Hospital Association Considers the Com plaints Against Propsed Location of Institution in Freeman Building.

The trouble over the hospital situa-The trouble over the hospital association in the directors' room of the West Side bank. A committee representing the Washburn Street Presbyterian church. was present at the meeting. The church is one of the prominent factors in the opposition to the establishment of the hospital in the Freeman home-stead on Washburn street, which is adjacent to the church parsonact committee consists of the board of trus-tees and is as follows: C. R. Pitcher, William Frink, John D. Williams and Thomas Richards. Attorney E. H. Shurtleff represented the complainants. John R. Farr presided over the meeting. Two petitions were read. They are identical and are as follows:

To Hon. John. R. Farr, Hon. D. M. Jones, Affred Twining, W. H. Freeman, Will-iam Farrell, D. P. Mannix, D. D. Evans,

iam Farrell, D. P. Mannix, D. D. Evans, W. Gaylord Thomas, John van Bergen, Liewelyn Roberts, Dr. W. A. Paine, Dr. M. J. Williams, directors of the West Side Hospital Association: We, whose names are hereto subjoined, being citizens, tax payers and long residents of Hyde Park, in Scranton, have learned that by your action the property on the southwest corner of Main avenue and Washburn street is to be used in the establishment of a hospital for the care of the sick, injured, etc. These premises being situated in a densely populated portion of the city, among of our homes and long established residences, but in like proximity to several churches and one or more parsonages, business places, etc., would, if used for the abovenamed purpose, be to us a constant discomfort, and also cause a very material named purpose, be to us a constant dis-comfort; and also cause a very material depression in value of the properties owned, used and held by us for the above-owned, used and held by us for the above-named purposes.

We, therefore, while heartily endorsing the object for which your association was created, and being at all times will-ing to give it our reasonable support, en-couragement and assistance, do for the reasons above set forth most strongly pro-test against the establishment of a hos-pital at the place aforesale, and carnestly request your reconsideration of the ac-tion already taken by you, and that you will place the said institution in a local-ity (which may readily be found) as will render it free from our herein stated ob-jections, but equally desirable for and adapted to its purpose.

Ninety-two names in the total are signed to the petitions. The case was presented by speeches from the sever-al present. The hospital board contend al present. The hospital board contend that the Freeman home is a model situation for a hospital. The building is commodious and it was pointed out last night that when the state authortitles yisit the hospital the commanding appearance of the building would act greatly toward munificent support. The members of the association are averse to surrendering their plan to open the hospital in the Freeman home. They believe that the majority of West Siders are in favor of the location. It was said last night that if the wishes of the complainants be considered it will place other locations at the mercy of future remonstrants. The site committee, consisting of D. D. Evans, W. mittee, consisting of D. D. Evans, W. Thompson occurred yesterday after-H. ouncilman Will Be Elected in Eleventh Ward Today-Letter Which Candidate Wirth Has Addressed to Voters.

Between the hours of 7 a, m, and 7 p. m. today a special election will be held in the Eleventh ward to fill the vacancy caused by the election of Robert Robinson to the select branch of councils. His term in common would not expire for another year. Philip Wirth, the Republican candidate, has addressed the following manly letter to the voters of the ward:

of the ward:

You are probably aware of the fact that a special election for the office of common councilman will be held at the regular polling places in our ward this coming Tuesday, March 24, 1886, between the hours of 7 a. m. and 7 p. m. This is caused by the resignation of Common Councilman Robinson, who has been elected a member of the select branch.

As the Republican nomines to fill the vacancy thus created, I desire to call your attention to my candidacy. It was my intention to call on you personally and solicit your vote, but the time is too short to get around and see you. Born and reared on the South Side, I have been for many years a resident of the ward and am thoroughly acquainted with the needs of the property holders, and the people in general. I fully realize the importance of this office and that its duties are exacting, but it shall be my aim, if elected, to carefully and honestly guard and look after your interests. Should you east your ballot for me I assure you that it will always be heartly appreciated.

SALE WILL NOT OCCUR.

Property of the Estate of Mary F. Williams Deceased Will Remain Intact. An order was made yesterday by udge Edwards revoking the order of sale heretofore made by the court in the estate of Mary F. brances against it. On Oct. 26, 1895, the court made an order directing that the property be sold to pay off the debt. The order sold to pay off the debt. The order yesterday recites that the court believes the income from rents is sufficient to pay off the debts and that the sale is not necessary. This last proceeding was done at the instance of John F. Williams, bookkeeper at the Hillside home, who is a son of the deceased. The other heirs are Mrs. Reese D. IT IS A GREAT COMPANY.

Wright Huntington and His Fellow Play ers Are Received with Great Favor at the Academy of Music.

