Interesting Speeches Made in the United States Senate.

SENATOR HALE IS EXCITED

He Flatly Contradicts Statements Made by Mr. Sherman-Senator Caffery Does Not Desire Cuban Territory. Other Congressional Topics.

Washington, March 19.-The Cuban debate in the senate today was of character to maintain the intense pub character to maintain the intense public interest in that question. It was to have been opened by Mr. Mills (Dem. Tex.) but that senator was too ill to be present, and the debate was opened by Mr. Stewart (Pop., Nev.) He declared himself anxious for action; said that the facts were too notorious to need further statement; favored the adoption of the conference report, and said that if a concurrent resolution did not produce the desired result, congress produce the desired result, congress ought to pass a joint resolution and place the responsibility on the presi-dent of the United States.

Mr. Gray (Dem., Del.) a member of the committee on foreign relations, rose in order, as he explained it, to explain briefly the reasons which compelled him to withhold his assent from the him to withhold his assent from the conference report; but he was subjected to so many interruptions that his brief statement occupied over an hour. It closed with an expression of the hope that "Spain, without rupture of friendly relations; shall sit down with us at the council board of nations and consider whether there may not be some other issue of this sorry controversy than the extermination of a whole peo-than the extermination of a whole peo-ple fighting for their liberties."

Mr. Gray was interrupted all through his speech by Mr. Hale (Rep., Me.) in the course of which Mr. Hale flatly contradicted a statement repeatedly made by Mr. Sherman (Rep., Ohio) chairman of the foreign relations committee, as to Spain having violated all the promises and reforms stipulated in the capitulation of 1878, when the insurgents of that day laid down their arms. Mr. Sherman had said, among other things, that although representation in the Spanish cortes was then promised, the Cubans had only one delegate there; but Mr. Hale affirmed that he had a list of forty-five members in the house of deputies and fourteen or fifteen members in the senate from the two islands of Cuba and Porto Rica.

MR. HALE INDIGNANT.

Mr. Hale declared with wramth that he was laboring under a sense of indignation at the suppression of the facts of the case by the committee on for-eign relations. Mr. Gray made a mock apology to Mr. Hale for interrupting his speech so much and spoke of him, by an intentional slip of the tongue, as "the senator from Spain." The jun-lor senator from Texas, Mr. Chilton, advocated the passage of a joint reso-lution rather than of a concurrent one, and declared his belief that interven-tion by the United States meant the ultimate annexation of Cuba—to which

The last speech of the day was made by Mr. Caffery (Dem., La.) and was against the entrme proposition, as having no better basis than stories in the Arabian Nights. The United States, he declared was bound by international law not to intermeddle in the affairs of Cuba. If the United States did not Cuba. If the United States did not cling to that law it would be outlawed from the circle of civilized nations Mr. Caffery had not finished his speed en the senate at 4 p. m. adjourned

WARM DEBATE IN HOUSE.

The debate on the Bayard resolutions was continued in the house today and toward the close of the session descendtween Messrs. Sulzer (Dem., N. Y.) and Gibson (Rep., Tenn.) The display of a circular letter by Mr. Gibson to his con-stituents by Mr. Sulzer sand the charge that it was being circulated under a frank elicited an angry outburst from the Tennesseean, who denied that he was using a frank upon the document, and that the person who said so was the author of a vile slander. Later Mr. the author of a vile stander. Later Mr. Sulzer withdrew the assertion and also apologized to the gentleman for anything he had said which might have given him offense, but that did not wholly satisfy Mr. Gibson, who, in the course of a personal explanation, said the circular had been stolen, being still. so far as he knew, in the hands of the printer, and asserted that if there were no receivers, there would be no thieves The episode was quickly over, and at its close the house adjourned. The speakers today were Messrs. Tucker (Dem., Va.) and Cooper (Dem., Fla.) against the resolutions of sencure and Messrs. Taft and Wilson (Rep., O.) Pearson (Rep., N. C.), McCall and Bar rett (Rep., Mass.) in favor of them. Mr. Grosvenor (Rep., O.) defended the reputation of General Schenick from the inference arising from the state ments made yesterday by Mr. Mc-Creary (Dem., Ky.) about his connection with the Emma mine and the publication of his rules of poker while he was minister to England. Just before adjournment an agreement tions at 2 o'clock tomogrow.

Mr. Taylor (Rep., O.) reported the resolution of the committee on elections No. 2, declaring the seat vacant now occupied by Mr. Boatner (Dem. La.) and gave notice that it would be called up tomorrow after the pending resolutions have been disposed of, and be voted on without debate.

