for common council. County Commissioner John Demuth was chosen chairman and D. P. Murray secretary. Prior to the caucus there was a good deal of rumor that William H. Walter, of Cedar avenue, intended to give Fred Phillips a brush for the nomination, but it seems that Mr. Walter was not a candidate and his felenda were booming him. and his friends were booming him

However that was, when Charles G. Rosar placed in nomination the name of Mr. Phillips, there were no further nominations and Mr. Phillips was chosen by acclamation. Three cheers were given for the nominee, and attention was next turned to a few kegs of beer than the control of th that had been tapped for the occasion.
The Republicans will caucus tonight.
The term for which the election will be held is one year, which Robert Robinson would serve if he were not chosen as a member of the select.

NO DOUBT ABOUT IT. Just after election there was quite a let effection the greefation that the effection that the effection that the effection of the empedator that the effection expenses a repetition of the Twentieth ward. Mr. O'Mailey was only fourteen votes behind, and he thinks that a contest would result in his favor. For two weeks there has been very little heard about the matter, and it was the general supposition that the contest matter was dropped. The fact is Mr. O'Mailey, his attorneys. C. C. Donovan and M. J. Donahoe, and a few friends have been saying nothing but they have been busy looking up the assessment books, registry books, tally assessment books, registry books, tally lists and election papers sifting out evi-dence. Mr. O'Mailey was seen last night by a Tribune reporter and ex-pressed himself as satisfied that a contest will end in a victory for him. goes against him.

LEFT HIM ALL ALONE. When a man, after his day's work goes home, on a winter's evening and expects to find his wife with the hearth swept, the suppertable set, a bright fire burning, her face cheery with welcome and the children ready to meet him and climb upon his knee to kiss him, but instead of all this finds the place deserted, then his feelings may better be imagined than described. Albert Harris, of 319 Birch street, underwent an experience of this kind Thursday evening. He is in the employ of Con-tractor Conrad Schroeder and is a sta-tionery engineer. After searching around yesterday he learned that his wife got the furniture out of the house wife got the furniture out of the house Thursday, took it over town and disher and went to Elmira, where her
