BORNE TO THE TOMB.

Ex-Alderman J. G. Thompson Laid at Rest-Buried in Maplewood Cometery.

The funerals of the late Jesse G. Thomson took place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late residence on Sixth avenue. The mortal remains were taken to the Methodist church, where the Rev. Dr. G. A. Piace, pastor the church, delivered an impressive eulogy from the words of St. Paul: "In whom we have redemption through his blood. delivered an impressive eulogy forgiveness of sins according to the riches of His grace." The full church choir sang several se-bections. The floral pieces were very pretty and elaborate. The funeral pro-cession, which was one of the largest en in the city, was an evidence of the popularity of one of the ploneers of our city. He was buried at Maplewood cometery. The pull-heavers were Chas, Blair, Robert Blair, G. P. Rogers, Fred. Bair, Robert Bair 4, P. Fogers, Free-Biller, J. F. Reynolds and R. H. Rey-Rolds, The following out-of-town per-sons were in attendance: Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Davies, Manie, Edward and Thomas Davies, of Bayonne, N. J.: William H. Davies, of Westfield, N. J.: William H. Davies, of Westfield, N. J.: Winam William Jones and daughter; Edith, of Jergey City; Mrs. Lizzie Beau, of Green Ridge; Judge Alfred Darte, of Wilkes-Barre: Mr. and 'Mrs. H. P.