The Wright Huntington stock company played its opening engagement for the week at the Academy of Music last night. They chose Oulda's crea-tion entitled "Moths" for their intro-ductory performance and the management must feel highly gratified at its choice for the audience was large and to use a trite expression very appreciative. It was more than that, it was delighted.

In the first act we see Vere Herbert, a young English girl, in love with nature, fond of childish sports and everything that pertains to innocence. She is also of a studious nature, spending much time with her books of science mathematics and the poets. In fact she seems to be the personification of everything that is true, noble and pure in woman. Strange to say she has a mother of a conniving disposition, a woman of the world, in whose heart love for rank, title and gold predominates. The mother succeeds in marry-ing her daughter to Prince Zonroff notwithstanding the earnest protestations of Vere, who frankly declares her hatred for the prince. Her consent is secured under the pretence that it will save the honor of the mother, who informs her daughter that is in the power of Prince Zonroff.

Vere is loved by Corries, a professionsional singer of national reputation in the courts of Europe, and she recipro-cates his love. There is one more prominent character in the realization of this drama, and she is the Duchess De Sonnaz, old. cunning and desperate. She seeks the hand of Prince Zonroff, not as a matter of love, but adventure, After many vicissitudes of life in which Vere is the chief sufferer, the last scene is enacted by the death of Prince Zon-A grand recital will be given in the roff in a duel with Lor Jura, a friend and lover of Vere's, but one who has never been accepted as a lover. ROBBERY AT MOOSIC.

Herbert Smith Is Attacked by Highway men and Relieved of $350.

Herbert Smith, a young man who has lately engaged in the cash meat business, at Moosic, attended church on Sunday evening, as was his usual custom, and escorted a lady friend to her home in the lower end of the town. After spending the evening he depart-ed for home about 12 o'clock. As he approached the railroad bridge below the depot two men jumped up and commanded him to throw up his hands. Mr. Smith promptly knocked the fel-low's hands up, thereby saving his life. The pistol exploded discharging the bullet in the fleshy part of the arm near the shoulder. During the melec the second man crept around and grasped Mr. Smith around the arms holding him so that he could not move. While it that position, the man with the re-volver went through his pockets relieving him of $350, with which he intended to purchase a horse and wagon on Monday morning. The peculiar part of the affair is that they did not disturb his watch or small change, which he had in his pockets at the time. Mr. Smith is resting well though the wound is very painful. He discribes his assailants as a tall man with a dark moustache and a short man of slim appearance. Both persons were clothed very shabbily.

Dr. S. S. Watson, the attending phy sician, says Mr. Smith will be all right in a few days.

SOME ONE IS CLEVER.

Peculiar Method Adopted by Some Person to Get un Organ-Mrs. Elizabeth Cramer was held in $500 bail by Alderman Millar yesterday on a charge of larceny by bailee, preferred by Guernsey Bros. Last Monday Mrs. Cramer received a letter from the firm telling her that if she did not pay the installment due on the organ she was buying, they would have to take it back. On Wednesday the firm received a sarcastic note thanking them for taking the or-gan away during her absence. They had not taken the organ away, and in great surprise began an investigation. Mrs. Cramer said that four men with a dray wagon came to her house Tuesday while she was out, and telling her girl that they were from Guernsey's, re-moved the organ.

This story is not believed by the firm.

and surmising that it was a trick of Mrs. Cramer's, had her arrested. They are also looking for the five men with the dray wagon.

Rheumatism Carcd in a Day.

"Mystic Cure" for rheumatism and neuralgla radically cures in one to three days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits, 75 cents. Sold by Carl Lorenz, druggist, 418 Lackawanna avenue, Scranton.

The accusation in this city yesterday morning at 9.45 o'clock by the Barring & McSweeney agency on the charge of embezzlement.

The accusation is that some one of the crew has been "lifting" tickets and disposing of them to scalpers. By lifting is meant to collect tickets and not punch them. On this train it is necessary for the brakemen to assist the conductor in collecting tickets, especiany between stations that are close together. In this way the brakemen came into possession of tickets which are not punched, and if they want to be dishonest, can dispose of them to scalp-

ers. This explains why the brakemen were also implicated in the charge. Leighow was sent to the station house and the others were allowed to go. To a Tribune reporter he said that Bar-ring & McSweeney had locked him up because he refused to admit that he had sold tickets. He denies his guilt and says they can keep him there till he rots, but they can't make him admit what isn't true.

NO CASES WERE HEARD.

Outside of the Smith Hearing There Was Not Much Done in Civil Court. Common pleas court was in session but a short time yesterday. Nothing was done in the way of putting cases on trial as those on the list for the day were disposed of by being continued, discontinued or settled. A number of opinions were handed down.