AN IMMIGRATION BILL.

Mr. Corliss, of Michigan, offered in the house today a bill to protect Amer-ican labor by the establishment of additional safeguards concerning immi-gration to this country. The measure makes it unlawful for any allen who cesides or retains his home in a foreign country to enter the United States for the purpose of engaging in any me-chanical trade or labor while he retains a home in a foreign country. It is also made unlawful for persons, firms, or corporations to employ such persons. It is further provided that no alien shall enter the United States, except subjects to the Dominion of Canada and the South American countries, except at places known as United States cus toms ports of entry upon the Atlantic or Pacific coasts.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.

The Democratic members of the sen-ate held a caucus this afternoon at the adjournment of the senate for the pur pose of discussing the question of pa-tronage. The proposition upon which Senator Gorman representing the Dem-ocrats and Senator Elkins, represent-ing the Republicans, have been working for several weeks was submitted to the caucus and appeared to meet with facaucus and appeared to meet with favorable consideration. This proposition provides for a non-partisan distribution of the patronage equally among the ninety senators who compose the body. There are about eighteen employes who from long years of experience have became invaluable to the senate, and these men will be placed on a list and charged up to the senate. on a list and charged up to the senate as a body. The other places will then be distributed equally. There were ten Democratic senators who ceased to be members of the senate with the last session and their successors have no one in office through their influence; the ame can be said of the new Repub-lican senators.

Of course, a revision of this sort means that some of the employes will have to go, and they will probably be those whose senators have lost their seats, and who are therefore no longer with senatorial backing. The whole subject, after discussion, was left to the steering committee. The commit-tee will confer with the similar com-mittee for the Republicans, and after a Republican caucus it is believed the whole matter will be settled on the basis here indicated. No other subject was brought up in the caucus.

TRAGEDY IS FORECAST. Brother of the Victim Has a Night Vision

That Comes True. Washington, March 19.—People who believe in dreams will be interested in the case of George H. Wheeler, who was found dead on the Pennsylvania railroad track in Washington last night. He had in his pocket a letter written March 5 by his brother, who is a clerk in the Elk Ridge postoffice. The letter

Dear Brother:-I had a dream about you Dear Brother:—I had a dream about you the other night which worried me a great deal, but I pray it is not true. I dreamed that I and two other men hauled you home in a wagon and that you were covered with blood from head to foot.

The dream was fulfilled almost to the letter. The man was hauled to the hos-pital in a wagon and was covered with blood from head to foot. At the hospital the letter was found, and when the physicians read it they declared it a strange coincidence. The dead man was an employe of the Pennsylvania company and was killed by a train.

RIDICULE "NEW WOMEN." Men of Otsego, Mich., Get Even with Them in a Minstrel Show.

Otsego, Mich., March 19.—This town, celebrated for its minstrel shows, paper mills and strict preachers, has broken out again. It was a female min-strel show this time, given by a lot of "new" men, daintily attired in the flowing skirts and trains once worn by women. New York, March 19.—The Improvement in the political situation abroad had a good effect on stock prices at the opening, and the prominent issues moved up a labe per cent. In the rise Edison Electric Illuminating of New York and Tobacco led the upward movement. The gain in the stand issues was of small proportions, notwithstanding purchases of fully 10,000 shares of St. Pahl, Louisville and Nashville and Erie for London account. Local traders who have been working for a reaction for some days were alarmed by the foreign buying and covered. This stimulated the upward movement at the opening. Toward 10 o'clock the market developed weakness and the professional operators and commission houses were rather liberal sellers. The selling was based on the unsatisfactory trade conditions and vague rumors that there would be unfavorable developments in congress in the matter of the Cuban and Venezuelan questions. Prices dropped anywhere from ½ to 2½ per cent. The council excused Dr. Brown's actions after the charge of the charge of the charge of the charge of the charge had been made public on account of his quick temper. With regard to the young woman, whom, it is alleged, he threatened, the council says: "We find his conduct to have violated all rules which should control the action of a gentleman and Christian minister, and we censure him for it, while we recognize the manister. for it, while we recognize the manly words of reparation offered by him to the young lady in our presence."

The council says Dr. Brown's explan-

Brown and his friends say they consider the verdict a complete vindica-tion. The pastor's future is still in some doubt. Censure for unministerial conduct may carry with it a penalty.
