REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

To the Republican electors of Pennsylvania.

The Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in state convention Thursday, April 22, 1896, at 10 o'clock a. m. in the opera house, city of Harrisburg, for the purpose of nominating two candidates for presidential electors.

Attest: Jere H. Box, W. R. Andrews, Secretaries.

For the seven months beginning July 1, 1895, our foreign trade made a gain of $90,570,671 as compared with the same period of the year previous.

Better Go Home.

That congress made a mess of the Cuban question will not be denied. Either its first course in rallying for belligerency rights was wrong, false, or foundation and dangerous in trend.

The business interests of the United States do not want any new tearing-up of the tariff question.

For Social Purity.

A number of young women of Washington, we are told, have organized the Equal Standard Purity club.

It is further stated that a method of ascertaining the private lives of young men has been devised.

We are not, however, sure about the wisdom of the last clause in the programme of the Equal Standard Purity club.

There is one consolation in the failure of this government to recognize the Cubans as belligerents.

been filed against the government at Madrid, thus materially adding to Spain's embarrassment in the premises.

A bill is being formulated at Washington to assess every civil service office-holder 3 per cent. of his salary to form a fund for the pensioning of superannuated employes.

Once More the Maybrick Case.

One cannot help admiring the persistence of the generous-minded women in this country and in England who believe in the innocence of Mrs. Florence Maybrick and who, undaunted by two refusals by the British government to re-open that celebrated case, propose to carry on the war for what they believe to be justice.

The facts, so far as the public possesses them, leave in the impartial mind scarcely any doubt of Mrs. Maybrick's guilt. Her conviction after a careful trial hedged round with all the safeguards of British jurisprudence, left the English government small option in the matter of ordering a re-opening of the case.

If the senate wants by one final effort to redeem itself, let it pass the Morgan joint resolution recognizing Cuba and have done with all this shilly-shallying.

The positive declaration of ex-Governor Campbell, of Ohio, makes it look more than ever like Whitney's year.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Quay captured Armstrong county, but S. B. Cochrane lost a legislative re-nomination by 300 votes.

Of the 61 Republican national delegates from Pennsylvania, 22 have been chosen, including 10 from Philadelphia.

Senator Plinn says McKinley will have a majority in the senate if Quay in Allegheny county outside of Allegheny City.

Representative George Kunkle, of Dauphin county, who is friendly to Senator Quay, is regarded as a possible candidate for speaker.

Frank Willing Leach threatens, it is said, to carry his fight for the state chairmanship into the convention, whether Quay likes it or not.

The proposition for a direct vote on the presidency at the coming Republican primaries in Montgomery county did not strike the chairman of the county committee with favor.

The anti-Quay Republicans in Lycoming county, who control the machine, contemplate submitting the presidential question to the voters.

The action of the Nineteenth congressional district in declaring for Senator Quay is a precedent of some importance.

It is said to have become a demonstrated fact to the friends and supporters of Reed and Allison that the latter can give no assurance of commanding the votes of any state except his own.

The Philadelphia Press says when it lists County Chairman John H. Thomas as one of the national delegates to this county, it is in error.

Says Mr. Kohlhaas's paper, in bold face type: "The Times-Herald is not committed to any candidate or any party and will not support any man who is not an advocate of honest money."

The situation with regard to Indiana has begun to give the managers of all the candidates more or less alarm.

Chris Magee says that when the Andrews Lexow committee was appointed, he told Senator Quay that the sentiment of the senators was not in favor of such a move.

George V. Lawrence, the veteran legislator from Washington county, has made formal announcement that he is an aggressive, bona fide candidate for the position of congressman-at-large on the Republican ticket.

From now on the presidential contest promises to become lively. Only a little more than one-third of the delegates have been chosen.

Walter Wellman predicts that McKinley will get the following vote on first ballot:

SECRET OF MCKINLEY'S HOLD.

W. S. Curtis, in Chicago Record.

What is the secret of McKinley's popularity? I don't think there is any secret about it.

Governor Morton's "memorandum" accompanying his signature of the Raines bill presents strong arguments in justification.

better, it seems to us, had the excise commission been made judicial in organization and in powers.

Events are moving rapidly in European politics. The declaration of Colonial Secretary Joseph Chamberlain in England's parliament Friday that the Salisbury government had determined to aid Egypt in reconquering the Sudan, sustained as it was by a vote of 288 to 145, brings into view a new center of activity despite the fact that within three months the attention of the world has been successively focussed on Venezuela, Paris, South Africa and Abyssinia.
